THE SADEATH AND THE SUNDAY. By Rev. A. H. Lewis, A. M. Part First, Argu-ments. Part Second, History 16mo., 263 pp. Fine Cloth, $1 25.

This volume is an earnest and able pre sentation of the Sabbrth question, argumentatively and historically, and should be in the hands of every one desiring light on the subject. THOUGHTS SUGGESTED BY THE PERUSAL OF GILFILLAN AND OTHER AUTHORS ON THE GLEFILIAN AND OTHER AUTHORS ON THE SADBATH. BY Rev. Thos. B. Brown, Pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist Church at Little Genesee, N. Y. Second Edition 125 pp. Fine Cloth, 50 cents. Paper 10 cents.

This is in many respects the most able argument yet published. The author was educated/in the observance of Sunday and was for several years a highly esteemed minister in the Baptist denomination. The book is a careful review of the arguments in favor of Sunday, and especially of the work of James Gilfillan, of Scotland which has been wide'y circulated among the clergymen of America. Mr. Brown has thoroughly sifted the popular notionsrelative to Sunday, with great candor kindness and ability. We especially com mend it to those who, like Mr. Brown have been taught to revere Sunday as the Sabbath.

NATURE'S GOD AND HIS MEMORIAL. A Series of Four Sermons on the subject of the Sabbath. By Rev. Nathan Wardner late Missionary at Shanghai, China.

1. Teachings of the Old Testament, ap-plied in answering the Objections and Arguments of Advocates for the First Day. 2. The Theory of a Change of the Sab-bath examined in the light of the New Testament Testament. 3. The No-Sabbath Theory Examined. 4. The History of the Change, showing how, when, and by what authority, the Charge of Day was effected. 111 pp. Portug 20 contra Paper, 20 cents. Mr. Wardner was also educated to observe Subday, and has written with the power which comes only from personal ex perience. A DEFENCE OF THE SAEBATH, in reply to Ward on the Fourth Commandn By Geo. Carlow. Third Edition-Revis ed. 168 pp. 25 cents. This work was first published in London in 1724. It is valuable as showing the state of the Sabbath argument at that time. VINDICATION OF THE TRUE SABBATH, IN 2 parts. Part First, Narrative of Recent Events. Part Second, Divine sppointament of the Seventh Day, by Hev. J. W. Morton, late Missionary of the Re-formed Presbyterian Church. 60 pp. Paper, 10 cents.

It is a mistake that af. firms that " Christ is coming to set up his kingdom." I only propose to write concerning the predictions that relate to the setting up of his kingdom. We have in the second chapter of Daniel a record of a remarkable dream by Nebuchadnezzar in which four great kingdoms passed before his mind. and in verse 44, Daniel says. "In the days of these kings shall [will] the God of heaven set up a kingdom." The question is What kingdom is here referred to? What kingdoms has Daniel been talking about? Babylon, Medo Persian. are kingdom was to "be divided." Diling, vided how, and into what? It is ASSUMED that it was to be divided into ten kingdoms. Why did not of Daniel say so? The evidence is rity positive that no such thought was in the mind of Daniel. For, the division was such as to leave the kingdom a unit still. Notice v. 41, "And whereas thou-sawest the feet and toes, part of potter's clay and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it," not them, but IT. So the division was such as not to create other kingdoms, but simply a national weakness. See Keith's "Roman Empire," pages 3-7. Mark says, 1:14, 15, "Jesus came into Galilee preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, the time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." The time concerning what, is fulfilled? The kingdom and its gospel, sure. There was a time appointed, then, for the kingdom to be set up. Daniel said it was to "be set up in the days of these kings." Christ says the time concerning the setting up of the kingdom was "fulfilled." Here are Daniel, Christ, and the apostles on one side of this question, and our Advent brethren on the other. I am quite inclined to accept the authority of the former. But our brethren tell us that they are raised up of God, to warn and enlighten us on these and similar questions, "or we [they] are the most deluded of all people." Well, so be, it.
