PUBLISHED BY GEORGE B. UTTER. THIRD FIFTH DAY IS THE SABBATH OF THE LORD THY GOD. TERMS—$2 50 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. VOLUME XXV—NO. 18. WESTERLY, R. I., FIFTH-DAY, APRIL 29, 1869. WHOLE NO. 1266.

ple—'is incorrect, as it would not apply to Adam's soul, he being a soul before any such principle existed in him. He must have been in the condition before the breath of life was breathed into him...

ter, in the formation of which he had nothing to do, and hence is not responsible for. Who, then, is to blame for his being a Creator? Must it not rest upon his Creator? But if this principle be correct, then it must apply to God as well as to man...

It was my privilege, in the summer of 1867, to spend several weeks on the Isle of Wight; and one of the most delightful features of my visit to that charming spot, was its associations with that devoted Christian, the late Rev. Richard D. Webb...

THE TIMELY REB-IDE. The following remarkable account of the deliverance of the inhabitants of Holland from the terrors of an invading force, is quoted from the second book of Bishop Burnet's 'History of His Own Times'...
