

Sabbath, Oct. 23, 1881. Sermon by L. F. Davis; imposition of hands by the pastor and deacons present; consecrating the altar by L. F. Randolph, and hand of fellowship charge by James B. Davis.

Milton Junction, Wis. Nov. 23, 1881. Friends of Eld. N. Wardner decided to give him a "surprise" on the evening of Sabbath.

The editor of the Times is the only man in the State prepared to make the proof you want. The foregoing is a true copy from the original now before me.

An Evening at Cane Run, Ky. On the 28th of October I left Fordsville, and was carried by a brother into the vicinity of Cane Run Baptist Church, where I had, by request, sent an appointment to preach on First-day, Oct. 30th.

THE MINTS.—The Director of the Mint reports that the gold and silver received and operated upon by all the mints and assay offices during the last fiscal year exceeded by more than $50,000,000 the receipts of any previous year.

CHILI AND PERU.—A special dispatch from Washington to the New York Commercial says: "A high official, who knows where he speaks, assures your correspondent that the United States government will enter a remonstrance against the policy pursued by Chili toward Peru, and intimate in strong terms that this government can not look on quietly and see the Peruvian government divested of all its power as a nation, and that the time has come for Chili to cease its policy of humiliating Peru and forcing it into a position where it can not recover."

THE WOMAN'S TEMPERANCE UNION. The Woman's Temperance Union of Alleghany county, convened in Andover, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 15 and 16, 1881. Delegates were present from Alfred, Alfred Centre, Andover, Belmont, Cuba, Friendship, Richburg, Wellsville, Independence, Scio, and Nile.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.—A St. Petersburg dispatch of Nov. 26th, says: "A youth under the pretence of urgent state business, obtained an audience to-day at the Ministry of the Interior with General Tcheravine, who was presiding over a commission for mitigating sentences of exiles."

Bro. James received a card, which I copy for the instruction and edification of the readers of the RECORDER, while they join with, and help me wait with patience for the writer to fulfill his promise, and claim the reward.

Here is a true copy of the card: OFFICE The Apostolic Times $2 Per Annum in Advance.

H. H. C. O. James, Dear Sir,—Your $100 reward offer has been sent to this office. We will accept the offer, and will make positive proof in a future issue of the Times, and will send you a marked paper containing it.

The editor of the Times is the only man in the State prepared to make the proof you want.

The foregoing is a true copy from the original now before me. And although the card is dated Oct. 12th, and promises the positive proof within two or three weeks, it has not yet come to hand.

Long Branch, Neb. Eld. H. B. Lewis having been sent to Long Branch as missionary, meetings have been held almost every evening since our Yearly Meeting, with an increased interest.

A PLUCKY PARSON.—Rev. W. L. Gage, of Hartford, Conn., on entering his house in the night, recently, encountered a burglar, with whom he clinched.

AN OIL DERRICK has been erected just west of this village, and drilling will be commenced soon. It is not generally thought probable that the enterprise will prove particularly lucrative, though some interest is manifested in the result.

The World's London special says: "The increase of agrarian crime in Ireland causes great anxiety to the Ministry. The League leaders still at large openly approve of the murders and incendiarism into which the struggle for land reform has now degenerated."

Quite an excitement was caused in Elmira, last week, by the discovery of a box in store at the Northern Central depot, addressed to "J. W. Carter, Elmira."

The London Truth says that the threatened litigation between the Baroness Burdette Coutts and her relatives has been avoided. All the counsel consulted having considered that as she married a foreigner, which she could not do under the terms of the will of the Duchess of St. Albans, without renouncing her interest in the Coutts Bank, the Baroness has, therefore, resigned her half share in the bank, but will continue to receive a small annual allowance as a compensation.

The will of the late Geo. Law, the millionaire, leaves to his wife $25,000 in cash and $100,000 in United States bonds, the use of his house in New York, and his country seat at Jackson, Washington county. He also leaves her all the furniture, and directs that she be paid $25,000 a year.

Alexander H. Stevens recently said in reply to an inquiry as to his health: "Oh, I am not dead yet, and my general health is pretty good, may be a little better than it has been for the last three years. I have read my obituary three times, but I now weigh ninety-four pounds. I have been down to seventy-three. I am up and down by turns, but on the whole have no ground for complaint."

Section 171 of the Postal Regulations, providing for the redemption of postal cards that may be spoiled while in the hands of private parties, by printing or otherwise, has been revoked, to take effect on the 1st of February, 1882.

A heavy gale is reported to have prevailed throughout the United Kingdom, on the 26th and 27th of November, doing great damage. Nearly the whole of the pier at Folkstone, and the greater part of that at Ventnor were carried away; and many wrecks on the coast are reported.

It is stated authoritatively that Secretary Blaine will not be a candidate for Representative in Congress, or a candidate for Governor or United States Senator, when he retires from President Arthur's Cabinet.

According to the New York Herald's Washington correspondent, there is no indication that Guiteau's trial will end before Christmas. It is claimed that six or more experts, including some employed by the government, to examine Guiteau, will pronounce him insane.

The effect of the unusually severe and long continued competition of the railroads, for through passengers, during the past season, instead of being disastrous, has been really profitable. The increase in business has more than compensated for the reduction in price.

President Arthur refuses to remove office holders except for cause, but gives notice that at the expiration of terms, offices will be considered vacant. It is expected that from henceforward there will be a very general desire to be Arthur men.

Scoville is receiving high commendation for his legal ability in conducting the defense of Guiteau, Robinson having retired from the case. People can appreciate talent, whatever they may think of the merits of the case in which it is exhibited.

The wife of Police Commissioner Malone, of Jersey City, on the morning of Nov. 26th, arrested two men, whom she caught stealing blankets. Mrs. Malone started to the station-house with her prisoners, who soon broke loose and ran away.

A Paris dispatch says that in the Chamber of deputies, M. Brisson read a decree withdrawing the bill relative to the inspection of imported and salted meats. This probably refers to the decree prohibiting the importation of American pork.

James Freeman Clarke complains that "the great fault of the public schools of today is the terrible pressure of work imposed on the children."
