As the reader, Mrs. David Sheppard, related the story of the great lives who had enriched Christendom with their contributions, the young people in turn each touched their candles to the flame of the giant candle before the stage and then lighted one in the candelabra in dedication to the great person's memory.

Miss Kay Lawrence and the Senior Choir furnished appropriate Christmas music. Following the program, candy and fruit were given the children and everyone enjoyed a social time.

On Christmas Eve, three cars full of carolers with their spirited rendition of Christmas music, were able to bring the season's message to many who could not get to Church services. — Correspondent.

GREAT NEWS FROM MILTON!

The clear, exultant voice of Rev. Elmo F. Randolph rang out over the telephone wires between Milton, Wis., and Plainfield, N. J., at 10:50 a.m., E.S.T., January 7. "I have good news for the denomination. Teamwork did this!" he exclaimed.

The facts and figures follow.

Denominational Budget

Budget	receipts-December	$	5.889.39
Special	receipts-December .	••••	2,534.22

Budget receipts-1st quarter$10,026.66 Special receipts-1st quarter 3,514.11

22.9 per cent of present year's budget of $43,825 raised during first quarter of this year.

14.7 per cent of last year's budget of $37,000 raised during first quarter of last year.

43 Churches contributed to the Denominational Budget during December, 1951.

"This is tremendous!" declared Rev. Mr. Randolph. "We need to remember that it is the first quarter of our Denominational Budget year that is covered by this report," he continued. "We must not rest on our laurels. We have made a good beginning and do not want to bog down," Mr. Randolph further declared.

"Just as teamwork has made possible the first quarter's accomplishment, so teamwork is the key to the next three quarters' task of raising the budget in full," he concluded.

"ACT BEFORE CONGRESS ACTS!"

Do you want a United States ambassador to the Vatican? Have you written your Congressmen about the matter?

Do you want Universal Military Training? Have you written your Congressmen about the matter?

"Act Before Congress Acts!" counsels the Christian Century.

MORE ABOUT THE SECOND PLANNING CONFERENCE

Purpose of the Planning Conference Any group which plans for co-operative enterprise will find its work taking on new significance and direction when it sets up and tries to carry out specific purposes. The Second Planning Conference declared its purpose "is not to establish or discuss policies." Its purposes are:

A. Study of

1. Methods of carrying out policies. 2. Opportunities for co-operation.

Exchange of background information valuable to the work of more than one board.

Setting up procedures and responsibilities for co-operative enterprises extending into the area of work of more than one board.

Assigning specific responsibility for items not readily identifiable with the field of work of any denominational agency.

Origin of Planning

Both the Commission and the Planning Conference stressed the fact that this planning is not being done by one group with the idea of its being imposed on the Churches, but that the planning springs from the consecrated faith and practice of our people out in the Churches. As a result of the discussion it was voted that Chairman Elmo F. Randolph organize a group in Milton, Wis., to make an experimental study of materials and methods which might well be used in a Mid-century Appraisal of our position and potential as a people.

The Spirit of Co-operation

Throughout the day's discussion there was outstanding evidence that boards and agencies are sensing afresh the vast possibilities of co-ordination for united action. All representatives of boards and agencies declared their desire to co-operate in the denominational program.

The Planning Conference went on record as endorsing the proposals of the Women's Board that plans be made for summer work and that a workshop be conducted for the women at General Conference in Denver next August.

CONGRATULATIONS, CHURCHES!

"Forty-five of sixty-three Churches have responded to our request for the names and addresses of their members," stated Mrs. Doris Fetherston, president of the Women's Society of the Seventh Day Baptist General Conference, at the opening of the Second Planning Conference held at Plainfield, N. J., December 30, 1951.

This encouraging report is an indication that the Churches are alert to the aggressive forward move toward reorganization and co-ordination which was adopted at the Alfred Conference.

One way to know best our resources in terms of manpower is to know who and where Seventh Day Baptists are. From time to time there have been attempts to establish an up-to-date list for purposes of direct mailing and mutual encouragement in co-operative endeavor. At the September 30th Planning Conference the compiling of such a list and making it available for use within the denomination was accepted by the Women's Society of the General Conference.

A master list which would become available for use within the denomination should make it unnecessary for pastors or Church clerks to be asked to furnish more than one list. It is to be expected, however, that changes necessary to keep the list up to date would be made at least every six months.

The Churches and the Women's Society of General Conference are to be congratulated upon the success of this co-operative project thus far. A one hundred per cent participation on the part of the Churches would be a genuinely vitalizing factor in the denominational program. If all concerned understand that one list will serve all denominational purposes, the burden of furnishing such a list will be made much lighter for pastors and Church clerks.

I. Hargis, Alfred L. Davis, Frank R. Kellogg, and Hurley S. Warren. The Conference was opened with prayer by Rev. Ronald I. Hargis and the closing prayer was offered by Rev. Elmo F. Randolph, chairman.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WEEK -YOUTH WEEK

CHURCH NEWS

VERONA, N. Y. — Our Christmas program was given in the Church auditorium Sabbath morning, December 22. Superintendent Olin Davis was the announcer and Duane Davis was in charge. A large, beautiful picture of the Christ child in the manger, the shepherds, and the wise men, given by the Helpers Sabbath School Class, was placed on the front wall of the Church and an artistically decorated Christmas tree stood in one corner.

A program of recitations and exercises by the children, and music was presented. The children all acted their parts very nicely and much credit is due the teachers who trained them.

Mrs. Orville Williams, dressed in a white star-spangled gown, impersonated the Spirit of Christmas. She read several selections foretelling the coming of the Christ child, and at intervals the choir sang special Christmas songs. Following this, the White Christmas offerings were presented by the different Sabbath school classes. Duane Davis pronounced the benediction. The congregation remained seated while the gifts from the tree were distributed by several little helpers.

We will be very glad to welcome our new pastor, Rev. Victor Skaggs, and his family on January 1. The society has been preparing the parsonage for their

CHICAGO, ILL. — The Chicago Church observed the holiday season with a children's program at the worship service on December 15. The children of the Sabbath school presented a pageant depicting the story of the Nativity as told in Matthew and Luke. Those participating were Margaret, Richard, Jimmie, and Lee Dominguez, Tom and Dick Bond, Linda, Harriet, and Billy McCorkel. Mrs. Anne Post Bergh was in charge of music and costuming; Mrs. Jeanne Williams, teacher of the juniors, compiled the script and directed the recitations; Mrs. Agnes Post Schertz was narrator and accompanist. A Christmas story told by Mrs. Williams climaxed the program.

Christmas hymns, junior and adult sermons, and solos comprised the Christmas service on December 22. Pastor Williams' junior message was "Christ Before Presents," and the adult sermon, "Let Us Now Go Even unto Bethlehem." Mrs. Bergh sang "Jesu Bambino" and "Birthday of a King," and Mrs. Williams sang "Wonderful Peace." A trumpet solo, "The Holy City," was played by Pastor David Williams during the offertory.

Gifts were placed beneath a large, lighted, snow-laden tree, and were distributed following Sabbath school. Besides the gifts received by the children, Tom Bond was given a wrist watch for memorizing 100 Bible verses. All other gifts which originally had been planned as an exchange among the adults, proved to be marked "For the Williamses." -Lilian C. Webster, Correspondent.

BATTLE CREEK, MICH. — The Christmas cantata, "The Nativity," by Roger Wilson, was presented by the choir at the worship service December 15, under the direction of Dr. Ellis Johanson. Those taking solo parts were Dr. B. F. Johanson, Dr. and Mrs. LeRoy DeLand, Mrs. George Parrish, Mrs. Arnold Davis, and Arthur Millar.

The following Sabbath the pastor gave a special Christmas message, "He Came into the World." The children gave a short dramatization of the story of the Nativity during the Sabbath school hour.

About 20 young people went caroling on the night after the Sabbath, December 22, to the homes of shut-ins, after which they enjoyed a chili supper at the parsonage.

The annual Christmas program was given Sunday night, December 23, with a cast of about 50, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. George Parrish. Mr. and Mrs. Claire Merchant took the parts of Joseph and Mary, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler represented Simeon and Anna, and Dr. Ellis Johanson, Isaiah. The serv-

During the week preceding and including Christmas, special Christmas music was broadcast from the Church over the loud-speaker recently installed by the Pro-Con (young adult) group.

Three groups gave Christmas baskets which were much appreciated by the recipients.

Another Christmas has come and gone, and we have been thrilled with its beautiful music and its message of love to the world. - Mrs. W. B. Lewis, Correspondent.

ASHAWAY, R. I. — On Thursday evening, December 20, the children of the graded department of the Sabbath school presented a Christmas program in the Sabbath school rooms. Recitations, carol singing, a playlet by the junior girls, and a living picture of the manger scene by the nursery class made up the interesting program. At the close of the program, gifts, candy, and oranges were distributed.

Twenty members of the Church and community blended their voices in perfect harmony to bring an inspiring Christmas concert on Sunday evening, December 23. There was a large attendance to enjoy the beautiful music of our Saviour's birth. Soloists included Ira Murphy, Albert Wilson, Mrs. Harry Moone, and George Albrecht. The Misses Myra Wells, Barbara Waite, Phyllis and Shirley Kenyon comprised a girls' quartet that rendered special selections. Passages of Scripture of the Christmas story were read by the pastor, and the congregation joined in singing several carols. Miss Susan Murphy was at the organ with Mrs. Dwight Wilson directing the choir.

The Church was a beautiful setting for the concert with candles, poinsettias, and greens adorning the platform. The program was broadcast to the community through our amplifier system. The generous offering given was used for Christmas baskets for the sick and shut-ins. --Mrs. Raymond Kenyon, Correspondent.

DODGE CENTER, MINN. — Pastor and Mrs. Earl Cruzan and family left December 16 for their new pastorate in Adams Center, N. Y. The week prior a farewell party was held for them. Many, other than our own Church people, attended. The Cruzans will be sorely missed in the community as they were very active in the PTA, Boy Scouts, and other worthwhile organizations. We have come to love them and will miss them in countless ways for they have been tireless workers in everything we have done since they came to us. Vacation Bible School, Junior C. E., and Young Adult Fellowship have all been organized largely through their efforts. We heartily bid them Godspeed in their new work and hope they will visit us often. We feel truly blest to have been able to secure another pastor so soon. Rev. Kenneth Van Horn and family, now pastor at Albion, Wis., will move here in June. The sanctuary of the Church is being refloored largely through the proceeds of the Lord's Acre program this year.

We are happy to announce that we paid up the Memorial Fund loan which we obtained to help finance our new basement about five years ago. Our everincreasing Lord's Acre projects and the program for blood donors at the Mayo Clinic largely paid this loan and the rest of the cost of the basement. The program for blood donors has been discontinued.

Special mention should be made of the splendid work of Rev. and Mrs. Francis Saunders in conducting evangelistic meetings in October. Their musical talents and Rev. Mr. Saunders' soul-stirring sermons did us all much good. They have won a place in our hearts and we wish to express our thanks again.

We need a special interest in your prayers as we face the next six months without a leader. May we prove ever faithful. — Ardith Greene, Reporter.

LITTLE GENESEE, N. Y. — The Church at Little Genesee held their annual meeting the first of October, 1951, at which time they accepted the resignation of their pastor, Rev. Victor W. Skaggs, with regret. The prayers and best wishes of the congregation and community go with

During the summer, the auditorium of the Church was redecorated and beauty greets one as he enters. Efforts are being made to redecorate the vestibule and classrooms.

The Sunshine Society of the community served the annual Harvest Festival Supper to a large crowd, the last of October. The proceeds from that and the bazaar, held at the same time, netted a substantial sum towards the further redecorating.

On November 3, the Churches of the Western Association were represented at a service at the Little Genesee Church when four candidates were ordained to the diaconate.

On November 28, a sacred concert, presented by Carl Coleman, organist from Buffalo, was held in the Church.

On Friday evening, December 14, a community chorus presented a Christmas cantata, "Led by a Star," to an approving audience. It was conducted by our Church chorister, Mrs. Leta De Groff.

We were so glad that the General Conference of the past summer convened so near us as many were able to attend and enjoy its sessions.

And so, our interest and our prayers continue for the advancement of our beloved denomination, and our people who are praying for a world of peace, in His name. — Lucy Champlin, Correspondent.

ALFRED, N. Y. — On the night before Thanksgiving, November 21, the combined Churches of Alfred assembled at the Village Church for the service of thanksgiving and praise. A choir of fifty members, directed by Mrs. S. R. Scholes, rendered beautiful and appropriate numbers. The sermon of the evening, delivered by Dr. Wayne R. Rood, was outstanding and greatly appreciated.

One of the most sacred and impressive services in the Alfred Church was the "Christmas Baptism," on Friday evening, December 21. The soft candelabra lighting of the flower-bordered baptistry, the singing by the congregation, and the appropriate words by the pastor for each candidate made it an inspirational occasion. The candidates were all adults ----Miss Helen Thomas, Miss Doris Simpson, Mrs. Kenneth Snyder, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Thomas.

At the Church service on the following morning those baptized were received into membership as was also Mrs. Lavern Kenyon. Appreciated musical numbers at this Christmas service were the pipe organchime solo by Dr. Wingate, two duets on pipe organ and piano by Dr. Wingate and Dr. R. O. Hitchcock, Mrs. Perry Jacob's "Subteen Choir" of boys and girls in white gowns and red Christmas caps, and anthems by the regular choir with solos by Gene Van Horn, Mrs. Eleanor Sisson, and Miss Roberta Glover.

On Sunday night, December 23, a Christmas program was given in the Church by the combined Church groups: Seventh Day Baptist, Union University, and the Episcopal Churches, after which all were invited to the large primary room in the parish house for the White Christmas offerings and refreshments.

We must not close this report without telling you of how the Davis Carillon of Ancient Bells echoed through the Alfred hills at midnight on Christmas Eve beginning with "Joy to the World" and ending with "Oh, Come All Ye Faithful." Also, the new year was ushered in with appropriate selections played by our Dr. Ray Wingate, president of the "Carillonneurs of America." - Mrs. Ben R. Crandall, Correspondent.

The first society of Christian Endeavor was organized by the late Dr. Francis E. Clark in the Williston Congregational Church, Portland, Me., February 2, 1881. From this original group with 57 members the Christian Endeavor idea swiftly spread around the world with thousands of cocieties containing millions of members coming into being. Other Church youth organizations have since been formed along the pattern set by Christian Endeavor. — Public Relations Department, International Society of Christian Endeavor, adapted.
