

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The fact that there are no Hebrews...

The Kentucky University, which receives for its Agricultural College...

Dr. Cummings says the tribulation is coming which was foretold by the prophet Haggar...

The American Home Mission Society has organized the past year 45 churches...

Rev. James M. Estabrook, D. D., a veteran minister of the well-known church in New York...

Father Taylor lately expressed his opinion of a distinguished fellow-countryman: Ralph Waldo Emerson...

Lines in the North of Europe. The wonderful work of grace in progress since January in West Union, Dallas county, West Virginia...

The Sunday school of the First church, Chelsea, Mass., with 496 scholars and 40 teachers, celebrated their 33rd anniversary...

The "Yellow Leader," published in New York, claims that, according to the Talmud, lager beer was invented by the Medes...

It was lately announced on posters to the people of South London, that a revival was being held...

Prospects.—The New York Times says: "We believe there is never before so large an area of country in wheat as this season..."

Something in a Name.—The case of Queen Quibry is a very decided one. Her lawyer to the inquiry, "What is in a name?"...

The last annual Registration Report for Massachusetts gives a table of the mortality in that State from consumption...

A London apprentice stayed out beyond closing hours the other night. Some fellow apprentices lowered sheets from the third story window...

A young man near Council Bluffs, Iowa, recently took up the eye of a horse. To do this he used a slender tin tube...

A Georgia minister has discovered that the "fortified" wine which he gave to Adam was tobacco.

The Greenfield Gazette says: "It takes ten minutes to marry a couple in this country, but to separate by divorce it took but five minutes..."

The largest and most powerful pug in the world is to be put in Mass. It is to be worked, by a ten-horse power steam engine...

A colored man, his wife, his wife's sister, and a baby fourteen months old, were burned to death near New Road Station, S. C., on the night of April 14th...

A private letter says that, on the 1st of April, the schooner Ella M. Pennell, of Machias, Me., while in British waters off the coast of the Bank was fired at and brought to by a Spanish vessel...

They have a new gold mine up in New Hampshire, at Lyman, not far from Bath. A whole hill, called Moulton Hill, miles long, is claimed to be full of gold-bearing quartz...

During the recent floods, a bridge at Granby, Canada, was swept away and eleven persons drowned. Eight bodies have been recovered and were buried Saturday and Sunday...

A contract was signed at the Erie Railroad company secures the exclusive right to erect a large bridge over the town of Hamilton and Dayton road at a fixed annual sum for its through business for ten years...

A young unmarried lady in Lynn, Mass., is engaged in making shoes, and employs a large number of workmen. Her goods are made exclusively to fill orders from some of the largest retailers in Boston...

The experiment has been tried in the West of heating hill-sides by the use of fine laid in the soil, as for draining, and heating with fire heat. It is said to be successful, and artificially heated hill-sides will dispense with manure heat and glass in the growing of early fruits and vegetables...

A Detroit woman, whose occupation is peddling matches, has abundant means to buy a good horse and rear up three children, who have good trades and are able to take care of themselves and her...

An oyster was recently fished up at Stamford, Conn., which contained 127 pearls, and one at New Haven which had 137, varying in size from the size of a buckshot to a mustard seed...

The President of the Union Pacific R. Co., has written to the Secretary of the Interior that the road is nearly finished, and that the rails of the two roads will be joined this week...

The footprints on the sandstone of the Connecticut Valley have been found to be those of birds, but of animals of the kangaroo species, by Mr. Waterhouse, the celebrated English naturalist...

Mr. Smith, editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, pays a tax on an income of $20,165, and Mr. Starbuck, of Cincinnati, pays a tax of $20,584. Journalism appears to be profitable in the Cincinnati...

The international westward travel is increasing rapidly as Spring advances. Large crowds of emigrants are daily arriving at St. Louis, en route for the Prairie Valley and the Pacific Basin...

An iron water pipe, 11 inches in diameter and 8,800 feet, 1-2 3/4 miles long, has been laid in Tuolumne county, California. It is a feat of engineering, and up the ascent on the opposite side, and up the perpendicular pressure at the lowest point of 684 feet...

A gentleman of Eaton, England, recently purchased for a small sum an old picture from a farmer in London. Upon examining it, he discovered it was a painting, and it was discovered to be a genuine Ruyssdal. The picture is valued at several hundred dollars...

A young man near Council Bluffs, Iowa, recently took up the eye of a horse. To do this he used a slender tin tube, and drove it under the young man's tongue, and into the nostril. It is feared that the injuries are fatal...

A woman in Georgia lately committed suicide by poisoning her husband with arsenic. She was a young woman, and her husband was a man of some means. She was found dead in her bed, and the arsenic was found in a bottle near her...

Mrs. Betsy C. Sargent died at Winchester, Mass., recently, aged 92. She was never sick with a disease in her life, never wore shoes; went to bed between nine and ten o'clock almost every evening for 75 years, and always lived by the will of her husband...

An enterprising youth of fifteen, a resident of Pittsburgh, Pa., bought liquor in four saloons on Sunday, and on Monday lodged information against the dealers for selling liquor on the Sabbath, and received $100 as the informer's fee...

The oldest house in the United States retaining its original form is in Nehonston, Mass. It was built by John Minot about the year 1640, and is still in good repair...

By the use of machinery invented within the past twenty years, the farmer's boy can often do the work of ten men.

A New Orleans judge fined a lawyer because he presented a brief written on less than a half sheet of note paper.

Wedding cards now have the name of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, and ushers, all on one card.

Congressman Sheldon, of Louisiana, had his pockets picked of $500 just after drawing his pay for the session.

A suit is set down for early trial in a Tennessee court to test the right of a magistrate solemnizing a marriage to kiss the bride.

During the recent storm in St. Louis, a hailstone six inches in diameter fell and actually shattered a wagon.

No less than thirty-two biographies of Mr. Lincoln have been published in Germany since he was murdered.

The Potomac is becoming stocked with gold fish, from a few that escaped into it out of the Capital fountain.

An editor of Pease, who lately died, was so universally esteemed that 40,000 people followed his body to the grave.

An Episcopal minister has been appointed to administer by the Bishop, for going to see the "Black Crook"...

A west Texas farmer, fearful that his cattle will stray out of his little yard of 150,000 acres, has fenced it in.

Navigation is now unobstructed at Dankirk, but Buffalo is still blockaded by a field of ice extending out for 30 miles.

The receipts for season tickets to the National Peace Jubilee at Boston amounted to $1,000,000 on the first day of the sale.

A man was tarred and feathered at Cozackie, a few days since, for marrying a black woman.

A man in Lockport, N. Y., found a full grown bear in the core of an apple which he was eating.

The Legislature of Illinois has granted a charter for a Dental College to be located at Chicago.

Mr. May, collector of New Orleans, who died, was Minister to Liberia, has an income of $30,000 a year.

A man in Australia has lost 14,000 out of 18,000 sheep for want of water.

Green peas, raised in Georgia and Florida, are quite plenty in the New York market.

It is reported that excellent nutmegs are found in the Sierra Nevada Mountains in California.

The rent of the New York Academy of Music for a single night, for the purpose of a ball, is $1,200.

One of the lions of the European Circus was taken ill at Elizabeth, N. J., and died in a few minutes.

North Carolina has a class of planting them to their own orchards. Within less than six years 25,000 forest trees have been planted in Iowa.

The International Universal Exhibition is to be held at Brussels, in 1870, on the Plain of Manoeuvres.

A San Francisco Judge recently arraigned the entire audience of his court-room for contempt of court.

New Jersey says some eighteen export companies are engaged in the production of silk goods.

President Grant's inaugural has been translated into Japanese, and was printed in the Japan papers.

Uicia (N. Y.) lost twenty-five hundred tons of ice by the freshet.

The health of Mr. Alexander Stephens is considerably improved.

The New York Fire Department have a library of 2,000 volumes.

The Falls at St. Anthony, Minn., are rapidly becoming a great resort for the summer season.

In the California State Treasury there is $1,400,000 lying idle.

The Cashmere goat is being extensively introduced into Utah.

The sugar season in the West has been a very profitable one.

The bridge across the Mississippi at St. Louis is to be at once begun.

Philadelphia has 156 miles of territory, and a population of 850,000.

Drinking a cup of strong iced tea is the latest style of civilization in the West.

Some people attribute good fortune to good luck. Why? Because it purifies the blood, cleanses the system, and cures all diseases, and cures all diseases, and cures all diseases...

Mr. Smith, editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, pays a tax on an income of $20,165, and Mr. Starbuck, of Cincinnati, pays a tax of $20,584.

The international westward travel is increasing rapidly as Spring advances. Large crowds of emigrants are daily arriving at St. Louis, en route for the Prairie Valley and the Pacific Basin...

An iron water pipe, 11 inches in diameter and 8,800 feet, 1-2 3/4 miles long, has been laid in Tuolumne county, California. It is a feat of engineering, and up the ascent on the opposite side, and up the perpendicular pressure at the lowest point of 684 feet...

A young man near Council Bluffs, Iowa, recently took up the eye of a horse. To do this he used a slender tin tube, and drove it under the young man's tongue, and into the nostril. It is feared that the injuries are fatal...

A woman in Georgia lately committed suicide by poisoning her husband with arsenic. She was a young woman, and her husband was a man of some means. She was found dead in her bed, and the arsenic was found in a bottle near her...

Mrs. Betsy C. Sargent died at Winchester, Mass., recently, aged 92. She was never sick with a disease in her life, never wore shoes; went to bed between nine and ten o'clock almost every evening for 75 years, and always lived by the will of her husband...

An enterprising youth of fifteen, a resident of Pittsburgh, Pa., bought liquor in four saloons on Sunday, and on Monday lodged information against the dealers for selling liquor on the Sabbath, and received $100 as the informer's fee...

The oldest house in the United States retaining its original form is in Nehonston, Mass. It was built by John Minot about the year 1640, and is still in good repair...

By the use of machinery invented within the past twenty years, the farmer's boy can often do the work of ten men.

A New Orleans judge fined a lawyer because he presented a brief written on less than a half sheet of note paper.

Wedding cards now have the name of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, and ushers, all on one card.

Congressman Sheldon, of Louisiana, had his pockets picked of $500 just after drawing his pay for the session.

A suit is set down for early trial in a Tennessee court to test the right of a magistrate solemnizing a marriage to kiss the bride.

During the recent storm in St. Louis, a hailstone six inches in diameter fell and actually shattered a wagon.

No less than thirty-two biographies of Mr. Lincoln have been published in Germany since he was murdered.

The Potomac is becoming stocked with gold fish, from a few that escaped into it out of the Capital fountain.

An editor of Pease, who lately died, was so universally esteemed that 40,000 people followed his body to the grave.

An Episcopal minister has been appointed to administer by the Bishop, for going to see the "Black Crook"...

A west Texas farmer, fearful that his cattle will stray out of his little yard of 150,000 acres, has fenced it in.

Navigation is now unobstructed at Dankirk, but Buffalo is still blockaded by a field of ice extending out for 30 miles.

The receipts for season tickets to the National Peace Jubilee at Boston amounted to $1,000,000 on the first day of the sale.

A man was tarred and feathered at Cozackie, a few days since, for marrying a black woman.

A man in Lockport, N. Y., found a full grown bear in the core of an apple which he was eating.

The Legislature of Illinois has granted a charter for a Dental College to be located at Chicago.

Mr. May, collector of New Orleans, who died, was Minister to Liberia, has an income of $30,000 a year.

A man in Australia has lost 14,000 out of 18,000 sheep for want of water.

Green peas, raised in Georgia and Florida, are quite plenty in the New York market.

It is reported that excellent nutmegs are found in the Sierra Nevada Mountains in California.

The rent of the New York Academy of Music for a single night, for the purpose of a ball, is $1,200.

One of the lions of the European Circus was taken ill at Elizabeth, N. J., and died in a few minutes.

North Carolina has a class of planting them to their own orchards. Within less than six years 25,000 forest trees have been planted in Iowa.

The International Universal Exhibition is to be held at Brussels, in 1870, on the Plain of Manoeuvres.

A San Francisco Judge recently arraigned the entire audience of his court-room for contempt of court.

New Jersey says some eighteen export companies are engaged in the production of silk goods.

President Grant's inaugural has been translated into Japanese, and was printed in the Japan papers.

Uicia (N. Y.) lost twenty-five hundred tons of ice by the freshet.

The health of Mr. Alexander Stephens is considerably improved.

The New York Fire Department have a library of 2,000 volumes.

The Falls at St. Anthony, Minn., are rapidly becoming a great resort for the summer season.

In the California State Treasury there is $1,400,000 lying idle.

The Cashmere goat is being extensively introduced into Utah.

The sugar season in the West has been a very profitable one.

The bridge across the Mississippi at St. Louis is to be at once begun.

Philadelphia has 156 miles of territory, and a population of 850,000.

Drinking a cup of strong iced tea is the latest style of civilization in the West.

Some people attribute good fortune to good luck. Why? Because it purifies the blood, cleanses the system, and cures all diseases, and cures all diseases, and cures all diseases...

Mr. Smith, editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, pays a tax on an income of $20,165, and Mr. Starbuck, of Cincinnati, pays a tax of $20,584.

The international westward travel is increasing rapidly as Spring advances. Large crowds of emigrants are daily arriving at St. Louis, en route for the Prairie Valley and the Pacific Basin...

An iron water pipe, 11 inches in diameter and 8,800 feet, 1-2 3/4 miles long, has been laid in Tuolumne county, California. It is a feat of engineering, and up the ascent on the opposite side, and up the perpendicular pressure at the lowest point of 684 feet...

A young man near Council Bluffs, Iowa, recently took up the eye of a horse. To do this he used a slender tin tube, and drove it under the young man's tongue, and into the nostril. It is feared that the injuries are fatal...

A woman in Georgia lately committed suicide by poisoning her husband with arsenic. She was a young woman, and her husband was a man of some means. She was found dead in her bed, and the arsenic was found in a bottle near her...

Mrs. Betsy C. Sargent died at Winchester, Mass., recently, aged 92. She was never sick with a disease in her life, never wore shoes; went to bed between nine and ten o'clock almost every evening for 75 years, and always lived by the will of her husband...

An enterprising youth of fifteen, a resident of Pittsburgh, Pa., bought liquor in four saloons on Sunday, and on Monday lodged information against the dealers for selling liquor on the Sabbath, and received $100 as the informer's fee...

The oldest house in the United States retaining its original form is in Nehonston, Mass. It was built by John Minot about the year 1640, and is still in good repair...

By the use of machinery invented within the past twenty years, the farmer's boy can often do the work of ten men.

A New Orleans judge fined a lawyer because he presented a brief written on less than a half sheet of note paper.

Wedding cards now have the name of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, and ushers, all on one card.

Congressman Sheldon, of Louisiana, had his pockets picked of $500 just after drawing his pay for the session.

A suit is set down for early trial in a Tennessee court to test the right of a magistrate solemnizing a marriage to kiss the bride.

During the recent storm in St. Louis, a hailstone six inches in diameter fell and actually shattered a wagon.

No less than thirty-two biographies of Mr. Lincoln have been published in Germany since he was murdered.

The Potomac is becoming stocked with gold fish, from a few that escaped into it out of the Capital fountain.

An editor of Pease, who lately died, was so universally esteemed that 40,000 people followed his body to the grave.

An Episcopal minister has been appointed to administer by the Bishop, for going to see the "Black Crook"...

A west Texas farmer, fearful that his cattle will stray out of his little yard of 150,000 acres, has fenced it in.

Navigation is now unobstructed at Dankirk, but Buffalo is still blockaded by a field of ice extending out for 30 miles.

The receipts for season tickets to the National Peace Jubilee at Boston amounted to $1,000,000 on the first day of the sale.

A man was tarred and feathered at Cozackie, a few days since, for marrying a black woman.

A man in Lockport, N. Y., found a full grown bear in the core of an apple which he was eating.

The Legislature of Illinois has granted a charter for a Dental College to be located at Chicago.

Mr. May, collector of New Orleans, who died, was Minister to Liberia, has an income of $30,000 a year.

A man in Australia has lost 14,000 out of 18,000 sheep for want of water.

Green peas, raised in Georgia and Florida, are quite plenty in the New York market.

It is reported that excellent nutmegs are found in the Sierra Nevada Mountains in California.

The rent of the New York Academy of Music for a single night, for the purpose of a ball, is $1,200.

One of the lions of the European Circus was taken ill at Elizabeth, N. J., and died in a few minutes.

North Carolina has a class of planting them to their own orchards. Within less than six years 25,000 forest trees have been planted in Iowa.

The International Universal Exhibition is to be held at Brussels, in 1870, on the Plain of Manoeuvres.

A San Francisco Judge recently arraigned the entire audience of his court-room for contempt of court.

New Jersey says some eighteen export companies are engaged in the production of silk goods.

President Grant's inaugural has been translated into Japanese, and was printed in the Japan papers.

Uicia (N. Y.) lost twenty-five hundred tons of ice by the freshet.

The health of Mr. Alexander Stephens is considerably improved.

The New York Fire Department have a library of 2,000 volumes.

The Falls at St. Anthony, Minn., are rapidly becoming a great resort for the summer season.

In the California State Treasury there is $1,400,000 lying idle.

The Cashmere goat is being extensively introduced into Utah.

The sugar season in the West has been a very profitable one.

The bridge across the Mississippi at St. Louis is to be at once begun.

Philadelphia has 156 miles of territory, and a population of 850,000.

Drinking a cup of strong iced tea is the latest style of civilization in the West.

Some people attribute good fortune to good luck. Why? Because it purifies the blood, cleanses the system, and cures all diseases, and cures all diseases, and cures all diseases...

Mr. Smith, editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, pays a tax on an income of $20,165, and Mr. Starbuck, of Cincinnati, pays a tax of $20,584.

The international westward travel is increasing rapidly as Spring advances. Large crowds of emigrants are daily arriving at St. Louis, en route for the Prairie Valley and the Pacific Basin...

An iron water pipe, 11 inches in diameter and 8,800 feet, 1-2 3/4 miles long, has been laid in Tuolumne county, California. It is a feat of engineering, and up the ascent on the opposite side, and up the perpendicular pressure at the lowest point of 684 feet...

A young man near Council Bluffs, Iowa, recently took up the eye of a horse. To do this he used a slender tin tube, and drove it under the young man's tongue, and into the nostril. It is feared that the injuries are fatal...

A woman in Georgia lately committed suicide by poisoning her husband with arsenic. She was a young woman, and her husband was a man of some means. She was found dead in her bed, and the arsenic was found in a bottle near her...

Mrs. Betsy C. Sargent died at Winchester, Mass., recently, aged 92. She was never sick with a disease in her life, never wore shoes; went to bed between nine and ten o'clock almost every evening for 75 years, and always lived by the will of her husband...

An enterprising youth of fifteen, a resident of Pittsburgh, Pa., bought liquor in four saloons on Sunday, and on Monday lodged information against the dealers for selling liquor on the Sabbath, and received $100 as the informer's fee...

The oldest house in the United States retaining its original form is in Nehonston, Mass. It was built by John Minot about the year 1640, and is still in good repair...

By the use of machinery invented within the past twenty years, the farmer's boy can often do the work of ten men.

A New Orleans judge fined a lawyer because he presented a brief written on less than a half sheet of note paper.

Wedding cards now have the name of the bride and groom, bridesmaids, and ushers, all on one card.

Congressman Sheldon, of Louisiana, had his pockets picked of $500 just after drawing his pay for the session.

A suit is set down for early trial in a Tennessee court to test the right of a magistrate solemnizing a marriage to kiss the bride.

During the recent storm in St. Louis, a hailstone six inches in diameter fell and actually shattered a wagon.

No less than thirty-two biographies of Mr. Lincoln have been published in Germany since he was murdered.

The Potomac is becoming stocked with gold fish, from a few that escaped into it out of the Capital fountain.

An editor of Pease, who lately died, was so universally esteemed that 40,000 people followed his body to the grave.

An Episcopal minister has been appointed to administer by the Bishop, for going to see the "Black Crook"...

A west Texas farmer, fearful that his cattle will stray out of his little yard of 150,000 acres, has fenced it in.

Navigation is now unobstructed at Dankirk, but Buffalo is still blockaded by a field of ice extending out for 30 miles.

The receipts for season tickets to the National Peace Jubilee at Boston amounted to $1,000,000 on the first day of the sale.

