

General Intelligence.

WAR NEWS OF THE WEEK.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Since General Hooker took the place of General Burnside, as commander of the Army of the Potomac, the former has been hard at work in forming his staff, and arranging a campaign.

The Washington Star says it is understood that Gen. Hooker has already chalked out, and that with the very first opportunity for breaking the mud blockade, he will enter upon its active development.

The storm of last week was very severe in the vicinity of Falmouth, rendering operations there quite difficult, if not altogether impossible.

During the night of Jan. 26th, the federal pickets near Fairfax Court-house were driven in by some of Stuart's cavalry, wounding one and capturing nine.

North Carolina. Newbern letters of Jan. 22d, inform us that the Third New York Cavalry have recently achieved important successes in some of the eastern counties of North Carolina, utterly dispersing several gangs of guerillas.

It is asserted, on the authority of a letter from Newbern, dated January 22d, that there are now sixty Union regiments in North Carolina. The great expedition, of which frequent hints have lately reached us, is under way.

On the 29th of January, Gen. Corcoran obtained a victory over the rebel, General Pryor, near the Blackwater River, in North Carolina. It appears that on the night of the 28th, Pryor crossed the Blackwater with 3 regiments of infantry, 4 detached battalions of infantry, 900 cavalry, and 14 pieces of artillery.

On the 26th of January, there were collected at Beaufort some sixty large army steam transports, having on board some 70,000 soldiers. There were also in the harbor 150 schooners loaded with artillery, ammunition, &c., which, together with the transports, would leave for Port Royal to join the naval fleet as soon as they could get ready.

On the 31st of December, the Southern Confederacy had outstanding $410,485,092 in Treasury Notes and $145,250,770 in stocks and bonds. The Confederate Congress is discussing plans for peace; but has great trouble in agreeing to do with New England.

ans and war Democrats, were in full communication and sympathy with the rebels and plotting to go over to them. Some of the officers and men really deserted to the enemy. It was ascertained by means of a spy that the officers and men had told the rebels in the vicinity of Holly Springs that they did not want to see the South whipped, but wished the seceded States to get their independence; that they desired to be taken prisoners; and that they entered the first opportunity to be taken prisoners; and that they entered the first opportunity to be taken prisoners; and that they entered the first opportunity to be taken prisoners.

A skirmish took place recently, near Murfreesboro, in which three federal regiments scattered a body of rebels. Our loss was two killed and nine wounded, while the rebels had their colonel and thirty others killed, and one hundred taken prisoners.

Arkansas. Col. Harris telegraphs from Fayetteville, Arkansas, the success of a scouting expedition just returned from Van Buren, having captured the steamer Julia Roan and 300 prisoners, about two hundred of whom were paroled.

It is evident that the fate of Vicksburg is only temporarily delayed. A dispatch from Cairo, dated Jan. 29th, says that Gen. McClelland's forces have landed on the Louisiana side of the Mississippi, two miles below the mouth of the Yazoo, and in full view of Vicksburg.

Gen. Hamilton of Texas has arrived in New Orleans, and is now in Washington incog. He left New Orleans on Friday, having come from New Orleans in the steamer on Thursday, all the way incog.

Firewood is selling in Nashville at forty dollars per cord. The Union says several houses have been torn down for fuel, and some of the citizens are using their fencing for the same purpose.

The people of Central Ohio are preparing to raise a large quantity of flax the coming season. It is said the present price of flaxseed will fully reimburse for the whole labor and cost of raising a crop of flax, and with a vast amount of land in the state uncultivated by any other crop, probably the people cannot in any other way better improve their time.

Rebel letters captured at Murfreesboro disclose a feeling of discouragement and dissatisfaction in that region. Their frequent retreats are bad, slaves are escaping, the army is not paid, the laws discriminate in favor of large slaveholders, the general confidence in some of their chief officers is shaken, and they can get no salt except from the Yankees.

The Washington Republican says that Mrs. Lincoln has contributed more than any other lady in Washington, from her private purse, to alleviate the sufferings of our wounded soldiers; and that day by day her carriage is seen in front of the hospitals, where she distributes with her own hands delicacies prepared in the kitchen of the White House.

Richmond papers to Jan. 27th contain various items of general interest. It is stated that on the 31st of December, the Southern Confederacy had outstanding $410,485,092 in Treasury Notes and $145,250,770 in stocks and bonds.

Dr. Robert De Lambelle, a distinguished physician in Paris, announces that a shock of electricity given to a patient dying from the effects of chloroform immediately counteracts its influence and restores the sufferer to life.

It is reported in late Victoria papers, that one thousand Indians have died on Vancouver's Island, of small pox, within two or three months, and it is believed that this disease will nearly exterminate the race there.

There are now in the hospitals of Washington, Georgetown and Alexandria upwards of thirty thousand sick and wounded soldiers, of whom about two-thirds are from the State of New York.

Experiment has shown that cotton can be cultivated in California, while in Utah cotton raising has become quite a business, 70,000 pounds of very superior quality having been grown last year.

A little girl eight years of age, died of starvation in Brooklyn, last week. The parents and a little sister were found nearly dead from the same cause.

Harriet A. McLaughlin, of Chicago, asks for a divorce from Henry A. her husband. She is only fourteen years old, and has been married but a single month.

A letter in the New York Post says there is a great deal of sickness in Washington at the present time. Small pox, diphtheria, and scarlet fever prevail extensively.

It is estimated that when the machinery of internal revenue collection is in full operation, the weekly income will be three millions of dollars.

A poor but honest store-cutter in Port Byron, Conn., recently received intelligence that a fortune of $300,000 in gold is awaiting his order at the bank of Dublin.
