

don't undertake to do it by assumption, for our Sunday friends try to make us believe that Sunday is the Sabbath in that way. Facts are what prove, brother.

MISSION ITEMS.

Platte River and Republican River Valley. Leaving North Loup on Dec. 4th, I proceeded down the valley to Cotesdale, S. Paul. At the former place I preached one. At S. Paul my acquaintance was very limited; nor are there any observers of the Seventh day as the Sabbath in the village or in the vicinity; nor is there any minister living in the village, and the occasional appointments for preaching so frequently prove to be disappointments on account of the failure of the minister to arrive, that many had become discouraged about attending. By arriving in town the day before my first appointment, and visiting a little from house to house and with business men in their places of business, it came to be understood that the preacher was on hand this time. It is a little trying to a minister to go to a village of strangers, and those strangers, perhaps for the most part irreligious. Yet I was treated with consideration and courtesy, and through the favor of God I do believe the four days spent there were not lost. Four sermons were listened to by unusually large audiences, with marked attention. The Sabbath truth was presented both by the distribution of tracts and by instruction both in public and private. When leaving, I was urged to press to remember and stop again whenever circumstances would possibly allow it. I do feel that the seed thus sown will not be in vain, and to God be all the glory, now and forevermore. At Grand Island, a package of tracts awaited me in the express office. This replenished, I proceeded to Kearney Junction, remained all night, and in the morning, Dec. 11th, found a brother with a very comfortable buggy and a good horse, ready to convey me to Orleans, in Italian County, Neb. The distance across the divide between the Platte and the Republican rivers at this point is at least fifty miles, but the day was very fine, the road smooth, and the journey was accomplished with ease, between 8 o'clock A. M., and 6 o'clock P. M., with one and a half hours rest at noon. There are several Sabbath-keepers, both Seventh day Baptists and Adventists, in the vicinity of Orleans. Some two or three prominent Christian workers have recently commenced keeping Sabbath, and the agitation on this question is deep. I also visited Republican City, where are also a few Sabbath-keepers. I remained nearly two weeks in this beautiful valley, preached nine times at Orleans and twice at Republican City. At Orleans on First day, Dec. 23rd, at 11 o'clock A. M., according to announcement one week previous, "The Sabbath" was the subject of discourse. On Second-day morning, Dec. 24th, I started for home. We wished he could stay longer. We feel under the deepest obligations to the Missionary Board for sending him here, and very much regret that we can not at present bear the expense of it. We bless the Lord for his coming. I do believe it will not be in vain. Come, O ye servant of God, whosoever can, whosoever will, come over and help us to come and make ourselves among us on this broad "sea of land," working as Nehemiah and his people did on the walls of Jerusalem, holding in one hand the weapons of truth divine. Shall this great valley be filled with first-day churches and no-day worshipings, and no church here to witness for the Sabbath?

The good crops of the year just passing give encouragement for crops to come here, and they are coming. Shall strangers wholly possess this land? Mr. Whitehead, formerly a Sunday-school superintendent (of whom my friends in Wisconsin have heard me speak), is one of the new converts to the Sabbath. He says that while we were gone, some one, he didn't know who, sent him the Sabbath Recorder, in which was published Ed. Gardner's sermon on the subject of the Sabbath. He says that after years of study and unrest on the subject, that sermon brought him to a decision, and he with his family have kept the Sabbath since that time. He is persecuted by some of his former friends, they not even allowing him in their meetings to give a reason for his change of practice. He wants to distribute Sabbath tracts. He has given him some of those that shine from his pages? Ed. Gardner's fulfillment of prophecy. We had a good meeting yesterday. We intend, by the help of God, to hold meetings every Sabbath. Pray for us.

WEST EDMONSON, N. Y., Dec. 31st, 1877.

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS HAVE BEEN HELD in this place five evenings, closing last night. They have been refreshing, so much so, as to have the character of a stirring religious revival. Through prayer, the influence of the Holy Spirit was felt among the people. The results are cheering. Two hundred and seventeen persons have signed the pledge with a purpose to keep it by the help of God. This has made many hearts glad. P. A. Bardick, Esq., of Kentucky, has led in the work. His lectures have made a powerful impression upon this community. An enthusiasm in the good cause has been kindled which, we trust, will not soon die. His labors in adjoining towns have been highly successful, remarkably so at Onsdilla FORKS AND WEST WINFIELD. Let God be praised for the reformation of men from habits of sottishness and shame, and for the instrumentalities of salvation provided in the gospel.

THE UNITED STATES SENATE. The Senate is now full, for the first time since it was disarranged by secession, and comprises seventy-six names as given below:

ALABAMA. GEORGE F. HOOPER, J. T. SULLIVAN, JOHN T. MORGAN, D. M. KEY, AUG. H. GARLAND, CALIFORNIA. A. S. PATTON, NEVADA. JOHN P. JOHNSON, NEVADA. JOHN P. JOHNSON, NEVADA. JOHN P. JOHNSON, NEVADA.

THE COLONY AGAIN. West Plains, N. Y., Jan. 3d, 1878. Having received a number of communications from different parts of the country, asking some questions, I concluded, with your permission, to answer them through the Sabbath Recorder, and present a few thoughts in reference to some plan for the accomplishment of the proposed colony.

1. Let some one who is interested in the work in his locality, obtain the names of those who will join the colony, and forward them to me at Wellsville, N. Y., and when a sufficient number have given in their names to warrant success.

2. Draw up some plan of organization, and choose a chairman and secretary.

3. Those who have become members of the colony choose a committee, say from three to five, to look out a location, having a regard to the health of the country, its adaptation to agricultural pursuits, and its advantages as a business locality.

4. Let each member of the colony pay a fee to be appropriated to the payment of the expenses of the locating committee.

QUESTIONS. 1. What colony do you mean when you refer to one in the Southern States? The name I do not recollect, but mention was made in the Recorder, a few weeks past, of one coming from the old country.

THE LIGOR QUESTION. Many of the most earnest friends of temperance in this State have believed it unwise to organize a distinct party on that question, fearing that such an organization would divide all in any way interested in, or sympathizing with the sale and use of spirituous liquors, to combine, regardless of existing party ties, and that the great monopolies, exerting such an influence in State politics, would unite with the liquor interest with a view to directing it for selfish purposes, thus virtually giving over the control of the State to the combined powers. It now seems, however, that the liquor interest is itself proposing to force the issue, whether temperance men will or not. A late number of the New York Tribune says:

THE COAL MINES. Colliery No. 4, at Summit Hill, near Pottsville, Pa., was fired by incendiaries some days ago, and a dispatch of Dec. 6th says it is still burning fiercely. The ground continues to give way, and in addition to an enormous quantity of coal, a quantity which went down on the 5th, it is now feared the fan house, used for purifying air in mines, will soon fall in. Five men working at the burning fan were overcome by sulphur fumes, and are believed to be dead. The loss thus far is probably $50,000.

THE BREAKER AT ELLEN GOWAN COLLIERY, LANNIGAN'S PATCH, near Pottsville, was destroyed by fire last night. This colliery is a very large one, shipping about a hundred car loads of coal daily. Loss $75,000, and four hundred thrown out of work.

THE CAUSE DISCOVERED. Men discover that it is far more convenient to adulterate the truth than to refine themselves. They will not advance their minds to the standard to their minds. Church Union.

JUST SO, BROTHER UNION, you have discovered the cause of all this controversy about the Sabbath. Men find themselves living in violation of the commandment of God, which requires the observance of the day which he sanctified and blessed, the seventh day, and rather than advance their minds and practice to the standard, they try to find some method of bringing the standard down to their practice, thereby practically leaving the world without a Sabbath.

RECONSTRUCTED SOUTH CAROLINA seems a rather inconvenient place for the execution of United States laws. Four United States officers recently created some parties for violation of the revenue laws, and seized the contraband property found in their possession in Union county, but were compelled by a mob of about two hundred, led by local officers of the place, to release the prisoners and restore the property taken.

BRITISH CONSUL IN TROUBLE. Great excitement is reported in London, Jan. 2d, in consequence of a report that a number of Christian families attempted to enter Rotino, a small town on the northern coast of the island of Crete, but were prevented by the Turkish populace who assaulted them, sparing neither men, women, nor children. After driving the Christians back, the Turks closed the gates of the town, and then pursued the British Vice Consul with knives, all his relations and the house of a brother Consul. The Turkish soldiers quietly stood by during the outrages. The British ironclad Rupert arrived at Athens Jan. 1st, and sailed at night for Rotino. It is believed that the British Consul will be assassinated, and temporarily.

OIL IN WYOMING. A dispatch (D. T.) of dispatch of the 28th inst., that Maj. Conkling's expedition returned in the evening, having covered petroleum springs. They state that the springs are located in Wyoming Territory, near Cheyenne River, and that there are two wells or springs, from which a fine sample of crude lubricating oil is taken, and which yields 400 barrels per day. Several parties have already taken up squatters claims on the ground. Baldwin, who had an extensive experience in the Pennsylvania region, pronounces these indications superior to any he has ever yet seen.

THE MEXICAN BORDER. A dispatch from Col. Hatch, in command at El Paso, dated Dec. 31st, says: All is fairly quiet in the valley. Have everything well in hand and under control. The Mexican customs officer for El Paso, who has just arrived from the City of Mexico, informed me that the cavalry of the United States is being ordered to furnish him protection against the lawless elements on his own side, and to prevent them crossing. The Mexican authorities seem inclined to do all they can to prevent the crossing.

FINN IN WESTERN. On the evening of Dec. 30th, a fire broke out in the drug store of E. G. Champlin & Co., on Main St., and destroyed property valued at $40,000, principally covered by insurance. The wind was blowing strongly, and but for the efficiency of the fire companies, the damage must have been much greater.

SUMMARY OF NEWS. That wintry weather which was promised by the prophet of the Scientific American for the commencement of 1878, has put in an appearance in accordance with the published program, and is driving down, grasshoppers, and other unseasonable curiosities will require no further paraphrasing until she finds itself farther below the top of the mercury in the thermometer than in the days of Noah.

An official telegram says that Sofia was entered Jan. 3d, after a skirmish in which the Russians lost one hundred forty. A telegram from Gen. Gortchakoff announces a desperate engagement on the 29th inst. between five battalions of Russian infantry and a brigade of cavalry, but were defeated, leaving a thousand dead on the field. The Russians lost 200.

Private letters from India announce that the British Government has proposed to send a force of 40,000 men to the American Board in India, the most of which time he served in the Maderia field. He was a native of Norwich, Ct., and is 72 years of age.

There was a man who could not be blamed for not knowing that Bardick & Rosebush kept Fresh Oysters, at all times, for sale at wholesale or retail, at the lowest market rates; but what excuse is there for ignorance of a matter of so much importance to your interest and health as that which all at their grocery at Alfred Centre will remove every doubt?
