

will be but the beginning of the new campaign in Kentucky. A letter from Sharpsburg to the Philadelphia Inquirer says: It has been semi-officially stated that our loss in the battle of Antietam was 9,200 killed, wounded and missing, and the loss of the battle field, must have exceeded 15,000.

train proceeded on its way. The weather was quite foggy, and when within a mile of the bridge, a short distance from this city, the train suddenly came upon an engine standing on the track. The engine attached to the troop train immediately reversed, but it was too late to prevent a collision, and the two engines came together with terrific force. The first car immediately behind the tender attached to the troop train was crushed into fragments, and nearly all of its occupants either killed or wounded.

There was little business doing in Australia. A royal commission had been appointed to report on the prospects of gold mining. Three thousand pounds, the proceeds of a subscription in behalf of the needy Lancashire operatives, have been remitted to England. New Zealand is still unsettled. The Maories will not accept the terms of peace offered to them.

The correspondent of the New York Commercial says that officers of the army are almost unanimous in their approval of the President's emancipation proclamation. Even those friends of Mr. Lincoln who have been of the opinion that a proclamation could have no practical effect, cordially agree with him in thinking that within the next hundred days the aspect of affairs may be materially changed, and that the people of the South may be led to see that unless they return to their allegiance, their peculiar institution is doomed.

There were two suicides in the town of Essex last week. On Friday morning Mr. Nathaniel Burnham, 75 years of age, killed himself, and on Saturday afternoon Mr. Daniel Norton, 76 years of age, hung himself. Both had been suffering under a depression of spirits for some time.

G. B. & J. H. UTTER, POWER PRINTERS, AND PUBLISHERS, WESTERLY, R. I. Are prepared to do every kind of JOB PRINTING, FROM A CARD TO A BOOK. Their Type and Presses are new and in perfect order, and their motto is, "Neat, Quick, and Cheap."

SHOCKING RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A dispatch from Harrisburg Pa., dated September 26, says: A troop train consisting of twenty freight cars, containing the 20th Regiment of Pennsylvania Militia, while on its way from Newmarket, this forenoon, met with a terrible disaster. The train was behind time, and waiting for the other trains to pass, but none having come along as expected, the troop train proceeded on its way. The weather was quite foggy, and when within a mile of the bridge, a short distance from this city, the train suddenly came upon an engine standing on the track. The engine attached to the troop train immediately reversed, but it was too late to prevent a collision, and the two engines came together with terrific force.

There was little business doing in Australia. A royal commission had been appointed to report on the prospects of gold mining. Three thousand pounds, the proceeds of a subscription in behalf of the needy Lancashire operatives, have been remitted to England.

The correspondent of the New York Commercial says that officers of the army are almost unanimous in their approval of the President's emancipation proclamation. Even those friends of Mr. Lincoln who have been of the opinion that a proclamation could have no practical effect, cordially agree with him in thinking that within the next hundred days the aspect of affairs may be materially changed.

There were two suicides in the town of Essex last week. On Friday morning Mr. Nathaniel Burnham, 75 years of age, killed himself, and on Saturday afternoon Mr. Daniel Norton, 76 years of age, hung himself.

G. B. & J. H. UTTER, POWER PRINTERS, AND PUBLISHERS, WESTERLY, R. I. Are prepared to do every kind of JOB PRINTING, FROM A CARD TO A BOOK. Their Type and Presses are new and in perfect order, and their motto is, "Neat, Quick, and Cheap."

Miscellaneous.

IMPERISHABLE.

The pure, the bright, the beautiful, That stirred our hearts in youth...

JAPANESE MANUFACTURES,

That portion of the Exhibition building devoted to Japan contains a small but curious collection of specimens of the arts and manufactures of that country...

genius; she now speaks English well, and has a great talent for music. She has won the affections, with but few exceptions, of all who have known her...

ANIMAL ADAPTATION.

Throughout the animal creation, the adaptation of the color of the creature to its haunts, is worthy of admiration as tending to its preservation.

in society is to assert himself. Is there a good place at table? Take it. At the treasury or home office? Ask for it.

SCENES IN OUR HOSPITALS.

Who shall describe with "thoughts that breathe and words that burn," in language that shall compress a volume into a sentence, a sentence into a word, the agony of mind and body...

and who is going soon to buckle on his armor for the cause of his country, will treasure the hints I have thrown out...

PASSING THOUGHTS.

When that ruined woe was innocent—for that he was once—when temptation came, and he was just about to take the first downward step to destruction...

tance often of one hundred feet, and yet was penetrated but twice, and neither time did the shot come entirely through.

A DUST STORM IN INDIA.

We have had the most terrific dust storm I have ever seen. It quite passes all description. At first some light clouds appeared on the horizon, and then gradually rose into huge billows of dust-colored cloud.

THE DRAFTING TROUBLES OF A SMALL TOWN.—A Hartford paper says that in Andover, the smallest town in the State of Connecticut...

GENERAL RENO'S LAST WORDS.

When Gen. Reno fell, Gen. Sturgis was within a few yards of him. He was in command of the division formerly commanded by Reno...

THE DRAFTING TROUBLES OF A SMALL TOWN.—A Hartford paper says that in Andover, the smallest town in the State of Connecticut...

ODDS AND ENDS.

A correspondent of the London Athenaeum recently asked for a rhyme to the word "step," asserting that there was no fair rhyme for it—as Lord Byron proclaimed the impossibility of rhyming silver.

The Recorder, published for the Proprietor by E. G. Champlin, at No. 100 N. Main St., Boston, Mass. For the Proprietor, E. G. Champlin, Boston, Mass. For the Editor, E. G. Champlin, Boston, Mass.