WHICH HAS MOST RESOURCE TO DRAW UPON FOR THE CONTEST.

The issue cannot be in the least degree uncertain. The throne of God is immutable, "from everlasting to everlasting he is God."

NATURE AND EXTENT OF THE ATONEMENT

An Essay read before the Seventh-Day Baptist Convention at Southampton, Ill., Sept. 16th, 1872, and published at the request of the Convention.

him, and this ever-existing love, is the motive of the atonement; and to transplant man out of hatred into love, is the object of atonement; the manifestation of Christ, the means; and if the death of Christ in some way, is to be a means of atonement, it must be a means of atonement.

of blindness similar to hers. I have always done my duty in this office, and have minded my own business. I am sacrificing everything in life for another. Would either of you do as much? Could any one do more?

had been judged, without any knowledge of circumstances. We can read the heart of others, and in many cases, know all is to forgive all.

SIANDER

"Was but a breath— And yet a woman's frail name called. And friends at once grew cold and alienated. One life was more than death."

HOW TO FISH FOR MEN

1. Improve your time. "All being ready, put out your line at once, and keep it out, every moment possible, as you would fish for men."

THE GENTILITY OF EATING

There was a time, and that time was not countless ages ago, when to manifest a decided taste for the good things of the table was considered as a mark of human depravity, only less in degree to a decided taste for the bottle.

HE WILL NEVER FORSAKE

This world is full of temptations, and temptations will separate, failure, disappointment. Think of finding something that will never leave or fall. Grasp this promise, "I will never leave thee, and store it in your heart, you will want it some day."

READING THE BIBLE

Reading the Bible—Read your Bible slowly. Take time, even if you have but little time. A great mathematician once said: "If his life depended upon solving a problem in two minutes, he would spend one of two hours on it before he tried to solve it."

ADVERTISEMENTS

From the castle to the grave. O rough and stormy, wave on wave. Only reaching no end then. My mountain top, my mountain top. T. King, publisher.

The Sabbath Recorder

ALFRED CENTER, N. Y., FIFTH-DAY, FEB. 13, 1878.

IS IT WISE?

We call attention to a question which we regard of vital importance to ourselves as a people...

Let us for the sake of making a point, take up the case of the merchant who calling is essential to the convenience and prosperity of the community...

What the new movement will effect, we can not certainly say, but feel confident that it will prove a failure...

It is our duty to ourselves as a people, and see if we are not called upon for the sake of the cause...

Farina, Pleasant Hill, Villa Ridge, Raleigh, and Eon, to Eld. O. U. Whitford...

Those for churches of the Western Association will be delivered from this office.

TEMPERANCE We observe by the papers that an effort is to be made in the State of New York to improve our present legislation...

Mr. Colyer appeared before his audience promptly, on time, and commenced his lecture. He is a man full of energy...

Mr. Colyer thought we ought not to object to our children entering on plans, or schemes, or labors, or thoughts with which we had grasped...

It is our duty to ourselves as a people, and see if we are not called upon for the sake of the cause...

agogues, elaborate vestments, choral flourishes, Judaism is not lengthy creeds, mysterious dogmas, and wholesale prayers.

OUR FOLKS AND OTHER FOLKS

A few evenings since, Robert Colyer, the eloquent preacher of Chicago, lectured before a large audience...

Some weeks since a religious paper, published in New York City, and known as the New York Weekly Witness...

Whether this statement is fair and just, and breathes a catholic Christian spirit...

He referred to another phase of our life—the condition of our women. To stay at home and take care of her family...

It is our duty to ourselves as a people, and see if we are not called upon for the sake of the cause...

tribution, and enlarging their Sunday School operations. They have issued an earnest call to those who sympathize with them...

UNFAIRNESS

The following may serve to illustrate how much more willing to publish and send abroad that which is prejudicial to others...

Some weeks since a religious paper, published in New York City, and known as the New York Weekly Witness...

Whether this statement is fair and just, and breathes a catholic Christian spirit, it would be vain now to discuss...

It is our duty to ourselves as a people, and see if we are not called upon for the sake of the cause...

It is our duty to ourselves as a people, and see if we are not called upon for the sake of the cause...

It is our duty to ourselves as a people, and see if we are not called upon for the sake of the cause...

the same reason attempt to make it, by law, the Sabbath of our land. It may be essential to the success of the Sabbath cause...

FUTURE PUNISHMENT

I read the article in the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald on Future Punishment. My surprise (and not much of that) lay in a different direction from yours...

Mr. Rathbun, a representative man of the Advent faith, said in debate, that children that were born of unconverted parents...

Now that I am speaking of the subject of punishment, I will state briefly, what I suppose to be the common doctrine on this point...

1st. God is just, and will not punish the sinner more than his sins demand; to punish more would be both unjust and cruel.

2d. That there are degrees in guilt. Some sin longer than others. Some are more abandoned to sin...

3d. The degrees of punishment will be determined by the degrees of guilt, because "it is required of a man according to that he hath and not according to that he hath not."

Views of a Catholic Priest.—The Christian Union of Dec. 18th, 1873, has the following, which is said to be a literal translation of the views of the Catholic priest of Gastratz...

them, and kissed the ground on which their feet had rested; and today governors dare to persecute the priesthood, and to make laws whereby the zealous clergy who are true to the faith are threatened with dungeons.

ROME NEWS

The evening of Feb. 3d, being the tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Silas C. Burdick, was made, by some of the citizens of Alfred Centre, an occasion for a social gathering...

LETTER FROM C. M. LEWIS

Milton, Wis., Feb. 13, 1878. To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder: In a recent note in the Recorder, I referred to a new field in my mission-work at Marquette, Green Lake County, Wisconsin...

It appears now, that a Seventh-day Adventist Church was gathered, and at one time had a membership of some seventy-five. Later, the question arose among them relative to Mrs. White's visions...

The Senate, Feb. 4. In the Senate, Mr. Hill introduced a bill increasing the salary of the President to $50,000...

BOILER EXPLOSION AT PITTSBURGH. At two o'clock on the morning of Feb. 3d, four boilers in the American Iron Works of Jones & Laughlin, at Pittsburgh, Pa., exploded...

The explosion was so tremendous that three sections of the building were completely shattered, the roof being carried entirely away...

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 5. In the Senate, Feb. 5. In the Senate, Feb. 5. In the Senate, Feb. 5.
