

The Sabbath Recorder.

Alfred Centre, N. Y., First-day, May 24.

REV. N. V. HULL, D. D., - - - EDITOR.

ALL communications, whether on business or for publication, should be addressed to the Editor, No. 100 Broadway, New York.

LAW AND GOPEL.

In the plan of religion taught in the Bible, the ceremonial law of the old covenant gives place to the gospel of the new covenant. The ceremonial law answered a double purpose. In form it was the enforcement of the penalty of the violation of the moral law.

SABBATH-KEEPING.

The Sabbath Recorder replies to our good-natured article somewhat tartly, thus: "Let the Cynosure and all others wash themselves clean of Sabbath violation before they reproach others of sin in this matter."

It is by "Cynosure" in the above sharp extract, the Recorder means the Senior Editor thereof, he shall be put down by an "o'er true tale" never before published, which is as follows:

In his wonderful zeal, this senior editor left Harrieham, Pa., to cross the Allegheny Mountains for the first time, to share in a debate against slavery in Washington, Washington county, to which he had been invited by Dr. Lemoyne of that city.

Years passed on and we shipped wife and two babes, for St. Louis, on our way to Knox College, Ill., in good time to reach St. Louis on Saturday.

"Blushing thick upon us," in a small, cold, slave-holding tavern. The Mississippi froze over. Not another boat came up till Spring, and it cost us one-fifth part of our earthly estate to keep that so-called Sabbath.

To the above we have to say that we are glad to be informed of the real purpose of the article in the Student, to which we referred last week.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

Paul stopped in his journey that he might not travel on the "first day of the week." Surely, there is not a word of this in the narrative.

But this editor proceeds to make other strange statements as follows: "Which 'first day' Christ blessed and sanctified by meeting with his disciples three successive 'first days' after his resurrection from the dead, so that the first day became 'the Lord's day' ever since."

THE WORKING OF A GOOD CONSCIENCE. No person has more need of the exercise of a good conscience than the professor of religion.

ARGUMENTUM AD EXEMPLUM OBESIT. To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder: A quotation from the Alfred Student, with comments by yourself, appeared in the last number of the Recorder.

To the above we have to say that we are glad to be informed of the real purpose of the article in the Student, to which we referred last week.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

that it was a parcel of considerable size dropped from a cart. She took it to her own apartment and suffered it to remain some time without making any inquiry for the owner.

Italy and Sabbath Reform. The following interesting article appears in the April number of the Sabbath Memorial, London, Eng., as the leading editorial:

THE WORKING OF A GOOD CONSCIENCE. No person has more need of the exercise of a good conscience than the professor of religion.

ARGUMENTUM AD EXEMPLUM OBESIT. To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder: A quotation from the Alfred Student, with comments by yourself, appeared in the last number of the Recorder.

To the above we have to say that we are glad to be informed of the real purpose of the article in the Student, to which we referred last week.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

that it was a parcel of considerable size dropped from a cart. She took it to her own apartment and suffered it to remain some time without making any inquiry for the owner.

Italy and Sabbath Reform. The following interesting article appears in the April number of the Sabbath Memorial, London, Eng., as the leading editorial:

THE WORKING OF A GOOD CONSCIENCE. No person has more need of the exercise of a good conscience than the professor of religion.

ARGUMENTUM AD EXEMPLUM OBESIT. To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder: A quotation from the Alfred Student, with comments by yourself, appeared in the last number of the Recorder.

To the above we have to say that we are glad to be informed of the real purpose of the article in the Student, to which we referred last week.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

that it was a parcel of considerable size dropped from a cart. She took it to her own apartment and suffered it to remain some time without making any inquiry for the owner.

Italy and Sabbath Reform. The following interesting article appears in the April number of the Sabbath Memorial, London, Eng., as the leading editorial:

THE WORKING OF A GOOD CONSCIENCE. No person has more need of the exercise of a good conscience than the professor of religion.

ARGUMENTUM AD EXEMPLUM OBESIT. To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder: A quotation from the Alfred Student, with comments by yourself, appeared in the last number of the Recorder.

To the above we have to say that we are glad to be informed of the real purpose of the article in the Student, to which we referred last week.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

that it was a parcel of considerable size dropped from a cart. She took it to her own apartment and suffered it to remain some time without making any inquiry for the owner.

Italy and Sabbath Reform. The following interesting article appears in the April number of the Sabbath Memorial, London, Eng., as the leading editorial:

THE WORKING OF A GOOD CONSCIENCE. No person has more need of the exercise of a good conscience than the professor of religion.

ARGUMENTUM AD EXEMPLUM OBESIT. To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder: A quotation from the Alfred Student, with comments by yourself, appeared in the last number of the Recorder.

To the above we have to say that we are glad to be informed of the real purpose of the article in the Student, to which we referred last week.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

that it was a parcel of considerable size dropped from a cart. She took it to her own apartment and suffered it to remain some time without making any inquiry for the owner.

Italy and Sabbath Reform. The following interesting article appears in the April number of the Sabbath Memorial, London, Eng., as the leading editorial:

THE WORKING OF A GOOD CONSCIENCE. No person has more need of the exercise of a good conscience than the professor of religion.

ARGUMENTUM AD EXEMPLUM OBESIT. To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder: A quotation from the Alfred Student, with comments by yourself, appeared in the last number of the Recorder.

To the above we have to say that we are glad to be informed of the real purpose of the article in the Student, to which we referred last week.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

that it was a parcel of considerable size dropped from a cart. She took it to her own apartment and suffered it to remain some time without making any inquiry for the owner.

Italy and Sabbath Reform. The following interesting article appears in the April number of the Sabbath Memorial, London, Eng., as the leading editorial:

THE WORKING OF A GOOD CONSCIENCE. No person has more need of the exercise of a good conscience than the professor of religion.

ARGUMENTUM AD EXEMPLUM OBESIT. To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder: A quotation from the Alfred Student, with comments by yourself, appeared in the last number of the Recorder.

To the above we have to say that we are glad to be informed of the real purpose of the article in the Student, to which we referred last week.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

that it was a parcel of considerable size dropped from a cart. She took it to her own apartment and suffered it to remain some time without making any inquiry for the owner.

Italy and Sabbath Reform. The following interesting article appears in the April number of the Sabbath Memorial, London, Eng., as the leading editorial:

THE WORKING OF A GOOD CONSCIENCE. No person has more need of the exercise of a good conscience than the professor of religion.

ARGUMENTUM AD EXEMPLUM OBESIT. To the Editor of the Sabbath Recorder: A quotation from the Alfred Student, with comments by yourself, appeared in the last number of the Recorder.

To the above we have to say that we are glad to be informed of the real purpose of the article in the Student, to which we referred last week.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

We assure the Cynosure that tartness was the farthest removed possible from our feelings when we penned the article quoted from the particular passage named.

In this new state it is pertinent to ask what our relation is to the law of God. To us it seems clear that the effect of the new birth is to bring us into harmony with the law.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Operations begin to assume active and important features. The reports, though varied and conflicting, as they happen to be reported by the one side or the other, seem to indicate good fighting qualities on both sides, with a preponderance of success in favor of the Turks.

A severe battle was reported at Batoum, near the eastern extremity of the Black Sea, on the 11th of May.

A Batoum special to London says: "About five o'clock this morning the Russian forces, largely augmented, advanced upon the heights defending Batoum from the sea side, occupied by the Baku forces."

A dispatch of the 22nd day says: "The victory was won by the extraordinary courage of the Baku Baku forces. The dead and wounded on the Russian side exceed 4,000."

An engagement took place at Sackham Kale, a Russian port on the Black Sea, May 14th, which is reported by a special to the London Standard as follows:

"Admiral Hassan Pasha, after bombarding the fortification of Sackham Kale, landed a number of troops, and was immediately joined by 3,000 men, mostly combatants."

A Russian attack on Ardahan has been bravely repulsed. The Russians attempted to bombard Kars with four heavy siege guns. The shots flew over the town without doing any damage.

A Russian attack on Ardahan has been bravely repulsed. The Russians attempted to bombard Kars with four heavy siege guns. The shots flew over the town without doing any damage.

SABBATH CORRESPONDENCE BY BRO. N. V. HULL.

Dear Bro. Clarke:—I was glad to see your letter to Mr. —, which I will hand to him. He has become a thorough Sabbatarian in sentiment (he and wife are busy scattering our tracts as well as others), and I suspect he keeps the Sabbath privately, and he declares that he shall keep it openly.

While the general public is indifferent to the question, and Christian ministers teach their flocks, "Remember one day in seven, but take special care that you keep the Sabbath-day," it is a sad state of affairs.

Rev. N. Wardner, A. M., Sr. Through the kindness of the Rev. —, our Baptist minister here, I have been favored with your eight tracts on the subject of the Sabbath; also with the little book, "New's God and His Memorial," and I wish to express my thankfulness for the privilege and gratification of the perusal, and hope you will succeed in bringing the subject before the people.

THE ROTUNDTY OF THE EARTH: ITS EFFECT ON THE SABBATH LAW. We find in the April number of the Sabbath Memorial, London, Eng., the following instructive letter from the pen of Rev. S. Carpenter, D. D., our late missionary to Shanghai, China, which will be perused by our readers with interest.

HOME NEWS. Independence, N. Y., May 10th, 1877. We are having a very dry, pleasant spring. Farming is progressing finely. The cheese factory is doing more than usual business.

POTTER'S AMERICAN MONTHLY. This instructive and attractive periodical for June comes as usual laden with choice original articles, from the best writers of the day, on Education, History, Romance, Literature, Art, Science, Mechanics, Home, State, and National Topics, with a happy sprinkling of Current Gospel, Wit and Humor—many of the subjects being superbly illustrated, giving River, Mountain, and Valley views of some portions of our picturesque America.

The citizens of Hanover county, Virginia, have been in pursuit of a wren which had escaped from a menagerie. The alarm was finally allayed by the death of the animal, which proved to be a large dog.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Operations begin to assume active and important features. The reports, though varied and conflicting, as they happen to be reported by the one side or the other, seem to indicate good fighting qualities on both sides, with a preponderance of success in favor of the Turks.

A severe battle was reported at Batoum, near the eastern extremity of the Black Sea, on the 11th of May.

A Batoum special to London says: "About five o'clock this morning the Russian forces, largely augmented, advanced upon the heights defending Batoum from the sea side, occupied by the Baku forces."

A dispatch of the 22nd day says: "The victory was won by the extraordinary courage of the Baku Baku forces. The dead and wounded on the Russian side exceed 4,000."

An engagement took place at Sackham Kale, a Russian port on the Black Sea, May 14th, which is reported by a special to the London Standard as follows:

"Admiral Hassan Pasha, after bombarding the fortification of Sackham Kale, landed a number of troops, and was immediately joined by 3,000 men, mostly combatants."

A Russian attack on Ardahan has been bravely repulsed. The Russians attempted to bombard Kars with four heavy siege guns. The shots flew over the town without doing any damage.

A Russian attack on Ardahan has been bravely repulsed. The Russians attempted to bombard Kars with four heavy siege guns. The shots flew over the town without doing any damage.

