HOW'S THAT? Great truths are to be bought. The common truth, such as men give and take for nothing...

your sight—I who was crucified by your ancestors. After which the cloud concealed him from their sight.

many ate the passages in the Koran in which they are anathematized. The political state of affairs in the time of Mahomet was peculiarly favorable for the propagation of his faith and power.

DISCIPLINE

The young man weeping also proceeded. "I have not quite recovered all yet. I am one of the sons of that widow and I shall ever bless God for that tract, for, by reading it, my feet were directed in the way to heaven."

WHEN IS THE TIME TO DANCE?

In nearly every instance recorded in the Scriptures, dancing, was performed as a joyous exercise. As proof of this assertion, I will cite the following passages found in the Word of God...

SELLING OLD THINGS.

Sell that old table? No; I'll not sell it! It's only a piece of wood, that's true; and it cost but a few shillings...

ANSWER TO PRAYER.

"A wealthy farmer, known and respected in the neighborhood, owned a very valuable and profitable tract of land..."

THE KORAN.

THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT WAS FOUNDED UPON IT. No one can rightly understand the moral, social, political, or religious condition of the Moslems, unless he has attentively studied the life and character of Mahomet, and become thoroughly acquainted with the doctrines and spirit of the Koran.

CHAPTER II.

At the Time of Mahomet. Some time previous to the birth of Mahomet, the Christian world had been distracted with unnumbered heresies, schisms and contentions; and the theological genius of the age drew many away from the simple teachings of Christ into the interminable intricacies of scholastic disputation...

SEED BY THE WAY SIDE.

We knew a Christian man once, who made it a principle to speak on the subject of personal religion to every one with whom he was brought in contact for any length of time. It needs much wisdom and Christian tact to carry out such a resolution without giving offence; but every one who sows seed by the wayside may hope to gather in a good harvest in the end.

THE PERIPEAS.

The Peri peas, a species of the cucumber, is very common in the West Indies, and is much valued by the natives for its medicinal properties. It is said to be a powerful purgative, and is used in various parts of the world for the treatment of various diseases.

A HINT FOR THE TIMES.

In these days, almost everybody is talking about the increased expense of living, and some of our exchanges are agitating the question whether the compensation of ministers ought not to be increased to correspond with the diminished value of money.

LAYING ON OF HANDS.

As an apology for introducing to the readers of the Recorder this subject, I will say that at a meeting a few days since, baptism having been performed, prayer and imposition of hands were attended to, by ministers not originally Seventh-day Baptists.

ALFRED UNIVERSITY.

The Tenth Anniversary of the Academy at Albion, Wis., was held in the Grove of the Institution, on Fourth-day, June 23d. On the First-day evening previous, the annual sermon had been preached by Rev. D. E. Maxson, of Milton.

Churches should not wait for their ministers to ask for increase of salary; they should anticipate any request by doing for him what they do for other laborers, and what circumstances are doing for them.

Thus we have the object of the rite, which was the reception of the Spirit. Whether, in the primitive church, such as had received the Holy Ghost before baptism, received imposition of hands after baptism, is not shown.

Miscellaneous.

DESTRUCTION OF POMPEII. On the 24th of August, A. D. 79, the town of Pompeii was buried in a mass of ashes, pumice-stones, and hardened mud, to which subsequent eruptions, occurring at intervals during eighteen centuries, added fresh materials.

SIXTEEN YEARS before, indeed, an earthquake of extraordinary violence had shaken the foundations of the temple, the forum, and other public buildings, had overturned their statues, and thrown down the walls of many a humble dwelling, and had even upset parts of the more solid edifices of the town.

THE DEEPER student of nature, read in this very soil the history of the mountain itself. It told him of fires once active, and that in some distant age, that quiet, verdure-clad summit, was a destructive volcano, which had overwhelmed with lava and ashes the country at its foot.

POMPEII had been founded long before the Romans had extended their empire to the Tiberian Sea. It might have been built by the Etruscans, or by a colony from Umbria, or by the Romans themselves. It is difficult to say.

THE INHABITANTS, moreover, were engaged in the struggle of an election of their municipal officers. New sedges, and dunnivri, were to be chosen for the town. Influential citizens were canvassing for favor, and candidates, and party spirit ran high.

Suddenly, and without any previous warning, a vast column of black smoke burst from the overhanging heights in the cloudless summer sky, like the head of some mighty Italian giant, hiding the sun, and over-shadowing the earth for many a league.

THE MISERABLE INHABITANTS who survived the catastrophe returned, after the eruption had ceased, to the site of their buried homes. Many dug into the ruins to find the property they had abandoned in their flight.
