THE LAW AND THE GOSPEL. A SERMON BY REV. L. C. ROGERS. Matt. 5: 17-19. "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets..."

eclesiastical law, by obeying it he completed it, so did he the State law by obeying it as long as he was a subject of it. He obeyed all such laws as they ought to be obeyed...

ing which, if it but withheld the permission of sound scholarship, would be eagerly seized upon, and paraded in the front of this controversy between the friends and opponents of the Law of God...

ed by a large and deeply affected congregation, who felt that a mighty one in Israel had fallen. Frederick William Krummacker was the most distinguished of a distinguished family...

DR. WATTS. Dr. Watts was never married. He was once in love with the beautiful and accomplished Miss Elizabeth Singer, afterward Mrs. Rowe.

DESPAIR because all other remedies failed, but try this, and you will not fail. It is a sure cure for all kinds of coughs and colds...

Christ's mission to earth was greatly misunderstood by many of his contemporaries, and by some was grossly misrepresented. He came to the Jewish people, both the laic and ecclesiastical, with the aim of which most frequent and serious misunderstanding arose. Christ did not meet the expectations of his carnally-minded contemporaries...

1. A general truth. Christ, in the text, speaks of "the law and the prophets." "Think not that I am come to destroy" these; but he adds, in a sentence that is not less striking, "but to fulfill them."

in the discussion thus far, we have seen how completely justified Christ was in saying, with respect to the ecclesiastical and political law of the Old Testament, that he was not come to destroy, but to fulfill them.

HOW TO BREAK DOWN A CHURCH. To do this effectually, you must— I. Discourage the pastor. II. Discourage your fellow-members. III. Destroy the confidence of the community.
