overcomes the opposing forces of ignorance and sin, requires the steady inflowing of means, which only comes through united and organized endeavor.

Perhaps the simplest form of organization in which this end can be attained, may be considered the most desirable.

Undoubtedly circumstances place the majority of women in our denomination under the necessity of employing most of their time and strength in domestic labor...

There can be no surer or better means of increasing missionary zeal, than by increasing knowledge of the needs of humanity.

To women of the present generation is given almost exclusively the care and training of children, both in the home circle and the public schools...

A gain over last year of 199 weeks of missionary labor, and 430 sermons preached.

WOMAN'S PART IN MISSIONARY WORK.

BY MRS. MARY B. CLARKE.

The time has passed in which it was necessary to question whether or not woman has a part in missionary work.

Yet we all admit that the benefit of Christian labor, of any kind, is not limited to the recipients of that labor...

We need to take hold promptly and earnestly of the work of evangelizing the world. When Christ commanded his followers to go into all the world...

While much good is undoubtedly accomplished by individual generosity, springing as it is apt to do from sudden impulses...

Our working force has, to our regret, been diminished by the marriage of Miss Nelson, on the 6th of June, 1882...

B. E. Fisk, Alfred Centre, N. Y.—Missionary pastor for the year of the Hornellsville Church. Increasing congregations, and a growing interest in Sabbath truth...

Herbert E. Babcock, Orleans, Neb.—Missionary pastor and general missionary for 26 weeks at Orleans, Neb., and Walnut Creek, Kas., with four other preaching stations.

Samuel R. Wheeler, Pardee, Kas.—Missionary for 39 weeks at Long Branch, Harvard, and Orleans, Neb., with ten other preaching stations.

F. F. Johnson, Stone Fort, Ill.—Missionary pastor and general missionary for 42½ weeks at Stone Fort, Enon, and Raleigh, with three other preaching stations.

C. J. Sindall, Dodge Centre, Minn.—Missionary among the Scandinavians in Minnesota for 37 weeks, with fourteen preaching stations.

John T. Davis, Humboldt, Neb.—Missionary pastor for 15 weeks at Lotg Branch, with one other preaching station.

Geo. J. Crandall, North Loup, Neb.—Missionary pastor during the year at North Loup and Davis, Neb., with one other preaching station.

The following is a summary statement of the work performed by the Secretary: 35 places have been visited in 11 States...

Our working force has, to our regret, been diminished by the marriage of Miss Nelson, on the 6th of June, 1882...

Bro. Davis has written several times during the year, very clearly and earnestly, in regard to the importance of enlarging our foreign mission operations...

The Board is appropriating at the rate of $300 a year towards the support of Bro. G. Velthuysen, of Haarlem, as pastor and general missionary.

Lewis F. Randolph, New Salem, W. Va., has been missionary pastor, during the year, of the Greenbrier and Ritchie churches...

Horace Stillman, Niantic, R. I., has been missionary pastor, for the entire year, of the Woodville and Second Westerly churches.

W. J. Haight, Watson, N. Y., has been missionary pastor for 46 weeks, of the Watson Church, with two other preaching stations.

Joshua Clarke, DeRuyter, N. Y., has visited the Church at Otselic every two weeks during the year, preaching 104 sermons.

E. A. Witter, Alfred Centre, N. Y.—Nine weeks with the churches of Portville, N. Y., and Bell's Run, Pa. There was an increasing religious interest...

CHINA.

During the quarter ending Nov. 30th, 1881, Bro. D. H. Davis preached 75 sermons in Shanghai and at several inland stations...

The following publications were printed: Small Calendars 150 pages, Large Calendars 1,500 pages, Small Sheet Tracts 500 pages...

Miss A. E. Nelson has had the direction and aid of a Bible woman, and the care of three day schools, during a part of the year.

Last Sunday being Christmas, I invited all the pupils in the three schools to meet at our house. There were about forty children in all...

There have thus been connected with our China Mission during the year, Rev. D. H. Davis and wife, Miss Nelson, two native preachers, one Bible woman, and three teachers of day schools.

Mr. Davis has been authorized to purchase a piece of land in the city of Ga Dene, and to erect thereon a suitable building for a day school...

HIS BEST AND BRIEFEST SERVICE.

Mrs. Gilbert Curtis had just returned from the sewing circle and was laying away her outside garments, when her husband entered the room.

"Many of the folks been to see you yet?"
asked Miss Skilton.
" Oh, yes; quite a number. All very kind, pleasant people, too."

It might seem a very simple, insignificant affair over which to offer a silent prayer, but as she did so an idea all at once occurred to her.

A SWISS HERO.
"God has his plan
For every man."
Whatever may be our views of war, the patriotic defense of a country has, in all ages, received its proper merit of praise.

over his pale face, Hans opened his eyes and said, "It is not now you should weep for me; I am happy now. Yes, mother, it is true."
