A. COTTRELL, Breeder of Percheron Horses. Six State Fair premiums out of

Berlin, N. Y.

R. GREEN & SON. DEALERS IN GENERAL MERCHANDIER Drugs and Paints.

New York City.

HE BABCOCK & WILCOX CO. Patent Water-tube Steam Boilers. EO. H&BABCOUR, Pres. 30 Cortlandt St.

M. TITSWORTH, MANUFACTURER OF FINE CLOTHING. Custom Work a Specialty
L. TITSWORTH. 300 Canal St.

POTTER, JR. & CO. PRINTING PRESSES. 12 & 14 Spruce St. POTTER, JR. H. W. FISH. JOS. M. TITSWORTE

Leonardsville, N. Y. RMSTRONG HEATER, LIME EXTRACTOR, and CONDENSER for Steam Engines.

MSTRONG HEATER Co., Leonardsville, N. Y.

Plainfield, N. J.

MERICA'N SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY. EXECUTIVE BOARD. POTTER, JR., Pres., J. F. HUBBARD, Treas E. TITSWOTRH, Sec., G. H. BARCOCK, Cor. Sec. Plainfield, N. J. egular meeting of the Board, at Plainfield, N. the second First-day of each month, at 2 P. W

HE SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST MEMORIAL BOARD. SE. POTTER, JR., President, Plainfield, N. J. R. Pope, Treasurer, Plainfield, N. J.,

F. Hubbard, Secretary, Plainfield, N. J. fts for all Denominational Interests solicited. mpt payment of all obligations requested. OTTER PRESS WORKS. Builders of Printing Presses.

POTTER, JR., Proprietor. M. STILLMAN. ATTORNEY AT LAW.

· Supreme Court Commissioner, etc. Westerly, R. I.

L. BARBOUR & CO., DRUGGISTS AND PHARMACISTS. No. 1, Bridge Block.

N. DENISON & CO., JEWELERS. RELIABLE GOODS AT FAIR PRICES inest Repairing Solicited.

F STILLMAN & SON, MANUFACTURERS OF STILLMAN'S AXLE OIL. ie only axle oil made which is ENTIRELY FREE gumming substances.

BENIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. OF HARTFORD, CONN. WM. C. STANTON, General Agent, 5, R. I. 5 Custom House St., Providence, R. I.

orrespondence with Seventh day Baptist young with a view to establishing agencies solicited. cies written on reasonable terms. All correindence respecting agencies or policies receivempt attention. Address at Westerly, or Provi-

HE SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST MISSION ARY SOCIETY RGE GREENMAN, President, Mystic Bridge, Ct. J. WHITFORD, Recording Secretary, Westerly, E. Main, Corresponding Secretary, Sisco, Fla. BERT L. CHESTER, Treasurer, Westerly, R. L.

Chicago, Ill.

RDWAY & CO., MERCHANT TAILORS. 205 West Madison St.

RED. D. ROGERS, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND PHARMACIST, e, 2334 Prairie av. Store, 2406 Cottage Grove av B. COTTRELL & SONS, CYLINDER PRINTING PRESSES, for Hand and Steam Power.

112 Monroe St.

Milton, Wis.

tory at Westerly, R. I.

ILTON COLLEGE, Milton, Wis.

The Fall Term opens Aug. 31, 1887. REV. W. C. WHITFORD, D. D., President. W: CLARKE, DEALER IN BOOKS, ANCY AND HOLIDAY GOODS. Milton, Wis.

REGISTERED PHARMACIST, Milton, Wis Office Building.

Milton Junction, Wis.

Notary Public, Conceyancer, and Town Clerk.
Office at residence, Milton Junction, Wis. he Sabbath Becorder,

AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY.

ALFRED CENTRE, ALLEGANY CO., N. T.

pars to foreign countries will be charged so cents ad-paper discontinued until arrearages are paid. emer-ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT. remainst advertisements will be inserted for 15 cents at 15 for the first insertion; subsequent insertion; problems, 30 cents per inch. Special contract inserting extensively, or for long terms, pall advertisements inserted at legal rates of the period o

A III has solved for the pro-

Recorder. Sabbath

PUBLISHED BY THE AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY.

"THE SEVENTH-DAY IS THE SABBATH OF THE LORD THY GOD."

TERMS 12 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE

VOL. XLIII.-NO. 32.

ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y., FIFTH-DAY, AUGUST 11, 1887.

WHOLE NO. 2217.

Sabbath Recorder.

Entered as second-class mail matter at the postffice at Alfred Centre, N. Y.

CONTENTS.

Pleading Prayer. Christ's Message to Working Men....

Vacation Notes.....
The time of The Lord's Supper..... Flitting Sunward.—No. 18.....

A Bad Temper Cured.....

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.....

BY ANNIE L. HOLBERTON.

WHICH WAY?

You have launched your boat on life's river vast, You follow the throng that is floating past: But a voice is speaking to me, to thee. In accents of pleading, "Follow thou me!" It is the voice of Jesus.

'Tis easy to float with the morning tide, Gay scenes of pleasure on every side; Thus drifting along as the water's flow, The call grows fainter the farther you go, Drifting away from Jesus.

The way is enchanting, the stream is wide, While on the current you swiftly glide, But the few who earnestly ply the oar And would work their course for another shore Work in the name of Jesus.

The light of his love o'er the wave shall shine, Faith and hope will the victor's wrath entwine, For those who will still in his strength abide, And patiently rowing against the tide, Renounce the world for Jesus.

Though storms may rage, let the heart rejoice, While through the tempest we hear his voice Whom "even the winds and sea obey;" The power of his truth shall prepare the way To anchor safe with Jesus.

THE ENGLISH TRANSLATION OF THE BIBLE.

A View of the Times before the Translation.

BY REV. W. H. ERNST.

The history of the world is so connected, related and mutually dependent upon its one influence to the results of another. Fredebris of human history.

subsequent history of the world. Instead | course followed by the Catholic Church. inent laymen of becoming acquainted more tor, that prompted to this course. When completely with the policy and motives of they had the power to raise the church to veneration and respect in which the church knowledge, a refusal, or even neglect, to do

15, 1215, when the celebrated Magna Charta | ed without religious spirit. Not only were | praise, so Higgins gets more than his share. This was done in consequence of a demand but were ground down by superstition and vice league, and the scape goat of the Demomade by the barons, the lowest degree of the priestcraft. It must require the upheaval of cratic party, he has had a very unpleasant hereditary nobility. This demand was made | the divine omnipotence to furnish a way of with the cogency of war, and was yielded by escape. the king as a political necessity. By this act the English government became a limited monarchy. The parliament followed in 1265. This fundamental change was a material improvement, which was of lasting benefit to the world. Religious enthrallment is not so easily thrown off as is political slavery.

At this time the Catholic Church had great power over all classes of men. Perhaps, however, it had passed its zenith of power. It is certain that it had a very strong hold upon the nation in many ways. The political power of the church represented its most doubtful prerogative, and at the same time showed its extent of power. During the between the pope, as the representaive of the the two centuries of the Crusades. It is called "a long and deadly strife." The plan of the church to rule was only limited by its power to do it. "Aggressive," "ambitious" of the church in its relation to the civil and the spirit of Christ. This contest was in the Secretary's native state, Delaware.

carried to a great extent. The Bible teaches us to be obedient to the government, while the church sought to govern the government, to depose and appoint the rulers, and then to interfere with their ruling. of the late General W. S. Hancock has been This interference was carried to an alarming | mentioned in connection with the place, but extent. The clergy were exceedingly cor- it is not thought likely it will be offered or rupt, profligate and unclerical. There that she would accept it, it was. In the was scarcely any class less qualified to rule meanwhile, Frank B. Offiger continues to than they. They rolled in wealth extorted from the poor in various ways. That "they fared sumptuously every day" might be better said of the pretended religious instructors than it was of the rich fool by Christ. Money was their god, if it ever was of any class of people. The sale of indulgences was a Satanic invention for the sole purpose of inchurch taught that by the payment of a certain sum of money, the sinner was absolved from the penalty of his sin, and also, by the payment of an additional amount, they would be given a license to commit sin with impufinancial gain to the church. The clergy their system of tithes which come through the secular power, besides the fees for specific duties. The devotees of the cloister drew heavily upon the people's sympathies and purse. The "Holy Sisters" were held in admiration, if not in reverence, and on morsel with him. After all this there were the "Mendicant Friars" who came in great contrast with the clerical nobility, in simple different parts, that it is difficult to see poorest. There seemed to be no stone unwhere an influence begins and where it ends. turned that would extort money from the by being present in person. Perhaps we may always trace the origin of poor. Other means were used to enable them "to lord it over God's heritage." It is a quently it happens that the two influences common aphorism that "knowledge is powthey would have no connection with each the vital element of power is knowledge. other. It is a great study to endeavor to Unlimited power in a monarch is more likely find the "why" and "whence" in the to be found with ignorance in the subject. If the feeling of self-aggrandizement is pre-The crusades have always been regarded eminent it would indicate the policy of keep-

are so dissimilar that one would think that | er." The converse of this must be true, that | joying himself with his usual sang froid. as having a fermenting influence upon the ing the subject in ignorance. This was the brought against him. Once he was heard to of stagnation they gave life. The good they During the Dark Ages the clergy has been good about me, when I am so much abused. did was more in breaking up the fallow given the honor of preserving the knowledge I have served a great many people a good ground, bringing the different elements in of the world while all other classes remained | turn in my time. There are some who ought contact with each other, and thereby pro- in ignorance. It seems to me rather that it to remember me kindly." And so there are. ducing a different result. The opportunity | should be regarded as their shame. It was | Many a timid frightened applicant for office. which this afforded to the politically prom- the motive of a despot rather than a benefac- does remember Mr. Higgins with kindness. the papal court, resulted in lessening the nearer their own level by imparting their awakened hope in the heart of many a downwas previously held, which secured a tend- so in order to enhance their own power, is making a refusal seem a benefaction, and no truth of it. That is a good pleading. A ency toward religious reforms, as well as criminal, and furnishes the sequel to much one can say he ever answered him roughly was ratified by King John of England. the people bound with the fetters of sin, Between being the Barabbas of the civil ser-

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5, 1887.

On Monday Mrs. Cleveland, accompanied by her mother and aunt, left. Washington for a small sea-coast town in Massachusetts. near New Bedford. Gen. Greeley, chief of the signal office, is with his family, passing the They are sight seeing at the Capital, and apsummer there, and Mrs Cleveland and her party are his guests. The President stayed behind at Oak View, not even coming into town the morning of his wife's departure to see her off on the train. One cannot blame middle ages there was a continual contention | him for preferring his country home to the White House, for Oak View is doubly attract church, and the emperors, or civil powers. | ive at this season by contrast to the official resi-This contest was especially marked during | dence of the President, which is more a public office than a home at all seasons. On Tuesday a Cabinet meeting was held at Oak View instead of at the Executive Mansion. The Attorney General and the Secretary of and "tyrannical" were appropriate epithets State were the only members absent. Secretary Lamar and Post Master General Vilas drive out every evening and are the It has been said that, "The aim of the President's guests for the night during this Romish prelacy was no less than the entire protracted warm spell. Secretary Bayard, monopoly of all ecclesiastical and all secular with one of his numerous daughters, has rule!" What a contrast there is between this gone to Rehoboth Beach, a sea-coast resort

There has been no nomination made for the postmastership here yet. It does not appear that the President has so far given the subject his direct attention. The widow act as postmaster of Whington. He has been a most efficient and painstaking officer, and has made many improvements in the local service, and has handled the immense governmental mail matter that arrives at the Washington office every morning with wonderful accuracy and dispatch. His successor would do well to imitate his example, creasing the coffers of the church. The but Mr. Conger is too young a man to waste his talents by remaining in office. He has capacities that ought to win for him personal benefits. It may not be generally known, that all the immense mail that comes in and goes out of Washington, for the U.S. Govnity. This doctrine was a source of great ernment, has to pass through the city postoffice. Such is the case, and when one rereceived immense sums of money through | flects on the great amount of work done in the several departments almost entirely by means of the postal service, an idea of the quantity of matter handled in the post-office may be conceived. There is very little personally conducted business transacted in said: the Departments, specially when Congress that account the poor would divide their last as not in session. It is all done by correspondence and by attorneys who are in correspondence with their clients. Any one who lives at a distance from the seat of governclothing and life, barefooted, and poor, and ment, having a claim, a grievance, or money these were able to take still more from the or lands to redeem, can have his business negotiated just as well by letter as he could

Eugene Higgins, chief of the appointment division in the Treasury, is away at Long Branch on a three weeks' vacation, and is en-Mr. Higgins is at present the best advertised, and the most abused man of the Administration. He takes it all very cooly and was never known to complain of the indiscriminate and unproven charges that are His cheerful good nature and easy pleasant cast man and woman. He has the knack of sort of greatness, since now-a-days greatness means notoriety, thrust upon him. But his friends know him to be by no means as black as he is painted.

The Siamese princes and suite arrived in Washington this morning. The princes are quite young, their ages ranging from nine to fifteen years. There-are eight brothers of them, but they won't be missed at home, for eleven other brothers remain in Siam to keep their parents from feeling lonely. pear to enjoy it.

"Lucy," said Tom, "I heard a capital story to-day. I'll tell it to you, for it's true every time. A man and his wife were disputing about a piece of cloth. 'It's linen, said he; 'It's cotton,' said she. A friend who overheard the argument asked the huspand next day how they finally settled the uestion. 'Oh,' replied he, 'we compromised—compromised on cotton!"

"Nonsense!" said Lucy. "That's a regular man's story. You and I compromise on linen just as often as we do on cotton, and that's the way it ought to be. Life is all a compromise. However, I think this is a very good idea: first cotton, then linen, then cotton, then linen. Let's try it."

For a long time the rule worked to charm. Whenever opinions clashed in that happy family, linen or cotton had it. Turnand turn-about. But at length it was found that even this equitable division might be subject to abuses.

One morning at the breakfast-table, Tom

"Where shall we spend our vacation?" "Let's go to Newport," said Lucy. "Oh, no, I can't afford that. Let's go lown to the old homestead in Apponegan-"Well," said Lucy, "don't decide about it now; there's time enough. We'll talk it all over this evening." At dinner, Lucy exclaimed, "Tom, you must send up the plumbers this afternoon, to look after the kitchen sink!" "I shall do nothing of the kind; there's nothing the matter with the sink. You are always pouring peppermint down the pipes, to see if there is a leak, and when the smell of the peppermint goes all over the house, as of course it does, you sniff around with your nose in the air, and say, 'I was certain there was something defective about that drainage.' Besides, it's my turn now to have my way, and we'll compromise on linen." That settled it; and in the evening the vacation appropriation bill came up before the house for discussion. Lucy flatly refused to go into the country, where she would meet no one but "farmers' daughters and mosquitoes," and, after a stormy session, asserted that it was her turn to have her way, and that she would not give up her rights. So Newport it was to be.

However the next day Lucy made her appearance, with red and swoolon eyes, and

"Donkey, dear, aren't you ashamed of yourself? Couldn't you see that it was all a There is no warrant in it for a demand upon ruse of mine about the kitchen sink? There's others that they shall give their property to nothing the matter with the plumbing—at us because they have more than we have least nothing more than usual; only I wanted | When the socialist, with revolver in one to quarrel about something, so as to give you hand and empty money-bag in the other, your way, and then it would be my turn to decide about going to Newport. Wasn't it perfectly horrid of me?" Here it became necessary for Lucy to hide her face on Tom's new I've got it all my own way by cheating by means of legislation are only a shade less the dearest boy in the whole world, and it just breaks my heart; and I don't want to go to Newport, and I want to go to Apponegansett to your dear old home, and I'll wear a cotton dress to visit the farmers' daughters, and put a linen handkerchief over my face to keep off the mosquitoes; and we'll be just as happy as the clams all around us."

At eleven o'clock that forenoon the doorbell rang, and a package was delivered, which contained a lovely new silk dress, and a card say, "Why don't some one say something stating that it was from a fond husband, who compromised on silk. So they went to Apponegansett-"and lived happy ever after."- Watchman.

PLEADING PRAYER.

"Remember the word unto thy servant, manners have often restored confidence and upon which thou hast caused me to hope." Lord; I have been hoping on thy word, and dom of heaven even in poverty. Consoling I have acted upon that hope; I believe the yourselves with this possibility, wait patientword to be true, and I have pledged the ly for the spread of my truth to change the man has given me a bill-not a transaction be redressed. Make the best possible use of one more than a century after the first is a sad commentary upon the integrity, does not look his fifty-seven years in spite of the church. It shows this gray hair and dissatches. But the public are more interested in abuse than in not fail to meet it."

It is as if we said to the possessions and privileges you now have, and commit your case to the Heavenly Fasch at hing! Suppose I go and discount it. I such a thing! Suppose I go and discount it. I such a thing! Suppose I go and discount it. I say, "My friend, you must honor that bill, ther, who has a special tenderness for the poor and the oppressed."—Baptist Quarter-because I have received the cash for it. Do because I have received the cash for it. It is as if we said to be I ever had anything to do with; but suppose the possessions and privileges you now have, our God. "Lord, thou hast caused me' to hope upon this promise of thine. I have been raising present comfort upon the credit of it. I felt so sure that it would be fulfilled that I have taken it into the market, and I have been living upon its proceeds by hoping upon it." See how David went and discounted the promisory note; he encouraged himself by it. Turn to the verses which follow my text, and you will see. "This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me." He had been comforting himself by the promise; and if the promise failed, that comfort would turn out to be a sheer delusion. Will the Lord delude those who trust him? Read the next verse: "The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from thy law." I stuck to thy doctrine, thy precept, thy promise; I declared thy word to be true: wilt thou not keep it, and so vindicate my confident assurance? "I remembered the judgments of old, Lord; and have comforted myself." I have thus derived strength and establishment out of thy promise already. Wilt thou allow the enemy to tell me that I have deceived myself? Wilt thou revoke thy declarations? It cannot be.

This is wonderfully blessed pleading.

Thou hast caused me to hope; therefore, O. Lord, remember thy word!" When I read how God kept his promise to his people of old, I said, "He will keep it to me;" and when I remembered how he had kept other promises to me in past times, I said "He will keep this also." His former dealings have induced us to trust in him "Lord, thou hast caused me to hope; my hope is of thy creating, nourishing and perfecting. I am justified in hoping in thee on this occasion, for what thou hast done for me in days gone Thou hast caused me to hope. It was thy word, and thy Spirit helped me to go from faith to hope; and now, when the windows of hope are opened, wilt thou not be pleased to send in a messenger of grace and peace?" O needy child of God, go home, and plead in this fashion, and you shall not return empty! Have you come into a position from which there seems to be no escape? Do not ask to escape, but cry, "Remember the word unto thy serv ant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope."—Spurgeon.

Christ and his apostles said not one word against the right of men to hold and use the property which they have gained by inheritance or by honest industry. When Christ told the young man to go and sell all that he had and give to the poor, he but applied a test which was adapted to his special case. He and his disciples had a common purse because that method of living was best adapted to their peculiar circumstances. The communism of the first church at Jerusalem was wholly voluntary, and it is not said that every member of the church as soon as he joined sold all that he had and put the proceeds into a common fund, but only that they held what they had subject to the needs of the whole body. If there is such a thing as Christian communism, it is based upon love, and consists in a voluntary surrender of what we have for the common good utters his peremptory "Stand and deliver," he does well to ignore God and the Bible, for he can get no warrant from them for his action. And the workingmen who expect manly breast, while she sobbed out, "And to get a larger share of the general wealth in the wrong. The Lord Jesus suggests no such remedy. Those who plan to take from men their property, whether by force or by legislation, are morally in company with highway robbers, and their crime is not less because, like Robin Hood and Dick Turpin, they rob the rich in order to give to the poor. The modern idea that a man cannot have property unless he has been a robber of others is utterly preposterous, and yet Poudhon said "property is theft," and Karl Marx said "it was the result of spoliation." These men have been leaders of European socialism, and their ideas are widely prevalent in this country. They would have been nearer right if they had said that communism established by force would be universal rob-

Christ's message to workingmen is this: "You can be men and enjoy the blessings and dignity of manhood and win the kinghearts of men so that all your wrongs shall Missions.

"Go ye into all the world; and preach the gosp o every creature."

The Corresponding Secretary having tem porarily changed his place of residence, all com munications not designed for the Treasurer should be addressed, until further notice, A. E. Main, Sisco, Putnam Co., Fla. Regular quarterly meet ings of the Board are held on the second Wednesday in December, March, June and September; and ample time should be allowed for business matters to reach the Board through the Secretary.

IN Amsterdam there are said to be 50, 000 Jews. A few years ago, not many were Christians; now they are counted by the hundreds, and the work of conversion is go-

THE total receipts, last year, of the London Society for the Propagation of the Gos pel, were some $525,000. Owing to the pressure of "bad times," this is a falling off of over $10,000; but the number of remittances has increased some hundreds.

THE London Society for Promoting. Chris tianity Among the Jews employs 141 mis sionaries, 24 of whom are ordained ministers. That a Hebrew Bible, costing two or three guineas at the beginning of this century, can now be bought for eighteen pence, is said to be the work of this Society,

In the Scandinavian department of the Congregational Theological Seminary, at Chicago, there were in attendance last year. 26 Swedes and 16 Norwegians and Danes Work among this part of our population is growing in interest and importance, and Congregationalists are carrying it forward with great zeal.

THE Presbyterian Board of Home Mis sions received, last year, $653,456, and closed the year with a debt of $21,000, which is less than half the debt when the year began. The missionaries organized 177 churches during the year; and there were 10,812 additions on confession, and 7,046 by letter, thus making the year one of unparalleled prosperity.

THE Presbyterian General Assembly resolved "that the Board of Foreign Missions be instructed to be wisely conservative, to avoid debt so far as they can without crippling their work, and to be vigorously aggressive anyhow." May the Lord help us to be conservative with wisdom, to avoid debt if we can without hindering our growing work at home and abroad, and to be vigorously aggressive anyhow!

THE American Baptist Missionary Union reports for China, 12 male and 17 female missionaries; 18 churches with 1,516 members; 49 native preachers; 19 Bible women; 5 other helpers; and 77 baptisms. There is no lack of men for missionaries, many are ready to go. And China, so great and strong, with so much of expanding enterprise, and so much of tolerance of, and respect for, Christianity, is believed to be the strategic mission field of the East.

A PRESBYTERIAN home missionary in Oregon writes: "I am beginning now to gather the fruits of my work. In one family, the mother said to me, "I am so glad to see you. I wanted to tell you that the book you sold my little girl was the means of her conversion." I meet people nearly every day in places where I have seen them before, who tell me that some tracts I gave them, or a book, have given them new ideas of a Christian life, and greatly aided them."

THE liquor traffic in Africa is a crying disgrace to nations that profess to be Christian. The rum trade in that country is said to be, in many respects, a greater evil than the slave trade. Mr. Waller, F. R. G. S., is authority for the following statements as to the export of spirits from a few countries in re- in time to write you by this steamer. Dr. cent years:

Great Britain, 1884...... 602,328 gallons-Germany (Hamberg and Bremen),

O, the shame of a lust for gain that will thus lead men to ruin their fellow-men.

THE tribes of Thibet and of Chinese Tartary are migratory, and no correct census is ever taken. But in China proper, a yearly census is taken, to regulate the capitationtax, and for determining the amount of rice to be stored in case of famine. According to the census of 1812, the population was 360,000,000; of 1852, 396,000,000. Dr. Williams, author of "The Middle King-than in 1812, because of devastating wars, the Taiping rebellion probably destroying 20,000,000 of human beings. He would not place the population above 34,000,000. J. Hudson Taylor, editor of the China's Millions, says that some would not place the present population higher than 250,000,000. In one province 700,000 of people recently died from famine; and in other parts of the country the population is said to be less than one-fifth of what it formerly was. Prof. Legge, of Oxford gives credit to the statement of the Chinese Ambassador in Paris that the present population is 400,000,000. Many comparisons have been made between the populousness of China and other countries. Eight times as many people live | it exceedingly trying work as the hot months in China as in the United States; one-third came on, and as you may know begging for more than in all Europe; and twice as many a not very popular mission was not always as in Africa, North and South America, and | agreeable, yet he succeeded far beyond his Oceanica. One-third of the living, toiling, expectations, raising considerable more joyous, sorrowing, suffering race of man, is than that appropriated by the people at in China. Over 30,000 die in China every home. The buildings were brought to comday; and four times the population of Lon- | pletion some time during the following windon every year. It is equal to burying the | ter, at which time Dr. Swinney arrived on people of New York City in about a month; | the field, and the "medical work" was justor of the United States in a year and a half! ly claiming a large share of the attention Joining hands, the people of China would girdle the earth at the equator ten times with beings created in the image of their Maker! Arithmetic beyond the reach of thought or imagination! But what of the present comfort and salvation, and the eternal destiny of these teeming millions?

WE commend to the careful perusal of our readers the earnest letters from Mrs. Davis and Dr. Swinney. We think that Mrs. Davis' letter should have stated the fact that the Board's appropriations for school buildings and for school work have been largely based upon estimates sent to us by Mr. Davis. If, therefore, the appropriations have been, or are now, inadequate, it is not wholly the fault of the Board. With this exception, the letter is one of great clearness, ability and power. The appeal on behalf of foreign missions cannot but strike the reader as being strong, unanswerable and eloquent. The burning words are the incarnate thoughts coming forth from a soul loyal another appropriation came we had been to the Lord's great command, its loyalty being obliged to use much of our own means to fired by personal experience amidst the deg- carry on the work, which thing has occurred radation and needs of heathenism. Brethren and sisters, what have we to say in response to such a setting forth of our nine little garl. Up to the present time the high obligations and opportunities as is contained in these admirable letters? Were our fathers "wild" when they formed such large plans for missionary work? Since their day, the abilities and resources of the denomination have greatly increased. How small the outlay in our benevolent operations, compared with our expenditures for ourselves! What shall we say when Christ shall come, who gave himself to sacrificial suffering and death, for our sakes? We say, with all due deliberation, that, as a denomination, we are able to both increase our work on the home field, and to send out to China a woman teacher, a medical assistant and another missionary family. Let those that pray for missions, pray that we as a people may, before next Conference, receive a fresh and powerful baptism of the spirit of evangelism.

FROM MRS. DAVIS.

[Furnished for publication by Mr. Cottrell.] SHANGHAI, China, May 18, 1887. REV. I. L. COTTRELL:

Dear Brother, -Your letter of April 5th asking for communications from your missionaries for the Associations reached us last evening. It is unfortunately rather late, as a reply cannot now possibly reach you before the North-Western Association, and probably not in time for that. It seems difficult for our friends to remember the necessarily long time required to receive answers to their letters, consequently we are often unable to meet their wishes.

I am sorry to say Mr. Davis is at present in the country, and will probably not return Swinney will comply with your request. For myself I always feel great diffidence in writing for the public, yet if anything can be said to create a deeper interest among the people in this mission the opportunity should not pass unimproved. There is one department of the work here which, since Miss Nelson's marriage, has fallen principally on me, about which I have felt no little anxiety. Consequently the burden of my desires for the work expressed through my communications has been principally on this subject. You will at once understand that I refer to the school were three day-schools. The following au- pupils? hor of "The Middle Kingtumn word was received from the Board apthe present population less proving of the plan for starting boarding. | 4th. Shall the day-school be carried on present population less proving of the plan for starting boarding. | 4th. Shall the day-school be carried on the great commission? Were they then in the way of duty? Did God bless | Westerly, R. I., July 31, 1887.

purchased that autumn, but nothing was done | province of the Board to decide. This we about building until the following spring, when Mr. Davis, supposing he was carrying | tions and Conference it can be brought clearout the wishes of the Board, proceeded to ly before the people, they taking action uperect two buildings, one for boys and an- on it (for it is their work, and means must other for girls, as it is impossible to have them | come from them for its support), would it both in the same building, and it was the expressed wish of the Board that both boys and girls should be received. The amount appropriated by the Board being, if I mistake not, $800, was of course quite insufficient to erect even the most ordinary Chinese buildings. Mr. Davis decided to see what could be done raising the deficiency among the foreigners in Shanghai. Although he found and contributions of the people at home. We struggled on with the school work as best we could, continuing the day-schools. All this time urgent inquires were coming from the home land about the boardingschools, many supposing they were already in progress. But the appropriations sen were far too small to think of making a beginning, and most important of all, though we had repeatedly written regarding the necessary furnishing of the buildings, nothing had been sent for this purpose. However, in the spring of 1885, one and one-half years after the completion of the buildings, the pressure from home was so strong that we decided to use what school funds were in hand toward furnishing and making ready for use the girls' building, which we did as economically as our judgment would allow, and the first of July, 1885, we received our first pupil as boarder into the school.

Now I can tell you those were anxious days, for funds were very low, and before several times in the school work since its beginning. During that year we received number has him nereased.

Now before proceeding further, let us return to the beginning and review. In the first place was it wise to decide that as a mission our work should include boardingschools? We on the field at the time felt that it was, but of course we could not forecast the future, and when we first made our requests regarding it, we did not know that the society was proposing to start a medical department, and it was with no little surprise that about the same letters brought us word of the Board's decision regarding these two departments of work. Not that we were not in sympathy with the idea of having a medical department, which we most assuredly were, and still consider it one of the most important departments of the work, but knowing as we did the necessary means required to carry on both boys' and girls' boarding schools (and for our mission it seems folly to have the one without the other), we felt at the time many misgivings about starting the work. However, we acted up to the best light we had and can say conscientiously that we have tried in every way to use the funds at our disposal for the very best interests of the work. You may wonder why am taking up this subject, and striving to bring it so minutely before you. Some will say, it is an old story. We know all about it. But it seems that many do not understand fully regarding this work, either its present condition or future prospects. The present allowance of $600 per annum for school work will allow us to continue one day school and increase the present number in the girls' boarding-school to 16 or 17 pupils. You can plainly see this leaves a boys' boarding school out of the question, that is with the present allowance.

Now cannot this subject be brought plainly before the people at the coming Conference, that they may take some decided action

1st. Have we made a mistake in deciding to have boarding-schools? And shall they he discontinued?

2d. Can we afford to have only one? and shall that be a girls' school as now in pro

3d. If we are to have only the one, cost ing at present about $30 per pupil, what is At the time Miss Nelson left us, there thought best as to the limit of the number of schools. If I remember rightly, the land was | You may say this comes wholly within the very well know, but if during the Associanot most decidedly assist the Board in their final decisions in the matter?

> Not that in the excitement of a large gathering would we have plans laid, or promises made which cannot be fulfilled. But rather taking all the facts in the case by careful examination can there not be some definite conclusions drawn which will greatly facilitate the plans for the coming year, as well as at the very vitals of the denomination. Some give the people at large a more intelligent idea of the school work?

We do not wish to be understood as urging any advancement in the work, if it is not thought expedient. Our purpose has been to bring the facts plainly before you. If the work is to be continued as at present, what is to be done with the boys' building? etc. These are questions which, to us on the field, it seems the time has fully come to decide.

We now come to a subject more or less complicated with this, and of great importance to the mission at its present stage, that is "re-enforcement." First in regard to a single lady for the boarding-school.

Ever since the school was started, and even previous to that time, I have been urging that a single woman adapted to teaching and the training of children should be sent out especially for this work, believing that no married woman with a family of her own can in any satisfactory degree take proper care of a Chinese boarding school; and at the close of two years' experience am only more and more confirmed in my convictions that such a school needs the almost constant presence of a foreign lady. With Chinese girls the instruction in books is of secondary importance compared with that required in other thing. If you must leave them largely under the influence of native assistants, they naturally learn to look to them in most matters rather than to foreigners, and the influence is often far from what is desired. While if a foreign teacher can stand at the head of all departments, directing in all matters, and then remain to see her plans caried into effect, the result will be vastly different than if left under the direction of hired assistants. The development of the character of these children in the right direction means more than one unacquainted with Chinese character can fully comprehend. You have children born in Christian lands under the most favorable circumstances, know the constant car and watchfulness required in their daily training. Can we here. Our warmest sympathies are with expect less care is needed in training these children whom we have taken from heathen homes with all their natural evil tendencies? There may be some whe will insist that it is in the world. May God open the hearts of possible for a woman wi hu family to be just his people to give as never before. We as successful with a oarding-school as a single woman, and you may have heard of many instances of this kind, yet we sincerely believe if you could have the opportunity to investigate the results of work done in those schools, you would agree that they are far from being most satisfactory . In view of my little experience and observation I do most earnestly plead if the boarding-school is to be continued, that a single woman be sent out this autumn. The question now arises who will Mrs. A. C. Evans, come? If this is God's work is he not calling some one to it. Among all our efficient | Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Green, am't of ages... young women, is there not one who hears with no uncertain sound the Master's call in R. L. Davis and wife, Westfield, Pa..... this direction? It is true you can find more congenial work at home, where you will have the close sympathy and intercourse of dear friends. But putting aside all selfishness. what is the Spirit prompting you to do? Is it to labor in China? If so, may the way be made plain to you.

Individually I can urge no one to come to this land, for if they are not called of the Master their coming may be in vain. We can only plead the great need of the work, believing he who sees and knows all the requirements of the field far better than we. has already set his seal upon those whom he would call into his vineyard.

In regard to further re-enforcement by Mrs. Dr. Henry Stillman, Edgerton, Wis., sending out another man, we cannot see how any friend of the mission can think for a moment that it is not of the utmost importance. The occasional doubts expressed of the advisability of re-enforcing the China mission, and the still more incomprehensible whisperings of those who advise its abondonment, bring no little sadness to the hearts of those on the field. What does it mean? What over forty years ago prompt-ed the starting of this mission? Was it—at ed the starting of this mission? Was it not that as a denomination Seventh-day Baptists them in their efforts? And when for years the mission was neglected, was there not depression in the missionary spirit at home, and a detrimental reaction in all departments of Christian work?

Why in 1880 was the mission re-enforced? and have you not since that time received ten-fold more blessings in your home work? If these facts are true, what do they indicate? Is it not that Seventh-day Baptists as well as other denominations were includ. ed in the command given to the first disci. ples?

It seems to us that in discouraging the foreign missionary spirit it is striking death may plead that "Sabbath reform" is the great work of our people. Granting this, how can you separate mis.

sionary work, as carried on by Seventh day Baptists, from the great work of holding up God's Sabbath? and if we as a people believe the world is in error on this question. through what better channel can our light shine than our foreign mission? If there is any department of our work as a people, if there is any position in our denomination. where a strong man qualified in every sense of the word is needed, it is on this field. Do the people realize this as they ought? We have many times felt that they did not; for not one of those who have had experience and are qualified to meet the world on all these questions has seemed willing and ready to give himself to this field of work. Some years ago, I remember hearing a lady remark that it seemed as though people generally believed that most any one would do for a foreign missionary. At the time I did not fully see the force of her remark, but it has returned to my mind many time since then, and I am now convinced that no greater mistake has ever been made in Christian work than in sending out to foreign lands those who are without experience and the very best qualifications. Not only is this necessary in prosecuting work among the heathen, but it perhaps has a still greater significance with us as a small mission in our intercourse with other denomi-

I have extended my letter far beyond my expectation; yet there is one more point which it may be well to mention, then I will weary your patience no longer. It may seem to some that being so far removed from you, we do not always appreciate your efforts in raising necessary funds, nor do we feel the financial difficulties through which you pass. Be assured that these troubles cast their shadows very quickly across the waters. and perhaps no one is more affected by their saddening influences than your missionaries every effort made to increase the number of those who shall feel the blessing which comes from giving and from making some sacrifice for the extention of Christ's kingdom know that his Spirit will be with you in all of your gatherings, and it is our earnest prayer that you may have its leadings in all of your deliberations, and that all matters pertaining both to the work at home and abroad may be settled under its direction.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Receipts in July. Girls' Sewing Society, Five Corners, N. M. Adelle Burdick, Alfred Centre, M. M., Mrs. Eveline Crandall, Westerly, R. I., to make L. M. of Clark T. Rogers, of Presirst Brookfield Church, G. F., $13, Hol. Mrs. C. E. Hull, to complete L. M. of Dea. A. E. Rogers, of Scio. N. Y....

Lincklaen Church, to apply upon L. M. of Rev. Perie F. Randolph..... Abel P. Saunders, Farmington, Ill. Collection at North Western Association.. Western Quarterly Meeting at DeRuy-Collection at First Genesee Church...... Children's day, Independence Fremont Whitford Hartsville, to apply upon L. M. of self..... Sarah A. McWhorter, Jane Lew, W. The Ladies of Waterford Church, M. M... S. D. B. Church, Wood Lake, Wis., M. M., Nortonville Church, Kansas. Rev. J. Clarke, Rockville, R. I..... Friendship Church.
A Friend, Preston, N. Y., H. M..... North Loup Church, Neb.....

G. H. Lyon, Bradford, Pa.....

Cash balance, June 30..... Cash balance this date..... $ 142 85

Sabbath Befo

Remember the Sabbath-day, to Six days shalt thou labor, and do all the seventh day is the Sabbath of the l

ABOUT THE SABBATH.

Whether there was an actual hefore the time of Moses is a qu which considerable has been w saying one thing and some ano out entering into this question a we propose to furnish our reader tracts from the writings of men and reasonings are worthy of c Dr. Wylie: "The Sabbath is

Paradise. Both date their ex the first week of time; and both press of an unfallen world. together on the same Bible, and are linked insepara in our recollections of man's pr dition

J. R. Boyd: "In confirmation that the Sabbath was appointed the time of Moses, but whe family began, it may be observe Sabbath is spoken of in Exodu publication of the Decalogue, mentioned, not as a new institu one already known: 'To morro of the holy Sabbath unto the 16: 23."

This is the way the passage w unbiased reader.

The same writer also says: have been justly thought that which the fourth precept begin prior knowledge of the law: I Sabbath, to keep it holy. It was tion with which the people wer quainted; and they were called in mind the sacred nature of the sanctify it with the greatest car after this republication of the p probable that it had been much Egypt, and as the Israelites we state of slavery, it is not likely been permitted by their cruel rest one day in seven. Through sity of their circumstances, a indifference, the observance of been in a great measure suspen may be the reason why it anew, and their attention was ly called to it."

J. Jordan finds an intimation in Gen. 4: 3. He says: "The tion of this that we meet with sion in Gen. 4: 3, referring to Cain and Abel mutually broug ings to the Lord. The very coming together, and that for of worship, would of itself lead position that the time must stated one, and well known an by both; for otherwise we can what could have induced the j unite with the pious Abel in the Jehovah. Had there not been set apart for worship, we shoul expected Cain to avoid that chose from hatred and envy of however, plainly implied that certain known time at which t gether worshiped God. The denoting this is rendered of the Bible, in 'process of t to pass: but in the margin, 'at t it came to pass.' Now, this only preferable as a constructi inal, but it directly points to t was 'the end or days,' the las the seven—the seventh day, o ended the work that he h which he had blessed and sand that in it he had rested from which God created and mad we have the seventh day plair us as that which was common public worship of God, and w lowed and honored in agreer divine appointment."

Dr. W. H. Rule reasons t conduct of Noah: "For mor would men count weeks, and Noah so counted, we ascertai standing the prevalent w without any reason for mark day, which there is no eviden heathens in general have don holy. Now let us examine. the ark under a divine con length, when the time cam made use of, the warning wa seven days thence the deluge A full week was allowed for for the great embarkation of and his family, with the anim served. Six weeks passed. were counted since the wind were closed upon him, and to the promise, the rain times he sought to ascertain lands around; first, on the S the deluge began, the more peared, the leftiest heights above the flood. The secon forth the dove again on the still seeking for a token The third time, again on t he did the like. This time back the olive-leaf, signa Then the patriarch was sat no more anxious inquiries, missively until the Lord bad out upon dry land again. call those steadily recurring Speaking of the change for the first day, or what is a A. R. Boyd, says: "We de

they were not Sabbath days

hem in their efforts? And when for years he mission was neglected, was there ot depression in the missionary spirit at ome, and a detrimental reaction in all deartments of Christian work?

Why in 1880 was the mission re-enforced? nd have you not since that time received en-fold more blessings in your home work? f these facts are true, what do they indiate? Is it not that Seventh-day Baptista s well as other denominations were includ. d in the command given to the first disci-

It seems to us that in discouraging the oreign missionary spirit it is striking death t the very vitals of the denomination. Some nay plead that "Sabbath reform" is the reat work of our people.

Granting this, how can you separate misionary work, as carried on by Seventh-day aptists, from the great work of holding up od's Sabbath? and if we as a people believe he world is in error on this question. hrough what better channel can our light nine than our foreign mission? If there is ny department of our work as a people, if nere is any position in our denomination. here a strong man qualified in every sense f the word is needed, it is on this field. Do ne people realize this as they ought? We ave many times felt that they did not; for ot one of those who have had experience nd are qualified to meet the world on all nese questions has seemed willing and ready give himself to this field of work. ome years ago, I remember hearing a lady mark that it seemed as though people enerally believed that most any one would o for a foreign missionary. At the time did not fully see the force of her remark, at it has returned to my mind many me since then, and I am now convinced nat no greater mistake has ever been made Christian work than in sending out to reign lands those who are without expeence and the very best qualifications. Not nly is this necessary in prosecuting work

mong the heathen, but it perhaps has a still reater significance with us as a small mis-

on in our intercourse with other denomi-

I have extended my letter far beyond my xpectation; yet there is one more point hich it may be well to mention, then I will eary your patience no longer. It may eem to some that being so far removed om you, we do not always appreciate your forts in raising necessary funds, nor do we eel the financial difficulties through which ou pass. Be assured that these troubles cast heir shadows very quickly across the waters, nd perhaps no one is more affected by their addening influences than your missionaries ere. Our warmest sympathies are with very effort made to increase the number of hose who shall feel the blessing which omes from giving and from making some sacfice for the extention of Christ's kingdom the world. May God open the hearts of. is people to give as never before. We now that his Spirit will be with you in all your gatherings, and it is our earnest rayer that you may have its leadings in all of our deliberations, and that all matters percining both to the work at home and abroad hay be settled under its direction.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY. Receipts in July. irls' Sewing Society, Five Corners, N. Y., C. M. Adelle Burdick, Alfred Centre, M, M. rs. A. C. Evans, 1.00 5 00 1 20 B. Burdick, and Mrs. J. C. Green, am't of ages... rst Alfred Church.
N. Stillman, for Eld Mayes, H. M.... make L. M. of Clark T. Rogers, of Preston, N. Y. rst Brookfield Church, G. F., $13, Hol. M., $2 75. rs. C. E. Hull, to complete L. M. of Dea. A. E. Rogers, of Scio. N. Y. incklaen Church, to apply upon L. M. of Rev. Perie F. Randolph...... cel P. Saunders, Farmington, Ill. ollection at North Western Association... Central Western Quarterly Meeting at DeRuy-Children's day, Independence Church, S. M. S. hn Maxson, Spafford, N. Y..... remont Whitford Hartsville, to apply upon L. M. of self. ah A. McWhorter, Jane Lew. W. Va. E Ladies of Waterford Church, M. M. D. B. Church, Wood Lake, Wis., M. M., ortonville Church, Kansas.

J. Clarke, Rockville, R. I.

riendship Church.

Friend, Preston, N. Y., H. M. orth Loup Church, Neb... H. Lyon, Bradford, Pa...... bath-school, Cash balance, June 30.....

Cash balance this date.....

A. L. Ottoria, J.

Sabbath Beform:

"Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy.
Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God.

ABOUT THE SABBATH.

Whether there was an actual Sabbath-day before the time of Moses is a question about which considerable has been written-some saving one thing and some another. Without entering into this question at any length, we propose to furnish our readers a few extracts from the writings of men whose views and reasonings are worthy of consideration. Dr. Wylie: "The Sabbath is coeval with Paradise. Both date their existence from the first week of time; and both bear the impress of an unfallen world. Hence they stand together on the same page of the Bible, and are linked inseparably together in our recollections of man's primeval con-

J. R. Boyd: "In confirmation of the idea that the Sabbath was appointed first, not in the time of Moses, but when the human family began, it may be observed that the Sabbath is spoken of in Exodus before the publication of the Decalogue, and is then mentioned, not as a new institution, but as of the holy Sabbath unto the Lord.' Ex. 16: 23."

This is the way the passage will strike the

The same writer also says: "It seems to have been justly thought that the word with which the fourth precept begins supposes a prior knowledge of the law: Remember the Sabbath, to keep it holy. It was an institution with which the people were already acquainted; and they were called upon to keep sanctify it with the greatest care, especially after this republication of the precept. It is probable that it had been much neglected in Egypt, and as the Israelites were there in a rest one day in seven. Through the necessity of their circumstances, and their own indifference, the observance of it might have been in a great measure suspended, and this may be the reason why it was inculcated anew, and their attention was so particularly called to it." J. Jordan finds an intimation of a Sabbath in Gen. 4: 3. He says: "The first indication of this that we meet with is the expression in Gen. 4: 3, referring to the time when Cain and Abel mutually brought their offerings to the Lord. The very fact of their coming together, and that for the purpose of worship, would of itself lead to the supposition that the time must have been a stated one, and well known and recognized by both; for otherwise we cannot conceive what could have induced the jealous Cain to unite with the pious Abel in the worship of Jehovah. Had there not been a special day set apart for worship, we should rather have expected Cain to avoid that which Abel chose from hatred and envy of him. It is, however, plainly implied that there was certain known time at which they both to gether worshiped God. The expression denoting this is rendered in the text of the Bible, in 'process of time' it came to pass; but in the margin, 'at the end of days it came to pass.' Now, this latter is not only preferable as a construction of the original, but it directly points to that day which was 'the end or days,' the last, that is, of the seven—the seventh day, on which God ended the work that he had made, and which he had blessed and sanctified; because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made. And thus we have the seventh day plainly indicated to us as that which was commonly used for the public worship of God, and was thereby hallowed and honored in agreement with its divine appointment."

Dr. W. H. Rule reasons thus from the would men count weeks, and if we find that Noah so counted, we ascertain that notwith standing the prevalent wickedness, and without any reason for marking the seventh holy. Now let us examine. Noah had built the ark under a divine command, and as length, when the time came for it to be and his family, with the animals to be preserved. Six weeks passed. Seven Sabbaths to the promise, the rain ceased. Three times he sought to ascertain the state of the lands around; first, on the Sabbath day after the deluge began, the mountain tops appeared, the loftiest heights of Ararat rising still seeking for a token of deliverance. The third time, again on the Sabbath-day, he did the like. This time the dove brought back the olive-leaf, signal of restoration. appointed as the Sabbath, why is the phra-Then the patriarch was satisfied and made no more anxious inquiries. but waited submissively until the Lord bade them all come out upon dry land again. What shall we call those steadily recurring seventh days, if they were not Sabbath days?"

A. R. Boyd, says: "We differ with regret be repealed or changed except by the same tians, who devote the seventh day of the week to public worship. The concession equally explicit with those in which the change of the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday, from the seventh to the first day, we are able to produce no positive precept; but we consider the example of the apostles, and of the primitive church under their direction, as of equal authority with a positive repeal was ever made. The second weakness precept; because they were infallibly guided by the Spirit in all things relative to doctrine and worship. There are certain facts related in the New Testament which seem to us to show that the apostles and early Christians celebrated the first day of the week as the Sabbath: (1) Immediately after the resurection of Christ the disciples began to assemble on the first day of the week; and by meeting repeatedly with them on that day, he gave countenance to the practice. (2) It was continued after his ascension, and after the descent of the Holy Ghost to lead them into all truth. Thus at Troas 'when the dis ciples came together on the first day to break bread, Paul preached to them' (Acts 20: 7); and the time of the meeting is manifestly | a meeting held at that time because Paul day the Corinthians were commanded to 'lay by them in store as the Lord had prospered them' (1 Cor. 16:2); and it is reasonable to think that the first day was specified as the proper time to make collections for the poor, because it was consecrated to religious duties. (4) It was undoubtedly the same day one already known: 'To morrow is the rest to which the beloved disciple refers when he says, (Rev. 1: 10), 'I was in the Spirit on the his honor. Ecclesiastical history shows that this day was intended."

Dr. A. Thomson has this to say: "What s the nature of the evidence required? Is it an express command? There is none such. But there is what is equivalent. There is the fact that our Lord left authorin mind the sacred nature of the day, and to ity with his apostles to organize the institions of his church; for whatsoever they bound on earth would be bound in heaven. There is the fact that, by their example, they sanctioned the change of the day, and state of slavery, it is not likely that they had the permanence of the institute. There is been permitted by their cruel taskmasters to the fact that, ere the last survivor of the apostles died, the change had become universal; in other words, there is the evidence of apostolic arrangement, which will be as authoritative with a Christian disciple as apostolic command.

G. Holden. M. A., makes this statement: It is morally impossible that all the Christians of all places should unanimously agree in the observance of a particular day, without some direction claiming universal respect, which could scarcely be any other han a divine and apostolic regulation.

We are constantly receiving questions touching the Sabbath and the Lord's-day. No sooner is one question answered than two or three others come. The extracts given above may help some of our readers to come to correct conclusions on the subject. Of course, such phraseology as "the change of the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday" and

'the first day of the week as the Sabbath," is open to criticism. We reprint the foregoing, entire, from recent number of the Christian Standard The writer evidently realizes the importance of the Sabbath to the Christian Church and to the world; and his argument for its institution at creation and for its observance through the ages before the giving of the law at Sinai, are, we think, well made. These arguments together with the command at Sinai and the Biblical teaching respecting the Sabbath from Sinai forward, make it one of the strongest Biblical institutions possible. No other institution is so thoroughly ingrained into the Biblical history and teaching as is the Sabbath. It cannot be that such an institution was intended to be transitory or of little importance. It is clearly for all men in all times. Well would it be if the church would recognize its conduct of Noah: "For moral reasons only universal character and importance. But when our contemporary comes to speak of "the change from the seventh to the first day, or what is so-called," he comes down day, which there is no evidence to show that from the high vantage ground on which he heathens in general have done, Noah kept it has been standing and at once confesses his him quote Rev. Mr. Boyd as saying, "The made use of, the warning was given that in concession must be made, that, in arguing seven days thence the deluge would begin. for the change of the Sabbath from Satur-A full week was allowed for preparation, and | day to Sunday, from the seventh to the first for the great embarkation of the patriarch day, we are able to produce no positive precept;" or Dr. Thomson as saying, "What were counted since the windows of the ark is the nature of the evidence referred? Is it were closed upon him, and then, according an express command? There is none such." But we are a little surprised when the writer of the article himself says, "Of course, such phraseology as 'the change of the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday, and the first day above the flood. The second time he sent of the week as the Sabbath,' is open to critforth the dove again on the Sabbath day, icism." If such a change has been made by compentent authority, or if the first day of the week has, by any such authority, been seology which exactly expresses that condi-

But what have these men to put in the place of positive precepts which confessedly do not exist? "Apostolic example," say Speaking of the change from the seventh they. But this plea has two fatal weaknessto the first day, or what is so-called, Rev. J. es. First, all jurists agree that no law can tion of things "open to criticism"?

was-plainly appointed by a plain command of God; and when it is admitted that no such command for its change or repeal exists, it is virtually admitted that no such change or in this plea for the change of the Sabbath lies in the fact that there is no such unquestioned apostolic example as is claimed. The meeting of the disciples, on the first day of the week. "Immediately after the the resurrection of Christ," was with no thought of honoring the day of the resurrection, for they did not then believe that he was risen from the dead; the one passage, quoted to show that the practice of meeting on the first day of the week for worship was continued by the apostles after Christ's ascension (Acts. 20: 7) is so clearly an account of spoken of as the usual one. (3) On that was about to leave them, that it absolutely establishes nothing as to the custom of the apostles; the passage in 1 Cor. 16:2 is positively against the idea of a public meeting, as its instruction is, "Let each one of you made of Rev. 1: 10, begs the whole question. The expression, "The Lord's-day," occurs Lord's day; 'the day which Jesus Christ nowhere else in the New Testament, and to peculiarly claimed as his own; or the first make any use of it in their argument, our day of the week, which was consecrated to friends are obliged to assume that the first day of the week had already become peculiarly sacred as the day of Christ's resurrection, and that, therefore, John in using this expression must have meant the first day of the week. Thus they argue that because John called the first day of the week "The Lord's day," therefore it is clearly proved to be a holy day! There is no safe ground on which to stand for Biblical institutions but the Bible. To this safe standing place with respect to the Sabbath, we invite our contemporary whose words we quote above.

Education.

"Wisdom is the principal thing, therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understand-

SUMMER SCHOOLS.

There seems to be no diminution in the attendance or interest of summer schools, though there are those who taboo the whole system as one of undue mental stimulation at a time when nature craves rest and soothing lassitude, especially in the case of brain-workers, such as preachers and teach-But these two classes from a large ers. proportion of those who attend most of these schools, and in spite of the head-shakings and serious doubts as to the benefit of summer schools, the number is steadily increasing. On the Chautauqua plan there are nearly a hundred And the thousands of both young and old who gather at them are of the kind who are enthusiastic in the pursuit of fresh thought and so anxious to improve themselves that in their rest they seek instruction wherever they can find it. It is now dawning upon many minds that this interest in summer study is a hopeful feature in American progress, and those who were disposed to hold back their approval, now confess, that as far as recuperation is concerned, the students of summer schools who combine pleasure and profit in a sensible way, are certainly better off than the revellers in hotels at summer resorts who are often at the end of the season jaded and faded by the excitement of late hours of the out door games and in door dancing. There are now summer schools of music, of philosophy, summer schoolsof Hebrew, summer schools of modern languages, summer schools of educationalists, and summer schools of various classes of specialists. But no phase of the summer-school movement is of larger promise for good than that which shows itself in the gathering of students at Mr. Moody's home, in Northfield, weakness. We are not surprised to hear Mass. It is an outgrowth and an illustration of the best spirit of the times.

Nearly four hundred students were in attendance this year. They were the very choicest men of the leading colleges of the land; men from Harvard, and Yale, and Princeton, and Williams and Amherst, and Brown, and Union, and colleges more remote. The colleges of the Canadian Provinces were well represented; and there was a delegation from Cambridge University of England. All were there as college students, with the college-student spirit in its various distinctive aspects. As illustrative of the cosmopolitan character of American student life, there were, among the students, Indians, and Negroes, and Chinamen, and Japanese, and Siamese, as well as white Americans from Maine to Alaska.

Drummond, Professor John A. Broadus, Mr. acquainted with Paris even in the last days to all precedent, but was carried by a vote Joseph Cook, Professor L. T. Townsend, of the empire, will bear witness how rare of four to one. The same course was adoptand Rev. Dr. Arthur T. Pierson. Professor in that city were cases of drunkenness. The ed at the recent reunion of Cornell alumni in spirit endeared him to all. All the leaders regulations of Louis Napoleon were very vious reunions. The Ohio Society, lately were at their best in the several lines of rigorous, and they dealt with liquor selling formed in the same city, also determined must be made, that in arguing for the original law was given. Now, the Sabbath and pleasures of each day were full of profit without weariness.—Baptist Weekly.

INCREASE THE ENDOWMENTS.

Statements like the following show that people are gradually awaking to the fact that colleges cannot thrive without endowments; and that with this awaking there is a growing disposition to furnish the necessary endowment. These are hopeful signs.

Iowa College inaugurated her young pres ident, as successor to Dr. Magoun, June 22d. Addresses were made for the trustees, faculty, ladies' department, alumni, and students and one by Dr. Magoun. The inaugural was founded on Dr. Hopkins's four elements of a good education. Dr. A. L. Frisbie, the presiding trustee, said: "No man or company of men can do for Iowa College what has been done by its first president." The college paper says: "May the number of vears of Pres. Gates's reign be as many and honored as Dr. Magoun's have been." The society of alumni have ordered a marble bust of Dr. M. to be placed in the Goodenow Library. Two new endowments, $20,000 each, for which the trustees have been long waitlay by him in store;" while the use that is ing, were announced, and the alumni have secured $5,600 towards another. The endowments are to be increased, and among them that of the professorship of metaphyscs, held for twenty-three years and still filled by the ex-president, is to be completed to > PRESIDENT McCosh prints the report of a couple of Princeton students who have been canvassing the colleges and seminaries of the country for the names of students. willing and desirous to be foreign missionaries. This is his summary: The number of experiments were repeated a dozen times or institutions which have been heard from is 92. In these no fewer than 1,525 students have offered themselves. Of these, upward of 1,200 are young men, and upward of 300 are young women. A few of them are from upper schools; but the great body of them are from regularly constituted seminaries and colleges. They belong to the various evangelical denominations. These volunteers include 25 from Amherst; Williams, 10; Andover, 14; Harvard, 9; Cornell, 35; Oberlin, 110, and Princeton Seminary and College, 48.

CLIPPINGS.

The Correspondence Bible College has facture of strong drink. students in over thirty states and terrritories, in Canada and Australia. Full course of instruction by mail.

A few rich Chicago Presbyterians are to give $250,000 a year for five years to Lake Forest University, a Presbyterian institution near Chicago.

The largest library in the world is the Imperial at Paris, which contains over 2,000,-000 volumes. The library of the British Museum presses hard upon it in multitude. In the latter there are over thirty-two miles of shelves filled with books.

'Prof. Palmer, of Harvard, puts the average annual cost of a student in that institution at nearly $1,000. Some of our western colleges are behind in their encouragement to boat racing, but they furnish fair if not equal facilities for study at one-fourth this

Madison University has this year established twenty-two new free scholarships, and will hold entrance examination on September 1st, simultaneously in Albany, Auburn, Brooklyn, Elmira, Newburgh, New York, Oneonta, Oswego, Potsdam and Syracuse, N. Y.; Bridgeton, Hightstown and Newark, N. J.; Danbury, Hartford, and Middletown, Conn.; Pittsfield and Worcester, Mass. Brattleboro, Burlington, Saxtons River and St. Albans, Vermont.

The senior class of the University of Ne braska has requested the faculty of that institution to allow the entire class to be excused from speaking at commencement, and that some orator be engaged to deliver an address. Commenting upon this item, the College Transcript of the Ohio Wesleyan says: "We believe, were it put to a vote, the Ohio Wesleyan University students would unanimously indorse the above sentiment. It is time the big open air commencement picnic, with its sixty or more speeches, on a swelter ing June day, be relegated to the past."

Cemperance.

"Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth its color in the cup, when it moveth "At last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.'

LIQUOR IN FRANCE.

We know of nothing which so forcibly changed. The liquor traffic was left open to all persons choosing to enter it, and each such person was at liberty to carry on the manufacture and trade to suit himself. Within six months fifty thousand additional liquor shops were opened in various parts of France. Since that day the increase has gone on until now, in that unfortunate country, "there is on an average one liquorshop for every ninety inhabitants, or one for every thirty-three men." In Paris alone the increase of such establishments since 1880 is from fourteen thousand to thirty one thousand. And worse, if possible, is the change made in the character of the drinks thus sold and used. "Not five per cent," says a French senator, "of the brandy made in this country is from grape juice;" the ninety-five per cent is from articles supplying the active poison of fusel oil, with the addition of other noxious drugs. Let us read the account given of an experiment at the Sorbonne:

"I lately visited [says a correspondent] the Sorbonne, to see some of the most eminent chemists experiment with brandy upon inferior animals, such as dogs, rabbits and guinea-pigs. Two animals of the same size, age, etc., were selected. To one was given a dose of pure grape brandy. To the other was given an equal dose of the average brandy of French wine-shops. What was the result? The former soon showed symptoms of exhilaration and excitement, I might say it became intoxicated in a lively and high-spirited manner. Then the effects of the liquor passed off, and the creature regained its normal condition, apparently uninjured. But the other? It became intoxicated also, but in a different way. First it fell into a stupor; then became morose and irritable; then went into convulsions; then died. On being dissected its spinal cord and brain were found to be congested, as though a violent irritant poison had been applied to them. These more. In each case the result was practially

Forty-seven million gallons of such stuff as this are sold and drank in France every year. How much worse is it, in the particular here considered, in France than in this country? And how is it that the civilization of the most enlightened nations consents to such an outrage as the wholesale manufacture and vending of such poisons, with the consequent suicide, insanity, crime and social horrors of every kind ?-Standard.

BREVITIES.

About one seventh of the grain produce of Great Britian is appropriated in the manu-

One hundred and eighty million dollars' worth of five cent cigars were smoked in this country last year, and still thousands cry hard times.

Eighteen thousand dollars is an enormous price to pay for a small peach-blow vase, that's a fact; but look at the man who squanders $30,000 on the flowing bowl, and all he has to show for it is a peach-blow nose, not one fourth the size of the vase aforesaid.

The United Brewers' Association in Baltimore appropriated $5,000 for the brewers of Michigan, $5,000 for the browers of Texas, and $3,000 for the brewers of Tennessee, the money to be used in defeating Prohibition in these states. They have the material of war, and propose to use it.

A casual reader of the city papers may have been surprised at the number of sun strokes in the cities during the heated term. A careful reader, however, would note that in many instances it was added in a last line that the victim had been drinking. The sun kills very few people; the saloon killed most of these. An honest report would have been headed "Saloon Struck.

The people of Atlanta, Ga., do not seem to have become dissatisfied with their Prohibition ordinance, though there are those who would have us believe that all kinds of evils resulted therefrom. A few days ago an election for judge in a place of him who has been foremost and most thorough in the execution of the law, resulted in his reelection by a large majority. The people want the law enforced and are ready to sustain the man who does most for its enforcement.

The Boston Board of Health, according to the Traveller of that city, on the complaint of sundry residents of the vicinity, has notified the proprietors of a well-known boot and shoe manufactory at the corner of Tremont and Castle Streets that he must stop burning "leather scraps," the odor of which his neighbors do not enjoy. The "personal liberty" of the shoe manufacturer, in the matter of burning even upon his own premises, his "leather scraps," ends where the fresh air rights of his neighbors begin. Thus ought it to be, from kindred considerations with the whisky-saloon nuisances.

The Voice says that in a meeting of students at Troy Polytechnic Institute to arrange for a coming anniversary, considerillustrates the utter depravity of the liquor able surprise was created by a motion made traffic as the reports now coming, from time by the son of Major-General O. O. Howard, to time, from France. Until within some that those who should drink liquor must pay Among the most prominent teachers in ten years, France was justly spoken of as the for what they drink and not have it taken the summer school were Professor Henry most temperate nation in Europe. Persons out of the general tax. This was contrary Drummond gave valuable hints to Bible use of light wines was almost universal; not- New York City, and one who was present restudents as to the spirit and methods of withstanding this, the vice of drunkenness marked that the amount of liquor was, as a Bible study; and his beautiful Christian was comparatively a rare thing. The police result, most conspicuously less than at preteaching. There were student prayer-meet- as with other things, so as to protect the that at its inaugural banquet, whatever ings, and conferences of Christian workers, people against the wickedness of wine adul- liquor was drunk should be paid for by those

The Sabbath Becorder.

Alfred Centre, N. Y., Fifth-day, August 11, 1887.

REV. L. A. PLATTS, D. D., Editor.

REV. E. P. SAUNDERS, Business Manager. REV. A. E. MAIN, D. D., Sisco, Fla., Missionary Editor.

Communications designed for the Missionary Department should be addressed to REV. A. E. MAIN, D. D., Sisco, Putnam Co., Fla.

All other communications, whether on busiaess or for publication, should be addressed to the SABBATH RECORDER, Alfred Centre, Allegany coun-

TERMS: $2 per year in advance.

Drafts, Checks and Money Orders should be

"BEAR through sorrow, wrong and ruth, In thy breast the dew of youth On thy lips the smile of truth!

A GOOD ILLUSTRATION of the way most men view themselves, as compared with the rest of mankind, is afforded in the remark of an old Quaker to his wife, when he said "All the world is queer except thee and me, and sometimes I think thee is a little queer." Let us learn to exercise large charity for the oddities and faults of others; it may be we have quite as much need of charity from them as they from us.

WE gladly give place to the following correction. In the essay of J. W. Morton, on the "Sanctuary," published in the RECORD. ER of July 21st, in the last paragraph but one, our types made the essayist say, "Their Prophetess, whose so-called relations are permanent with those who believe in her inspiration." They should have said, "Their day, we concluded to keep the wheels of Prophetess, whose so-called revelations are paramount with those who believe in her inspiration."

THREE WEEKS from the date of this paper will be the first of September, when the be closed. Are we all doing what we can to our party. close up the year in a manner becoming to week's RECORDER, and see how much reweeks in order to finish the year without debt, and then let us act accordingly.

A PRIVATE LETTER from an old friend, now in the Far West, gives us a little glimpse | tion?" we replied, "Seventh-day Baptists," of the loneliness which they experience who a train of almost forgotten memories seemed maintain their faith as Seventh-day Baptists | to be waking up within him. At length he entirely separated from those of like precious | said, "Many years ago, when I was but faith. We are especially impressed with the boy, the Reformed Presbyterians sent a mis longing of this brother for an opportunity to sionary to Hayti. After a few years he be open up the thoughts and feelings of his came a Baptist and then a Seventh day mind and heart to one who can appreciate | Baptist. Concerning this change of views them by reason of a common experience. he wrote a long letter to my father, who was "They that feared the Lord, spake often in some official way, connected with the one to another." How little do we, whose board which had sent him out, and that," he lives are spent in the midst of the privileges | added, "is about all I ever knew about Sevof our church and social life, appreciate enth-day Baptists." The incident had been them! As little do we know of the trials of those who are deprived of them. But God | the name of the missionary. When we sug is the portion of all his people, whether in the gested, "Jos. W. Morton," he replied "Yes, midst of the fellowship of those they love, or separated from them; and he will reward the heroism and self-sacrifice of his tried ones according to his own just estimates of their worth. Our prayer is, "God bless the lone Sabbath-keepers."

NEXT to the curse of rum, the bane of the working classes, so-called, is indifferent work. We draw no comparisons now be- desire to know more about the subject, we tween what is called skilled labor, and the promised to send him, on our return home, work of the common day laborer; but we some reading matter which we have accordspeak rather of the quality of much of the ingly done. work that is done by all classes of laborers. With the feeling that there is a natural and the Wyoming salt belt, only a few miles necessary enmity between the employed and the employer, many men work as if they visit any of the works, though we passed only cared to fill up their required time and very near to some of them. We were draw their pay. The result is, of course, shiftless workmen and indifferent work. In nine cases out of ten these men could do are drilled; when the salt stratum is penegood work, at no greater outlay of time or physical energy, and their work would always be in demand at fair wages. It is a fatal error on the part of any workman to suppose that he can substantially promote his own interests by indifference to those of his employer. In business as in matters of religion, the advice of the Scriptures is a safe rule to follow, "Whatsoever thy hands find to do, do it with thy might."

started. Type, etc., is in the office, and tum is about seven or eight feet thick, and matter for the first number is being set. is a solid rock of pure salt. From the shaft to the Editor of the Samfare Recording to present plans, Bro. Ch. Th. the salt is mined much as coal is mined, and the first time we days to spare, we decided to make use of the this time in going to the Halifax River, and owner for a conductor.

of his kingdom. This is a grand opportunity to carry the testimony, the gospel mesopportunity has been given to us, and that his glory.

VACATION NOTES.

The distance from Mt. Morris to Attica i about 25 miles. It was our purpose to reach this latter point by noon of our second day. To make the journey as easy as possible for Daniel, we bid adieu to Mt. Morris at 4 o'clock A. M., intending to feed at a little place called Peoria, some ten miles on our way, at which place we were told we could doubtless find accommodations. We were not a little disappointed, then, when we found, on our arrival at that place, that there had been no hotel kept there for "nigh on to twenty years." As we could not turn back the wheels of time to that more favored our carriage moving forward, in the hope of finding something that would meet and fill our present wants. We had not far to go, for soon application, made at a substantial thrifty looking farm-house, brought oats and stabling for an hour or two, for Daniel, and work of the churches and of our benevolent | a little lunch, left over from the previous day, societies for the current Conference year will gave very good satisfaction to the rest of

While we rested, the farmer, who with the faithful steward of the manifold grace of his sons, as we judged, had come out to do God? Let us look over the financial state- some work at the barn, very kindly gave us ments of our Societies, published in this information respecting farming interests generally about the neighborhood, and seemed mains to be done in these remaining three not unwilling to answer questions respecting affairs on his own thrifty farm. In return for these civilities, we told him that we wer ministers on a little vacation trip. When in answer to his inquiry, "Of what denomina so long out of mind that he could not recal I think that was the name." On inquiry we found that the name of our friend was Cuthbert Guthrie, and that of his father, to whom the letter of the converted missionary was written, was Thomas Guthrie, a man of Scotch-Irish descent. This singular introduction led to some pleasant conversation respecting our denominational history and doctrine; and as Mr. Guthrie expressed

At this place we found ourselves in north of Warsaw. We had not time to told that the usual method of obtaining the salt was to drill for it, much as the oil wells trated, which lies from five hundred to twelve hundred feet below the surface ac cording to the conformation of the surface, water is admitted or forced into the holes, and when it becomes laden with salt, is pumped out again and evaporated, as any other brine is treated, in order to obtain its salt. About three miles from Mr. Guthrie's house there is what is known in the neighborhood as "the salt shaft," or more commonly, "the shaft." This is an excavation about 16 feet THE HEBREW PAPER, Eduth le Israel, in diameter, made to the salt stratum which, the "Testimony to Israel," about which we if we remember correctly, is some eight have been talking for some time, is being hundred feet below the surface. This stra-

Lucky will edit it, while carrying forward chambers being run out in various directions, his personal work among his countrymen with pillars left at frequent intervals to supand former brethren in New York city; port the roof of the mines. This salt rock, the type-setting and proof reading are to be in color and general appearance, bears a done by Bro. J. P. Landow, who will problestriking resemblance to some varieties of ably be engaged a part of his time as assistant | dark-colored granite. It is, however, easily teacher of the Hebrew language in the Uni-broken up and ground to any desired deversity, and the mechanical work of the pa- gree of fineness. What struck us as singular per will be done by the office. We commend | about it is that this dark looking rock, when this good work to the prayers, the sympa- ground fine, is almost as white as the whitthies and the support of the brotherhood. It est wheaten flour. It is said to be the purest is purely an evangelizing work and, like all salt obtainable. Mr. Guthrie showed us such work, it cannot be expected to be piece of the rock which would weigh eight self-supporting. It must go forward, in part or ten pounds. Some weeks ago a single at least, by contributions of those who love piece was taken from the shaft, weighing God and desire to bear a part in the triumphs | three tons, and was sent to a house in Phila delphia as a sample. A few days previous to our journey through the county another sage, to Israel. We thank God that such an | piece had been taken from the shaft which weighed over eight tons. This was sent to we have the disposition to make use of it to a New York house. We very much regret ted that we could not visit the shaft, make more extended observation, and obtain some specimens for our University museums; but our time being limited we were obliged to forego this pleasure and press on our way. Much refreshed with the four quarts of oats and the pleasant visit with our stranger friend, we again set our faces toward Attica, which place we reached "on schedule time." A good dinner and three hours' rest in the heat of the day at the Wyoming House put us all in good condition for the fifteen miles which still stretched between us and the vil lage of Alden, which was our first objective point. Our pleasure on arriving at Bro. James Babcock's in this place, was only surpassed by the cordiality with which these friends whom we had come to visit, welcomed us to their home. We were, however, still nearly twenty miles from Rapids, where is located the church now known as Clarence and Pendleton, and where we had arranged to spend the Sabbath. Accordingly, the next morning, being the sixth day of the week, we leisurely resumed our journey northward. At the village of Akron, ten miles from Alden, we found Sister Gillings, and at her hospitable home, we met for the first time, Deacon J. F. Morgan and wife, who were early comable Elder Hull, who never ceased to cherish this people with a father's tenderness. With these friends we spent a delightful afternoon. resuming our journey in time to reach "The Rapids" as the Sabbath was coming on. Of our meetings here and of the Sabbath-keeping interests in this vicinity we shall speak in another article.

As we passed through the counties of Wyoming and Erie, we were pleased to note the evidences of good crops and general thrift, though in some instances we saw valuable farm machinery left to the waste and wear of exposure to sun and storm such scenes, however, were the exception and not the rule.

At the village of Akron we found the principal industry to be the manufacture of builders' cement. Herè again our limited time forbade us the privilege of a visit to these interesting works, and as our return trip brought us here on Sunday when they were closed, we can only speak of them from information obtained by inquiry. We learned that this valuable article is made from a species of limestone found in this vi cinity. This stone is mined in great abundance from ledges or strata some of which lie forty or fifty feet below the surface of the ground, and some at varying depths in little hills which are near by. The stone after being mined, or more properly quarried, is put into great kilns and burned, and then into mills where it is reduced to the form in which builders find it. It is then barreled and stored for market or immediately shipped on orders. The product differs from the common lime in that the stone is of finer and purer quality than that from which lime is made, and also in that greater care and skill is used in making it. Some idea of the extent of this industry may be obtained from the fact that there are three establishments in the village engaged in it Two of these have a producing capacity of 500 barrels each per day, while the third puts up 1,000 barrels daily, making the aggregate daily out-put of the three establishments 2,000 barrels. It is said that the largest of the three has a contract with the city of New York to furnish 1,000,000 bar rels in five years, or 200,000 barrels annu-

THE TIME OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

We have received, through our beloved brother, Eld. G. Velthuysen, of Haarlem, Holland, the following statement and re-editor, a copy of "A hand-book for Seventhday Baptists," was sent to Bro. Velthuysen, Holland. What is said in it concerning the celebration of the Lord's Supper, viz. that it is held "once in two months," raised the desire to apply to the American brethren for explanation. The matter is, that, though we are wont to celebrate that institution once a month, some among us have asked since long time, How do we know that it is according to the will of God to take the Lord's Supper more than once a year? These brethren say, the Saviour founded this institution at the end of the Jewish paschal meal; and as Paul says: "As often as ye eat this bread," it is obvious that he is speaking about the unleavened bread, which was used in the paschal week only; so the term "often" cannot refer but to once a year. We shall be thankful, if you will give us your opinion

(SOME SEVENTH-DAY BAPTISTS IN HOLLAND.

JUNE, 1887. The frequency with which the Lord's Supper should be celebrated, appears not to phur water. What an army of invalids that have been fixed by any divine law concern- would supply with internal and external ing it. Indeed, the language of Paul, "As purification! At West Tocoi we are oppo. often as ye eat this bread, and drink this site the terminus of that famous railway. cup," etc., naturally implies that this was a the first built in the state, I think, which question to be decided by those who should connects the St. Johns with St. Augustine partake of the solemn emblems. "As often as ye do it," seems to say that some may ancient and quaint city. It used to be said do it more frequently than others, while that if one was in a hurry he generally others will do it less frequently. When ye do it, is not an essential thing; but whenever ye do it, "ye do show the Lord's death | not true, as was asserted of it, that the entill he come." It may also be fairly implied, we think, that the service should be repeated | the wayside for water for the boiler, that the at frequent intervals. Certainly, if it were fireman cut the light-wood for the fire as he to be administered but once in a life time. like baptism, Paul would not have said "As | ahead to scare the cattle off the track and often as ye do it;" nor would he have been | spank the babies found playing between the likely to have used that expression if the rails, or that he sometimes had to wait sev-Supper was to be taken only at long inter- eral hours for the train to overtake him! vals. Thus, the question of how often the But its glory has departed. Another road Lord's Supper should be celebrated seems to has been built direct from Jacksonville, have been left to the judgment, convenience, or religious choice of those whose duty and privilege it is to celebrate it at all. For this instead of half a day as formerly by rail and reason, there has never been any general uni- boat. formity in the matter. It is thought by some that the apostle's and apostolic Chris- beside the track, a delicate pink flower, tians celebrated the Lord's Supper daily; but | which a flower girl used to bring in bunches it is doubtful whether this is the meaning to the hotel in Jacksonville, and sell as panions and life-long friends of our vener- of the phrase "breaking bread from house to house." Acts 2: 46. Many of the early the "fairy lily," or the Amaryllis atamasco, Christians celebrated it weekly, as do some at the present time; other churches celebrate it monthly, others once in two months, and still others once in three months.

The fact that the Lord's Supper was in stituted in connection with the passover, a yearly feast, determines nothing, we think, on this question, since the passover was a purely Jewish observance, and the Lord's Supper is a Christian ordinance. "This bread," as used by Paul, evidently did not derive its significance from its connection with the paschal service, but from the fact that it was the emblem of the broken body of the Lord Jesus Christ. The expression, "As often as ye eat this bread," may fairly be interpret ed, "As often as ye partake of this emblem of the Lord's broken body." The emphasis lies in the fact that it was the Lord's body, in symbol, and not that it was a loaf of bread which, under an old dispensation, might be eaten but once a year.

L'ommunications.

FLITTING SUNWARD.

NUMBER XVIII.

GOING TO HALIFAX.

One thing which we saw in Jacksonville commended itself to common sense. It was artificial building stone made of sand. Now there is no native building stone in Florida | St. Johns to the terminus of the St. Johns to speak of. At St. Augustine they have a shell conglomerate, deposited ages since by into the river, slowly leaving Palatka, La the eddies of the Gulf stream, called "coquina" which serves the purpose, and grows hard with age, but it is not a stone. In the region of Ocala we once saw a few stones, but they were kept as curiosities and as ornaments for door yards. Neither have they any clay to make bricks except in very few locations. But there is abundance of sand. It is nearly as plenty as air, and as less then an hour, affording us fine views of free as water; so if they can make it into several orange groves, and some stern-wheel good building stone, as they seem to do, at steamer navigating the river. On landing, a reasonable price, there must be "millions we found a train standing with a parlor-car into still sunnier lands, and Jacksonville is Scotch companion, on a sporting expedition. not our abiding place. We supposed we We had a nobby looking conductor, with a had made all necessary arrangements, by tel- bouquet in his buttonhole, and the air of a egraph from New Orleans for passage to gentleman. Before long we found that he Cuba, Tuesday, on the steamer Mascotte, was the president of the road, and its prinbut found, on arrival at Jacksonville, through cipal owner. It is not the first time we some blunder rooms had not been reserved have seen a conductor who had an air of seeing Daytona. The railroad, but recently opened, made it possible to do this. When we were last in Florida, Daytona could only be reached from the St. Johns by a stage. ride of forty miles or so, through woods and over rough roads. Now there are two trains every day. So sending our baggage ahead to Tampa, we left Jacksonville about noon. via the "J. T. and K. W.," as they say here. which means, when interpreted, "Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West" railway.

We were on the "Cuban express," and so did not make many stops, as we ran along the western shore of the St. Johns, glimp. ses of which we got now and then through the trees which line its banks. At Orange Park and at Magnolia are large hotels and many attractions. At Green-Cove Springs is a flourishing town which numbers among its other enticements springs that supply three thousand gallons per minute of sul. Until recently, it was the only line to that walked in preference to taking the train. It was slow and expensive, but it is doubtless gineer depended on a pail and mudholes by went along, and that the conductor walked which runs three trains a day, and makes the whole distance in an hour and a half,

We saw in great abundance in the woods "Easter lilies." They are identical with of our Northern florists, but their real name is Zephyranthes, which is Greek for "flower of the west wind." What a pity the Greeks did not have the telegraph; they could express so much in one word! For the same reason I believe telegraphing is cheap in Ger-

The paper boy "worked the train" in dead earnest. First one thing and then another; paper, magazines, books, candies, oranges, curiosities, albums of Florida views, prize packages, fish scale jewelry, sea beans, etc., were thrust under your nose, or laid in your lap, without a word of apology, and you expected to endure it without complaint No other people but Americans would stand such impositions, and it is doubtful if their long-suffering patience is a virtue. The wonder is that some one with more dignity than patience does not pitch them all out of the window and the impudent peddler after them. The Scribe did not go to that extent, but he carefully permitted everything put in his lap to fall upon the floor, whence the boy could take them at his leisure. A few hints of this kind were sufficient, and thereafter the Scribe was omitted in the distribution of packages. Here then is a possible remedy for this nuisance. Let the train boy find all his papers and packages on the floor when he returns for them, and possibly he will learn to ask permission before he forces them upon strangers. At Palatka we took a ferry-boat across the and Halifax Railway. As we moved out Belle remarked, as if it was remarkable, "What a fast boat!"

"Yes," said the Don, "it does seem to be a little faster than it was when tied to the

"No, it was fast then, but it isn't fast now; so it cannot be faster," said El Bah. But, fast or loose, it crossed the river in into which we hurried with a number of But we are on our way further South, others, among them an Englishman with a

The road runs through most of the way. Daisies a sort of wild marygolds, too modest to intrude, and purple spikes, are some of way. Cypress swamps with ical cypress knees, cove swamps with fallen tree tricable confusion, stre water running over white the varying depth gave th ing in sepia washes, then land ranging from two water level, sometimes c and sometimes cleared formed the variety of land part of the journey. Th and ditches by the side of like favorite resorts for " were told by one of the tra was not unusual to see passed. We kept a good one of us caught sight of La Belle, whose sharp ey a foot and a half long. The stopping places

At "Windermere," the E up, and asked, "And did The contrast with the beau in Old England was so stril is absurd, to say the least. T of three huts. After ridin of country with future stopped at a woodpile, wit habitation in sight; but ou trackless woods was a sta passengers who got off, ap provision in view if not in River there was a group ferry-boat. Groups and g alternated with meadows night came on, and jus stopped at a cross-road, w called out "Ormond." in sight, but five ladies go civilized people live here? senger. "Oh, yes, Chr replied one of the ladies. their remarks that they h meeting of the W. C. T. ing village of Ormond ne It was dark when we ar the present terminus of was no depot, no platfori ing but sand and darknes the lantern of the conduc there would be a stag Ocean View House. The or carriage which our I hired to go a distance of river, but the driver kind if we would wait until he take us. There seemed chance, and it looked as i stand in that damp sand hours at least

"LET JERUSALEM COME

BY REV. THEO. I

"Remember the Lord afar come into your mind." Jer

These words of the Lo lon have proven so fruit tions to my own people offer them to the reader hoping thus to make the ers. And while the th are appropriate to any p of a peculiar fitness in upon Seventh day Bapti

Jerusalem was the re

Hebrew people; there w Lord," where their fathe in a peculiar sense, we minders of the faith o was the rallying point were expected to come they could not maintain arate people. When the ed, their king besough his people, wherever f their condition, when hearts toward that ho his friends prayed wit ward Jerusalem. In amidst all their plans, place in mind, becau cause of their God, and that made them a se because their salvation loyalty to those truths. Thus, you see that the church. Indeed, was meant, when in t urged to let Jerusalem The Bible makes Jes the church as the cause also nees it to represe STALL DESTRICT eing Daytona. The railroad, but recently pened, made it possible to do this. When e were last in Florida, Daytona could only reached from the St. Johns by a stage. de of forty miles or so, through woods and er rough roads. Now there are two trains ery day. So sending our baggage shead Tampa, we left Jacksonville about noon. a the "J. T. and K. W.," as they say here. hich means, when interpreted, "Jackson. lle, Tampa and Key West" railway.

We were on the "Cuban express," and so d not make many stops, as we ran along e western shore of the St. Johns, glimp. s of which we got now and then through e trees which line its banks. At Orange ark and at Magnolia are large hotels and any attractions. At Green-Cove Springs a flourishing town which numbers among other enticements springs that supply ree thousand gallons per minute of sul. ur water. What an army of invalids that ould supply with internal and external rification! At West Tocoi we are oppoe the terminus of that famous railway, e first built in the state, I think, which nnects the St. Johns with St. Augustine. ntil recently, it was the only line to that cient and quaint city. It used to be said nt if one was in a hurry he generally lked in preference to taking the train. It s slow and expensive, but it is doubtless t true, as was asserted of it, that the enneer depended on a pail and mudholes by wayside for water for the boiler, that the eman cut the light-wood for the fire as he nt along, and that the conductor walked ead to scare the cattle off the track and ink the babies found playing between the is, or that he sometimes had to wait sevhours for the train to overtake him! t its glory has departed. Another road been built direct from Jacksonville, ich runs three trains a day, and makes whole distance in an hour and a half, tead of half a day as formerly by rail and We saw in great abundance in the woods ide the track, a delicate pink flower, ich a flower girl used to bring in bunches the hotel in Jacksonville, and sell as laster lilies." They are identical with "fairy lily," or the Amaryllis atamasco, our Northern florists, but their real name ephyranthes, which is Greek for "flower the west wind." What a pity the Greeks not have the telegraph; they could exss so much in one word! For the same son I believe telegraphing is cheap in Ger-

he paper boy "worked the train" in d earnest. First one thing and then other; paper, magazines, books, candies, nges, curiosities, albums of Florida views. ze packages, fish scale jewelry, sea beans, were thrust under your nose, or laid in ir lap, without a word of apology, and expected to endure it without complaint. other people but Americans would stand h impositions, and it is doubtful if their g-suffering patience is a virtue. The ider is that some one with more dignity n patience does not pitch them all out of window and the impudent peddler after m. The Scribe did not go to that extent, he carefully permitted everything put in lap to fall upon the floor, whence the could take them at his leisure. A few ts of this kind were sufficient, and therer the Scribe was omitted in the distribuof packages. Here then is a possible edy for this nuisance. Let the train boy all his papers and packages on the floor n he returns for them, and possibly he learn to ask permission before he forces upon strangers.

Palatka we took a ferry-boat across the ohns to the terminus of the St. Johns Halifax Railway. As we moved out the river, slowly leaving Palatka, La remarked, as if it was remarkable, hat a fast boat!"

Yes," said the Don, "it does seem to be tle faster than it was when tied to the

No, it was fast then, but it isn't fast so it cannot be faster," said El Bah. ut, fast or loose, it crossed the river in then an hour, affording us fine views of ral orange groves, and some stern-wheel mer navigating the river. On landing, ound a train standing with a parlor car which we hurried with a number of rs, among them an Englishman with a ch companion, on a sporting expedition. iad a nobby looking conductor, with a uet in his buttonhole, and the air of a leman. Before long we found that he the president of the road, and its prin-Gwner. It is not the first time we seen a conductor who had an air of water running over white sands, in which formed the variety of landscapes in the first part of the journey. The stagnant ponds like favorite resorts for "gators," indeed we reason. Then were told by one of the train hands that it was not unusual to see them as the train for us is this: In all our plans, in all our a foot and a half long.

At "Windermere," the Englishman waked up, and asked, "And did ye see the lake?" The contrast with the beautiful Windermere, is absurd, to say the least. The village consisted of three huts. After riding through a sketch of country with future possibilities, we stopped at a woodpile, with no sign of a passengers who got off, apparently had some provision in view if not in sight. At Tomah River there was a group of darkies and a ferry-boat. Groups and groves of palmetto, alternated with meadows of cranegrass. As night came on, and just before dark, we stopped at a cross-road, where the conductor called out "Ormond." Not a building was in sight, but five ladies got in. "What! do civilized people live here?" exclaimed a passenger. "Oh, yes, Christians live here!" replied one of the ladies. We gathered from their remarks that they had been attending a meeting of the W. C. T. U., at the flourishing village of Ormond near by.

It was dark when we arrived at Daytona, the present terminus of the road. There was no depot, no platform, no lights. noththe lantern of the conductor. We were told there would be a stage to take us to the Ocean View House. There was one stage, or carriage which our English friend had hired to go a distance of six miles down the river, but the driver kindly informed us that stand in that damp sand for two or three

"LET JERUSALEM COME INTO YOUR MIND."

BY REV. THEO. L GARDINER.

"Remember the Lord afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind." Jer. 51: 50.

These words of the Lord to Israel in Babylon have proven so fruitful in good suggestions to my own people, that I would fain offer them to the readers of the RECORDER, hoping thus to make them a blessing to others. And while the thoughts they suggest are appropriate to any people, yet I feel sure of a peculiar fitness in them when urged upon Seventh day Baptists.

Jerusalem was the religious home of the Hebrew people; there was the "house of the Lord," where their fathers worshiped. These, in a peculiar sense, were the constant re minders of the faith of their fathers. It was the rallying point where all the loyal were expected to come, and without which they could not maintain their faith as a separate people. When the temple was dedicated, their king besought the Lord to bless his people, wherever found, and whatever their condition, when they turned loyal hearts toward that house. So Daniel and his friends prayed with windows open toward Jerusalem. In every condition, and amidst all their plans, they must have this place in mind, because it represented the cause of their God, and embodied the truths that made them a separate people, and because their salvation depended upon their | above my chief joy." loyalty to those truths.

Thus, you see that Jerusalem stands for the church. Indeed, the church of God was meant, when in those days, they were urged to let Jerusalem come into their minds. The Bible makes Jerusalem to symbolize saved in heaven.

The road runs through woods and swamps to Babylon as a symbol of an evil kingdom, most of the way. Daisies and buttercups, opposed to the kingdom of God. Babylon the duty of sustaining our Publishing House. a sort of wild marygolds, fine white flowers stands for "the world" over against the that this department of labor may not be too modest to intrude, and others with tall church. It was Babylon against Jerusalem crippled, and thereby lose any of its effipurple spikes, are some of the flora by the then. It is Babylon against Jerusalem ciency. way. Cypress swamps with the queer con- now. And the former still steals away capical cypress knees, covered with ferns, tives and treasures from the latter. The one of the clergymen present, in regard to swamps with fallen trees lying in inex-(conflict is still between these two; and, actricable confusion, streams of brown cording to the apocalypse, the victory comes day ministers, was so in accord with my own when Jerusalem shall triumph over Babylon. the varying depth gave the effects of a draw- It was all important that the Israel of old ing in sepia washes, then strips of higher | should "let Jerusalem come into mind," in land ranging from two to ten feet above order that they might not come to settle water level, sometimes covered with pine, down, content to stay in Babylon, and so lose and sometimes cleared by lumbermen, all interest in the cause of God, and in the "faith once delivered to the saints." And the and ditches by the side of the road looked to heed those words, and for exactly the same for him. He thereby gains the good will profusely illustrated.

THE GREAT THOUGHT

passed. We kept a good watch, but not doings, and under all conditions, let the one of us caught sight of a saurian, except church come into mind. Lay your plans God's cause ever in your heart, think of the The stopping places were not many. | church when you count your money, think of it when you are before your children in the home, and when you are among strangers in a strange land, lest you become contented in Old England was so striking that the name | to stay in Babylon, and lose your part in the New Jerusalem. It is the crying evil of our time, that even those who have identified themselves with our churches think so little about the cause of God. Jerusalem seldom habitation in sight; but out in the seemingly | comes into mind, while Babylon leads them trackless woods was a stage, and the four captive, and for it they plan and work, while God's cause suffers, and the walls of Jerusalem tumble down.

Our church has a right to claim our thoughts and affections, because it is such a source of good to us. Even the worldling admits the benefits of the church upon himself, even though he may never enter the sanctuary to receive spiritual good. And you whose souls have been blessed thereby have double reason to prize it. Your farms are more valuable, your social privileges better, all your worldly estate is enhanced by the church of God. What would be the effect upon the value of your property, if every one should forget Jerusalem, and all the churches die, and cease to exert their power over the world? You need go only a few miles away, to that community where Babylon has ing but sand and darkness, relieved only by held riot for fifty years, and skepticism and worldliness have kept the church out of their midst, while the dram-shop and dance-house chance, and it looked as if we were fated to sacred influences coming from this church, as high as theirs. Then because your real church, she has a right to urge you to "let | modern mission work. Jerusalem come into your mind."

> Again, the church claims your thoughts because of the sacred vow you took upon yourself when you sought and found admission to her ranks. When you went forth of your own accord, and covenanted to forsake the world, and live for Christ, and be true to his church and people the remainder of your days, it was a most solemn and sacred pledge. And the church has a right to ask you to keep it. You made the most sacred promise before God, angels and men, when you did publicly put on Christ in baptism, which has lasted for nearly six weeks—one that you would evermore be loyal to his of the longest "hot spells" known in Alfred. cause. And then every one of you sealed We are in no hurry for frosts, though some that sacred vow when you together partook | who were out early Monday morning report of the emblems of your Lord's broken body slight evidence that "Jack" had been hovand spilled blood. It was indeed a covenant sealed with the blood of your Redemer. Now how can you go back upon that? Has not the church a claim upon your thoughts and affections?

What shall we say to those who seem to have forgotton these vows? There are many such in all our churches. Oh that they would "remember the Lord afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind."

"If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth, if I prefer not Jerusalem

SHILOH, N. J., July 27, 1887.

CORRESPONDENCE.

the church as the cause of God on earth, and North-Western Association, I was greatly inalso uses it to represent the church of the terested in the summary of results accruing for sowing the seed of truth, and involves

Another item reported, as expressed by his experience in intercourse with Firstconvictions that I want to say a few words in regard to it.

I believe it is true that a minister will bet ter gain the respect of those who are not with him in doctrinal belief and practice, by maintaining a kind, courteous, Christian manner in social intercourse, and allowing necessity is quite as great for Israel of to-day, his loyal practice on differing points to speak of those with whom he mingles, disarms them of half their prejudice, and opens an avenue to their hearts, by which a silent wedge of truth may enter. I think Christians should ever seek for peace and har-La Belle, whose sharp eyes saw one about with this in mind. Do your work with mony, and that a Christ-like spirit which aims to discover the real worth and bring into active exercise the highest traits of characacter in those holding different opinions. will do more to bring them to the standard of truth than a manifest spirit of controversy, which ever repels and puts farther away those who should be benefited.

> It seems to me this is according to the genius of the gospel, and that men make grave mistake when they allow the spirit of controversy to so fully possess them that it overshadows the Christian graces of character. I am speaking now of social intercourse. and the exchange of ministerial and Christian courtesies. The truth should most certainly be defended at proper times, and in proper ways and places, but let it be done in a truly Christian spirit.

> May God help all his ministering servants, that while they stand firm in defense of the truth, they may still breathe out in all their intercourse with their fellow-men, a gracious. winning, Christian influence.

MRS. C. M. LEWIS. ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y., Aug. 5, 1887.

Home Hews.

New York.

ALFRED CENTRE.

At our prayer meeting last Sabbath eve, Bro. Lucky gave a short talk on modern Jewish missions, urging some considerations have flourished, to see the difference. Their | why we should engage in that work. He land is as rich as yours, their start at the said that the important place which the beginning of this century was quite as Jews occupy in the Scriptures shows the impropitious as yours, but the majority scorned | portance of work among them. God chose if we would wait until he got back he would the church, and to-day the most wordly them as the people to whom he revealtake us. There seemed to be no other minded of this Christian community prefer the ed his will, to whom he gave the Scriptures; of the Jews Jesus was born, and as the moral atmosphere in which to raise to them, chiefly, was his personal mission their children, and your land is valued twice | the apostles were sent first to the Jews, and then to the Gentiles; Paul had great anxiety estate increases in value, in proportion as for them, as shown in Romans 10: 1. The you approach church centers, and because successes of modern missions among them every social and intellectual privilege is en- | are quite as great, in proportion to the money hanced in value, by the influence of the spent and labor bestowed, as in any other

The first move toward rebuilding the "burnt district" was made by A. A. Shaw last Sunday, Aug. 7th. He will build larger than before, and will set the whole structure a little further back from the street. Work on the foundations is being pushed with vigor; the style of building is to be a brick veneer. Who'll be the next?

The rains of last Friday and Sabbath mornings have been followed by bright cool weather which is bracing and delightful. Thus has come a break in the heated term, ering near. The health of the community is remarkably good.

Condensed Aews.

Domestic.

The expenditures of Sing Sing prison for July were $13,841; earnings, $7,150.

George Faith, a noted burglar has been arrested in Jersey City, with a most complete been rushing in ever since. outfit of burglar's tools.

H. C. Tams, who was in charge of William K. Vanderbilt's poultry farm at Glendale, N. J., has sold out the entire stock for $5,000 and absconded.

J. P. Haynes, of Galveston, Tex., a colored student at Dartmouth medical college has been appointed demonstrator of anatomy at that institution for the ensuing term.

It is estimated that the amount of money spent by workingmen in strikes in this country during the last two years would have paid the wages of 100,000 men during that

A Boston man, who has crossed the Atlantic fifty-two times and been seasick every time except the last trip, explains that excep- Edwin S. Maxson, M. D., Syracuse, N. Y. . $ 5 80 tion by stating that he had a rubber bag, which he filled with ice, and he laid down every morning on this, pressing it against the spine at the base of the brain. It had a soothing effect, and he frequently fell asleep while reposing on it. He afterward felt Mary J. Moore, Ashaway, R. I., Light of braced up for the day, enjoying every hour and every meal.

The department of state has prepared and published a bound volume of consular reports upon dairy farming in all parts of the world. It contains 800 printed pages and is Secretary Fairchild has directed the antic pation of the interest on the public debt with two per cent rebate, and proposals for the sale of four and one-half per cent bonds for the sinking fund.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the week, as reported to R. G. Dun & Co., number for the United States 163, and for Canada twenty, or a total 183, as compared with 184 last week.

Severe storms of wind and rain, and in J. Hendricks, Albion, Wis.,. some cases hail, have prevailed throughout the country, east, west and south, doing great damage to property in some localities, during the past week.

Sarah Wheeler, a noted woman horse-thief who has been in jail in Chicago some time awaiting trial for failing to return a livery rig, has been convicted and given a sentence of three months' imprisonment.

A hurricane accompanied with rain and hail prevailed at New Brunswick, N. J., August 2d, for an hour and a half. The rain fall was the heaviest in many years. The streets were deluged and badly damaged.

At the meeting of the American Bible Society in New York, August 5th, it was reported that two colporteurs had been thrown into prison in Persia and their money and Bibles confiscated. The attention of the state department will be called to the case.

James Martin, a painter, eighteen years old, who was working on the Brooklyn bridge, August 1st, missed his footing on a scaffold and fell into the river. He was picked up by a tug and taken to a hospital. He complained of a pain in his side where he struck the water, but apparently was not seriously hurt. The distance he fell was John Smalley, about 160 feet.

The annual report of the Chicago & North Western Railroad shows gross earnings of $26,321,315, against $24,279,599 last year, operating expenses and taxes $15,070,341, against $13,859,225; net earnings $11,250,-973, against $10,420,373; surplus $2,612,-271, against $1,381,606 last year. There was a net increase in the bonded debt of $6,-873,000, principally for the account of the new extensions.

Foreign.

Ten thousand Italian troops will be sent to Massowah in autumn.

The British government has decided to subsidize the Canadian Pacific route for the transportation of the British trans-Pacific

The commissary of police entered the New York Herald office in Paris Thursday, Aug. 4th, and seized all Heralds containing the Boulanger march.

A severe storm occurred thirty miles from Panama a few days ago. It blew over some thirty ranches, destroyed crops and carried chickens away in the air.

A Frenchman and a Russian have been arrested at Lemberg on charge of being spies. They confess that they have been reporting the state of the millitary defenses to the Russian government.

The Shen Poa, Chinese newspaper, gives the most harrowing account of floods at Chu Chou Fu, up the Wenzow River. Over 1,000 destruction to growing crops is immense.

Russian legation in Peking, has just published a pamphlet on the Chinese repulation, in which he states it to be 382,000,000 as against 413,000,000 in 1842. His statistics are derived from official sources.

The famine which is raging at Anteoqua is at its height. In San Vincente two children in a family have died of starvation. Twenty thousand dollars has been raised in Medellin, but this sum is not enough. - A relief committee in Rio Negro has 200 families

The United States steamer Antietam, now moored at the League Island navy yard, is in a sinking condition. The vessel has stores worth $25,000 on board. She was built in Philadelphia in 1867. Three weeks ago she sprung a leak and the water has

The Bulgarian government has ordered that the state yacht, which is devoted to the use of the reigning prince, and which at present is moored at Rustchuk, be prepared for the reception of Prince Ferdinand. The prince will go on board the yacht at Orsova as he does not wish to touch at any place in Roumania.

The total wealth of the United Kingdom, also uses it to represent the church of the large aved in heaven.

On the other hand, the scored writers refer evidence that this is a means approved of God.

The Government because the church of the same and some other large from our publications. These are sufficient same policy.

The Government because the church of the summary of results accruing from our publications. These are sufficient same policy.

The Government because the church of the summary of results accruing from our publications. These are sufficient same policy.

The Government because the church of the summary of results accruing from our publications. These are sufficient same policy.

The Government because the church of the summary of results accruing from our publications. These are sufficient same policy. according to Mr. Mulhall, has doubled since

The newspapers in Paris concur in the opinion that it is advisable to submit the Ferry-Boulanger matter to arbitration.

TRACT SOCIETY.

Receipts in July, 1887.

A. A. Whitford, Dodge Centre, Minn., Light Lottie Baldwin, Glen Beulah, Wis., Light of Home...
J. S. Maxson, Parsons, Kan., Light of Home. Home,....
J. P. Lundquist, Heber, Kan., Light of Harriet Edwards, Ceres, N. Y., Light of Harriet Edwards, Ceres, N. Y., Outlook,.... Church, Farina, Ill.,... Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Green, Berlin, N. Y. completing L. M. of Arletta E. Greene...

Mrs. E. C. Burr, Manchester Depot, Vt., on L. M.,... Miss Sarah Burdick, Alfred Centre, N. Y., on L. M., E. P. Larkin, Alfred Centre, N. Y. Mrs. Isaac Brown, Brookfield, N. Y. Mrs. Lewis Berry, Independence, N. Y.... Henry Berry, George W. Stillman, Hebron. Pa..... L. R. Burdick, R. H. Emerson, M. N. Ell's, Dodge Centre, Minn. Outlook ... O. B. Hoard, Cartwright, Wis.....

William J. Stillman, Plainfield, N T. H. Tomlinson. Fred J. Wells. I. E. Mosher A. F. Randolph, Mrs. E A. Wooden, Mrs. George H, Babcock. " Mrs. C. Potter, Jr., Mrs. Cornelia N. Dunn, Mrs. Cornelia N. Dunn, "George H. Babcock, Plainfield, N. J., making the following Life Members: Rev. G. Velthuysen, Mrs. G. Velthuysen, Sarah Velthuysen, Gerard Velthuysen, Rev. Jas. F. Shaw, Rev. S. W. Rutledge, Chester S. Clarke, Mrs. C. S. Clarke, Charles A Clarke, Kate M. Clarke, Ella J. Clarke. M. D., Alvord B. Clarke, Lua M. Clarke, Grace A. Clarke. Lottie A. Utley...... 300 00 r. and Mrs. I. D. Titsworth, New Market, Samuel Enoch Gross, New Market, N. J.,... H. V. Dunham, C. T. Rogers, Church.

Mrs. W. J. Davis. James Carman, Lewis C. Dunn, Leopold Ritter, Wm. L. Larabee, Mis. Hannah Drake, Mrs. D. B. Rogers, Daytona, Fla., J. Clarke, Rockville, R. I., 500

Mrs. Nathan Rogers, Preston, N. Y., completing L. M. of Emma J. Purdy, 1000

Mrs. Emma J. Purdy, Preston, N. Y., 1000 Edmund Darrow, Waterford, Conn...... 100 00 D. E. Titsworth, Plainfield, N. J.,..... 25 00 Mrs, Carrie S. Stark, First Verona,.....

Church, North Loup, Neb. John Gardiner, Waterford Conn..... Mrs. Mary A. Rogers " Mr and Mrs. E. D. Barker, Noank, Conn.. First Alfred Church,.... R. A. Thomas, Alfred Centre,....

G. F. Allen,
A Friend, Milwaukee, Wis,....
Mrs. L. M. Knapp, Centralia, Wis.,...

5 Hand Books, paper,.... Outlooks, bound, 3 75 Cartwright's Natural History, 6 00 Sabbath and Sunday, Vol. 1 cloth,...... Sabbath and Sunday History, Vol. 2, cloth Quarterlies....

HEBREW PAPER FUND. PLAINFIELD, N. J., Aug. 1, 1887.

Books and Magazines.

A SPECIAL feature of the American Antiquarian for July, is mounds. We have Gold and Silver Ornaments from Mounds in Florida, Mounds in Missouri, human beings have been swept away and the | Mounds in Juneau county, Wisconsin, Village Trails and Mounds in Michigan, and an Editorial on Early S. S. Povroff, Chinese secretary to the Books which treat of mounds, and the Mastodon in America and the Mound Builders. Other contributed articles, literary notes by the Editor, etc., combine with the feature already mentioned, to make an instructive number. F. H. Revell, 150 Madison St.. Chicago. Bi monthly, $4 per year.

> THE Swiss Cross for August comes laden with suggestive and healthful reading for the young people. Geology for Girls, Intelligence of Fish, Composite Photographs, An Arizona Natural Bridge, are among the leading articles. The Editorial notes and reports from schools of the Agassiz Association, of which the magazine is the organ, combine to make an interesting number.

TRIFLET'S Monthly Galaxy of Music for July, is s before us. It is equally divided between vocal and instrumental music, the number containing ten selections of each class. $1 a year, 10 cents a number. F. Trifet, publisher, 408 Washington Street, Legal.

TOTICE TO CREDITORS.—Pursuant to an order of Clarence A. Farnum, Surrogate of the County of Allegany, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against Milo Sweet, late of the town of Almond, in said county, deceased, that they are required to present the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the undersigned, at his residence in the town of Alfred, on or before the 25th day of August, 1887. D. R. STILLMAN, Administrator

ALFRED CENTRE, Feb. 21, 1887.

Sermons and

BY MARY F. BAILEY.

Read at the North Western Association, and requested for publication.

(Concluded from last week.)

As for the home-mission field, the more we can do for it the better, to keep our young people from drifting away, and to keep our isolated ones from discouragement. You, my isolated Sabbath-keeping sister, are a light set upon a hill. Standing in relief as you do, your influence must be felt, and if you are true to the Bible, and its commands, that influence will be felt for good. For one, I desire that the Woman's Board shall stand honorably, generously, sympathetically by our home-missionary fields of labor.

As for our foreign fields, and particularly our China field, let me first clear certain rubbish out of the way of my feet. It frets me, vexes me, grieves me, that as a Board, we have been asked to walk over such stuff. Too many of our people are indifferent to it; too many are out and out opposed to it. We have been quite a number of times told, "I wish the China mission were dead." That miserable outcry of the cost of it, has so fretted and hurt me, that I have almost stopped trying to give any answer to it, save this one, that it is none of our business to put a money value upon it and count the cost thereof, and I turn to my Bible for relief, and rest it there with Christ's commission, "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." And again, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned."

The command is from Christ, the obedience is for us; the offer is to every creature, and the acceptance or refusal is for that creature, be he an unconverted man in a land of light, or in a land of darkness. The reit is this, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." The results are God's, not ours. Love the Lord as you have full occasion to, get into your hearts the Christ love for the unsaved, and, loving your dollar right and not wrong, put your hands deep, deep down into your pocketsand you will, under these circumstances, and almost in spite of yourselves-and you will find the dollar there, and find it there in unfailing measure like the widow's meal and oil through all the draught of the years when men are unwilling to hear God and be saved. If the Heavenly Father will not supply us with means to carry out his work when such a command is given to all and for all, please take away from me my Bible—take it away with all of its light and its life—and I will deliberately choose the Buddhist's great Nirvana. Such extinction, or absorption, were better than an unjust Saviour.

Let's stop it, all of us, this talking about the cost of it. God has told us about moneywhich is his, and which is ours. Don't you suppose he knew what he was talking about? If you will not do more than stand upon the low-place question of business principle, stand there and return to God his money as he tells you to for his work. Even such unthankful service would soon fill the world with the knowledge of God. The New Testament plan of giving according as God has prospered us, is too high ground for one to take honorably, until that person has learned it through the practical testings of Old Testament teachings. It is through the Old Testament that we come to the New.

My sister, you tell me you do not carry the pocket book and cannot control the funds. Let who will carry the pocket-book, one thing is certain, no living being has a right to come between you and your obligation to your Heavenly Father. Until women in heathen countries are released from seclusion and various types of slavery, yet nothing but

Up comes the dollar question, and yet right- not take her money, and stoutly refused to fully, inasmuch as it will take the dollar to do so. But she continued her pleading, and tell me you can't have a society, are too | pleading, 'Oh! Doctor, please take it. The much scattered, are too few in numbers, have | Lord Jesus Christ has saved my soul, and so little money that it won't count for much. | wouldn't that be worth five dollars? Please But, my sisters, all of you may work, should | take it." work. Are you old, or are you young, there's to make the world better, particularly if can do without something for him." be reached by others or cannot be. Have in a practical way, our work must prosper. you beauty of person, add to it that incomparable charm of Christian unselfishness; there's no beauty speaking out from the eye equal to that given to that eye by the Jesus spirit of self-forgetfulness. Does life surround you with beauty in your home, give, then, to some other home a beauty which comes best by the receiving from some source an improved condition of heart life. Do you live in strong societies, give out something of the strength which is bestowed upon you by your favored condition. Do you live alone, give out from yourself some influence which comes in the compensation bestowed upon you by your privilege of living nearer to your Master, and being taught of him instead of men. Have you married men who do not keep the Sabbath, my sisters, do not forget it will be difficult to pay your Heavenly Father for the condition of temptation into which you have thrown yourself, and plead the more earnestly that both you and your little ones may stand by the truth and the teacher of it; and remember, too, that one great obligation under which you have of a kitchen bowl. "You might have placed yourself is that you bring your husband to the keeping of God's holy day with you, for his sake, for the sake of your children; besides, if you really must live apart from Sabbath-keeping people, then still must for the spreading of God's truth. God's truth will stand whether we do or not; but he has given to us a very precious legacy in allowing us to be the ones to hold it over ancestress of yours when he wrote: until such time as men are again willing to maintain it in honor. We may falter in the Any one would think to see how coolly holding or in the carrying of that light, and reap the harvest of Sabbath-keeping. It is too great a privilege to lose. We must do our own part.

I have said it is something to our menjust two things here—and will you, pastors and preachers, who sit here, let me say it? No—I will say it—will you listen to my plea that as pastors you lead us in this, into a fuller consecration to missionary work and Sabhath-reform work? We are ready to follow aggressive leading. Will you, also, my Christian brothers, see to it that you do not stand between your Christian sister and her obligations to her Heavenly Father and to her heathen sister whom you cannot reach? One thing more for every one of you, my sisters, every one of you, pray, pray for the spiritual prosperity of the Woman's Board. Are you unable to give money, pray for those who can give it; are you scattered so that you cannot meet regularly for work or for devotional meetings, organize, work and meet when you can, and do this, which you certainly can do-have an appointed hour in which you will agree, that in the privacy of your own closets you will pray for the interests of the work. It may be that you will be as the power behind the throne, without which the work of other societies will fail of full fruition. Pray earnestly, pray definitely for special objects, persons and needs. All of you pray. With such a consecration of heart there must come a blessing answered in the shape of consecrated talent for those who have it, consecrated him for those who have it, consecrated intelligence, consecrated character, consecrated property, and in consecrated poverty.

I once heard Dr. Lawrence say to a very large congregation that the largest mission-Christianity can release her from this condi- ary contribution he ever took from one pertion, none but women can reach her, and no son was five dollars. A look of incredulity living man has a Christian right to stand be- spread over the face of that audience, which tween you and God's imposed obligations he also saw, but to it he replied by repeating upon you towards your heathen sister; and his assertion. "At the close of a missionary as a subject and as a recipient of grace, you meeting when much money had been conwill be held accountable for the manner in tributed and by many people, Anna handed which you meet that obligation. Only a very | me five dollars, saying she wanted to give it few can go in person to foreign missionary to help some poor soul to know about Christ. fields, but all may do something towards | Knowing this young girl, for she was in her sending a representative there. Such a call early teens, that she had a miserable drunken has come to us. Mrs. Davis writes to sev- father on one side of her to abuse her and eral of us concerning it. She says, "I must to misuse her earnings, a sick and disheart. ter had passed before I won my way back to ing out those harmless wrinkles."

upon me if I should not do it." Shall we by her if cared for at all, and she obliged to cleaning, until I came to the parlor carpet. calling one forth to enjoy her rich beauties. send and support one there. Who shall pay | when by my refusing I had driven her to | it? and how shall we get it? Some of you grief, she gave me such a look of tearful

One other thought I would leave with you, a reason why each of you should do some- | for you to carry about with you, I would pass thing. Are you feeble or in the possession | it down the lines that it may do better good. of strength, still you cannot escape the sur- | It was Mrs. Joseph Cook who said it: "We roundings of obligation to do something can all of us do something for Christ, or we there's some one in the world who will not | it, my sisters, and possessing the spirit of it, Miscellany.

AUNT RACHEL'S TREATMENT.

BY SYDNEY DAYRE.

Crash! An ominious sound came from the kitchen as I was sitting for a quiet talk with my friend, Mrs. Morrison. We had just been enjoying a well-prepared dinner at her table, and the two or three gentlemen guests

"Something's broken," I said.

"It sounds like it," she replied. I expected her to get up, and run nervously to the kitchen, but she quietly continued the conversation. A moment after there appeared at the door a Swedish servant with a most woe-begone look on her face, and a tear on either plump cheek. I could not forbear an exclamation of dismay at perceiving that in her hand she held the fragments of my friend's largest meat dish.

belonging to her fine dinner set. "Broken?" asked Mrs. Morrison, looking at it as she might have looked at the wreck selected something else to break, seems to me, Lena," she added, with a little shake of the head, but still with a smile.

"It slipped right out of my hands," said the girl in great distress.

"Oh, don't stop to fret over it, Lena. you give of your money, and of your strength | You don't break many dishes. No, it's no use to save the pieces. It can't be mended." "Well, Ruth!" I exclaimed, as Lena,

greatly comforted, took her departure. "Pope must surely have known

And mistress of herself when china falls.

you take the ruin of that handsome dish God may choose a more devoted people to that you could have a new set any day, if you want it.'

"Which is very far from being the case, as you know," said my friend, soberly. " am afraid I cannot match the dish, and if I can, I can scarcely afford the money for it

"But you do not seem to mind the accident at all," I persisted, quite unable to understand her equanimity.

"Oh, yes, I do-after a fashion," she went on very deliberately. "That set was a present from dear old Aunt Rachel, and I am sorry to see any piece of it broken. But if you are wondering because I do not fret over what can't be helped, I can only assure you, Eleanor, that I cannot afford to. It is bad enough to lose the dish without that." "Any one will admit that fretting is of no use," I said. "But you are about the only woman I have ever seen who really lived up

"I didn't begin that way," replied Ruth, settling back into her chair with a thoughtful expression on her pleasant face. "I was very much given to fretting over small annoyances when I was a good deal younger. It was that same dear old Aunt Rachel who cured me by vigorous treatment."

"I should like her recipe, if you can give

"Oh, it is only the same old one you may hear or read any day of your life: 'Don't fret; it is thankless, rebellious, and utterly useless, never does a bit of good, and always does harm,' with plenty more such plain truths. I think it must have been the sturdy administration which affected me. When we were first married, Fred and I began housekeeping in our pretty little house with everything nice about it, and were as happy as young people usually are. But my habit of worrying over trifles began putting little blots here and there on the smooth surface Fred was hurt and fretted by it.

blessed, and I wondered how I had ever been | never employed this manner." able to find trouble in trifles! As I prayed | "Indeed I have not," she replied. "I test my resolution very soon; for as baby re- sheets without ironing." covered, I became ill. For many a day I lay "Just so," I answered. "I would not send her one? What will you do about it? earn the money for their support, I could The room had been shut up for months, had but to the women who delves from morning not been properly aired and swept, and the moths had made fearful ravages all around the edges of the carpet. You'll be astonished to hear, Eleanor, that all my equanimity clothed and fed. There should be a respite broke down at sight of it."

be fairly sick over such a thing."

very proud of it. I did not find that any- the iron on its surface, not a bird will twitter thing else had suffered from neglect through | the fact to its mate, nor a flower disclose it my illness; but I forgot all the other pleasant | to companion. And as for any comments facts in view of this distressing one. Even | made by those whose minds never soar high. when baby crept over it, crowing in delight | er than starch and flat-irons, why, they are at the bright flowers, and trying to pick them not worth noticing.—Nellie Burns, in West. with his chubby little hands, I forgot how ern Plowman. much I would have given, not so very long ago, to hear a merry note from him. Well, just as I was at the very culmination of my pet,' Aunt Rachel's kindly face beamed upon me for a week's visit.

"'Thankful to see thee so well, dear,' was her greeting. The Lord has been good to thee. Not that I don't mean that he would have been good if thee hadn't got well.'

"'Yes, I'm very well now, thank you, Aunt Rachel,' I said, after the first inquiries were over. 'Well, enough, you see, having got past my great troubles, to settle down to small worries. Look here—isn't this enough to turn the soul of a housekeeper sick?'

"'It is a pity,' she remarked, viewing the

"'Of course some things had to be neglected while I was sick,' I continued petulantly; 'but I never dreamed about such a thing as this.'

"She looked at me with her quiet eyes, always so full, I used to think, of the very peace of heaven.

"'Surely, Ruth, thee isn't going to make the matter worse by vexing thy immortal soul over a mishap?",

"'Oh, it's very well for you to talk that way, Aunt Rachel,' I replied. 'But I can't afford a new carpet just now.

"Thee doesn't need one. The bad places don't show much.'

" But I shall always know they are there and it will take away all my peace of mind. "The eyes locked a little straighter into mine as she talked on, something like this Thy peace is worth little, to thee or to any one else, if it can be so easily broken. Ruth Harvey, thee is starting out in life; beware that thy disposition to fret thyself about small things does not prove a curse to thee | the nation's peril. and thine. Every thought of discontent about matters beyond thy control is not only those who are not rich shall withhold their a sin against the God who orders for thee, hands from helping as the Lord hath prebut a sin against thy own soul, and an added | pared them. If our metropolitan ministers, weight to every annoyance. If cherished, such thoughts become a nest of stinging serpents in thy breast. Thee will grow old and average church members can do more—and wrinkled and gray before thy time. Thee most of them can-let them. If the widows will be peevish, complaining and fault-finding. Thee will be a terror to thy husband and to swell the ranks of these whose gifts

"Yes," continued Mrs. Morrison, "she said all that and more. She said: 'Is one thread of that carpet woven into thy real peace of mind? Can it, or other small things, really concern thy welfare, or that of those dear to thee, either for this world or the

"I never heard it put quite so strongly before," I said thoughtfully, as my friend paused. "And if I hadn't seen you, I should have said it was very good talk indeed, but that no woman could live up to it.'

"I had a week of it, you see," said Mrs. Morrison. "When Aunt Rachel went away: one of the last things she said to me was: 'I want thee to bear in mind what I said. dear-that every fretful thought thee wastes on small accidents is only so much added to

"I think I took it well to heart, for I concluded, Eleanor, that life's burdens are heavy enough without any such addition. And I will tell you one thing I have observed," she added, with a laugh, "I do believe that four-fifths of the women who fret, do it because they think it a solemn duty.'

"Nonsense!" I exclaimed. "They do," she persisted. "You notice the next woman you meet to whom some mishap occurs. See if a great part of her worrying is not because she thinks she is expected to worry, and that it might be taken ill of her if she didn't,"

I wonder if Mrs. Morrison is right.—The

TOO MUCH IRONING.

On one occasion when domestic help was unobtainable and my own health feeble, I was one day engaged in disposing of a large basket of our lives. A broken dish, a stained table- of clean clothes, when a neighbor came in. cloth, a poorly ironed article, the flies, the Proceeding with my work, I folded a number dust, the soot, any petty annoyance, would of sheets without ironing, and laid them bring a cloud over me which shut out the away. I knew my neighbor was watching brightness all about me. I could see that me. I know, too, that her estimate of a housekeeper's work was based on the precis-"Well, real trouble came at last. Our ion with which everything was done. I baby was sick for weeks and weeks, and we laughingly said: "This is a common-sense thought he would never get well. How I way of ironing that in the present exigency looked back on the days which had been so I have resorted to. But I suppose you have that the shadow of death might not so early darken our home, I believed I should never sheet. And so you, Nellie Burns, are the honoring my Lord and Master. This was a again allow myself to be moved by small woman who writes for the papers and gives sad grief to me. It was a bad example for troubles. I did not have an opportunity to advice on household matters, and will use my boys, and I knew it must mar my influ-far beyond all resolving for the future; al- use them so were I able to iron them, but it most, indeed, beyond all hope of any future, is far better for us to use them unironed confessed my sin and sought strength to so far as this world is concerned. The win- than for me to exhaust my strength smooth-until night they are almost unheeded.

A mother with children should not consid. er her duty to them done when they are from her labor that they may have her com-"No, I said, sympathizingly, "I don't panionship. A daily stroll in the woods wonder at all. I've known women that would with them will be health and joy for all. If her dress does not "stand alone," and an "It was a beautiful carpet, and I had been occasional wrinkle betrays the short stay of

A little crib beside the bed. • A little face above the spread:

A little frock behind the door: A little shoe upon the floor.

A little lad with dark brown hair, A little blue-eyed face and fair;

A little lane that leads to school

A little pencil, slate and rule.

A little blithesome, winsome maid, A little hand within his laid;

A little cottage, acres four, A little old time fashioned store

A little family gathering round

A little turf-heaped, tear dewed mound;

A little added to his soil. A little rest from hardest toil.

A little silver in his hair,

A little stool and easy chair:

A little night of earth lit gloom, A little cortege to the tomb.

THE SERVICE WEALTH OWES.

BY REV. F. A. NOBLE, D. D.

The hour has struck for the men of wealth among us to recognize the fact that God's providence has an unmistakable significance for them, and that they are to come to the front and take a more active and generous part, as a class, than ever before in fostering Christian interests and belting the continent with Christian institutions. Pre-eminently this is the work of the men of wealth. They may refuse to see it, ignore, put it by; but if they do, it is at once at their own peril and

In saying this it is not meant at all that with their ample salaries and their delightful homes, can do more, let them. If our who give the widow's mite wish to keep on are so precious and potent in the sight of our Lord, let them. If the poor home missionaries with their wives want to work harder and to pinch closer, and to give more of their meager salaries to help things along, well, you may say, "Let them," if you will,

But beyond all gainsaying, wealth owes service. There is no reason why any man who is working in a good Christian cause may not stand front to front with men of wealth, and on the ground of their common interests and their common obligations insist on a full measure of help. No man liveth unto himself and no man dieth unto himself. The sooner our very successful business men come into the very spirit of this fact, and announce a readiness to do what in them lies to help those who are doing their best to save the children, to save the foreigners, to save the nation, and to keep civilization on the advance by bringing all classes and all nationalities and all communities within the republic under the power of the righteousness of God, the better. Already the roll of those who have given generously and whose benefactions are doing, and are still to do, untold good is an encouring one. Prayer, personal intercourse, education, agitation, God's Spirit moving human hearts, the creation of a public opinion which shall look this way and demand some thing generous of men of wealth, will swell the numbers; and by and by it shall be written of rich men, as of the Wise Men of old that they opened their treasures and laid their gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh at the feet of Jesus.

A BAD TEMPER CURED.

"I should like to tell you my case," said a tall, fine looking, gentlemanly man, with a bright beaming countenance. I had been speaking at a meeting in a large provincial town on the mighty power of divine grace as all sufficient to save and deliver from the habit of besetting sins. At the close of the meeting this gentleman accosted me as "I keep a school, and for years my temper was sadly tried by my boys. Being, as I trust I am, a converted man and a professing follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, I felt

"I struggled against it. I made it a subject of earnest prayer. Night after night I overcome it, but all in vain. I then wrote appeal to the women of our denomination, through the Woman's, Board for a helper in the school. I feel that a woe would rest to misuse her earnings, a sick and disheart. If the misuse

Again and again I confessed my sad and sinful habit. I own soul and dishonoring presence of the whole school things went on for weeks knew not what to do. All fruitless; all my good resolu en. I was at length so self-despair as regarded this night I fell upon my knee the Lord, and said, 'It is give it up ; undertake for n "It is now five years age The Lord did undertake fo me what I could not do fo that time I have never or temper with my boys, nor the inclination to be so. I th

like to have your words c

account of my experience.

TEACH US TO

Lord, teach a little child And O, accept my pray Thou hearest all the work For thou art everywher

A little sparrow cannot for Unnoticed, Lord, by th And though I am so your Thou carest still for me

Teach me to do whate'er And when I sin forgive And make it still my chie To love thee while I liv

Ten years ago to-day I w Amy was celebrating her She had eleven little friends ry party they were. Amy p joying the honor of sit place behind the tea-servic girls to drink a great many might have the fun of pour served the strawberries a cream, and much chattering ing was the order of the de

Fannie got the piece of d ring in, whereupon—as it that one would be the first ding-ring-the thoughts of to the future. Alice began to know which she would of band, "doctor, lawyer, mer and from this it came abou to talk seriously, and each would chose her future life have her choice, and I be rian. Uninvited and un down at the time what eac followed them all along the Fannie said she should and have a fine house and riages. She did indeed things, and did marry a b she is again under her fath only child, while her husb serving a term for embezzl Belle said she would like nurse, and devote her life But loving friends have to she had hoped to do for ot years have seen her suffer spine disease. This is planned, and yet she is so ful an invalid that it may good by a beautiful examp do in any other wav.

Alice, who chose to b is still single, and devoting valid mother. She has foreign fields, and yet she indeed to many an humble mates are the recipient bounty. Amy, who hoped for a ful life, is in a private in rounded by every luxury,

Lillie, who would never be a teacher and some day inary like Miss Rochef when she was eighteen found her teaching her se

Sue. merry little Sue. w thought ahead, but just every day as it came along fever only six months afte years ago. May declared that sh some rich man, and give every week." She did no man, but has become the and happy home in the castead of the "dancing proshe devotes herself to the the sewing classes, and best, most useful, active whole parish." Dell intended to "de money to the poor and though she died one mor said, her wish was acco mother spent her only da une in endowing an orph pital, and keeps "Dell's to help the many poor far is a constant visitor and

Bessie would be an one, though at that time her gift would be needed Lizzie wanted to travel and see everything." A the past ten years she h miles from home, and she Ada, who "couldn't care" what might be in started out in life with as less with of a young la one forth to enjoy her rich beauties. the women who delves from morning ght they are almost unheeded. other with children should not consid.

duty to them done when they are and fed. There should be a respite er labor that they may have her comhip. A daily stroll in the woods em will be health and joy for all. If ss does not "stand alone," and an nal wrinkle betrays the short stay of on its surface, not a bird will twitter to its mate, nor a flower disclose it. panion. And as for any comments y those whose minds never soar high. starch and flat-irons, why, they are th noticing. - Nellie Burns, in West-little crib beside the bed, little face above the spread: little frock behind the door; little shoe upon the floor.

WHAT IS LIFE?

little lad with dark brown hair. little blue-eyed face and fair: little lane that leads to school. iittle pencil, slate and rule.

little blithesome, winsome maid. little hand within his laid; little cottage, acres four, little old time fashioned store.

little family gathering round little turf-heaped, tear dewed mound: little added to his soil.

little rest from hardest toil. little silver in his hair. little stool and easy chair; little night of earth lit gloom, little cortege to the tomb.

THE SERVICE WEALTH OWES.

BY REV. F. A. NOBLE, D. D.

hour has struck for the men of wealth us to recognize the fact that God's nce has an unmistakable significance m, and that they are to come to the nd take a more active and generous a class, than ever before in fostering an interests and belting the continent bristian institutions. Pre-eminently the work of the men of wealth. They fuse to see it, ignore, put it by; but if , it is at once at their own peril and on's peril.

ying this it is not meant at all that ho are not rich shall withhold their rom helping as the Lord hath prenem. If our metropolitan ministers, eir ample salaries and their delightes, can do more, let them. If our church members can do more-and them can-let them. If the widows e the widow's mite wish to keep on well the ranks of these whose gifts recious and potent in the sight of d, let them. If the poor home mis-with their wives want to work hardo pinch closer, and to give more of eager salaries to help things along, may say, "Let them," if you will.

eyond all gainsaying, wealth owes There is no reason why any man orking in a good Christian cause stand front to front with men of and on the ground of their common and their common obligations infull measure of help. No man livhimself and no man dieth unto

The sooner our very successful men come into the very spirit of t, and announce a readiness to do them lies to help those who are dor best to save the children, to save igners, to save the nation, and to rilization on the advance by bringing es and all nationalities and all com-

s within the republic under the powrighteousness of God, the better. dy the roll of those who have given sly and whose benefactions are doing, still to do, untold good is an encour-Prayer, personal intercourse, eduagitation, God's Spirit moving huerts, the creation of a public opinion hall look this way and demand somenerous of men of wealth, will swell bers; and by and by it shall be writ-ch men, as of the Wise Men of old, opened their treasures and laid ts of gold and frankincense and the feet of Jesus.

A BAD TEMPER CURED.

ould like to tell you my case," said ne looking, gentlemanly man, with beaming countenance. I had been at a meeting in a large provincial the mighty power of divine grace as cient to save and deliver from the besetting sins. At the close of the this gentleman accosted me as ad added:

ep a school, and for years my temper ly tried by my boys. Being, as I m, a converted man and a professwer of the Lord Jesus Christ, I felt giving way to my temper I was dismy Lord and Master. This was & to me. It was a bad example for and I knew it must mar my influ-them. nggled against it. I made it a subarnest prayer. Night after night I my sin and sought strength to it, but all in vain. I then wrote d kept on my deak a memorandum sanagressions, hoping that the consumates of my sine might serve at some but still in year. The sate broke over all mon her serve

Again and again I confessed and wept over my sad and sinful habit. I was injuring my own soul and dishonoring my Lord in the presence of the whole school. This state of things went on for weeks and months. I fruitless; all my good resolutions were brokself-despair as regarded this matter, that one | C. Advocate. night I fell upon my knees and cried unto the Lord, and said, 'It is no use, Lord, I give it up; undertake for me."

"It is now five years ago this happened. The Lord did undertake for me; He did for me what I could not do for myself. Since that time I have never once been out of temper with my boys, nor have I once felt the inclination to be so. I thought you would like to have your words confirmed by this account of my experience."—The Helmet.

TEACH US TO PRAY.

Lord, teach a little child to pray. And O, accept my prayer; Thou hearest all the words I say For thou art everywhere.

A little sparrow cannot fall Unnoticed, Lord, by thee: And though I am so young and small,

Thou carest still for me.

Teach me to do whate'er is right. And when I sin forgive; And make it still my chief delight To love thee while I live. -Christian Secretary.

TEN YEARS AFTER .- A TRUE STORY.

BY AUNT GERTRUDE.

Ten years ago to-day I was at Shirley, and Amy was celebrating her twelfth birthday. She had eleven little friends to tea, and a merry party they were. Amy poured the tea, enjoying the honor of sitting in mamma's place behind the tea-service, and urged the girls to drink a great many cups so that she might have the fun of pouring them. Lillie served the strawberries and Sue the icecream, and much chattering and little eating was the order of the day.

ring in, whereupon—as it had been agreed that one would be the first to wear a wedding-ring—the thoughts of the party turned to know which she would choose for her husband, "doctor, lawyer, merchant, or prince," have her choice, and I became their historian. Uninvited and unobserved, I noted as they kept within bounds. down at the time what each said, and have followed them all along the way.

Fannie said she should marry a banker, and have a fine house and horses and carriages. She did indeed have all these things, and did marry a banker; but to-day she is again under her father's roof with her only child, while her husband is in prison serving a term for embezzlement.

Belle said she would like to be a hospital nurse, and devote her life to the afflicted. But loving friends have to do for her what she had hoped to do for others, and for eight and two of your great braided mats, and an years have seen her suffering wearily with open fireplace, with your brass andirons from spine disease. This is not the life she the garret; and a big hearth, where we can planned, and yet she is so patient and cheerful an invalid that it may be she does more wall-paper, with pictures of the country; and good by a beautiful example than she could two little iron bedsteads, with blue spreads; do in any other way.

Alice, who chose to be a "missionary," is still single, and devoting her life to an in- of hooks to hang our bows and arrows, violin, valid mother. She has never worked in French horn, boxing-gloves, bats and Indian foreign fields, and yet she is a "missionary" clubs on. These, with the old sitting-room indeed to many an humble home, whose inmates are the recipients of her mother's the most comfortable boys in the world."

Amy, who hoped for a brilliant and useful life, is in a private insane asylum, surrounded by every luxury, but hopelessly in-

Lillie, who would never marry, but would be a teacher and some day have "a big seminary like Miss Rochefort," was married found her teaching her second child his let-

Sue, merry little Sue, who said she "never thought ahead, but just had a good time every day as it came along," died of scarlet fever only six months after the tea party, ten years ago.

May declared that she should "marry some rich man, and give a dancing party such. every week." She did not marry, the rich about twenty men rents a basement room in man, but has become the mistress of a quiet a low quarter of the town. Here the men and happy home in the country, where in- sleep on dirty mattrasses, lacking bedclothes, stead of the "dancing party every week," she devotes herself to the mission boys and port, they are allowed $2 a month each, with the sewing classes, and is altogether "the a small quantity of tobacco, and two drinks best, most useful, active little body in the of whisky per day. whole parish."

Dell intended to "devote her life and money to the poor and suffering," and, though she died one month after this was said, her wish was accomplished; for her mother spent her only daughter's whole fortune in endowing an orphan asylum and hospital, and keeps "Dell's purse" always filled is a constant visitor and friend.

Bessie would be an "authoress," and is started out in life with flattering prospects afterward removed was sufficient to prevent as the wife of a young lawyer.

A Sermon delivered at Milton Junction, Wis., June 15, 1878. By Rev. N. Ward-ner, D. D. 20 pp.

Helen sits at my side, and I find her weep ing quietly as I finish reading this story, which brings back to her the many changes since that bright May-day tea-party, ten | flection of the index needle of nearly two years ago. She says the only thing I can knew not what to do. All my efforts were say of her is that she is strong and well, and, being older than Alice, is entitled to the poen. I was at length so driven to utter sition of "old maid" of the crowd.—N. Y.

A BOY'S PARADISE.

The father mentioned in the following incident belongs to the class of people who believe that "boys can be poked away anywhere," and in planning his new house, no is attached by friction a small weight that provision was made for a room which his young sons were to occupy. Fortunately the lads had a grandmother who knew that an attractive room, all his own, has a wonderful power to keep a boy indoors in the evening. and the way in which she converted the father to her belief is thus described:

"David," she said to her son, "who is that large chamber for with the bay window and two mantel pieces?"

"For company, mother," was the reply.
"What company? I didn't know you expected any," said the shrewd old lady.

"Oh, for any one who happens along! Byand-by Emma will leave school, and have company, you know. James's wife and Cousin Hepsy come down twice a a year to sible duration of the sun's heat." During shop, and always stop a night or two."

"But your own boys come here to sleep three hundred and sixty-five nights in the on you that any 'company' have." "Yes?"

"What arrangement have you made for

And the father repeated the remark he had made to his easy wife so often, that boys and sleep anywhere.

"But these boys must not sleep anywhere after the new house is done. Unless you di vide that long, spare chamber into two moderate sized ones, and give one to them, I shall settle them in the room you have planned for me, and make my home with Caroline. She Fannie got the piece of cake that had the has plenty of room and is always urging me to come to her. I will not crowd your sons out of a room.

David Lane loved his mother, so the re to the future. Alice began teasing Fannie sult was the long "square chamber" was finished so as to meet the wants of the boys.

Two happier boys never lived than those she asked, when the house was nearly done.

"In the first place we don't want a carpet, black walnut furniture, nor anything grand that scratches, or tears, or breaks," Morton

"Well, say what you do want, then," said the grandmother.

"Well, grandma, we want an oiled floor pop corn and roast nuts; and we want bright four chairs, painted blue; a glass case for our stuffed birds; shelves for our books; and lots lounge and the old easy chairs, will make us

Before the month closed the "boys' Paradise" was complete, and a score of wise fathers and mothers, with several scores of less wise boys and girls, had been invited to see it. No one now complains of the Lane boys for hooting from the top of stone walls, or howling about the streets by night; and their mother says their music and their company when she was eighteen; and yesterday I do not disturb her half as much, as the anxiety as to where they were by night, used to do.—Christian Secretary.

> Many of the large advertising houses of New York Čity have gangs of street sign carriers regularly employed, whom they pay in boarding and lodging, or what passes for such. One establishment which employs and get their meals. Aside from this sup-

Mopular Science.

CANINE SCENT.—Careful experiments on the sense of smell in dogs have been made by George J. Romans, who has communiated to help the many poor families to whom she the results to the Linnæan Society of London. He finds that not only the feet, but the whole body, of a man exhale a peculiar one, though at that time she little guessed or individual odor which a dog can recognize her gift would be needed to earn her daily as that of his master amidst a crowd of other persons; that the individual quality of this Lizzie wanted to travel "all over the world odor can be recognized at great distances to and see everything." Alas, and alas! In windward, or in calm weather at great disthe past ten years she has not been fifty miles from home, and she is blind.

Ada, who "couldn't guess and didn't Yet a single sheet of brown paper, when care" what might be in store for her, has stepped upon instead of the ground, and

A MARVELOUS THERMOMETER.—A French thermometer has been devised of such sensitiveness that it will even denote by a deinches, the entrance of a person into the room where it is placed, and by putting the hand near the bulb the needle is deflected the whole extent of the graduated arc. The apparatus consists of a bent tube, carrying at one end a bulb which is coated externally with lamp black. The tube is filled to a certain extent with mercury and is supported by arms, pivoting on a steel knife blade. Just above the pivot is fixed an index needle which moves across a graduated arc, and beneath the pivot hangs a rod, to which serves to balance the needle so as to cause it 16 pp. to point to zero on the arc. When the temperature rises, be it never so slightly, the heat being absorbed by the lamp black dilates the air in the bulb and drives the mercurv forward. The center of gravity of the apparatus being thus displaced, the needle will immediately turn toward the right, and when, on the contrary, the temperature decreases, the needle will point toward the

THE SUN'S HEAT.—At a Royal Institution lecture, Prof. Sir William Thomson expounded the latest dynamical theories regarding the "probable origin, total amount, and posthe short 3.000 years or more of which man possesses historic records there was, the learned physicist showed, no trace of variayear, and have a thousand times the claim | tion in solar energy; and there was no distinct whole, from being nearer the sun, received ter, M. D., 4 pp. in January six and one-half per cent more heat than in July. But in the millions of years which geology carried us back, it might to tracts equal in value to one-half the amount of their ansafely be said there must have been great | nual contributions to the Society. Life Members are entididn't care, and that they could cuddle down changes. How had the solar fires been maintained during those ages? The scientific on application, to all who wish to investigate the subject. answer to this question was the theory of Helmholtz that the sun was a vast globe gradually cooling, but as it cooled shrinking, and that the shrinkage—which was the THE LIGHT OF HOME. effect of gravity upon its mass—kept up its temperature. The total of the sun's heat was equal to that which should be required to keep up 476,000 millions of millions horse power, or about 78,000 horse power for every some address some square meter—a little more than a square by ard; and yet the modern dynamical theory 75 " of heat shows that the sun's mass would require only to fall in or contract thirty-five meters per annum to keep up that tremendous energy. At this rate the solar radius C. D. Potter, M. D., Associate Editor, Adams Centre, N. Y. and from this it came about that they began | two when the time came for furnishing and | dous energy. At this rate the solar radius | to talk seriously, and each one told what she ornamenting that room! Grandma took the in 2,000 years' time would be about one would chose her future life to be if she could matter into her own hands, and said they hundredth per cent less than at present. A should have everything to their mind, so long | time would come when the temperature | would fall, and it was thus inconceivable "Now, what do you want in your room?" that the sun would continue to emit heat sufficient to sustain existing life on the globe for more than 10,000,000 years. Applying the "In the first place we don't want a carpet, because somebody would be always telling us not to kick holes in it. We don't want black walnut furniture, nor anything grand loss of the line have been its origin—whether it came into existence from the clash of worlds pre existing or of diffused nebulous matter. There was a great clinging by geologists and biologists to vastly longer periods, but the physicist, treating it as a dynamic question with calculable elements, could come to no other conclusion materially different from what he had stated. Sir William Thomson declined to discuss any chemical source of heat, which, whatever its effect when primeval elements first came into contact, was absolutely insignificant compared with the effects of gravity after globes like the sun and the earth had been formed. In all these speculations they were in the end driven to the ultimate elements of matter, to the question-when they thought what became of all the sun's heat-what is the Iuminiferous ether that fills space, and Single Copies, per year..... 60 cents to that most wonderful form of force upon which Faraday spent so much of the thought of his later years—gravity.— Scientific American.

ATALOGUE OF BOOKS AND TRACTS PUBLISHED BY THE

AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y.

NATURE'S GOD AND HIS MEMORIAL. A Series of Four Sermons on the subject of the Sabbath. By Nathan Wardner, D. D., late missionary at Shanghai, China, subsequently engaged in Sabbath Reform labors in Scotland. 112 pp. Paper, 15 cents.

THE SABBATH AND THE SUNDAY. By Rev. A. H. Lewis, A. M., D. D. Part First, Argument. Part Second, History. 16mo. 268 pp. Fine Cloth, $1 25.

This volume is an earnest and able presentation of the Sabbath question, argumentatively and historically. This edition of this work is nearly exhausted; but is being revised by the author, and enlarged, and will be published in three volumes, as follows:

Vol. 1.—Biblical Teachines concerning the Sabbath and the Sunday. Price, in fine muslin, 60 cents. Paper, 30 cents. 166 pages. Vol. II.—A CRITICAL HISTORY OF THE SARBATH AND THE SUNDAY IN THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH. Price, in fine muslin, $1 25. Twenty-five per cent discount to clergymen. 583 pages. (Volume Three not yet ready.)

THOUGHTS SUGGESTED BY THE PERUSAL OF GILFILIAN AND OTHER AUTHORS ON THE SABBATH. By the late Rev. Thos. B. Brown, Pastor of the Seventh-day-Baptist Church at Little Genesee, N. Y. Second Edition, 125 pp. Fine Cloth,

This book is a careful review of the arguments in favor of Sunday, and especially of the work of James Gilfillan, of Scotland, which has been widely circulated among the clergymen of America. VINDICATION OF THE TRUE SABBATH, in 2 parts. Part First Narrative of Recent Events. Part Second, Divine Ap pointment of the Seventh Day. By Rev. J. W. Morton formerly Missionary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. 66 pp. Paper, 5 cents.

THE ROYAL LAW CONTENDED FOR. By Edward Stennet. First printed in London, in 1658. 64 pp. Paper, 10 cents. LIFE AND DEATH. By the late Rev. Alexander Campbell of Bethany, Va. Reprinted from the "Millennial Harbinger Extra." 50 pp. Price, 6 cents.

OSCAR BABCOCK, NOTARY PUBLIC, REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE,

E. J. BABCOCK, ATTORNEY AT LAW, NOTARY PUBLIC, INSURANCE AND COLLECTIONS.

LAW, LOAN, REAL ESTATE, COLLECTION AND INSURANCE AGENCY. Taxes paid, Titles examined and Abstracts furnished. Money loaned and Investments made for Eastern parties. Best valley farms, 1 to 3 miles from town, improved, $20 to $25; unimproved, $15 to $20. 3 to 10 miles from town, improved, $15 to $20; unimproved; $10 to $15; rolling land, 1/2 less; rough grazing land, $3 to $8 per acre. Money loaned, endorsed and secured by First Real Estate, Coupon Bond and Mortgage; amount never to exceed one-third appraised value of land. Will net Eastern investors from 61/2@8 per cent per annum. Correspondence solicited.

Address, E. J. BABCOCK, North Loup, Neb.

THE SABBATH QUESTION CONSIDERED. A review of a series of articles in the American Baptist Flag. By Rev. S. R. Wheeler, A. M., Missionary for Kansas, Nebraska, and Missouri. 32 pp. 7 cents.

A PASTOR'S LETTER TO AN ABSENT MEMBER, on the Abrogation of the Moral Law. By Rev. Nathan Wardner, D. D. 8 pp. 2 cents. SUNDAY: IS IT GOD'S SABBATH OR MAN'S! A letter addressed to Chicago Ministers. By Rev. E. Ronayne. 13 pp.

Moral Nature and Scriptural Observance of the Sabbath Religious Liberty Endangered by Legislative Enactments

An Appeal for the Restoration of the Bible Sabbath

The Sabbath and its Lord. 28 pp. The True Sabbath Embraced and Observed. 16 pp. The Bible Doctrine of the Weekly Sabbath. 20 pp. The last two Tracts in this list are also published in the Swedish language. TOPICAL SERIES.—By Rev. James Bailey.—No. 1, My Holy Day, 28 pp.; No. 2, The Moral Law, 28 pp.; No. 3, The Sabbath under Christ, 16 pp.; No. 4, The Sabbath under the Apostles, 12 pp.; No. 5, Time of Commencing the Sabbatk, 4 pp.; No. 6, The Sanctification of the Sabbath, 20 pp.; No. 7, The Day of the Sabbath, 24 pp.

FOUR-PAGE SERIES.—By Rev. N. Wardner, D. D.—The Sabbath: A Seventh Day or The Seventh Day; Which?

The Lord's-day, or Christian Sabbath. Did Christ or his Apostles Change the Sabbath from the Seventh Day to the First Day of the Week? Constantine and the Sunday.

The New Testament Sabbath. Did Christ Abolish the Sabbath of the Decalogue? Are the Ten Commandments binding alike upon Jew and

Which Day of the Week did Christians Keep as the Sab bath during 300 years after Christ? This four-page series is also published in the German lan-

Apostolic Example. By C. D. Potter, M. D., 4 pp.

Tracts are sent by mail postpaid at the rate of 800 pages for $1. Annual members of the Tract Society are entitled tled to 1,000 pages annually. Sample packages will be sent, Address all communications to the SABBATH RECORDER, Alfred Centre, N. Y. JAN. 1, 1887.

AN EIGHT PAGE MONTHLY FOR THE FAMILY.

..... 3 00

Published by the AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIE

Business letters should be addressed to the publishers. Communications regarding literary matter should be ad

ELPING HAND BIBLE SCHOOL WORK.

OUTLOOK AND SABBATH QUARTERLY.
A THIRTY-TWO PAGE RELIGIOUS QUARTERLY.

A. H. LEWIS, D. D., Editor, Plainfield, N. J. C. D. POTTER, M. D., Associate Editor, Adams Centre, N. Y. CORRESPONDENCE

Business letters should be addressed to the publishers, as above.

Communications regarding literary matter should be addressed to the Editor, as above.

UR SABBATH VISITOR

Is Published Weekly at ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y. TERMS. Ten Copies and upwards, per copy.... 50 cents.

All communications relating to business should be addressed to Our Sabbath Visitor.
All communications for the Editor should be addressed to MRS. L. T. STANTON, Alfred Centre N. Y.

E BOOD SCHAPPER, A SIXTEEN-PAGE RELIGIOUS MONTHLY

HOLLAND LANGUAGE.

PUBLISHED BY 3. VELTHUYSEN, DE BOODSOHAPPER (The Messenger) is an able exponent of the Bible Sabbath (the Seventh-day), Baptism, Temperance, etc., and is an excellent paper to place in the hands of Hollanders in this country, to call their attention to these important truths. The undersigned is authorized to receive subscriptions and contributions for its support, and would be pleased to receive names and addresses of Hollanders that sample copies may be furnished them.

C. DE VOS.

C. DE VOS,

THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST AT HAND.—W. live in those days wherein the Lord will gather His Is rael out of both Jew and Christian Churches, that their spirit, soul and body may be preserved blameless to receive the Lord at his coming. Rom. ix. 4; Isa. xi. 11, 12; Rev vii. 4; Rom. viii. 29; Rev. xiv. 1; 1 Thess. v. 20, 21, 23; Rev. xv. 52, 53; Phi. iii. 21; Mark xiii. 20; Math. xxiv. 14; Rom viii. 11, 22, 23; Rev. xxi. 1, 4, 5; John xiv. 16, 17, 26. Further information can be obtained in two different books at 12c. each. Mention this paper. Address:

J. WIELE, 143 N. Sixth St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

WANTED.—A Sabbath-keeping painter, a man of good address and wide awake, a first-class sign-writer, to take a half interest in a general house and sign painting business, in a city of 4,000 inhabitants. Business thoroughly established by a painter of over twenty years experience Three different societies of Sabbath-keepers in the vicinity.

Address C. E. GREGG, Marion, Linn Co, Iowa.

ISTORY OF CONFERENCE.—Rev. James Bailer has left a few copies of the History of the Seventh-day Baptist General Conference at the Recorder office for sale, at $1 50. Sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of price. Address, SABBATH RECORDER, Alfred Centre, N 7

GENTS WANTED for our new Religious book A the greatest success of the year. Send for illing trated circular, if you want to make money.
FORSHEE & McMAKIN, Cincinnati, Ohio.

SALARY & expenses to men and women ag'ts. J. Whitney, Nurseryman, Rochester, N. V. BIBLES Cheapest ever furnished agents. Extra terms, large cash premiums, particulars FREE FORERE & MACKIN, Cincinnati, O

A FOUR-PAGE RELIGIOUS MONTHLY

SWEDES OF AMERICA.

TERMS. Three copies, to one address, one year..... $1 06 Single copy.....

Published by the AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIE-Subscriptions to the paper, and contributions to the fund for its publication, are solicited.

Persons having the names and addresses of Swedes who do not take this paper will please send them to this of fice, that sample copies may be furnished.

SITUATIONS FREE.

To our subscribers only—can be obtained through the School Bureau department of the CHICAGO CORRESPONDENCE UNIVERSITY An institution furnishing instruction to "any person in any study."

THROUGH DIRECT CORRESPONDENCE
WITH EMINENT SPECIALISTS (College Professors). To learn of present courses of study and vacancies to teach, send 10 cents for sample copy of our first-class Literary and Educational Journal.

N. B.—Schools and families supplied with teachers free. Address

THE CORRESPONDENCE UNIVERSITY JOURNAL, (AGENTS WANTED.) 162 La Salle St., Chicago

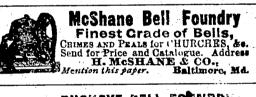

LOW COST HOUSES

30 cuts with specifications, estimates, and full description of desirable modern houses, from 4 rooms up, costing from 400 to 5,000, profusely illustrating every detail and many original ideas in regard to decorating. Homes adapted to all climates and all classes of people. The latest, best and only cheap work of the kind published in the world. Sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of 25 cts. Stamps taken. Address BROJKLYN BUILDING ASSOCIATION, Brooklyn, N. Y.

tended to for MODERATE FLES Our office is opposite the U.S. Patent Office, and we can obtain Patents in less time than those remote from WASHINGTON. Send MODEL, DRAWING or PHOTO of invention. We advise as to patent ability free of charge and we make NO CHARGE UNLESS PATENT IS SECURED For circular, advice, terms and references to actual clients in your own State, County, City or Town, write to Town, write to CASNOW & CO Opposite Patent Office, Washington, D C.

BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED. This Magazine portrays Ameri-literature, and can be safely welcomed in any family circle. PRICE 25c. OR $3 A YEAR BY MAIL. Sample Copy of current number mailed upon re-

can thought and life from ocean to ocean, is filled with pure high-class celpt of 25 cts.; back numbers, 15 cts. Premium List with either.

R. T. BUSH & SON, Publishers, 130 & 132 Pearl St., N. Y.

TRAVEL VIA Through Trains with Dining Cars, Pullman Palace Sleep-ing Cars, Modern Coaches. Sure connections in Union

Depots at its terminal points, with trains from and to the East, West, North and South. Cheapest, Best and Quickest Route from Chicago, Peoria MINNEAPOLIS, PORTLAND, ORE. ST. JOSEPH, KANSAS CITY.

CITY OF MEXICO, ATCHISON.

For Tickets, Rates, Maps, &c., apply to Ticket Agents of connecting lines, or address
I. J. POTTER, H. B. STONE, PAUL MORTON,
1st V. P. G. M. G. P. & T. A.
For handsome Illustrated Burlington Route Guide
Book send 4c. postage to the G. P. & T. A., Chicago, IL.

C.B.&Q.R R. DENVER, SAN FRANCISCO.

The Zabbath School.

"Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think y have eternal life; and they are they which testify

INTERNATIONAL LESSONS, 1887.

THIRD QUARTER. July 2. The Infant Jesus. Matt. 2: 1-12.

July 9 The Flight into Egypt. Matt. 2: 13-23 July 16. John the Baptist. Matt. 3: 1-12. July 23. The Baptism of Jesus. Matt. 3: 13-17.

July 80. The Temptation of Jesus. Matt. 4: 1-11. Aug. 6. Jesus in Galilee. Matt. 4: 17-25. Aug. 18. The Beatitudes. Matt. 5: 1-16. Aug. 20. Jesus and the Law. Matt. 5: 17-26.

Aug. 27. Piety Without Display. Matt. 6: 1-15. Sept. 3. Trust in our Heavenly Father. Matt. 6: 24-34. Sept. 10. Golden Precepts. Matt. 7: 1-12. Sept. 17. Solemn Warnings. Matt. 7: 13-29.

LESSON VIII.—JESUS AND THE LAW.

For Sabbath-day, August 20th. BY REV. T. R. WILLIAMS, D. D.

SCRIPTURE LESSON.—MATTHEW 5: 17-26. 17. Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.

18. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. 19. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do, and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20. For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill, shall be in Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment:

22. But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell-fire.

23. Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee,

24. Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer the gift.

thy gift.

25. Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26. Verily, I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

GOLDEN TEXT .- Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. Matt. 5: 17.

TIME.—Summer of A. D. 28. PLACE. -Mount of Beatitudes. Persons.—Jesus, disciples.

OUTLINE.

I. Law honored. v. 17-19. II. Real obedience. v. 20-22.

III. Pressing obligation. v. 23-26.

INTRODUCTION.

Nothing intervenes between the last lesson and this. From the particular subjects treated and the manner of treating them, we might infer that this sermon was delivered more especially to the acknowledged disciples of Jesus.

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

V. 17. Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets. Concerning Jesus as a religious teacher, it was very natural that the Jews should wish to know what was his attitude in relation to the law. Hence, after the opening of the sermon, the Saviour proceeded at once to unfold his position. He had evidently been reported by the Pharisees as an enemy of the law. The word rendered "to destroy," signifies to dissolve, to abrogate or set aside. He at once forbids that they should think of that as his purpose. By the phrase "the law and the prophets" is doubtless meant the whole of the Old Testament revelation. The general tenor of the Old Testament is that of law or precept and promise, all looking forward to something to be accomplished, to be attained unto. Hence, to the Jewish mind the idea of abrogating the law, or in any way setting aside the exact fulfillment of the prophecies, was exceedingly repugnant to their thought. They could not tolerate a teacher who might be supposed to have such an object in view. It was necessary, therefore, that they should be corrected at once, in their ap prehensions on this point. I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. The word "fulfill" here means to fill full, that is, to unfold, to exemplify, to carry out and thus to consummate the divine idea of the law and of the promise set forth in the prophets. No thought can be more fallacious than that of abrogating the moral law, so long as moral beings continue to exist on the earth. Nor again would there be any sense in the work of the atonement of Christ, if he should, at the same time and in the same act, abrogate the law. The supposition is, that the law is in full force and perpetual and that man has violated it and fallen under its condemnation. Christ has come to redeem man from this fallen condition, and to restorehim unto harmony with the spirit of the law. In doing this Christ obeys the law in the highest and in the deepest sense of it, and thus fulfills the law in the very sense in which man was required to obey and to fulfill; and thus he honors the law and vindicates its divinity and perpetuity. As an example he shows precisely what it requires, and what it means in its demands upon moral beings, and thus he fulfills it.

V. 18. Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law till all be fulfilled. In this statement we have the most emphatic declaration of the continued force of the law, until all its meaning should be not only unfolded but its the Seventh-day Baptist Church of Adams Centre, requirements should be accomplished and thus fulfilled. In the expression "one jot or one tittle" is brought out the idea that there could be no variation in the demands of the law, not even in the smallest things required by it.

V. 19. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven. Here the violation of the law on the part of any individual, or his influence in leading other to violate the law, renders himself antagonistic to the kingdom of heaven. If he has any part in it, it is the smallest part possible. He certainly must be either blind or indifferent to the claims of God upon him as a moral being. The idea of a man's professing to be a citizen in the kingdom of the exaltation of his spirit in fellowship with God.

V. 20. For I say unto you, That except your right. eousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and | We also note sale of about 1,000 tubs Northern New Phurisees, we shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. The scribes were exceedingly scrupulous in and several large lines of fine June make Western at ambition was gratified in their public demonstrations of loyalty to the law, and to the rites and ceremonies of the church. But in this statement of our Lord, true loyalty goes deeper than mere forms and ceremonies: it requires the affections and the loyalty of the spirits of men, their most loving obedience. So that while the disciples of Christ are required to obey and fulfill the law in its external claims, this obedience is never perfect until it is an obedience of the heart, a yielding of the soul and life in the very spirit of obedience. Such and such only is that righteousness which will enable a man to enter the kingdom of heaven.

V, 21. Ye have heard that it was said by them of olden time. Thou shalt not kill. Our Lord here refers to the method of interpretation which has been excepted by the scribes, and then proceeds to show what the spirit of this law is and how it differs from the interpretation which has been given of it.

V. 22. But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgment. He here brings his own interpretation into contrast with the former, and shows that it is the state of the heart that is held responsible in the light of the law and not simply and only the external forms of compliance.

V. 23, 24. Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberes that thy brother hath aught against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother and then come and offer thy gift. Our Lord shows in these words that there is an order of preparation for acceptable worship at the altar of the Lord. The Jews often reversed this order; while their hearts were full of enmity and anger, and selfishness, they would bring their offerings and sacrifices, and go through the forms of worship. But he taught that the heart must first be prepared to worship, must be cleansed from every unholy motive and must be filled with love to God and to man, then and only then could they bring an acceptable offering to the altar of the Lord. Such, and only such, is the order of true worship before God. Our Lord brings out here a test example of this needful preparation. They are to seek a reconciliation with those who are offended with them. and they are to seek it in the most loving spirit, for giving spirit, humble spirit, and by every possible reasonable means. When they have done their utmost to be reconciled to those who are their enemies, and not till then, are they to come and present their offering, assuming the attitude of public worshipers

V. 24-26. Our Lord here gives an earnest exhortation and warning to the disciples as to how they are to conduct themselves and their relations to the world. They will often be accursed, perhaps wrong fully, and have to suffer many things unjustly; while they are to meet all these things in the spirit of humil ity and forgiveness, they are to study for peace and reconciliation, and as far as possible live inoffensive ives among their fellow-men. The spirit of retaliation, seeking to measure out punishment and personal condemnation upon evil doers, should be far from their hearts in their intercourse with their fel-

MARRIED.

At the bride's home, in New London, N. Y.. Aug , 1887, by Eld. James E. N. Backus, Dr. DE VER Ö. WILLIAMS and Mrs. SARAH E. WARD, all of New

In Hopkinton City, R. I., July 27, 1887, by Rev. L. F. Randolph, Byron D. Wilcox and Martha A. MAIN, all of Hopkinton.

In Kingston, Wis., July 31, 1887, by Rev. A. Mc Learn, Mr. WILLIAM DALTON and Miss MARY SEY-MOUR, both of Kingston.

In Alfred, N. Y., July 31, 1887, of cancer of the stomach. Luke Green, aged 63 years. Of course his sufferings were great and he greatly desired to depart. In early life, he professed faith in Christ, and united with the Second Church of Alfred, with which he remained until death. He has left a wife, seven children and a large circle of other relatives. - His funeral was largely attended, Elders Summerbell and Platts assisting in the services.

J. K.

In Niantic, R. I., July 23, 1887, of complicated disease, Mr. REYNOLDS R. POTTER, aged 71 years. In Richmond, R. I., July 26, 1887, of cancer, Mrs.

MARY BURTON, widow of the late Samuel Burton. aged 87 years.

In Elmdale, Kan., July 30, 1887, CHARLES CLAR-ENCE. infant son of James R. and Alice C. Jeffrey, aged 7 months and 24 days.

Of inflammation of the bowels, near Minneapolis, Minn., July 26, 1887, CATHERINE BARNHART. widow of Joel Jones. Mother Jones was born in Washington county, N. Y. May 30, 1792, and lived 95 years, 1 month and 26 days. This mother in Israel, made profession of religion when about 11 years old, and united with the First day Baptists. November, 1809, she married Joel Jones. In 1825, she with her husband, embraced the Sabbath, uniting with I. Y. Afterward they lived 7 years in Canada, 250 miles from Port Hope, on Lake Ontario. Thence they moved to Clarence, N. Y.; then to Milton, Wis., in 1846; thence to Dodge county. Minn., in 1863. She was an active Christian wherever she resided. Coming to Minnesota, she united with the Dodge Centre Church, and retained her membership until called to the church triumphant. She was the mother of eight children. Five passed on before

Centre for burial. WHOLESALE PRODUCE MARKET.

her. Three sons remain to mourn their loss. Her husband died ten years ago, and she received a pension for his services in the war of 1812. She was a knew her. The remains were brought to Dodge very worthy woman, highly esteemed by all who

It shows a spirit of disobedience and disloyalty. vanced all through the list, and arrival of all fine Such a subject must be at least disloyal to, if not a real | fresh make stock quickly taken. Balance of the week! | cause of truth. alien from to God's kingdom and government. But however, weather was extremely hot, exporters were whoseever shall do, and teach them, the same shall be out of the market, and buyers generally seemed to called great in the kingdom of heaven. This doing and be off, and there was less doing at a trifle easier prices. teaching the laws of God's kingdom is really the ful- We note sales of finest last week's make creamery filling of those laws; and hence one who does this is | tutter in pails at 25@251c., same quality in tubs at in harmony with God, is a loyal subject, is obedient | 24@25c., fine dairy was in light supply and sold at in heart, is a child of God, and as such is great in 20@22c. Exporters bought good to choice Western creameries at 161@181c., lines of Western dairy make at 15½@16½c., and factory make at 14½@15½c, York creamery make for speculative account at 24c. all the outward forms of religious life; their highest | 22@23c. At the close we hear of several lots of butter being offered in this market by exporters. We quote:

Fine last week's creamery make...... 25 @25 Grease 10 @11 CHEESE.—Receipts for the week, 57,176 boxes; exports 70,022. The market has ruled steady and ored sold at 10½@10½c., and white at 10@10½c., and lines of good, sound full stock cheese sold at 91@94c. Night skims were in light supply and sold rapidly at 7½@8½c. Full skims go hard and buyers make their own prices, say, 1@3c. We quote:

Factory, colored full-cream......101@101 cream all out..... 1 @ 5 Eggs.—Receipts for the week 15,028 barrels. Strictly fresh laid eggs are scarce and sell quick.

We quote: Near-by marks, strictly fresh laid, per doz. .16 @16½

Most of the state goods arriving have been held too long, and show big loss, and have light demand.

BUTTER, CHEESE, EGGS, BEANS, ETC. Exclusively and Entirely on Commission. Cash advances will be made on receipt of property where needed, and account of sales and remittances for the same sent promptly as soon as goods are sold. We have no agents, make no purchases whatever for our own account; and solicit consignments of prime quality property.

DAVID W. LEWIS & Co., NEW YORK.

BEQUESTS TO TRACT SOCIETY.

The generous purpose of some persons to aid in the work of this Society, by gifts of money or other property, after their death, is sometimes defeated by some technical defect in the instrument by which the gift is intended to be made. It is necessary for this purpose that both the Society and the property, f other than cash, shall be accurately described. A will made in the state of New York less than sixty days before the death of the testator is void as to societies formed under New York laws. For the onvenience of any who may desire a form for thi purpose, the following is suggested:

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give, devise and bequeath to the American Sab bath Tract Society, a body corporate and politic under the general laws of the state of New York, the sum of......dollars, (or the following described property to wit.... to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Society, and under its direction and control forever.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE next session of the Ministerial Confer ence of the Southern Wisconsin churches, will meet with the church at Utica, on Sixth day, Aug. 26, 1887, at 10 o'clock A. M. The programme which has been provided is as fol Exegesis of Heb. 4: 9. A. McLearn. Under the teaching of Christ, in Matt. 5: 42. what s the duty of Christians to tramps?

Who and what are "the beast" and the "image o the beast," referred to in Revelation, and in what consists the "mark in the forehead" or in the right hand?" N. Wardner. What is meant by the "cleansing of the sanctuary, and when did it, or shall it occur?

Will the saints in heaven have painful remembrance of past sins? What is the most profitable method of Bible study?

What is the law of forgiveness; and are we in duty bound to forgive an enemy or a tresspass withou repentance and promised reformation?

W. B. West S. H. BABCOCK, Secretary

REV. A. H. Lewis, having been compelled to leave home with his invalid daughter, requests his correspondents to address him at Spring Lake,

HISTORY OF THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION.-The pamphlet containing the Semi Centennial Papers of this Association are in the hands of the pastors of the churches, for sale, at 20 cents each. Call on your pastor immediately, and secure one. G. W. LEWIS, Secretary.

CHICAGO MISSION.—Mission Bible-school a the Pacific Garden Mission Rooms, corner of Van Buren St. and 4th Avenue, every Sabbath afternoon at 2 o'clock. Preaching at 3 o'clock. All Sabbathkeepers in the city, over the Sabbath, are cordially nvited to attend.

THE Committee appointed by the General Conference to correspond with interested persons in reference to the Sabbath question, and with refer ence to our work as Sabbath reformers, is as fol-

O. U. Whitford, Westerly, R. I. Perie F. Randolph, Lincklaen Centre, N. Y. L. A. Platts, Alfred Centre, N. Y.

E. M. Dunn, Milton, Wis. Preston F. Randolph, Salem, W. Va.

It will be seen that this committee is made up of one member for each of the five Associations, Now, if our people who know of any who are interested, will send the names and address of such person or BUTTER.—Receipts for the week, 81,636 packages; persons, either to the chairman of the committee, or L. E. LIVERMORE, Recording Secretary, Alfred Cen-God, and at the same time taking the liberty to violate exports, 5,980 packages. There was good business to the member of the committee in whose Associative, N. Y.

the laws of that kingdom is impossible in reality.

L. LIVERMORE, Recording Secretary, Alfred Centre, N. Y.

All communications, whether on business or for publication, should be addressed to "THE SABBATH RECORDER Alfred Centre, N. Y."

Alfred Centre, N. Y.

Alfred Centre, N. Y.

Alfred Centre, N. Y.

Alfred Centre, N. Y.

belong, they will greatly aid the committee, and the

The names of all persons who would wish to correspond in the Swedish language, should be sent to L. A. Platts, Alfred Centre, N. Y.

O. U. WHITFORD, Chairman.

THE Hornellsville Seventh day Baptist Church holds regular services at the Hall of the McDougal Protective Association, on Broad St., every Sabbath, at 2 o'clock P. M. The Sabbath school follows the preaching service. Sabbath-keepers spending the Sabbath in Hornellsville are especially invited to attend. All strangers will be most cordially welcomed.

PLEDGE CARDS and printed envelopes for all who will use them in making systematic contributions to either the Tract Society or Missionary Society, or both, will be furnished, free of charge, on application to the SABBATH RECORDER, Alfred Centre, N. Y.

PERSONS in Milton, Wis., and vicinity, who may wish to procure copies of the new book, Sabbath and Sunday, by Dr. Lewis, or numbers of the strong all the week. Stocks were well cleared up at | Seventh day Baptist Quarterly, and other Tract Soan advance of fully 1c. over last week. Fancy col- clety publications, will find them on sale at the store of Robert Williams, in the care of F. C. Dunn.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., New York.

OR SALE.—The Executive Committee of the Trustees of Alfred University offer for sale the building which was formerly the Boarding Hall, known also as Middle Hall. For particulars, address W. H. Crandall, Treasurer of Alfred University, or J. Allen, the present occupant.

ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y., July 22, 1887.

WANTED.—The undersigned is desirous of a position as teacher of German in some school, or he would act as clerk for some merchant. Would like a place among Seventh-day Baptists.

JOSEPH P. LANDOW.

Address in care of SABBATH RECORDER, Alfred Centre

Business Directory.

It is desired to make this as complete a directory : possible, so that it may become a DENOMINATIONAL DIREC TORY. Price of Cards (3 lines), per annum, $3.

Alfred Centre, N. Y.

LFRED UNIVERSITY, ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y. Equal privileges for Gentlemen and Ladies. Fall Term begins Wednesday, Aug. 81, 1887. REV. J. ALLEN, D. D., LL.D., PH. D.,

THE ALFRED SUN, Published at Alfred Cen tre, Allegany County, N. Y. Devoted to University and local news. Terms: $1 per year.

TNIVERSITY BANK, ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y

E. S. BLISS, President, WILL. H. CRANDALL, Vice President. E. E. HAMILTON, Cashier.

This Institution offers to the public absolute security, is prepared to do a general banking business, and invites accounts from all desiring such accommodations. New York correspondent, Importers and Traders National Bank.

W. COON, D. D. S., ALFRED CENTRE OFFICE HOURS.—8 A. M. to 12 M.; 1 to 5 P. M.

BOURDON COTTRELL, HORNELLSVILLE AND ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y.

At Alfred Centre Mondays. SILAS C. BURDICK,

Books, Stationery, Drugs, Groceries, etc.
Canned MAPLE SYRUP a Specialty.

A. SHAW, JEWELER,

AND DEALER IN WATCHES, SILVER WARE, JEWELRY, &c. M. HUFF, PIANO TUNER, will be in town once in three months. Charges reasonable.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Leave orders at Shaw's. BURDICK AND GREEN, Manufacturers of Tinware, and Dealers in Stoves, Agricultural Implements, and Hardware.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT, ALFRED UNIVER-SITY. A thorough Business Course for Ladies and Gentlemen For circular, address T. M. Davis

THE SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST QUARTER-LY. A Repository of Biography, History, Literature, and Doctrine. $2 per year. Alfred Centre, N.Y.

SABBATH-BUHOOL BOARD OF GENERAL

CONFERENCE. H. C. Coon, President, Alfred Centre, N. Y. T. R. WILLIAMS, Cor. Sec., Alfred Centre, N. Y. E. S. Bliss, Treasurer, Richburg, N. Y.

CEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST EDUCATION SO-E. P. LARKIN, President, Alfred Centre, N. Y. D. E. MAXSON, Corresponding Secretary, Alfred

Alfred, N. Y.

C. BURDICK, WATCHMAKER and ENGRAVER AURORA WATCHES A SPECIALTY.

Andover, N. Y.

B. WOODARD, DENTIST, IS MAKING A. Rubber Plates by a new process. His own invention. The best thing out. Send for circular. COTTRELL, Breeder of Percheron A. COTTRELL, Break out of Horses. Six State Fair premiums out of

Berlin, N. Y.

R. GREEN & SON. DEALERS IN GENERAL MERCHANDISK Drugs and Paints.

New York City.

THE BABCOCK & WILCOX CO. Patent Water-tube Steam Boilers. GEO. H. BABCOUR, Pres.

R. M. TITS WORTH, MANUFACTURER OF FINE CLOTHING. Custom Work a Specialty.

A. I. TITS WORTH. 300 Canal St.

POTTER, JR. & CO. PRINTING PRESSES. 12 & 14 Spruce St. C. POTTER, JR. H. W. FISH. JOS. M. TITSWORTE.

Leonardsville, N. Y.

RMSTRONG HEATER, LIME EXTRACTOR, and CONDENSER for Steam Engines. ARMSTRONG HEATER Co., Leonardsville, N. Y.

Plainfield, N. J.

MERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY EXECUTIVE BOARD. C. Potter, Jr., Pres., J. F. Hubbard, Treas D. E. TITSWOTRH, Sec., G. H. BABCOCK, Cor. Sec.

Plainfield, N. J. Plainfield, N. J. Regular meeting of the Board, at Plainfield, N. J., the second First-day of each month, at 2 P. M

THE SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST MEMORIAL BOARD. CHAS. POTTER, JR., President, Plainfield, N. J.,

E. R. Pope, Treasurer, Plainfield, N. J., J. F. Hubbard, Secretary, Plainfield, N. J. Gifts for all Denominational Interests solicited. Prompt payment of all obligations requested.

DOTTER PRESS WORKS. Builders of Printing Presses. C. Potter, Jr., - - Proprietor.

M. STILLMAN. ATTORNEY AT LAW. Supreme Court Commissioner, etc.

Westerly, R. I.

L. BARBOUR & CO., DRUGGISTS AND PHARMACISTS. No. 1, Bridge Block.

N. DENISON & CO., JEWELERS. KELIABLE GOODS AT FAIR PRICES Finest Repairing Solicited.

F STILLMAN & SON. MANUFACTURERS OF STILLMAN'S AXLE OIL. The only axls oil made which is ENTIRELY FREE from gumming substances.

OF HARTFORD, CONN. WM. O. STANTON, General Agent, 5 Custom House St., Providence, R. I. Correspondence with Seventh day Baptist young men with a view to establishing agencies solicited Policies written on reasonable terms. All correspondence respecting agencies or policies receive prompt attention Address at Westerly, or Providence, as above.

DHENIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

THE SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST MISSION ARY SOCIETY GEORGE GREENMAN, President, Mystic Bridge, Ct. O. U. WHITFORD, Recording Secretary, Westerly,

A. E. MAIN, Corresponding Secretary, Sisco, Fla. ALBERT L. CHESTER, Treasurer, Westerly, R. I.

Chicago, Ill.

ORDWAY & CO.,
MERCHANT TAILORS. 205 West Madison St.

RED. D. ROGERS, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND PHARMACIST, Office, 2334 Prairie av. Store, 2406 Cottage Grove av C. B. COTTRELL & SONS, CYLINDER PRINTING PRESSES for Hand ... PRESSES, for Hand and Steam Power.

Milton, Wis.

112 Monroe St.

Factory at Westerly, R. I.

VILTON COLLEGE, Milton, Wis. The Fall Term opens Aug. 31, 1887. REV. W. C. WHITFORD, D. D., President. W. CLARKE, DEALER IN BOOKS

FANCY AND HOLIDAY GOODS. Milton, Wis. P. CLARK REGISTE Post-Office Building, P. CLARKE, REGISTERED PHARMACIST, Milton Junction, Wis.

T. ROGERS,

Notary Fublic, Conveyancer, and Town Clerk.

Office at residence, Milton Junction, Wis.

The Sabbath Becorder,

AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY, ALFRED CENTRE, ALLEGANY CO., N. Y.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION, Papers to foreign countries will be charged 50 cents additional, on account of postage. No paper discontinued until arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT. Transient advertisements will be inserted for 75 cents an inch for the first insertion; subsequent insertions in succession; 30 cents per inch. Special contracts made with parties advertising extensively, or for long terms.

Legal advertisements inserted at legal rates.

Yearly advertisers may have their advertisements changed one sterly without every charge.

quarterly without extra charge.

No advertisements of objectionable character will be ad-The office is furnished with a supply of jobbing material, and more will be added as the business may demand, so that all work in that line can be executed with neatness.

ADDRESS.

PUBLISHED BY THE AMER

VOL. XLIII.—NO. 33

The Sabbath

ffice at Alfred Centre, N. Y

CONTENT "I have Suffered."-Poetry

Chautauqua
The English Translation of the
A New Incident in the Andove
"In Season Out of Season."

SABBATH REPORM.

Outlook Correspondence. Re I Never Ventured to say so... The Education Society.....
The Color Line.....

COMMUNICATIONS.

Flitting Sunward.-No. 19 ... "Let Jerusalem come into yo Washington Letter..... CONDENSED NEWS.....

Honest Talking..... Excavation of Sybaris..... SERMONS AND ESSAYS. Woman's Work. Mrs. C. M. 1 MISCELLANY. The Bobolink's Lesson-Poetry A Mother's Promise.....

A mother's Promise:

Wrong Fellowship.

Loss and Gain.—Poetry.

Look Toward the Light.

The "Blood Theory" of Salva
How to Reach the Masses... CATALOGUE OF PUBLICATIONS. ETC.

"I HAVE SUFF

When sorrow rests upon Which quivers with the And all earth's lig Turns into night,

List to him who takes ou 'I have suffered.' He once was here on ear The weight of human ca Our doubts and fe And bitter tears

Are nothing when compa

By which he suffe How heavy must have b At so much sin and unbe And then he died-Was crucified ! That we might find a sur From all we suffer

He knows so well how v And he would be our gu Lest in the dark We miss our mar And fail to reach that he For those who su

As the heavens above the So God's ways are to our Should we try to a Through the myst Or ever doubt that God To those who suff

All things combine for a To those who love the L In perfect trust In God, the Just, We still may sing as on Although we suffe

Oh, let us ever look to h Though with eyes by te And humbly pray Each weary day,
"Help us faith's feeble While here we su CLINTONVILLE, Wis., July 2

> CHAUTAUQI CHAUTAUQUA, N

"The woods are ever a Richard Henry Stoddard "balm-breathing trees;" maples of Chautaugua shelter.

The after-supper social charming period of the discourses popular music the beach, and Chautau Now is the hour when the an excellent chance to air t and there is never a Flora them! There is the dame and the one in the smart in white and colors of eve drapery, from the grace Jeanett Miller dress to the The large hats are laid sai their hair tastefully dress head uncovered, until breezes invite the protec The little girls are comp

Carrie of Allegania and on Lincklaen Centre, N. Y.....