...because, God has been planned to put of the day of reckoning? Why he has put it off...

2. Another specious pretense for sin is its enthrone in high places. Look there on Carmel, King Abah...

3. Kindred to this excuse for sin, is that which credits popular majorities as authoritative expounders of what is right...

4. Another thing that makes the wrong appear the better reason, that colors our vision so that the wrong side often appears the right side...

...and the first pretense of excuse shall examine the one in the text: "Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily..."
