Now it is not in point here to inquire whether our author's interpretation of these passages is correct, but whether it is consistent with the proposition he is discussing...

First, it is not relevant, it is not pertinent to the matter in hand; it does not apply to the proposition under discussion...

Just here is the initial and pervasive degradation of all secret organizations, from which all the other degradations and corruptions are but the legitimate offspring.

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND NECESSARILY PROTESTANT.—A writer in the Evangelical Christian, for August, says: "The truth is, that the most comprehensive Church on earth, if it be a church at all, must have limits."

It is said to be an historic fact, that many noble natures have been unable to overcome the deep sense of degradation which they have experienced in coming to the point of taking the initial oath...

Now, if this is the best our author can do, it is evident he will not succeed at sleight-of-hand. The change in his reasoning, from fact to fiction, is very marked...

Miscellaneous

REMARKABLE PERSONAL HISTORY. A Chicago correspondent of the New York Evening Post gives to this paper the following account of the life of Henry Kesner, one of the most prominent railroad men in the country...

when standing on the "foot-board" it was with difficulty that we could reach each other. My only hope was that my stiffening fingers would hold for the remainder of the journey...

CHINESE STREET JUGGLERS. A letter from China to the Chicago Tribune says: "Street jugglers and mountebanks abound in Canton and in fact in every Chinese city..."

THE MANAGING WOMAN. To be a good housekeeper is one of the most essential and useful accomplishments; and the man who as a husband neglects his wife's education in this respect has not been neglected, combined with a mild confiding and loving disposition...

RIE AND HOW TO OOK IT. This tropical production is not always a favorite, but often from being spoiled in cooking than otherwise. Rice should be put in warm water to swell, on the top of the stove on a moderate fire, where it will not boil, for an hour or so; then put to boil in salted water for fifteen minutes...

FREAKS OF A SLEEP WALKER. A remarkable case of somnambulism occurred recently, in Cleveland, Ohio, on St. Clair street, a short distance from the city hall...

GATHERING FRUIT. The appearance and the value of fruit depends very much upon when and how it is gathered. Strawberries, if picked carefully, with half or quarter of an inch of stem attached to each berry, and laid carefully in a shallow pan...

BURSTING OF A GLACIER. A correspondent of one of the London papers gives the following account of a singular occurrence at Chamounix, Savoy, on July 23: "At ten minutes to five a dark cloud overshadowed the valley of Chamounix, a peal of thunder was heard, and then a continuous roar that awakened every soul in the village..."

A wagoner passing a store, was asked what he had in his wagon. He replied: "A circle complete. Three-fourths of a cross, and a circle complete. A rectangle triangle standing on feet; a triangle triangle standing on feet; a circle complete is an O. An upright where two semi-circles meet is an A. A triangle standing on feet is an A. Two semi-circles are CO, and a circle is O. Tobacco is what was in the wagon."

In the olden times, when pastors spoke right out in the pulpit, "spoke" is a verb. I have seen a sign in the window of a shop in New York City that read: "Neighborly, it is to your reproach that you have disturbed the worship by coming late, living as you do within a mile of this place, and especially as a minister of the Gospel..."

The Chinese understood the science of making paper money pass current, for during the Ming dynasty the government notes bore this endorsement: "At the position of the treasurer board it is ordained that the imperial seal of the Ming shall have currency, and be used in all respects as if it were copper money; whoever disobeys shall have his head cut off."

It is a citizen of Newark who has constructed a patent safety coffin, intended to provide a way of escape for those who have been buried in a coffin without an exit. He proposes to live an exhibition of the principles which his design embodies, by allowing himself to be buried in it, and after remaining covered with earth for two hours, rising without any assistance.

The late Queen of Madagascar was buried in a silver casket worth $200,000. It was a box of coin, which she took fifteen men to carry, was buried with her. The mourning requires all her subjects to shave their heads and go barefoot for ninety days. They must also sleep on the ground and do no work for that time.

A lady who lives at a cross-road near Millington has a very peculiar way of traveling. She has a horse and carriage, and she travels with a driver and a servant. She has a very peculiar way of traveling. She has a horse and carriage, and she travels with a driver and a servant.
