Barabbas; this holy and true woman, or that woman unbelly and false; this heart sympathetic and answering yours in every vibration...

to have all the entertainment and the decency and the respectability of church, and then you want to be able to go behind some pillar or post or screen and serve the devil...

we may wait our change, not only with resignation, but with hope, and carry our personal affections and aspirations forward to another and better being, in which they may be satisfied and made perfect...

THE YOUNG MAN WHOM JESUS LOVED. Ofttimes I have dreamed what after fate befell The gifted youth whom Jesus saw and loved...

walk and meditate, on which Christian trophies stand, more important as marks of the world's agonies and advances, than any that ever Greek erected for victory at Salamis or Marathon...

far better than any commentary can do. So let the Sabbath-school teacher find the meaning of any passage in the lesson that is not clear, or that the help falls unsatisfactorily...

BAOH IN HIS OWN WAY. All great works are done by serving God with what we have in hand. Moses was keeping sheep in Midian; God was with him...

A DOUBTING HEART. Where are the swallows dead? Perchance, upon some bleak and stormy shore...

Well, now, you have a very beautiful apartment—a large, appointed quietly, and adorned with wonderful beauties; but do you know your room has no foundation? It do admirably from June last to Sept. 30th; but I would not live in it after that...

Oh, sublime, but sad! Beyond the scope of mortal words to praise. These, these deep eyes of grief, these pathetic possibilities...

RELIGION AND BUSINESS. "Diligent in business, fervent in spirit," says Paul; "serving the Lord with all your heart..."

PERSONAL IMMORTALITY. In itself, and merely for itself, death need not be terrible, and often is not. But it is the light of the thought, and the hope of the future, that glorifies it...

SEMONS. Sermons that are born of occasion, of deep experiences, of earnest thought and mental labor over an important truth, are sermons of power...

AS TO OBITUARIES, ETC. A correspondent having written to the editor of the National Baptist, complaining that his obituary notices were not published in full, and asking if he had "violated any rule," the editor replied as follows:

A MISTAKE.—A young man who thought he could not be killed and who became a middle-aged man, and then repent and make a good steady citizen, is deluded by the devil. He thinks he can do as he pleases, and he will have his own way, and he will have his own way, and he will have his own way...

CHRISTIANITY TRIUMPHANT.—I do not respect any proposition merely because it is ancient, or in the mouths of prophets. But I do respect propositions that have been honestly and protractedly tried, and not defeated. The test of the soundness of scholarship is that it should be content with scholarship, not once or twice, but century after century, and come out unscathed...

How is it with you, young man, who are just now called upon to say this or that about business? I do not say, but Barabbas! We have just read these words in the 15th chapter of John, the last verse: "Not this man, but Barabbas."

Now, this is perhaps what you are saying: "I don't want to make a profession of religion." Don't you? Let me talk with you. You can help it. You must make it a thought, and not a mere habit...

"The Yankee race from their 'stock' and make the American Republic a province of the papacy."

THE EASTERN WAR. Nothing decisive seems to have been achieved by either party, though the Turks have probably maintained their standing with more firmness than the Russians.

Passenger railroad company, has resigned and confessed he is implicated in the overissue of 10,000 shares of stock, representing over a million dollars, and that the fraud has been going on since 1870.

toration, and no personal Messiah to lead them back to the promised land. The dietary laws, and such of the ceremonies and festivals as are associated with the past history, are to be abolished.

The total number of blind persons now living is estimated at over two and a quarter millions. The proportion of blind persons to the entire population of the United States is 1 to 1,900, or 20,411 in a population of 39,115,641.

The Rev. Geo. R. Kramer, Wilmington, Del., who withdrew a short time since from the Methodist Episcopal Church, has been accompanied by about fifty members of his former charge. Mr. Kramer asserts a belief in the annihilation of impent men, and is organizing a church of his own on that basis.

"Nothing Succeeds Like Success." Success, after all, is the most commonly accepted measure of merit. Probably in the majority of cases, though not in all, this is as good a standard as the world can agree upon.

DEAR OLD HOMESTEAD is the title of a very fine new song, by Miss Anna C. Hill. This song has taken a strong hold on the popular fancy. No doubt there are thousands who never forget the "Dear Old Homestead," where so many happy hours were spent in joyfulness and peace, during their childhood days. Price 40 cents, with lithograph of a country homestead. Address all orders to W. W. Helnick, publisher, No. 50 West Fourth street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Bible Service.

Conducted by a Committee of the AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY. INTERNATIONAL LESSONS, 1877. FOURTH QUARTER. LESSON XL—PAUL AT CESAREA.

INTRODUCTION.

Let both teacher and scholar study carefully, with the aid of a Bible dictionary and map, the following names of persons and places mentioned in this lesson. Also be careful in getting the correct pronunciation of all Bible names: Cesarea, Philippi, Agabus.

CONNECTIONS.

At the close of the last quarter, Paul was on his way to Jerusalem. After leaving Miletus, he, with his companions, sailed to the islands, Coos and Rhodes, stopping a little at each, and thence to Patmos, where he met the disciples, and tarried seven days. Leaving Tyre, he came by ship to Ptolemais and afterward to Cesarea.

EXPLANATIONS.

I. Paul at the house of Philip. v. 9. Cesarea was the chief Roman city of Palestine, at this time, where the Roman rulers resided. It is on the Mediterranean coast, about 70 miles north-west from Jerusalem. Philip, the evangelist, was the son of a Greek father and a Jewish mother. He was a deacon in the church at Cesarea. Acts 6: 5.
