

THE SEVENTH DAY IS THE SABBATH OF THE LORD THY GOD.

PUBLISHED BY GEORGE B. UTTER. WESTERLY, R. I., FIFTH-DAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1870. VOLUME XXVI.—NO. 9. TERMS—$2 50 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. WHOLE NO. 1309.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. From G. M. Howell & Co. (Established 1834) WELCH & GRIFFITHS, 111 South Street, Boston, Mass.

NEW YORK METROPOLITAN. Published by the Metropolitan Book Concern, 111 Nassau Street, New York.

ERMA'S HOUSE. Boston. A new and complete edition of the Bible, with a new translation of the Old Testament.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

WELCH & GRIFFITHS. Boston, Mass. Agents for the sale of various books and papers.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

As before remarked, all the prepossession of Roman citizens disapproved the strict observance of Jehovah's Sabbath, and favored the celebration of the historic events in Christianity, at times which were in union with the customs of the Roman Empire.

of the vessels were sunk on the passage, with all their passengers; the others arrived safely, and the unhappy children were sold by their betrayers in the slave markets of Alexandria, Cairo. Other large numbers of children came from Germany across the Alps. Many perished from hunger, heat, disease; a few were enabled to die on the sacred soil of Syria; and it is estimated that fifty thousand of the flower of European youth were lost in this remarkable of the Crusades.—Harper's Magazine.

TALK WITH PARENTS. I know thousands of parents who have reared their children, and then they turn the young immortal into a dressmaker's doll! As if God had not made the little creature beautiful enough, they must overload it with upholsterings of silk and lace, and they will know, but it seems so ridiculous to cultivating flowers on well ground. How I would like to be the mistress of a little yard, and then the flowers would be my own.

The fact is, my wife had always been talking in this manner. She wanted me to build a house, and thought it had but one room. And I answered her: "Yes, you, where is the money to come from?" "Well, I thought of the 'corner'."

"Well," said she, "this is the first time that you ever seemed to see eye with me, as 'love in a cottage.' When the thousand dollars were in my hand, you said you had not enough; now that the half is gone, I say that we still have enough to begin with, and my feeling is, 'Strike for your altars and your fires.'"

By this time we were through tea, and taking a cigar from off the mantle, I set down in my easy chair, leaning back, took two or three whiffs of smoke, and said to her, "My dear, will you be kind enough to inform me how I shall go to work to build a house for five hundred dollars."

"In the mean time she had drawn a stool to my feet, and was sitting looking up at me, her rosy and lustrous face beautiful in the gaslight. It had been a long time since she had been so close to me, and I felt for me to withstand that face. I believe I had never yet refused any request of hers, save to abandon my seagrass and build a cottage, and now I felt my time had come, and so I pulled away my seat, and said, "I will do it."

"Now, Will," said she, "listen. I hear there are lots for sale in C—, great large lots, on long time, at three hundred dollars each. It is only ten miles by rail, and property, they say, is rising. I can build a house for $200, large enough for you and me, for $1,000."

"Yes," said I, "knocking the ashes from my cigar, 'but where is the remaining $500 to come from?'" "Look here," said she. "We now pay $200 for rent. Do we not? Well, in the new house, you can readily buy the remaining $300, and by your own economy we shall be out of debt in fifteen months from March next, saving $200 for rent."

"Yes," said I, "and such a house as we shall have!" "Well, I was influenced by my good little wife. We went down one sunny day and looked at the lot, and I was so much pleased with the spring our house was commenced, and ready for occupancy before the first of May. It was not so large a cottage as the one we had left; but it was cozy, and I had myself to help with a goodly family. It was quite a strange exhilaration of feeling in getting settled in our new abode. The affair, too, had cost more than we had anticipated by $200, so that we were in debt on the house alone $200 over and above the rent. This feeling quickly passed off, and so we began to put out trees, make a garden, and prepare for a family of chickens. Our estate seemed so immense that I felt as if I was exhibiting it. The truth was, she was sorry in her heart that I could not afford a better one, and so she took this method to banter me."

"I was obliged to see that night in a little back parlor, beside a cozy grate fire, and the fragrant and stimulating Oolong, and my wife's cheerful talk, soon caused me to forget my long walk, and the dreaching rain, and the unpleasant incidents of the day."

"Do you know, my dear," said I, breaking open a white creamy biscuit, the while and laying on a slice of yellow butter, "do you know I had some very serious thoughts on my way home to-night?" "Oh, no doubt you did," said she, "you thought, perhaps, in a fit of mental abstraction, how much you owed on the last 'corner' in speculation."

"I was thus decidedly naughty. You see, I had managed to save a thousand dollars, and a friend of mine knew it, and he also knew of a 'corner' on wheat, and the half of a million dollars for the growth can never more be considerably extended, so long as the boundless fertile prairies can so easily pour their vegetables supplies upon us. Fruits, grain, and the result was the following: Saturday night—Will Aiken gave me five hundred dollars."

"No," said I, "nothing of the kind. I was thinking how hard it is to be poor; how hard to feel as if I were a beggar, and how hard to feel as if I were a beggar. Here we live in a rented house. We have paid out in rent for this little cottage three times its first cost. A man ought to owe the home he lives in; it is but a shame to know never see the time when I could spend money for a house. When fortunate in speculation, I have let my funds slip through my fingers. I don't know how, and my regular salary is only sufficient to pay for my yearly expenses."

THE CHILDREN'S OUTSADE. One of the most startling effects of this monkish delusion was the oration of the little children. A band of fifty thousand children from Germany and France, set out 1212 to reduce the holy sepulchre, and passed child of Vandome first assembled the cross in France, and soon an increasing throng of boys and girls gathered around him as he passed from Paris to the South, and thence to Jerusalem, to deliver the sepulchre of the Saviour. Their parents and relations in vain endeavored to dissuade them; they escaped away without money, or means of subsistence; and they believed that a miracle would dry up the Mediterranean Sea and enable them to pass safely to the shores of Syria. At length a body of seven thousand of these young men reached Jerusalem, and there they met with a strange and unlooked-for doom. At Marcellus were slave-traders who were accustomed to purchase or steal children in order to sell them to the Saracens. Two of these monsters, Ferraro and Porco, engaged to take the young crusaders to the Holy Land without charge, and they set sail in seven ships for the East. Two of the vessels were sunk on the passage, with all their passengers; the others arrived safely, and the unhappy children were sold by their betrayers in the slave markets of Alexandria, Cairo. Other large numbers of children came from Germany across the Alps. Many perished from hunger, heat, disease; a few were enabled to die on the sacred soil of Syria; and it is estimated that fifty thousand of the flower of European youth were lost in this remarkable of the Crusades.—Harper's Magazine.

TALK WITH PARENTS. I know thousands of parents who have reared their children, and then they turn the young immortal into a dressmaker's doll! As if God had not made the little creature beautiful enough, they must overload it with upholsterings of silk and lace, and they will know, but it seems so ridiculous to cultivating flowers on well ground. How I would like to be the mistress of a little yard, and then the flowers would be my own.

The fact is, my wife had always been talking in this manner. She wanted me to build a house, and thought it had but one room. And I answered her: "Yes, you, where is the money to come from?" "Well, I thought of the 'corner'."

"Well," said she, "this is the first time that you ever seemed to see eye with me, as 'love in a cottage.' When the thousand dollars were in my hand, you said you had not enough; now that the half is gone, I say that we still have enough to begin with, and my feeling is, 'Strike for your altars and your fires.'"

By this time we were through tea, and taking a cigar from off the mantle, I set down in my easy chair, leaning back, took two or three whiffs of smoke, and said to her, "My dear, will you be kind enough to inform me how I shall go to work to build a house for five hundred dollars."

"In the mean time she had drawn a stool to my feet, and was sitting looking up at me, her rosy and lustrous face beautiful in the gaslight. It had been a long time since she had been so close to me, and I felt for me to withstand that face. I believe I had never yet refused any request of hers, save to abandon my seagrass and build a cottage, and now I felt my time had come, and so I pulled away my seat, and said, "I will do it."

"Now, Will," said she, "listen. I hear there are lots for sale in C—, great large lots, on long time, at three hundred dollars each. It is only ten miles by rail, and property, they say, is rising. I can build a house for $200, large enough for you and me, for $1,000."

"Yes," said I, "knocking the ashes from my cigar, 'but where is the remaining $500 to come from?'" "Look here," said she. "We now pay $200 for rent. Do we not? Well, in the new house, you can readily buy the remaining $300, and by your own economy we shall be out of debt in fifteen months from March next, saving $200 for rent."

"Yes," said I, "and such a house as we shall have!" "Well, I was influenced by my good little wife. We went down one sunny day and looked at the lot, and I was so much pleased with the spring our house was commenced, and ready for occupancy before the first of May. It was not so large a cottage as the one we had left; but it was cozy, and I had myself to help with a goodly family. It was quite a strange exhilaration of feeling in getting settled in our new abode. The affair, too, had cost more than we had anticipated by $200, so that we were in debt on the house alone $200 over and above the rent. This feeling quickly passed off, and so we began to put out trees, make a garden, and prepare for a family of chickens. Our estate seemed so immense that I felt as if I was exhibiting it. The truth was, she was sorry in her heart that I could not afford a better one, and so she took this method to banter me."

"I was obliged to see that night in a little back parlor, beside a cozy grate fire, and the fragrant and stimulating Oolong, and my wife's cheerful talk, soon caused me to forget my long walk, and the dreaching rain, and the unpleasant incidents of the day."

"Do you know, my dear," said I, breaking open a white creamy biscuit, the while and laying on a slice of yellow butter, "do you know I had some very serious thoughts on my way home to-night?" "Oh, no doubt you did," said she, "you thought, perhaps, in a fit of mental abstraction, how much you owed on the last 'corner' in speculation."

WILLARD & CO. MANUFACTURERS OF KING GLASSES. REMOVED TO 100 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

WILLARD & CO. MANUFACTURERS OF KING GLASSES. REMOVED TO 100 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

WILLARD & CO. MANUFACTURERS OF KING GLASSES. REMOVED TO 100 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

WILLARD & CO. MANUFACTURERS OF KING GLASSES. REMOVED TO 100 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

WILLARD & CO. MANUFACTURERS OF KING GLASSES. REMOVED TO 100 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

WILLARD & CO. MANUFACTURERS OF KING GLASSES. REMOVED TO 100 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

CONGRESS. MONDAY, FEB. 22. The Senate, bills were introduced...

How to PAY CHURCH DEBTS.—The Reformed Church at Passaic, N. J. have just completed a new house of worship.

PERSECUTION AMONG THE LAOS OF ASIA.—The Presbyterian missionaries among the Laos, north of Siam...

LABORS OF COLPORTEERS IN KENTUCKY.—Mrs. Alberti, a pious and accomplished Christian lady, has been laboring as a colporteur in the mountains of Kentucky...

THE LENOX LIBRARY.—Mr. James Lenox, of New York, has made arrangements to place the whole of his large and rare collection of books and works of art in the hands of trustees...

THE ANNULMENT OF THE WICKED.—This doctrine, according to the Methodist Home Journal, is taking root and spreading among thinking men...

LIQUOR IN MAINE.—The State Liquor Commissioners of Maine, in their tenth annual report, says that the amount of sales the past year is 396,195.66.

THE METHODIST DEFLAGRATION RUMORS.—Some months ago, there was an excitement, especially among the Methodists, in consequence of rumors of deflagration and mismanagement...

REMOVAL.—The depositary of the American Baptist Publication Society has been removed from Philadelphia to Boston.

ASTRONOMICAL.—The planet Venus is now the evening star and will continue to be visible in the morning during the rest of the year.

CHRISTIAN LIBERTY.—An instance of remarkable and beautiful liberty is worthy of being mentioned in connection with the dedication of the new Reformed (Dutch) church at Port Jervis, N. Y.

THE AMERICAN BOTANIST AND FLORES.—Including Lessons on the Structure, Life and Growth of Plants; together with a simple Analytical Flora, descriptive of the native and cultivated plants growing in the Atlantic division of the American Union.

A CONGRESSIONAL JOURNALER is in prospect. The church of the Pilgrimage, of Plymouth, Mass., as a representative of the Congressional journaler which was formed at the meeting of the church...

THE MILLS WEATHER.—A writer in the Halifax Reporter accounts for the extraordinary mild weather of the present winter, by propounding the following theory:

THE REMARKABLE TIDE WAVE.—The remarkable tidal wave that swept these shores on the 5th of October last, and especially the lowering of the Bay of Fundy, by sweeping all the marshes, dykes and dyked, he attributes to an uprising of the bed of the sea, at some place not far distant, where it is covered by the Gulf Stream.

A NEW HEBREW AND TURK BOOK.—A new Hebrew and Turk Book has been published by Messrs. Root & Co. of 67 Washington-street, New York. It is edited by Rev. Dr. Jones, and is entitled "The New Bible, and includes many gems of Hebrew and Turk."

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE Executive Board of the Seventh-day Baptist Missionary Society, at the Society's headquarters in Westley, on Sunday, Feb. 21, at 2 o'clock P. M.

SINGULAR CASE.—On the second day of last September, a little child of Mr. James W. Kelly, who resides in Lynn, Mass., swallowed a steel belt pin, nearly two inches long, with a glass head. Several physicians examined the child, some expressing the opinion that the pin remained in the stomach, others that it had passed through into the bowels.

THE METHODIST MISSION IN CHINA.—At the annual meeting of the Foo Chow Methodist Mission, Bishop Kingsley ordained seven of the native preachers. At the service, the hymn sung was the translation of the well-known song, "O how happy are they who their Saviour obey," which the Bishop said he recognized as soon as he heard it, by the face of the native preachers.

A WISCONSIN PAPER, the Stevens Point Pinery, says: "We have the finest sleighing ever known. Appleton, Berlin, Oshkosh, Waupun, Kaukauna, and other places, are all well equipped with sleighs for the winter."

THIRTY WOMEN, of Arcadia, Trempealeau county, Wisconsin, lately entered the saloon of Jesse Williams, and broke open and spilled about seven hundred dollars worth of liquor, which had just started in barrels.

IT IS STATED that the American Education Society, of Boston, has received contributions to its beneficiaries this month.

THE HEAVY RAINS of last week did great damage in Maine, by causing freshets which carried away mill-dams and bridges.

GEORGE PEABODY died on the 4th of November, and was finally buried three months and four days after his death.

BEARS have been killed in seventy towns and plantations in Maine the past year. The bounties will amount to about $1500.

PARIS owes to Baron Haussmann and people generally more than one thousand million francs, to be paid in sixty years—perhaps.

THE UNITARIANS have societies in every city of 90,000 inhabitants, in the United States, except Memphis, Tenn., and Newark, N. J.

THE TELEGRAPH is superseding royal autographs. Napoleon III recently inquired by it about Queen Victoria's health.

AT A special election last week, the citizens of Binghamton, N. Y., decided to erect a Free Academy at a cost of $75,000.

FARMERS in the town of Hampshire, Ill., have recently lost $100,000 worth of sheep by the disease known as "scab."

THE TOTAL receipts for cheese manufactured and sold in Kane county, Ill., in 1869, amounted to nearly $75,000.

MR. James Reynolds, of Hارتington, Maine, won, in 1869, 1,427 yards of cloth, besides doing her house work.

THE BAPTISTS here in New Orleans five colored churches fully organized, two of them large and strong.

PRINCE PIERRE BONAPARTE is to be placed on trial in France on a charge of "homicide through imprudence."

FOUR persons were killed, and several severely injured, by the explosion of a boiler in St. Louis, Feb. 17th.

A conscientious gambler in Chicago gives ten per cent. of his plunder to the Orphan Asylum.

THE circulation of the Methodist Sunday School Aduocate last year was 370,000.

THIRTY Paris women rushed under the galliot to dip their handkerchiefs in Traupmann's blood.

A Chicago justice has fined Napoleon Bonaparte $15 for beating his wife.

NEBRASKA has ratified the Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution. Nebraska has 200 legal voters.

SPECIAL NOTICES. MISSEBURY BOARD MEETING.—A Special Meeting of the Executive Board of the Seventh-day Baptist Missionary Society will be held in the Room of the Society, Westley, on First-day, Feb. 27th, at 2 o'clock P. M.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The Quarterly Meeting of the South Cayter, DeBartler, and Preston Churches, will meet with the Church in Oselle, the Sixth-day before the first Sabbath in March, commencing at 10 o'clock P. M.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

SUMMARY OF NEWS. A curious trial is now going on before the court at Bibber, near Frankfurt-on-the-Main. A wealthy citizen made a wager of one hundred dollars that the King of Prussia, on the occasion of his riding through Bibber during the reviews of the Prussian troops in the past fall, wore a helmet, and not a cap.

THE SALE of a cadetship for $8000 was fastened upon an ex-Congressman, Peter, of Pennsylvania, the evidence of the bargain and sale being entirely conclusive. The party purchasing was Mr. E. C. Bishop, of Titusville, whose son is now a cadet in the West Point Academy.

THE FARMER LEO, who drew the Crosby Express Horse at Chicago, in the fall of three years ago, is dead, and efforts are now making to find his son and heir, Robert S. Lee, who went to the Rocky Mountain mining region some time ago.

A case has just come to light in Western Massachusetts, where a dealer in sheep wool allowed a thief to abscond with the wool, paying the complainant $25, pocketing the $75, and not bringing the matter before a magistrate.

THE METHODIST MISSIONARIES at Foo Chow, China, publish a monthly missionary magazine, called the Chinese Missionary, which gives a great deal of valuable information concerning the present aspects of the missionary work in that country.

A plea of Rev. Mr. Jenkins, on Sunday, for the payment of the final debt, was not successful. His heirs are in the amount of $16,000, and more is in prospect.

THE WILL of Miss Martha Savin, of Natick, Mass., who bequeathed her property, save a few legacies, to found a school for the poor, has been put on the docket of the Norfolk Superior Court. The value of the bequest is about $100,000.

REV. PETER CARTWRIGHT, having served sixty-five years as a Methodist minister, and for fifty consecutive years as a presiding elder, is now at the head of the present "The Risk and Progress of Methodism in the West."

D. R. LOCKE (Nashy) realized $32,000 from his lectures last year, and has engaged to give the present year for 200 nights, at an average of $200 a night.

A fund of $50,000 has been left by will for the establishment and maintenance of a free school for indigent white boys in Georgetown, D. C.

IT IS STATED that the American Education Society, of Boston, has received contributions to its beneficiaries this month.

THE HEAVY RAINS of last week did great damage in Maine, by causing freshets which carried away mill-dams and bridges.

GEORGE PEABODY died on the 4th of November, and was finally buried three months and four days after his death.

BEARS have been killed in seventy towns and plantations in Maine the past year. The bounties will amount to about $1500.

PARIS owes to Baron Haussmann and people generally more than one thousand million francs, to be paid in sixty years—perhaps.

THE UNITARIANS have societies in every city of 90,000 inhabitants, in the United States, except Memphis, Tenn., and Newark, N. J.

THE TELEGRAPH is superseding royal autographs. Napoleon III recently inquired by it about Queen Victoria's health.

AT A special election last week, the citizens of Binghamton, N. Y., decided to erect a Free Academy at a cost of $75,000.

FARMERS in the town of Hampshire, Ill., have recently lost $100,000 worth of sheep by the disease known as "scab."

THE TOTAL receipts for cheese manufactured and sold in Kane county, Ill., in 1869, amounted to nearly $75,000.

MR. James Reynolds, of Hارتington, Maine, won, in 1869, 1,427 yards of cloth, besides doing her house work.

THE BAPTISTS here in New Orleans five colored churches fully organized, two of them large and strong.

PRINCE PIERRE BONAPARTE is to be placed on trial in France on a charge of "homicide through imprudence."

FOUR persons were killed, and several severely injured, by the explosion of a boiler in St. Louis, Feb. 17th.

A conscientious gambler in Chicago gives ten per cent. of his plunder to the Orphan Asylum.

THE circulation of the Methodist Sunday School Aduocate last year was 370,000.

THIRTY Paris women rushed under the galliot to dip their handkerchiefs in Traupmann's blood.

A Chicago justice has fined Napoleon Bonaparte $15 for beating his wife.

NEBRASKA has ratified the Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution. Nebraska has 200 legal voters.

JOHN GOULD was recently released from the State Prison at Thomaston, Maine, on account of the dying confession of a man who, years before, had committed murder, for which GOULD had suffered imprisonment.

THE LOSSES by the fire at Hanting, Mass., which destroyed the Hampshire Woolen Mills and the Hanting Marseilles Factory, amount to $222,500.

A FIRE occurred Thursday night, Feb. 17th, in Babcock & Moss' steam mill at Westley, resulting in the destruction of about one-quarter of the property.

THE SHIPMENT of specie from San Francisco, since Jan. 1st, amounts to $16,112,000, including $1,961,000 paid to New York by the Union Pacific Railroad.

IT IS NOW ANNOUNCED that the Peabody family, Tuesday, was not successful. The remains (if there are any) are to be removed to the new tomb some time hence.

BOILING A BULLOCK down to twelve pounds, as is done in a beef condensing factory at Houston, Texas, in the latest invention of reluctio ad adferendum.

YON GRAEF, of Berlin, the illustrious operator in diseases of the eye, and who is without an equal in the world, is soon to visit the United States.

D. R. LOCKE (Nashy) realized $32,000 from his lectures last year, and has engaged to give the present year for 200 nights, at an average of $200 a night.

A fund of $50,000 has been left by will for the establishment and maintenance of a free school for indigent white boys in Georgetown, D. C.

IT IS STATED that the American Education Society, of Boston, has received contributions to its beneficiaries this month.

THE HEAVY RAINS of last week did great damage in Maine, by causing freshets which carried away mill-dams and bridges.

GEORGE PEABODY died on the 4th of November, and was finally buried three months and four days after his death.

BEARS have been killed in seventy towns and plantations in Maine the past year. The bounties will amount to about $1500.

PARIS owes to Baron Haussmann and people generally more than one thousand million francs, to be paid in sixty years—perhaps.

THE UNITARIANS have societies in every city of 90,000 inhabitants, in the United States, except Memphis, Tenn., and Newark, N. J.

THE TELEGRAPH is superseding royal autographs. Napoleon III recently inquired by it about Queen Victoria's health.

AT A special election last week, the citizens of Binghamton, N. Y., decided to erect a Free Academy at a cost of $75,000.

FARMERS in the town of Hampshire, Ill., have recently lost $100,000 worth of sheep by the disease known as "scab."

THE TOTAL receipts for cheese manufactured and sold in Kane county, Ill., in 1869, amounted to nearly $75,000.

MR. James Reynolds, of Hارتington, Maine, won, in 1869, 1,427 yards of cloth, besides doing her house work.

THE BAPTISTS here in New Orleans five colored churches fully organized, two of them large and strong.

PRINCE PIERRE BONAPARTE is to be placed on trial in France on a charge of "homicide through imprudence."

FOUR persons were killed, and several severely injured, by the explosion of a boiler in St. Louis, Feb. 17th.

A conscientious gambler in Chicago gives ten per cent. of his plunder to the Orphan Asylum.

THE circulation of the Methodist Sunday School Aduocate last year was 370,000.

THIRTY Paris women rushed under the galliot to dip their handkerchiefs in Traupmann's blood.

A Chicago justice has fined Napoleon Bonaparte $15 for beating his wife.

NEBRASKA has ratified the Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution. Nebraska has 200 legal voters.

SPECIAL NOTICES. MISSEBURY BOARD MEETING.—A Special Meeting of the Executive Board of the Seventh-day Baptist Missionary Society will be held in the Room of the Society, Westley, on First-day, Feb. 27th, at 2 o'clock P. M.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The Quarterly Meeting of the South Cayter, DeBartler, and Preston Churches, will meet with the Church in Oselle, the Sixth-day before the first Sabbath in March, commencing at 10 o'clock P. M.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

MARRIED.—In Hopkinton, Feb. 15th, 1870, by Rev. A. B. Burt, Mr. HENRY B. KEYSER and Miss JUDITH FRANK, both of Hopkinton, who were united in Holy Matrimony, by Rev. A. B. Burt, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the presence of a large number of friends.

DIED.—In Sangerfield, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host of friends for her friends.

DEATH.—In the town of Hartsville, N. Y., Feb. 12th, 1870, suddenly from old age, Sister Abigail, aged 72 years, a devoted member of the 2d Seventh-day Baptist Church of Brookfield, died on the 12th inst. She was a native of New York, and was married to her husband, yet her hope in Christ and her love for her friends of the First Baptist Church in the presence of a doctor of medicine, she was given for twelve years in the church, and was a member of the Church at the time of her death, where they expect to reside, soon after the ceremony, with her friends, a host

