THE ELECTIONAL COMMISSION.

The Electoral Commission has decided in the case of Florida, and made report to Congress. It decides that the Republican electors have the legal evidence which entitles them to cast the electoral vote of the State.

The Revival at Milton. The work continues in a most powerful manner. The Union meetings have been held nearly five weeks in the Seventh-day Baptist church.

In a note to the editor, Bro. O. U. Whitford says: "We are having excellent meetings. God is pouring out his Spirit upon us. A number have found Jesus; others are seeking him."

Revival meetings have been held in this place for nearly six weeks; for the first four, under the leadership of Eld. C. M. Lewis.

At the decision determined that the vote cast by the Hayes electors is the true and lawful vote of the State of Florida.

The principal immediate interest in Turkish news centers around the removal of the Grand Vizier, Midhat Pasha.

THE NEW OIL TERRITORY. The recent discovery of oil in Cattaraugus county, with a fair presumption that it may be found in this county also, has quite a degree revived the oil fever.

THE MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY. No. 69 of The Lakeside Library contains the above splendid story by E. E. Hale; "They Saw a Great Light" by same author.

THE HOUSE WITHOUT A COUNTRY. The recent discovery of oil in Cattaraugus county, with a fair presumption that it may be found in this county also, has quite a degree revived the oil fever.
