THE TOWER had caused the death of a man. It was a man willing to come under its baleful influence...

GOD'S CARE. In the days of the Reformation there lived a learned divine in Germany, named Brentius of Wuerzburg...

BREAKING IT GENTLY. FROM THE GERMAN OF ONE. The Count he was riding home one day, meeting his groom upon the way...

MRS. MERIDEN. BY MRS. R. N. STOVES. "Come, Mark Meriden, don't settle down into an old grandfather before your time; a pretty wife's a pretty thing, Mark, and a pretty house is a pretty thing, but hang it, one must have a little of life!"

A GENUINE PHILANTHROPIST. A large Committee has recently been formed in England to secure and present to the cities of London, Manchester and Salford three portraits of Thomas Wright...

IMPRESSIONS OF THE GREAT PRAEOAEE. A correspondent of the New York Evening Mail writes of a day at the Tabernacle in London. After complimenting the English Baptists for their special civility to Americans...

gentlemen who worldly matters invariably go on wrong end foremost will sometimes be found in this condition, however exuberant may be their feelings of animal spirits.

HEART RYMS. Bear the burden of the present, Let the morrow bear its own; In the morning sky be pleasant, Why the coming night be gloom?

BUDDHISM. The sixth century before the Christian era seems to have been a period of unworldly mental and moral activity. Perhaps at no time in the history of the world has there appeared such a brilliant constellation of great names...

ger arrived who had traversed an eight hours' walk, bringing a dollar which some one was owing to Presnino. This dollar rejoiced their mother and son more than if they had received a large capital, they considered it a great memorial coin of the divine life received.

Miscellaneous.

PROCTOR'S CAVE.

A RIVAL OF THE MAMMOTH. Proctor's Cave is a recent discovery on the route to Glasgow Junction, Louisville and Nashville Railroad. This cave, though not so vast as the Mammoth Cave, is in many respects, more remarkable.

It is somewhat like the times of Abolessem, in the Arabian Nights. He claps his hands, a door opens, and there enter two thousand slaves with jars of jewels on their heads.

WHERE THEY GO AND HOW THEY CATCH THEM. Some of our readers, given to rambling in the picturesque region of the North and East rivers, have doubtless noticed occasionally, the landing of a cargo of strange and helpless-looking creatures, giving no other evidence of life than the lazy movement of their heads, or the introduction of a stick into their mouths.

OF INTEREST TO YOUNG WIVES. A pretty and rather dashing looking young woman appeared before a Philadelphia court, recently, and charged her husband with desertion, because he would not gratify her desire to make a change in her residence in order to go to the city.

FRONTIER ROMANCE.

The St. Paul (Minnesota) Press relates a law to the hunter and the gentleman who resides in the frontier town of Little Falls, who had a banker for a school, at Little Falls, teaching also that the boys were somewhat unruly, and that a "school marster" would lick the unruly boys.

THE EARS. Boiling the ears is an inexcusable brutality; many a child has been made deaf in this way, because the "drum of the ear" is a membrane as thin as paper, stretches like a curtain just inside the external entrance, and is thrown in the carcases of worms.

NEW USES FOR PAPER. A new branch of industry has just been introduced to our notice, and that is the manufacture of paper from the various refuse articles of paper.

GRAFTING GRAPE. There are several methods recommended for the propagation of the grape vine. One is to cut the graft in the spring, and cover up the graft through the winter, removing the earth or other material in the spring.
