

Up to the bell in evening, I think... I shall give my bold best... I'll be sure to be there...

At all my best as I'm swinging... What are these things for? I'm... I'm not a man of words...

Over the valley we're swinging... And answer me, one by one... I'll be sure to be there...

The rich and the poor I am bringing... Come from the labor and dreams of life... I'll be sure to be there...

Shaking the stars with my ringing... Down, when the stars are aloft, I gaze... I'll be sure to be there...

Down, when the stars are aloft, I gaze... I'll be sure to be there...

THE SEVENTH DAY IS THE SABBATH OF THE LORD THY GOD.

PUBLISHED BY GEORGE B. UTTER. WESTERLY, R. I., FIFTH-DAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1869. VOLUME XXV.—NO. 40. TERMS—$2 50 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. WHOLE NO. 1238.

composing this body; their practice, in general, is to invite to the communion... I have no objection to the resolution...

Other constructions of the law have also been made. Thus, it is said... I have no objection to the resolution...

In the year 1803, Rev. Dr. Stillman being Moderator, and Rev. Dr. Baldwin clerk, the Association adopted... I have no objection to the resolution...

In 1810 the Association, in answer to a question from the church in Londonderry... I have no objection to the resolution...

In 1810 the Association adopted this language: "Let us beware of considering the annual associations as councils for the regulation or direction of the churches..."

In 1820 the Association said, in answering an inquiry from the church at Barnstable, concerning communion... I have no objection to the resolution...

Perhaps the clearest construction of the law of the Association ever made... I have no objection to the resolution...

The minority report, presented by Rev. Mr. Malcom, embodied a resolution... I have no objection to the resolution...

Whereas, the Warren Association has in its origin, taken the Word of God as its basis... I have no objection to the resolution...

From these quotations made from the minutes of this body, it is very evident that our denominational fathers were exceedingly jealous of the very appearance of dictation by an ecclesiastical body to an individual church...

III. The adoption and enforcement of this resolution will inevitably lead to partial strife and disruption in the churches.

This resolution, excepting for its anti-Scriptural character, appears to be a confession, put forth upwards of a hundred years ago...

1. "The Supper of the Lord Jesus was instituted by him the same night wherein he was betrayed..."

2. "In this ordinance, Christ is not offered up to his Father, nor any real sacrifice made at all for remission of sin..."

3. "The Lord Jesus hath, in this ordinance, appointed his ministers to pray and bless the elements of bread..."

4. "The outward elements in this ordinance, duly set apart to the use of the Communion..."

denied in the churches, and of sonliberty in the individual members, would be absurd. The passage of this resolution would interfere with certain vested rights...

It affirms that to invite to the Lord's Table those who have not been baptized is "contrary to the spirit of the Christian religion..."

The statement of the resolution is in this respect historically false, in that it is not the doctrine of absolute church independence...

This resolution aims a death-blow to this distinguishing feature; for, if you may dictate to a church a line of conduct in any one particular...

ordained by Christ, have such relation to him crucified, as that truly, although in terms used figuratively, they are sometimes called by the name of things they represent...

7. "Worthy receivers, outwardly partaking of the visible elements in this ordinance, do not inwardly, by faith, really and indeed, yet not carnally, and substantially, receive and feed upon Christ crucified..."

8. "All ignorant and ungodly persons, as they are unfit to enjoy communion with Christ, so are they unworthy of the Lord's table..."

The whole article is thus quoted: "There can be no doubt of its significance. It teaches, especially in its eighth section, that ignorance and ungodliness, and not the lack of baptism, is the real ground of exclusion..."

In my minority report, I made certain affirmations concerning historical questions. I think I have sufficient proofs of those affirmations...

I have made certain statements in regard to the pedobaptist communion, and I have read here a long list of the names of eminent Baptists of different countries...

Arbitrary acts should always be based upon arbitrary rules. The absence of the rule should avoid the action. We search the Bible in vain for authority to justify the language of the resolution concerning this matter...

THE REV. DR. BENEDICT—How much of that do you ascribe to me? THE REV. MR. MALCOM—All that relates to Dr. Gill. [The speaker here read from his authorities at considerable length.]

Some of our churches, standing on this platform, practice restricted communion, and others, standing on the same platform, practice open communion. Now, then, we will go forward in unity and concord...

Brethren, imagine that you do pay a resolution stating that you do not sympathize with the practice of open communion. I said in the name of all honor and justice, if it does not indirectly concern my church...

THE REV. DR. BENEDICT—Dr. Malcom, for fear all this was to be done over again, I have not said a word about it. I have not said a word about it.

I came here with reluctance, Dr. Moderator, for fear all this was to be done over again. I have not said a word about it.

I have no objection to the resolution. I have no objection to the resolution. I have no objection to the resolution.

I have no objection to the resolution. I have no objection to the resolution. I have no objection to the resolution.

namely: there on the open communion platform. He quoted all these cases, and I should think what he wrote was very nearly a transcript of what this brother has presented here...

"PAUL AND THE SUNDAY QUESTION."

The following non-committal and sophisticated remarks are from the Advances, from which we printed the articles by Mr. Beecher and Mr. Bacon last week...

A few weeks since, our readers had an article from Rev. Edward Beecher, D. D., relative to Acts 20: 7-18, arguing against the interpretation of Conybeare and Howson...

DR. BUSHNELL AND SUFFRAGE.

In a late RECORDER, I noticed an article headed "Female Suffrage," which gave one of John Neal's arguments in favor of it...

Dr. Bushnell thinks our fathers had an unfortunate fate for the use of high-sounding phrases borrowed from the liberal politicians of France...

CHURCH ORGANIZATION.

At a lapse of nearly fifty-eight years, another Seventh-day Baptist church has been organized in South Jersey...

Now we believe that there is the strongest probability, if not positive proof, that Mrs. Stowe has really told the "True Story of Lady Byron's Life..."

By request of the council, W. B. Gillette preached the introductory sermon; text, Psalm 145: 11. He was assisted by O. U. Whitford and C. B. Walker...
