With devout thanks to God for his mercies during the past year, we invoke the divine blessing upon your anniversary gathering, praying that it may be harmonious, full of interest and good fruit, thus honoring God, and binding more closely in Christian fellowship those churches composing the Association, and thus adding vigor and strength to the denomination.

As a church, we are striving to hold fast the "commandments of God." and the "faith once delivered." Yet we sometimes fear, that if the charge once made against the church of Laodicea were preferred against us, we could hardly justify our position. Two things are indispensable to make the paper go. One is, that those among us who are qualified to write for it, should make a business of doing so. If twenty-five or fifty such persons would make it a matter of conscience to forward an article brethren have offered to take from paper to every Sabbath-school scholar. OUT AGAIN. - In the RECORDER of April 16th, we noticed that on the 9th of that month, at Portland, Me. Mr. Charles Potter, Jr., had the miswere immediately set, and in a days he was removed to his home in Westerly. It was afterward decided that amputation was necessary, and on the 21st of April the limb was taken off about half way to the knee. We are glad to see that Mr. Potter is now so far recovered as to be able to ride out for an hour or two each day, and confidence is felt in his entire and speedy recovery.
