

LEAD THEM HOME. Lord, we trust thee for our holy duty...

THE TRACT SOCIETY. Thirty-sixth Annual Report of the Executive Board...

ANNUAL SERMON. Bro. A. L. Lewis was appointed to preach the Annual Sermon at this session...

INDEPENDENT OPERATIONS. One of the noteworthy signs of growing interest in Sabbath reform...

Bro. Nathan Gardner has printed, during the year, a sermon, in tract form, on the subject of the Sabbath...

Bro. James Bailey has served the cause in Wisconsin, with a praiseworthy zeal. He spent some time in labor at Carthage, Wis., organizing a church there...

These facts show light upon the labor of the past and serve to guide us in the future. They make our expectations still more confident...

The Sabbath Recorder

PUBLISHED BY THE AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY. ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y., FIFTH-DAY, JANUARY 1, 1880. VOLUME XXXVI--NO. 1.

guards of the little flock here to the Conference. Our prayers are for a rich blessing on all your doings...

With much love and esteem, yours in Christ, G. Veltjusen. Bro. Wm. M. Jones gives the following account of his work, during the year, in Great Britain...

It is expected that her labors will be continued through the year. May they be greatly blessed, and may both herself and the Societies she represents, be abundantly rewarded...

The following statement is taken from the report of the General Agent, and shows what has been done in tract printing since the last Annual Report:

From the foregoing it will be seen that the distribution for the year exceeds the publication by 222,500 pages. New additions of the Lord's Prayer, the Christian Sabbath, and Constantine and the Sunday...

The tracts printed were principally the remainder of the series by Bro. Gardner, one-half of the cost of which was met by the friend whose offer was mentioned in our last report...

This very generous offer has been thankfully accepted by vote of the Board. In years past we have seen how God has blessed the scattering of His truth...

PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT. The following statement of the business and condition of this department is furnished by the Publishing Agent:

Earnings. Record account, $1,800.00; Lesson Leaf, $1,818.81; Job work, $1,294.88; Advertising, $248.07; Sundries, $29.00.

Expenses. For stock, $1,108.38; Salaries, $300.00; Office Labor, $2,947.88; Postage, $1,818.81; Fuel, $82.50; Insurance, $154.68; Stationery, $23.00; Transportation, $66.28; New materials and fixtures, $140.04; Printing, $1,000.00; Commission and Exchange, $95.85; Sundries, $29.79; Balance, $1,093.45.

Assets. Due on Recorder accounts to close of Vol. 35, $7,148.11; Lesson Leaves to end of year, $117.77; Postage, $1,818.81; Advertising account, $101.32; Cash, $202.87; Total, $9,448.88.

Liabilities. Due on salaries to Sept. 30th, 1879, $812.50; Office Labor to Sept. 30th, 1879, $327.11; Lesson Leaves to end of year, $117.77; Postage, $1,818.81; Advertising account, $101.32; Cash, $202.87; Total, $2,479.56.

Respectfully submitted, D. R. STRILAN, Pub. Agt. By report of the Agent it will be seen that the delinquent subscribers to the Recorder must be the only grounds for any fear of disaster to our publishing interests...

The Women's Societies have generally continued their efforts through the year, but with considerable decrease of collections on account of the small returns from the farming business of the country...

The chief glory of Christianity is not in miracle, or prophecy, or ordinance, or civilizing and social influences, but in its power to spiritualize the heart and to lead the human mind to the truth of God's Word...

joint sessions with the sister Societies of Alfred and Hartsville, and regular quarterly meetings. At each of these sessions there has been an earnest and a stirring interest...

We propose that each member shall earnestly and prayerfully consider her obligation to the Society, and that she shall attend our meetings as she would to attend any social gathering, and learn the blessedness of being "a doorkeeper" in the house of the Lord...

Second Alfred. Regular meetings were held. Membership 59. Collections not reported. West Edmonston held usual meetings. Collections $36 52.

Hartsville. Collections $237. Leonardville. Usual meetings were held. Collections $49.

Nothing in history is more wonderful than the early triumphs of the gospel. It overcame the most formidable opposition arrayed against it by the prejudice and cupidity of Jews and Gentiles...

There is something very curious in the history of Christ observed at religious festivals, it is ancient, with a semi-Christian, semi pagan origin. It seems to have been originally a device by the early Christian teaching...

The Society has received during the year the sum of $16.41, which has been forwarded to you. This Society has changed its name from Milton to Milton Junction Auxiliary Tract Society.

MY OATHMEMOR. To whom do I belong? You are not your own; you are bought with a price...

It is God who works in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Phil. 2:13. Our sufficiency is in God, Cor. 3:3.

THE MINISTERS WIFE - A TRUE STORY. We were about getting a new minister, a difficult matter, as all can testify who have tried it...

THE OVERCOMING POWER OF THE GOSPEL. Nothing in history is more wonderful than the early triumphs of the gospel. It overcame the most formidable opposition arrayed against it...

CHRISTMAS. There is something very curious in the history of Christ observed at religious festivals, it is ancient, with a semi-Christian, semi pagan origin...

THE CHIEF TROUBLE OF IT. A distinguished theological professor remarked lately in our hearing, that "skepticism is in the air. The chilling mists and fog have rolled in, and the sun is hidden away...

IMPERFECT IN ORIGINAL. The danger now is not from an belief without the church, but from a church without belief. The danger is not from a man who has no faith, but from a man who has a false faith...

