THE SABBATH AND THE SUNDAY. By Rev. A. H. Lewis, A. M. Part First, Argu-ments. Part Second., History 16mo 268 pp. Fine Cloth, $1 25.

This volume is an earnest and able pre mutation of the Sabbath question, argumentatively and historically, and should be in the hands of every one desiring light on the subject.

HOUGHTS SUGGESTED BY THE PERUSAL OF GILFILIAN AND OTHER AUTHORS ON THE Pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist Church 125 pp. Fine Cloth, 50 cents. Paper 10 cents. .

This is in many respects the most able rgument yet published. The author was educated in the observance of Sunday and was for several years a highly esteemed minister in the Baptist denomination. The book is a careful review of the arguments in favor of Sunday, and especially of the work of James Gilfillan, of Scotland which has been widely circulated among the clergymen of America. Mr. Brown has thoroughly sifted the popular notions relative to Sunday, with great candorkindness and ability. We especially commend it to those who, like Mr. Brown. have been taught to revere Sunday as the Sabbath.

A DEFENSE OF THE SABBATH, in reply to Ward on the Fourth Commandment By Geo. Carlow. Third Edition-Revis ed. 168 pp. 25 cents.

This work was first published in London n 1724. It is valuable as showing the state of the Sabbath argument at that time.

VINDICATION OF THE TRUE SABBATH, in 2 parts. Part First, Narrative of Recent Events: Part Second, Divine appoint-ment of the Seventh Day, by Rev. J. ment of the Seventh Day, by Rev. J. W. Morton, late Missionary of the Re-formed Presbyterian Church. 60 pp. Paper. 10 cents.

This work is one of decided walue, not only as regards the argument adduced, but as showing the extreme want of liberality and fairness which characterized the tria and excommunication of Mr. Morton from the Presbyterian Church.

IDOLATRY. An Essay read before the Ministerial Conference of the Seventh day Baptist Churches of Southern Wisconsin, held at Walworth, on Nov. 11th. 1879, and requested to be published in the RE-CORDER, by vote of the Conference.

BY J. T. HAMILTON. Man is naturally a worshiping be ing, and the idea of an almighty, superior and overruling Power, has always existed, universally, in the human mind. Even at this remote distance from the beginning of time, there is no nation or people upon our earth, that has not some object or objects which are regarded as entitled to adoration and worship, notwithstanding the darkness and degeneracy which prevails over a large portion of the globe. The Bible reveals to us the true, the everliving, self existing Being, the Jehovah, who possesses in himself in infinite perfection, the attributes of al mighty power, unbounded wisdom and goodness, perfect knowledge of everything, of absolute holiness and justice, whose presence is everywhere, and throughout all duration, past and future, for he inhabiteth eternity. This Being, the Bible declares, is the Creator and Preserver of all things, and, therefore, the true object of worship; and the pure, spiritual worship of this Being may be called the true religion, and the worship of any other being or obiect. either real or imaginary, is positive and negative meaning, enfalse religion or idolatry, and is one of the sad results of the introduction of sin into our world; for if men were not sinners they would never be idolaters. The apostle Paul, in his Epistle to the Romans, gives a very clear state ment respecting the manner in which men become idolaters. At first, all had the knowledge of the true God.

us that "the men of Sodom were wicked, and sinners before the Lord exceedingly." Still Lot went there to live. "Those whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad." Lot is morally insane; all sin is moral insanity. Trouble soon comes to Lot. He is captured by the foar Kings of the East and carried off a prisoner. He seems to have exchanged his pastoral wealth for city lots. It is altogether likely that he married a daughter of Sodom. It was a poor place surely to find a wife. He is now thoroughly identified with the interests of the city. He must share its fortunes. So he s carried off by its enemies. His unishment comes on apace. The oble uncle now comes to his rescue.

But Lot still gravitates downward. This is the way of sin. The detested Burk himself acknowledges that when he captured his first victims neck and kiss her were greatly puzled. NATURE'S GOD AND HIS MEMORIAL ATURE'S GOD AND HIS MERCHIAL. Series of Four Sermons on the subjest of the Sabbath. By Nathan Wardney late missionary at Shanghai. China, sub-sequently engaged in Sabbath Beform labors in Scotland. 112 pp. Paper, 15.

THE SABBATH AND THE SUNDAY. By Rev. A. H. Lewis, A. M. Part First, Arge-ments. Part Second, History 18mo 268 pp. Fine_Cloth, $1 25.

This volume an earnest and able pre entation of the Sabbath question, argamentatively and historically, and should be in the hands of every one desiring light on the subject.

THOUGHTS SUGGESTED BY THE PERUSAL OF GILFILLAN AND OTHER AUTHORS ON T Pastor of the Seventh day Baptist Church at Little Geneace, N. Y. Second Edition 125 pp. Fine Cloth, 50 cents. Paper

This is in many respects the most able argument yet published. The author was educated in the observance of Sunday and was for several years a highly esteemed minister in the Baptist denomination. The book is a careful review of the arguments in favor of Sunday, and especially of the work of James Gilfillan, of Scotland which has been widely circulated among the clergymen of America. Mr. Brown has thoroughly sifted the popular notions relative to Sunday, with great candorkindness and ability. We especially commend it to those who, like Mr. Brown. have been taught to revere Sunday as the sabbath.

A DEFENSE OF THE SABBATH, in reply to Ward on the Fourth Commandment By Geo. Carlow. Third Edition-Bevis ed. 168 pp. 25 cents.

This work was first published in London n 1724,- It is valuable as showing the state of the Sabbath argument at that time.

INDICATION OF THE TRUE SABBATH, In 2 parts. Part First, Narrative of Recent Evente. Part Second, Divine appointment of the Seventh Day, by Rev. J. W. Morton, late Missionary of formed Presbyterian Church. 60 pp. Paper, 10 cents.

This work is one of decided value, not only as regards the argument adduced. but s showing the extreme want of liberality and fairness which characterized the tria and excommunication of Mr. Morton from the Presbyterian Church.

a loved member of a Christian church, and has been for many years. In his Christian profession he solemply promised to take the Holy Scriptures as the guide of his life. In reaching this precious Book, he learned that the Creator made the world in six days, and that on the seventh he rested. That because in it he had rested he blessed and set it apart from the other days as a day of rest. That Jehovah, when he elation wrote the immortal Decalogue with his own finger on tables of stone, put in the midst of them the command to "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," and then said "The seventh day is the Sabbath." Reading this, he could not, as an informed and conscientious man, reall the enemies of the church. The fuse to keep the day commanded. He also saw that this day was sacredly regarded by the ancient peo common version, it is rendered " ple of God. Baal-and they did not give to their newly chosen chief deity the day once connected with the Jehovah. now deepised by them, but they gave Sunday to the worship of Baal. And so among heathen nations Sunday is the fayorite day. Do they ever make a mistake in counting? In the fourth commandment it is implied that we may forget to keep holy the Sabbath day, but no hint of the possibility of our forgetting which day is the seventh day. Between creation and the time of Moses there appears the best chance to have lost the reckoning of the weeks. But when the Israelites were led into the wilderness out of Egypt, did not God, by distinct miracle, for forty years clearly markout for them which day was his holy ~ day? Will you say that God deliberately deceived the Israelites, and taught them to observe a day different from the one in which, as he wrote in the commandments, he rested from his creation works? Remember that the Scriptures say God wrote these ten commandments with his own floger. Then we are not to trifle with the wording of them. Turn to John, first chapter. Is it not said there that the Word made all things ? Then Jesus Christ made the werld and rested the seventh day, and made it his holy Sabbath; and in Luke 6: 5 and Matt. 7: 8, Jesus distinctly avows this fact. and in Mark 2: 27 the additional assertion is made that this same Sabbath was the one made for man.
