WAR NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Everything goes on encouragingly at Charleston. The position of Gen. Gillmore on Morris Island is stronger and safer than ever.

On the night of August 4th Capt. L. S. Paine, of the 100th New York Volunteers, with a detachment of his men, while on a scout near Lighthouse creek, was captured by the rebels, with all his men.

The members of the church and friends present felt that the time had come for the church to reunite with the Association, and thus in harmony labor for the prosperity of our common cause.

CUSSEWAGO, PA.—We are pleased to learn of an improving state of things in the church at Cussewago, Pa.

The old regiments in the Potomac army are being rapidly filled up with conscripts from some of the Northern States.

INTERESTING FROM THE SOUTH.

The Boston Traveller publishes some interesting information gathered from returned prisoners who have just reached that city from Richmond.

ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE.

The official report of General Grant presents a fine account of the operations of the Army of the Tennessee, from the day that he assumed immediate command of the expedition against Vicksburg to the surrender of that place.

taken, either by their men or their vessels. A dispatch from San Francisco, dated the 11th August, says that serious apprehensions of an uprising of secessionists in the northern counties of California are entertained.

A Memphis dispatch of the 9th says: "A company of citizen scouts, numbering about sixty men, organized in Northern Alabama in June last, are resisting the rebel conscription, and have thus far evaded every effort to capture them."

A special dispatch from St. Paul, Minnesota, says that General Sibley has fought three battles with Indians, killing 50. Our loss is 7. The Indians have been driven across the Missouri river with a great loss of life.

The draft in Ohio has been postponed until the return of Governor Tod from Washington, whether he has gone, it is presumed, to settle some important questions relative to the conscription.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

Our relations with the French government, in connection with its recent policy in Mexico, are occupying the serious and earnest attention of the government at Washington.

GROVER & BAKER'S SEWING MACHINES. 485 Broadway, New York. J. P. BURDICK, WESTLEY, & CO., TRAVELING AGENTS.

The machines manufactured by the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company have sold more than the FINEST MADE in the world. Fairly sold in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, and California.

Experience proves that there are only two kinds of Sewing Machines: Grover & Baker's and all others. These machines have each their peculiar merits and their own distinctive advantages. The one is just as good as the other, and a selection should always be made accordingly.
