MISCELLANEOUS.

HINTS ON HOUSEKEEPING.

System and forethought are two brain-children, who are very essential to good housekeeping. With their assistance the work will be all arranged beforehand, done in its proper order, and at the right time.

OPERATIONS FOR JUNE.

The watchword during the first days of June, both on the farm and in the garden, is "water."

POWER OF INSECTS.

It has been ascertained that the genus Pulex irritans (the common flea) is possessed of more than tenfold the common strength of insects at all proportionate to its size.

OUR PLANTING.

In the Atlantic States, the finest corn crops are found on the level, small farms, where the soil is a middle Jersey and East Pennsylvania.

NOVEL WAY OF FIGHTING FIRE.

During the great fire at Hunter's Point, Long Island, recently, thousands of gallons of burning oil were spread upon the beach of the water.

A RICE REWARD.

The truth of the proverb, that there is nothing lost by doing a charitable action, is exemplified by a correspondent who sends us a sketch of the life of a respectable member of the Society of Friends.

TO MAKE CUTTINGS GROW.

I used to have a great deal of trouble to make cuttings or gooseberry cuttings or slips grow, but I have since discovered the following plan: I boiled some potatoes when they were nearly done, and then stuck one on each slip, and put it in the ground. Every slip sprouted and grew well all summer, but with one or two exceptions. The idea of putting the boiled potatoes to the end of the cuttings was to furnish and keep moist enough for them to grow until the roots become large enough to gather their moisture and substance from the soil.

GRIDLING BARREN FRUIT TREES.

Something over a year ago, we published the results of some experiments in gridling fruit trees, and the results were very interesting.

ODDS AND ENDS.

A correspondent of the Canada Farmer asks concerning the manorial value of caldron bones. The editor replies, that bones, in any form, impart increased productivity to land.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH.

EVERY MAN HIS OWN PHYSICIAN. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

DISORDERS OF THE STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

The stomach is the great center which influences the health of the system; and a great number of diseases arise from its derangement.

ERUPTIONS ON THE SKIN.

Arising from a bad state of the blood or from a morbid condition of the system, eruptions on the skin are a common complaint, and are attended with much suffering.

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Whether in the young or old, married or single, the diseases of women are of a serious nature, and require the most judicious treatment.

FILES AND FISTULAS.

Every man who is afflicted with these prevalent and stubborn disorders, should be treated with the medicine of Holloway's Pills, and he will find relief.
