HOME NEWS.

Silver Wedding and Wedding at Richmond, N. Y. Some time in November, 1863, twenty-five years ago, there might have been seen in the Sabbath Recorder, and, perhaps, in some other papers, a notice of the following report:

Married, in the town of Hartsville, Steuben county, N. Y., by Rev. D. M. Mason, Alfred M. CLARK, L. HALL, and Miss Anna A. PALMER, daughter of Silas and Elizabeth Palmer, both of Hartsville.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT. Nov. 23rd, 1878. It is a subject of remark here that none of the military companies visiting Washington from Southern cities ever carry an American flag.

Not aspiring, as the manner of some is, to surprise their friends, or to themselves surprised, the writer hereof was early invited to officiate at the compound, complex ceremony which should ratify and extend the old union, and consecrate the new.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.—Italy was greatly excited over an attempt to assassinate King Humbert, as he was entering Naples in state on Sunday, Nov. 17th. A dispatch to the New York Herald says: "The King and Queen arrived in Naples at twenty minutes past two o'clock this afternoon, and were met by a throng of thousands of people."

AN IMPORTANT CASE.—Binghamton (N. Y.) has had quite an excitement occasioned by the death of a prominent and respected citizen, Colonel Walton Dwight, after having procured life insurance to the amount of $250,000.

SUMMARY OF NEWS. The first week of Mr. Francis Murphy's gospel temperance meetings in the Seventh Street Methodist Episcopal church, in New York, has been attended with gratifying results. The services were crowded and the interest hearty.

ADVISES FROM SAN SALVADOR state that the volcanoes of Izalco and Santa Ana are in a state of activity. On the latter, from four or five distinct openings, fire, smoke, and ashes are pouring forth in vast volumes.

OUR NAVY DEPARTMENT has been very much agitated over the attempt of a pretended "old tar" to capture the whole American navy—four top-gallant sails and all—by claiming to be a survivor of the Huron disaster, and demanding his back pay, etc. But the gallant Secretary who manages the helm of our nautical bark, "smelled a rat."

THE FULTON WHOLESALE FISH MARKET, of New York, was burned on the morning of Nov. 17th.

Albion, Wis.

The Fall term of the academy closed on Wednesday, Nov. 20th. The institution has never had a pleasanter term, nor has better work ever been done.

The marriage of the aged King of Holland with the youthful Princess Emma of Saxony, which is to be consummated near the middle of January next, seems not to meet the approval of his sons or subjects.

At the last session of Congress, an appropriation of nearly $40,000 was made to satisfy an alleged Indian claim. An investigation shows that there was no foundation whatever for the claim.
