

For the Sabbath Recorder. The Blue Laws of Connecticut.

As a sample for those who are now striving in the State of New York to enforce the old "blue laws of Connecticut," or rather the Sunday laws of Constantine, of the fourth century, I will here insert a fact (for all future histories of Connecticut) which came under my own observation.

The testimony of this man. He is of the same kind with the French, and they are just like the rest of us. Their word is no better than the word of an Arab."

The mail party passed about three hundred Mormons, with horses and mules, and well armed; but they would give no information as to where they were going or what they intended doing.

INDULGENCES GRANTED IN HOBOKEN.—The coronation of the new church-picture in Hoboken, N. J., of "Our Lady of Grace," took place on the 20 ult., on which occasion it was officially announced in the Freeman's Journal, that "Those who will be present at the coronation can obtain a Plenary Indulgence, granted by Our Holy Father the Pope for this day."

has been recently condemned to death by the axe, for having falsely and with evil intentions accused Madame de Mendelssohn of incest.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE OF DOUBTFUL IDENTITY.—The particulars of a case of doubtful identity which in some respects throws Townsend M'Henry in the shade.

VERMONT REFORM CONVENTION.—FREE LOVE AND ANTI-SLAVERY DISCUSSIONS.—Rutland, Vt., June 28.—The "Reform Convention" is still in session, and the Vermont Reform Convention has introduced a resolution setting forth that the slavery and degradation of woman proceeds from the institution of marriage, and that, by the marriage contract, she loses control of her name, personal property and labor, affection, children and freedom.

The Utica Herald mentions the death of Patrick Riley. While plowing, his hand came in contact with a nail, and he fell, being before he consulted a physician. At that time his arms were swollen to an immense size, and his limbs and body continued to swell and mortify till death ensued, in spite of the doctors.

Expenses per Term. All bills must be arranged in advance. Ten per cent will be added where payment is deferred till the close of the term.

Romanism in the United States.

It will never do to sleep over the growth of Roman Catholic influence within the bowels of the Republic. Its history in the Old World does not promise well for it in the New.

The slave trade question, and the differences subsisting between Great Britain and the United States with regard to the right of search or visit, had been discussed in Parliament.

GREAT DEPRECIATION IN MANUFACTURING PROPERTY.—The Providence Journal says the print works of Phillip Allen & Sons were sold at auction a few days since for $124,800.

ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS.—Intelligence from Naples states that Vesuvius is in eruption. Four enormous torrents of liquid fire issued from the mountain, rushing down into the plains among the farm-houses, destroying everything in their course.

A chief of the Snake Indians, residing near Utah, lately died, and his relatives, in addition to the killing of his favorite horse over his grave, buried with him, a little boy, of whom the deceased was very fond, in order that he might accompany him to the spirit land.

The location of the Institution, in the village of Alfred, two miles from the Alfred Depot, on the New York and Erie Railroad, is romantic, retired, free from the usual temptations to vice, and one of the healthiest in the world.

In 1808, fifty years ago, there were about 7,000,000 people in the United States, mostly Protestants in name. There were at that time but 1 Romish Diocese, 2 Bishops, 58 Priests, 80 Churches, 2 Ecclesiastical Institutions, 2 Female Academies, and 1 College in the whole land.

Nothing of interest is reported as having occurred in political circles, except an announcement in the Paris Monitor to the effect that France is not arming to a view of warlike contingencies.

AWFUL MURDER.—The correspondent of the Tribune relates the following: "Another of those black-hearted, fiendish and atrocious deeds which cry aloud to heaven for vengeance upon the perpetrators has, from the publicity which has been given to it among the Mormon people, reached us."

ABOUT SO.—A correspondent of the London Times, addressing himself to the editor, says: "If twenty-one of your coasting vessels had been fired into and boarded by an American corvette in the British Channel, I can well imagine the vigorous eloquence with which your pen would announce that the 'insolent Yankee' had been brought into Plymouth Sound under the stern of Her Majesty's ship."

The genealogical history of the early settlers of New England is about to be published in Boston.

THE following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known.

Though the native born element in the Catholic population is great and increasing every year, the foreign element yet greatly predominates. The tide of emigration from the old world has been rapidly swelling for the past fifty years.

THE REMAINS OF EX-PRESIDENT MONROE.—The obsequies of Ex-President Monroe, Friday, in this city were imposing and interesting, and were viewed by a vast concourse of our citizens.

SINGULAR PHENOMENON.—In the Brandon (Miss.) Republican, of Thursday last, we find the following: "We learn from several reliable gentlemen that Mr. Bangh, residing near Strong river, in Smith county, about a month ago, was boring for water in the piney woods, and when he had bored about forty feet, 'a mighty rushing wind' came out of the hole, which continued for several days."

RECEIPTS. All payments for publications of the Society are acknowledged from week to week in the Recorder. Persons sending money, the receipt of which is not duly acknowledged, should give us early notice of the omission.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint, or who has had his bowels straggled with strength again, or who has had the return; see his clammy fetters blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores, who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been denuded inside and out, and his strength is gone; ingenuously suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from every pore; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose agonizing humors have plucked rheumatism in his joints and bones, move him, and he screams with pain; he too has been scathed through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, but they will cure cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face, and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and his strength again; see the new man. See how that man who has withered health and loveliness blossomed out to early old age; want of exercise, or mental anguish, or some lurking disease has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation, or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS, and see the obstruction removed; see her renewed vigor, to cast out the vital principle, infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its vain, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that there are worms in its bowels. Pinch up its nose and ears, and its restless sleeping, and the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows, give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the virtues of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

At eleven o'clock Saturday morning the remains of ex-President Monroe were removed from the City Hall to the steamer Jamestown, under the escort of the Seventh regiment, the Eighth regiment performing duty as a guard of honor. The remains were formally delivered to the Virginia Committee by Honorable John Cochrane, on behalf of the city of New York, in an appropriate and feeling address, which was replied to by O. Jennings Wise, Esq., on the behalf of the Virginians.

LETTER OF AN AMERICAN NOW TRAVELING IN ITALY. "At sunset we reached Gaeta. This place abounds in historical interest, and it was here that the Pope found refuge when he fled from the Republic in 1849. Among the legends of the place is one to the effect that the Pope and the King of Naples, who had come to visit him in his exile, went on board of an American frigate. The commander welcomed them in these terms: 'Pope, how are you? King, how d'ye do? Here, Lieutenant Jones, you speak French; you parley vous with the Pope, you speak the King and I go down and have a drink. King, come on!'"

LIBERALITY OF PHYSICIANS.—It has always been said that physicians would disparage any remedy, however valuable, which they did not originate themselves. This has been disproved by their liberal course towards Dr. J. C. Ayer's preparations. They have adopted them into general use in their practice, which shows a willingness to countenance articles that have intrinsic merits which deserve their attention.

SUMMARY. In the case of the Italian Michael Canemi, tried a second time for the murder of police man Anderson, the jury returned a verdict of guilty. During the trial, a juror was removed from the box, it having been proved that he had attempted to bribe the chief witness for the government to leave the country. On Friday the 18th ult., Patrick Lally, who had been convicted of manslaughter in the second degree, in having on the 18th of February last, caused the death of George Simonsen, was brought up and sentenced, by Judge Story, to the State prison at Sing Sing for five years.

MARRIAGES. In Coloma, Waushara county, Wis., 19th ult., by Eld. H. W. Babcock, Mr. JOHN B. GOWAN and Miss MARIA L. TAYLOR. Also, by the same, at the same time and place, Mr. JEROME SWEET and Miss SOPHONA TAYLOR, all of Coloma.

THE DAMASCUS MOSLEM JUDGE.—His OPINION OF AMERICANS.—In April, 1857, a Moslem Kadi, or judge, came from Damascus, to visit his friend the Moslem judge of Tripoli. When the Tripoli judge went to the medjiss, or court to attend to his daily business, he invited his friend, the Damascus dignitary, to accompany him. On entering the room they sat down together on the elevated cushion, or seat of judgment.

THE largest factory in the United States is that of J. S. & E. A. Abbott, Concord, N. H. The entire premises cover over about four acres of ground. The number of men employed is about 200. Every description of carriage is made, the annual value of which is $300,000. One-fourth of the whole are exported. Mexico, South America, California and Australia are large purchasers. One hundred wagons are now being built for the Pacific Mail Company, to be placed on the route between Memphis and San Francisco.

THE Special Committee of the Board of Health to whom was referred the subject of swill milk nuisance, in spite of the most convincing proof to the contrary, have reported in favor of this system of manufacturing milk. One of the Committee, Mr. Haswell, dissents from all this, and in a minority report, affirms his belief in most of the disgusting statements heretofore presented to the public.

Manual of the Seventh-day Baptists: CONTAINING AN HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE DENOMINATION, AND REASONS FOR EMPHASIZING THE DAY OF THE SABBATH. New York: Published by GEORGE B. UTZER. Price, bound in muslin, 25 cts. This little work meets with much favor, and is attracting a wide circulation. The following extracts will serve as samples of letters which the publisher is daily receiving.

Rev. JOSEPH BELCHER, D.D., author of the "History of Religious Denominations in the United States," biographer of "William Carey," editor of the "Complete Works of Andrew Fuller, Robert Hall," &c., under date of Philadelphia, June 1st, says: "Thank you for your 'Manual.' It is an exceedingly interesting little volume, and more likely to extend your views as a Seventh-day Baptist than anything I have seen. So far as my knowledge goes, I have scarcely been able to detect an error. I shall be glad to see your proposed History of your section of the Denomination. You have much that is interesting which has not been told, either in the Memorial or in Mrs. Davis' History. In my 'Popular History of the Baptists in America,' nearly ready for press, there are two or three facts which, if I should be out first, may possibly serve you. May success attend all your labors of righteousness."

THE case on trial at the time was a difficulty between one of the servants of the French consul, and a Moslem subject of the Sultan. A man stood up to testify on behalf of the French servant. The Damascus judge supposed him to be in the employ of the French, and remarked to his friend, the city judge: "Your excellency, most exalted, it is needless to take the testimony of this man. He is of the same kind with the French, and they are just like the rest of us. Their word is no better than the word of an Arab."

Mr. Lindahl, the editor of the "Fredernes-landet," a newspaper published in Stockholm,

A letter from Eld. JAMES R. IRISH, dated Alfred, N. Y., May 21st, says: "I have received the 'Manual of the Seventh-day Baptists.' It is a beautiful little book, and seems well adapted to answer its design. I hail it as a desideratum, and adapted to do a good work—I trust an extensive work. May it go every where, a messenger of Truth, an arrow from the bow of the Mighty." Copies of the "Manual" will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of the price. Five copies will be put in as many Public Libraries in the name of any person sending one dollar for that purpose. Letters and remittances directed to Geo. B. Utzer, New York, will be at the publisher's risk.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are easier cured. Jaundice, Costive, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Full Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements of the CHERRY PECTORAL cure. Take them perseveringly, and you will be cured by a good Physician if you care; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the disease, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the bowels and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists everywhere. June 10, 1858.

Miscellaneous.

Duty and Kindness.

There was an angry frown on the countenance of Deacon Jonas Browning. There were tears on the sad face of his wife. "He shall be sent to sea!" said Dea. Browning sternly.

was this said. Not the smallest impression did it seem to make upon the boy, who stood with his eyes cast down, an image of stubborn self-will and persistent rebellion.

The deacon went into the next room, and Philip followed him. The deacon sat down, and Philip stood before him. "Philip, my son"—Deacon Browning took the boy's hand in one of his, and looked him full in the face.
