The Sabbatl Recorder.

PEBLISHED BY THE AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY.

TERMS-49 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE.

VOL. XLIV.-NO. 23.

DIST =

N. Y.

TY.

ld, N. P. M RIAI

icited.

018.

ION

,R.1. L

Bı

888. it.

W 13

L. tts, ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y.

1-DAX JUNE 7, 1888.

WHOLE NO. 2260

P F Randolph

The Sabbath Becorder.

The Holp Van Nebil
The Husband's Duty
Engletice not Talkativeness
Ziodisensi, non rangement emonate Missions.
Paragraph
Progress
Progress
Progress.

R Ver. S' WORE.

Week. S' WORE.

Wat chall We Do J.

Brands from Hes. Pryer's Letter

Sanara Raroton

Brat apareties Subbath

Brat apareties Subbath

Engel To Subbath

Engel

of our Home and School Educ Traperance. see and intoxicating Liquors. sees of Wine-Tasters. She Said Education

Mucclary

be little Dairy Mail. —Postry low Johnjus Brown Pail the Tax.

e Pen of Julias.

of My Waw.—Postry.

www.—Postry.

Plea for Fathor.

grown in the Character

recreted Homes.—Postry

owalts for the Thougustini.

low the Jaww's Harp Grew.

GENTLE WORDS.

BY D. R. LIVERMORR.

Gentle words, how tenderly they fall! With sympathy they linger over all; What pleasing lines on memorles pages leave, Like golden filling in the web we weave.

Kind words, oh, speak them in the home, And let our thoughts in pleasant channels run; Let not our words defle this humble spot, Nor let its sacred interests be forgot.

Gentle words, they make us kind and true, As our earthly journey we pursue, Manifest our love for one another, And sometimes save an erring brother.

Kind words adorn these lives of our, As earth is decked with summer flowers; Δ smile, like perfume on the breezes lent Is love's bright message to our bosom sent.

Kind words, they smooth our cares away, They make us happier day by day; A treasure it is ours to give, And makes us feel it's good to live.

Sweet, gentle words of noblest worth Marked our Saviour's stay on earth, As his example here we see, May we his humble followers be. NDEPENDENCE, N. Y.

THE RELP MEN NEED.

much as his wealthier neighbor possesses. The ordinary idea of socialism is to level down; the better idea is to level up. It may be charity to give alms, but the broader and more apostolic charity is to impart to the man power to maintain himself and get along without alms. Instead of giving the man half the fish you have caught, teach him how to eath fish for himself.

Differences in well-being results, ordinarily, from differences in personal attributes. Divide up property so that all shall be equal, and very soon the differences will reappear. The only way to make men equal in their ability to attain well-being. The change wrought by Peter and John in the case of the lame man was not in his outward condition, but in himself. So the way to make one man sewell off as another is to impart to him the same elements of character which have obtained for the other his prosperity. To make one man equal to another he be must be trained as well. If one has been educated to industry and self-control, while another has been left to grow up in habits of indolence and vicious indulgence, the latter cannot be made as well off as the former. To make a man as well off as a she heriped as sound body and well-balanced mind, while another, coming of a vicious race, is born with the poison of wickedness in every limb, and the fever of vice in his veins, it is idle to expect that the one can become as well off as the form as the trained as sound body and well-balanced mind, while another, coming of a vicious race, is born with the poison of wickedness in every limb, and the fever of ince an become as well off as the form as the sum of the su taint of sin.

Differences in well-being arise, for the most part, from moral causes. Therefore, to secure equality the great reliance must be upon moral training. The church and the school and the virtuous home are the great agents to bring about equality in well-being. The sim in moral discipline is to make each one as virtuous as the best, as industrious as the best, as prudent as the best, and so on. When this is attained no one will be able to put himself in as good condition as the best. We admit that as a pump may need to have a little water poured into it to put it into condition to draw water of itself, so a man may need a little alms to put him on his feet so that he can take care of himself, but the great reliance for making men equal must be moral training as given in church, school and home. When men are made equal in personal character they will become equal in external circumstances. The help, therefore, which men need is found in those influences which shall impart to them the proper spiritual qualities. The aid men need is not material but moral.—Christian Inquirer.

MOUNTAINS IN THE MOON.

Of course the first thing the amatue astronomical observer will wish to see will be astronomical observer will wish to see will be the mountains of the moon, for everybody has heard of them, and the most sluggish imagination is stirred by the thought that one can look off into the sky and behold "the eternal hills" of another planet as solid and substantial as our own. But the chances are that if left to their own guid-The lame man at the temple gate asked of Peter and John an aims. But instead of Peter and John an aims. But instead of prim healing, gave him the shility to earn his own living and thus he needed her alms. Instead of giving a man help it is better to give him the ability to help himself.

We sometimes hear a man express the wish that such a one, who has made a million dollars, would give him half that million. But it would be better for the man if the millionaire should impart to him the skill and ability to make a million for himself. It is hardly a wise tenderness of a father, for his son, to endeavor to leave the son all the money he is ever going to need. It were better to give him the thorough training by virtue of which he can make his money for himself. So the true kindness to a poorer neighbor may not be to give almounts of the money which you by industry and prudence have accumulated you shall give half to him who has none. You will make him as well off as yourself if you shall impart to him your industry and prudence so that heall make for himself if you shall impart to him your industry and prudence so that heall make for himself if you shall impart to him your industry and prudence so that he hall save for himself as well off as yourself if you shall impart to him your industry and prudence so that he none who has more and give to him who has less. Another and a better way is to train the one who has less so that he shall acquire the ability to obtain for himself as ence, ninety-nine perhaps out of one hunwould choose exactly the wrong time

TWO EXAMPLES IN 11

Two examples in its longitude of this head, a home—nothing more in the day before. One attracted with the day before of the shape of the allowing the head of the allowing the head of the allowing the head of the longitude of longit

THE MOST PATIENT MAN.

"Who was the oldest man?" "Methuse-th." "Who was the strongest man?" Samson." "Who was the most patient an?" "Job." So ran the old Biblical catechism, and many a child from a false catechism, and many a child from a false conception of the word "patient," has thought of Job as a silent and rather tames spirited man, abused by his friends, and railed at by his wife, sitting on his sah-heap with his convenient potsherd near by. But a study of the grand hold of Job will dispell any such superficial notion of the patriarch's character, as well as give a juster notion of true patience.

Among the high-spirited, intense characters of history, Job takes a foremost place.

as such your period of the patriarch's character, as superficial notion of the patriarch's character, as superficial notion of true patience.

Among the high-spirited, intense characters of history, Job takes a foremost place. He was a master of sarcasm and irony. He knew how to shoot forth the keenest shafts of stinging rhetoric. Hear him cry out, as his friends taunt him with his affilictions, and declare that it is all a just punishment for his sins: "No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom will die with you; but I have understanding; as well as you, yea, who knowth not these things? Miserable comforters are ye all, ye are forgors of lies, ye are all physicians of no value. Suffer me that I may speak, and after that I have spoken mock me." No modern orator ever poured into the enemy's camp more rhetorical hot shot. And yet the old catechism was right in saying that he was the most patient man.

Though his was not a nature to brook unmerited insult, though he stood for his own integrity, and allowed no not trample upon his manhood, yet, under the afflictions which God each he was patient, gantle, resigned. The chastened Christian thought of the forty centuries that may have rolled by since his time, has not enlarged upon or improved his patheth and most beautiful words of resignation when property, children, health, all were taken away—"The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord." Perhaps "loving submission to God" would be a better phrase than patience, but in that sense of the word: there is a little doubt about the correctness of the fold catechism. —Gold-en Rule.

A LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS.

be called wonderful."

"His name shall be called wonderful."—Isa, 9:6. I stood by the "seashore on one occasion when the storist was raging. The voice of the Lord was then the waters; and who was I that I should tarry within doors when my Master's voice was heard sounding along the water? I rose and stood to behold the flash of his lightniftes; and listen to the glory of his thunders. The sea and the thunders were contesting with one another; the sea with infinite planor striving to hush the deep-throates thunder, so that his voice should not be heard; yet over and above they road of the Blows might be heard that voice of Gor as he spoke with illames of fire, and diy at the way for the waters. It was a dark with those inds, and searce is tart could be seen through the rifts of the tempest; but allowed the horizon. It in I rodded far a way on the waters.

a bright shining, like gold. It was the moon hidden behind the clouds, so that she could not shine upon us, but she was able to send her rays down upon the waters, far away, where no cloud happened to intervene, I thought as I read this chapter [Isa. 9th] last evening, that the prophet seemed to have stood in a like position when he wrote the words of my text. All around about him were clouds of darkness; he heard prophetic thunders roaring; and he saw flashes of the lightnings of divine vengeance; clouds and darkness, for many's league, were scattered through history; but he saw flar away a bright spot—one place where the clear shining came down from heaven.

And he sat down, and he penned these words: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined;" and though he looked through whole leagues of space, where he saw the battle of the warrior "with confused noise and garments rolled in blood," yet he fixed his eye upon one bright spot in futurity, and he declared that there he saw hope of peace, prosperity, and bleasedness; for, eaid he, "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be called wonderful."

My dear friends, we live to-day upon the verge of that bright spot. The world has been passing through these clouds of darkness, and the light is gleaming on us now, like the glintings of the first rays of morning. We are coming to a brighter day, and "at evening time it shall be light." The clouds and darkness shall be rolled up as a mantle that God needs no longer, and he shall appear in his glory, and his people shall rejoice with him. But you must mark that all the brightaness was the result of this Child born, this Son given, whose name is called Wonderful; and it we can discern any brightness in our own hearts, or in the world's history, it can come from nowhere lest than from the One who is called "Wonderful, Counsellor, the might god."—Spurgeon.

CHRIST MY ROCK.

Christ is my rock of strong defense, Where I from perfit face may fiee; Nor cunning foce shall draw me then By strength or subtlety.

Christ is my rock, of grateful shade, When, in life's weary ways I faint; Of toil and stress no more afraid— In song I cease complaint, Christ is my rock of solace sure, For thirst no founts of earth allay; From whose cleft side as free, as pure Flow living streams alway.

Ohrist is my Rock of Ages—tried Through ages, and uoshaken still; And when earth's statellest crests subside Shall stand as Zion's hill.

Christ is my rock, and if my feet
Are planted on its base divine,
Though earth and time in ruin m
Eternal life is mine!

-Christian Inquir

THE HUSBAND'S DUTY.

The Christian Inquirer well says, there is The Christian Inquirer well says, there is no mother, carrying alone the burden of training the children, who will not heartily endorse the following sentiments as set forth by a, writer in Good Cheer:

There is too much talked and written about woman's duty to her home. No woman can make a perfect home without the cheer-ill and servest concernation of her bushend.

can make a perfect home without the cheerful and earnest co-operation of her husband. Where one wife fails in her part, there are ten husbands who are utterly unmindful of their own domestic responsibilities, ready to surrender their own burdens to the wife, whose physical and mental strength is ordinarily hardly adequate to the demands made upon her. How many fathers take upon themselves the educational training of their children? and yet how few mothers are qualified, either by mental discipline or habits of thought, for that work! I know all the popular arguments advanced on the other side, but they do not after the fact that in nine cases out of ten it is the husband's intellect which is sharpened and kept alive by contact with other minds, by reading and pursuits which require a wide mental outlook. As for the necessary time there are few men who cannot spare an hour from the day's engrossing duties in which to study the bent of their children's minds, and give direction to their studies. Think of John Mill pausing in the midst of his most arduous labor, the work which required closest application and concentration of thought, to patiently solve, for his son Stewart, the troublesome Greek and Latin problems, and direct his studies in history. ful and earnest co-operation of her husband.

hard dish history.

And is there anything Mrs. Fremont has waters. It written so obarming as those scenes in which her father, burdened with the cares and anxieties of public life, gathered his ohlighted his water, lessons for their teachers under his superthe water, vision?

I know among my friends, one family in which the father has taken upon himself the intellectual training of his children from their very infancy. One boy evineed strong journalistic tendencies, and he is studying for that profession; another manifested great love for natural history, and his father has given him every opfortunity for the study of beasts, birds and plants. He found his youngest boy, almost a baby, absorbed in the plates of the Scientific American, and taking the hint, helped him to familiarize himself with machinery, in which study the boy made marvelous progress. I could multiply instances, but these are sufficient to indicate that the gospel of parental responsibility needs to be preached to the stronger as well as to the weaker sex.

UNITY IN DIVERSITY: IN ALL THINGS CHARITY.

We live, in the highest sense of the term, by honest friction; we owe much to well-conducted, thoroughly well-controlled and chastened controversy. Let no man be denounced because he has an opinion to speak with which you do not agree. The blame may be on your side. Let us by all means hear every opinion, weigh it, coasider it, deal justly by it, and let every man amend himself by what he sees good in another man. This is the law of Christ as I understand it; this is the law of Christ as I understand it; this is the law of Christ as I understand it; this is the law of Christ as I understand it; this is the law of Christ as I understand it; this is the law by which I would wish my own charity to grow and consolidate. We may have division of opinion without division of heart. Schism is not limited to relationship as between one man and another, or many men and an institution of a central kind; cohism is a question of the heart; so long as the heart is loyal to Christ no controversy relating to more opinion can divide or rend the body of the Saviour. So long as we are one in prayer, one in faith, one in true worship, there is no schism. Allow for difference of opinion. The man who is to my mind representative of what I cannot but regard as the most intolerable irony is the dissenter who will not allow other people to dissent from him. Let our consistency be in our charity, and our unity be in our religiousness, our love of the cross, our devotion to Christ; and then when the mists are rolled away we shall often wonder why we battled so much with one another; and how much we shall have to make up to one another for misunderstanding and misrepresentation! The question therefore is: Who can love the most? Who can have the sharpest eyes to see points of daty and of excellence in his fellow-men?—Dr. Joseph Parker. by honest friction; we owe much to well-con-ducted, thoroughly well-controlled and chas-

RESOURNER NOT TALKATIVENESS.

The gift of utterance is one of the most coveted. We must not confound it with fluency of speech, or with talkativeness. How often we hear men calling mere fluency eloquence, whereas oftentimes it is the barrier to all real eloquence. Eloquence is the man speaking; fluency is the tongue, engaged in gymnastic exercise, the memory supplying the lubricating oil of words. Eloquence is in the thought and feeling. It is the heart and mind of a man getting themselves into some sort of vigorous expression. But where there is a small amount of heart-force, and a corresponding degree of mental feebleness, there can be no eloquence. Fluency reaches the egr and tittlates it for awhile. Eloquence stirs the mind into thought, and warms the heart into feeling. If you can stand apart from a man and analyze his sentences while he is speaking, if he never sets you thinking or swings you into sympathy with himself, either he is incapable of eloquence, or you are incapable of being moved by it. Fluency uses five words where one would do, and they are all words of a certain class, they are not heart words; words saturated with feeling. The remark is made ever stop." 'Nor any why he should ever very eloquent. And for this reason—eloquence demands feeling and thought, and these processes have a certain laborious dignity about them. Fluency gives you a lot of dark, commonplace words, words not shall fit the though, but when it comes, it corriseates, glitters, burns, sometimes brows of sparks. . . Some words are a blank wall; others are windows through which you usee a varied landscape beyond. Every great thinker suggests more than he says. Thought starts thinking. Wen't is said of a sermon that it is exhamistic, depend upon it that the speaker has been occupying your mind with a very mean subject. There is no word which is as complimentary to a speaker as the word "sagestire." If a discourse does not suggestire." If a discourse does not suggest more than it says, it is po coveted. We must not confound it with fluency of speech, or with talkativeness. How often we hear men calling mere fluency

"Go ye into all the world; and presch the gospe to every creature."

UNTIL further notice, the address of the Corresponding Secretary will be as formerly, Asha way, R. I.

A RECENT number of the Missionary Review says: "The frequent letters of Dr. Swinney, from Shanghai, China, as published in the SABBATH RECORDER, reveal abundant and most valuable labors, and the many exceedingly precious opportunities for making known Christ and the way of salva tion, brought within her reach and improved by means of her medical services."

PROGRESS.

It has been well said that the fifty years of Queen Victoria's reign have been the this period the eight British Foreign Missionary Societies have grown to 25, or including those in the Colonies to 31; the in the United States to 39, and the 10 in Continental Europe to 30; while to these must be added a large number of Bible and tract societies, women's societies, and forward the great enterprise. In 1837 the income of all these British societies was not more than £300,000, and the number of their missionaries was about 760, with less than 400,000 converts and not a dozen ordained native ministers; while the Continen. tal and American societies united had not more than one-half the income, the missionaries, and the converts of the British Societies. Now, the yearly income of the British, American, and Continental societies is about £2,000,000; there are 6,230missionaries, 30,000 native evangeleits, and 2,750,000 native converts. As one indication of the growth of colonial and missionary churches, fifty years ago there were only seven bishops of the English Church in foreign parts, now there are 75.

In India, fifty years ago, as a recent writer has observed, "the ashes of suttee might be said to be still smouldering, the cars of Juggernath were still rolling over the dead, and in one month, it was officially reported, At one illustration of the rapid progress that abreast of Calcutta alone, upwards of a thousand bodies of persons, affoat in the river, were seized and sunk, multitudes of whom were self-immolated." Now, suttee, portant progress, especially among women.

"Then," to use the words of the late Rev. Benjamin Rice at his own recent jubilee, "the education of girls was looked down upon with utter contempt. Now the education of the girls of India receives more attention than did that of the boys fifty years ago," and there are over 1,650 native Christian lady teachers. Then there were only two societies for promoting female education in India, now there are not less than 20 At the recent anniversary of the Indian Female Normal School and Instruction Society it was stated that seven things are now in operation in connection with female education in India which had not been commenced fifty years ago, namely: "normal schools, zenana missions, government, aid, university degrees for women, medical missions, woman's public advocacy of the cause of her suffering sisters, and the desire among higher and middle class ladies to become believers in Jesus Christ." Then there were only 180 missionaries in India, now there are over 600, while the number of native Christians has risen in Tinnevelly alone from 8,693 to over 56,000.

years later another edict explained that "the Christian religion teaches men to do right, and should, therefore, be respected.' In 1837 the London Missionary Society was the only one at work in China. There were but twelve Protestant missionaries for the whole Chinese Empire, and half of these were in the Straits of Malacca. The profession of Christianity was a capital offense, and there was not known to be a single convert. Now 32 missionary societies, with for China, Mongolia, and Central Africa. over 500 missionaries, are at work in dif-Chinese who profess Christianity, and over fields are waiting for workers in this depart-1,400 native evangelists.

Half a century ago great part of Africa was unknown to Europeans, but when Dr. Krapf sailed, in 1837, a new impulse was given to geographical research as well as to missionary work. In the same year Henry .Townsend, "a man strong in Christ and brave for Christ, went forth with his heart of the Yoruba race." In 1841 Livingstone went to South Africa, and Crowther accompanied the first Niger expedition up that river. "Now," to quote from The Church the Spectator, "that culture would very Christ, and the Binue branch has been ex- still only to imbibe culture. If life were plored up some 500 miles for him, and limited to the study of theology, the study ulation which is crying for the gospel; and Christianity reveals its meaning not to the Lagos, then the great export station for thinker as such, but to the man who is overslaves, is now held for Christ." Meanwhile whelmed by the sense of the needs and Africa has been taken up by many of the power, as a power from on high, which will great missionary societies. The Baptist enable him to grapple with these. Its lan-

French Mission are pushing up the Zambesi, in the strenuous effort to meet the violence, the Presbyterian Missions are settled near the impurity, the wretchedness, the poverty, Lake Nyassa, the Universities Mission is extending itself between that Lake and ble of our people. As Christianity wanes Zanzibar, the London Mission are on Lake at the West End of London, it revives at Tanganyika, while the story of the Church | the East. It flickers and goes out in the Mission by Lake Victoria Nyanza, with its breast of the student, while it flames up in noble army of martyrs, is familiar to us all. the heart of the man who is really attacking Townsend, Hinderer, Crowther, Moffat, evil in its worst strongholds. Culture is a Livingstone, Mackenzie, Krapf, Hanning- wet-blanket for Christian faith only so long ton, are but a few of the great names that as the attitude of the mind towards evil is have made Africa dear unto the, churches passive. It becomes subservient to Chrisduring the past fifty years.

from Madagascar, and her first martyr suffered in the year of our Queen's accession. now the Hovas are professedly a Christian nation. The second year of the Queen's reign witnessed that remarkable religious awakening in the Sandwich Islands that led to the final overthrow of heathenism there. What the American Board were the means of accomplishing in Hawaii, the Wesleyans brought about soon afterwards in the Friendly Islands and in cannibal Fiji. On many of the islands of the Pacific, where, fifty years ago, there was not a single Christian, period of missionary extension. During there is now not one heathen left. In 1837 there were not 25 missionaries on the whole continent of America, North and South, and no bishop was even dreamed of where to-day 9 huge dioceses are vigorously administered. "Now," to quote from the Church Missionary Society's valuable Jubilee pamphlet, "from Hudson's Bay to the North independent missions, which are helping Pacific the word of the truth of the gospel is preached, and from large parts of that district professed heathenism has been expelled, and the voice of praise is heard because under all circumstances the Christian Indian can say, 'I have God's sunlight in my heart." While the Church Missionary Society has thus made rapid progress in North America, the South American Missionary Society has been at work in the southern continent, where, however, as in Central Asia or the wide Soudan, so far as Protestant missions are concerned, there still remains very much land to be possesed.

During the fifty years under review the Church Missionary Society has sent out more than 900 missionaries, the number of its stations has risen from 81 to 271, and its native ordained missionaries from 5 to 261. In 1836 there were 306 Wesleyan missionaries in 180 circuits; in 1886, 2,592 ministers and missionaries in 1,959 circuits, with nearly 11,000 chapels and preaching-places. of that energetic mission, given at their recent anniversary in Exeter Hall, not six years ago they began their mission in the Transvaal with 3 missionaries and a few infanticide, and human sacrifices are things members. To day they have 26 chapels when buying an article of legitimate luxury, of the past. Education, too, has made im- and 73 other preaching places, with 13 mis gives a like sum for a religious use. ionaries, 24 native evengelists, and 98 unpaid local preachers who preach twice every Sunday and several nights a week. It is almost impossible to tabulate the grand educational work that has been carried on by the Presbyterian Churches during the must despise each other; and he says that past fifty years, in which their 3 schools, then at work in India, have become 6 Christian colleges, and 255 schools in India, Africa, Syria, and the New Hebrides. The small space at our command, and the fear the major part of the great state of Nebraska hastening of the day of persecution, with lest even figures indicating so much blessing may become wearisome, prevent our adding some peculiar relation it holds to the Rocky statistics from other societies, or dwelling Mountains. The writer well remembers hear on the work of the American and Continental Churches. We cannot, however, omit all reference to that great society which has done so much to help all others, the British and Foreign Bible Society. The year's issue of Bibles, fifty years ago, was 600,000; it is now 4,000,000. Then the cheapest Testament cost sixpence, while now the Shaftsbury edition may be had for a penny Then the Bible was only circulated in 136 languages, now portions of the Scriptures are to be had in 325. It was remarked in a recent meeting that the progress made The progress in China is yet more marked. during the last fifty years in every depart-In 1836 an Imperial decree was published ment of foreign mission work affords the "to forbid Christianity with vigor." Fifty most striking evidence in our day of the power of the gospel. - The Friend of Mission.

THE employment of medical missionaries is rapidly on the increase. Within little more than three months the Church of Scotland has sent out two additional medical missionaries Dr. Macdonald to China, and Dr. Bowie to Blantyre. Now we learn that the London Missionary Society needs five The Church Missionary Society has several ferent parts of the empire, there are 100,000 openings in Africa and elsewhere. Other ment of service. Meanwhile it is interesting to know from its Quarterly Paper that the Edinburgh Medical Missionary Society has twenty-six medical missionary students in training; though, in view of the widespread demand, it may still be said, "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few, pray ye therefore the Lord of the of fire and his soul of love to be the apostle harvest, that he will send forth laborers into his harvest."

"WE should be disposed to think," says found to swarm on both banks with a pop of theology would soon become impossible. churches of England and America are work- guage is not "Sit and be convinced," but, ing steadily up the Cougo, the American "Rise and walk." And already we seem troduced by unscrupulous men, the antidote Board is approaching South Central Africa to see evidence that in this age, as in other may also be presented.—Besties Missionary both from Benguela and Zululand, the ages, we shall find our Christianity again Magazine.

tian faith in the heart of the man who is In 1836 the missionaries were expelled really following in the footsteps of his

ITEMS.

The dilatory men, who let The time for action pass away, Though long they seek can seldom get Another opportunity.

Christ says to every lost sinner, "Come;' o every redeemed sinner, "Go."

If our religion is not true, we are bound to change it; if it is true, we are bound to propagate it.

The Russo-Greek Church in Japan has 205 congregations and 12.546 members.

Missions are the embodied courage of the church, the touchstone of her faith, and her unchanging hope.

At Cairo, the followers of Mohammed have the largest and oldest University in the world. with 10,000 scholars.

The value of kid gloves imported into New York, is ten times as much as is given by all the societies in America to foreign mis-

In fourteen years 700 Protestant chapels have been built in Madagascar, making the present number 1,200. There are 8,000 Protestant communicants, and all the churches self-supporting.

At Giyoda, in Japan, a society has been organized by the Buddhists to oppose Christianity, but by the way they vilified it, they lost the respect of the people, and their labors reacted to its advantage.

What a revelation there is in the fact that recently a meeting of Arabs was held in Cairo them the curse of drink!

Protestant Christianity, as usually practiced, is a cheap religion. The pious Moslem and Hindu gave one fifth of all they possess for religious purposes. The rich Moslem.

Stanley, who is a man of long experience, says that he has noticed a very common tendency on the part of both white and black, that when they first come into contact they things never go right until each has discovered that the other is not such a fool as he at | dren. first took him to be.

It was thought, not many years ago, that ing one of the best physical geographers of the day describing the physical causes of the gone to his rest, and Nebraska, in spite of his theories, is fast becoming one of the grandest agricultural regions in the land.

Mr. Gladatone says: "I believe that the diffusion of the principles and practice of systematic beneficence will prove the moral specific in our age." This may seem too pointed day of rest and worship, and must tion will be ready to approve Dr. Bushnell's words: "The great problem we have now on hand is, the Christianizing of the money power of the world; what we wait for, and are looking hopefully to see, is the consecration of the vast money power of the world to the work and cause and kingdom of Je sus Christ. For that day, when it comes, is the morning, so to speak, of the new cre-

"It almost breaks my heart," says Miss A. M. Fields, "whenever I sit down among Chinese women for a mind to mind talk. Their lives are so full of woe, and the prospect of alleviation is so distant." A thousand springs of bitterness are closed, a thousand springs of happiness are opened, when a single heathen is brought to Christ. "The old life is hateful," said the natives of Melanesia to Bishop Patterson; "the new life is full of joy." We must be blind if we are not willing to spend and be spent that Christ may be made known to the world.

ALCOHOL IN AFRICA.—The evils caused by the introduction of the intoxicating liquors of civilization into Africa are so enormous and terrible, that some have been disposed to think that the people were better off in their barbarism, even with the slave-Missionary Intelligencer, "the Niger, far quickly outgrow Christianity, if Christianity trade, than with the gospel and civilization up the Quorra branch, is occupied for did not positively prevent men from sitting and the deadly liquors commerce brings trade, than with the gospel and civilization. though the slave-trade may be suppressed. How far this may be true, it is not necessary help us to help those whose eyes are seeing to consider. Civilization is going into Africa. The liquor traffic is already vigorously pressing around the shores and into the interior from all sides. This much is Dr. Livingstone's pioneer work in Central miseries of his race, and who grasps at that fixed, and certain to increase. It remains have said unto you," "even my fourth comfor the Christian people to carry the gospel through all the open channels of African commerce, that, where death and ain are in-

Woman's Work.

"If ye shall ask anything in my name I will do it."

Communications for this Department should be addressed to the Secretary of the Woman's Board of the General Conference, Miss M. F. Bailey, Milton, GO TELL.

BY MARY MOORE.

"The gospel of a risen Lord was first committed unto woman."-Matt. 28: 7, 10.

While yet tremulous pulsed the earth, Scarce loosed from the mighty throe, When Life triumphant sprang to birth From out the grave of gloom and woe, Unto the tomb, with haste and fear, Came woman-of all that's mortal, First the glorious truth to hear, First to view the risen portal.

And first to her by angel voice Was this divine commission given, "Go tell his own, bid them rejoice That from the dead the Lord has risen." Quick obedience brought swift reward-Lo, there his voice her ear did greet, Her eyes beheld the living Lord, While reverent touch laid hold his feet.

How great the joy that then upsprung Whence trembling fear fied at his word! Yet, joy increased when from his tongue Again that same command was heard. Oh, woman, first that voice to hear, Since in his body glorified. Still unto thee, who holds him dear It comes, bids all for whom he died.

Go TELL; a living Christ proclaim; Nor silence keep while yet there lives One who calls not upon his name, Nor knows the love he freely gives. So shall thy joy forever increase, Thy life divine within expand. If thou dost not thy striving cease To quick obey thy Lord's command.

WHAT SHALL WE DO!

Concluded.

The temperance women mean the bringing in of the gospel of peace on earth, good will to men, and, upon bended knee, in many thousands of homes they pray for the advent of that day, and that it shall speedily come. and addressed by native Egyptians, who de- God bless them in it. They mean a better nounced Europeans for introducing among observance of a Sabbath unto the Lord. God bless them for it, and in it. They do not mean persecution of us, nor for us. These things are true for every State Union which has put itself upon record upon Sabbathobservance work. These things are true of the National Union.

But they mean a Sunday Sabbath. Of course they do. They mean Sunday legisla tion. This we know; and Sunday legislation means crippling more or less, or, should you choose it, less and more, for us or our chil-

But, dear sisters, are we better than the persecuted for righteousness sake? Does the was useless, a barren desert, on account of God upon the Seventh-day Sabbath, his only one, make a question of concern to us? Nay, rather of God's only, who holds the control thereof. The Christian force upon the face of hopeless barrenness of Nebraska. He has the earth, of men and women, cannot, either organized or unorganized, force God to the acceptance of a Sunday Sabbath, neither now nor while the world and God's revealed World stand, because God is not in any Sunday-Sabbath. They are working for an unapbold, yet one who has looked into this ques- labor in vain to bring men to respect for such rest and worship, that day which God has set apart with five others for labor.

> Many of the W. C. T. U. women are doing more, and, in some respects, better Sabbath reform work than we ourselves. They remind us of "the unknown God whom ye ignorantly worship;" the unacknowledged Sabbath they are surely and slowly, though ignorantly, helping to reinstate.

Shame upon us for our neglectful attitude, for many of us at many times. God forgive us. God bless every Sunday-keeping woman who really helps, though it may perchance be unconsciously, the reinstating of God's holy day. God, wake us up to our privilege, to our opportunities, to our responsibilities. May he make us willing to work, each one of us, in the many and various ways in which training of the young shall bring to the next race of men and women purer church and state and home. God keep us from joining hands with them in sanctifying Sunday, but use us to the spreading of his Sabbath truth, in the firmness and faith of one in the right, but in the love, in the kindness, and in the tenderness of Christian sistership. May he the approach, whose ears are hearing the whisperings of the Holy Spirit in bringing back to their remembrance the "whatsoever I mandment, made for man."

It is a blessed privilege we have, this holding a despised, dishonored law of God. Mether, do you hold your afflicted, crippled child less tenderly to your heart because of Swinney also.

its misfortunes? Answer. It may be you will never see that child out of special trouble. But that child of yours may yet hold to its own happified heart a healthy, happy child of its own. God's word will not return unto him void. God blesses us that he allows us to hold this truth for him, even should it take the generations yet unborn to hand it over to those who will accept it and honor his Sabbath truth.

We are not promised the rights and priv. ileges of harvesters. We are the seed-sowers. the tillers of the soil, the gardeners. God will provide the harvest-men in the day of his harvest, should it be us or others. The command is go preach my gospel; the reward. not the conversion of men, but the "lo! I am with you always."

Christian Seventh day Baptist women, upon bended knee ask God's direction, With the persuasiveness of argument abiding in a God-inspired conscience, put yourselves into the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union where he shall direct you to work, as may seem best to him for you, in the aggressive or the defensive, for the up. building of the down-trodden law of God and for the fallen child of God. Do not compromise God's holy Sabbath day, but in the bonds of this mighty organized force stand for the oppressed, and by love and gentleness may the divine blessing rest upon us to make us in some way useful, in a spirit which is not bound by fear or trembling.

EXTRACT FROM MRS. FRYER'S LETTER.

SHANGHAI, China, March 16, 1888.

Miss Mary F. Bailey, Dear sister, -I was indeed happily surprised to receive your letter by last mail, and want to take this opportunity of thanking you for it. Another American mail left this morning, by which I send to your address some small pamphlets, some of which have grown out of our Shanghai W. C. T. U.; others are more especially connected with our own work among the Chinese, as you know our first duty is to the people of this great nation whom we came to The leaflets in regard to "Prize Essays" and "Scientific Book Stores" are two of my husband's pet schemes, in which he has been working for years, providing all the means to carry on the work out of his own, private income. Year after year he has worked quietly on, but during the past year or two the work has increased to such proportions, that many have become interested, and he was at last prevailed upon to write reports of the schemes for the public. This especially applied to the book-stores. It has only been a few years since the Chinese generally were willing to read about foreign sciences and things in general. But at last God's time seems to be coming, when the minds of this people are to open to grasp this truth in some of its forms. You would be surprised to see the letters that come from distant parts of this great Empire, asking my husband all sorts of questions about the simplest scientific things. All these things reveal more and more clearly the spirit that is stiring up minds and hearts to inquiry. Hitherto the learned Chinese have thought that what was not contained in their books of the "Classics" could not be worth knowing. Within the past year the subjects of mathematics and astronomy have been introduced into Chinese examinations, of which you have doubtless read. This shows how the government itself is feeling after Western light and knowledge, and makes those interested feel the importance of the present time to work.

I want to send you by next mail one of dear old Chung-Lau's photos. Mr. Fryer and I have taken up photography lately as a recreation. He was here sewing last week, and so we took him. I presume you recollect him when he was in America (before 1 knew about the Sabbath). He is a dear faithful old man. If all Christians, the world over, were like him, the reign of peace would soon be ushered in. I want to send you also a photo of Lady Nieh's. She is sisintemperance lays its curse upon us; in which | ter of Marquis Tsing, who was our former immorality makes us leprous, in which the minister of Great Britain and France for nine years. China has no higher people in rank and birth than the Tsing family. Lady Nieh with her family (a husband and five children) lives across the way from here. For the past two years she has been coming often to visit me, and we have grown to be fast friends. She does not know a word of English, and speaks only Mandarin; but I have been learning that dialect so I can speak to her. She is a devout Buddhist and fasts often, but is very lovely and sweet in her disposition. I think her almost purely unselfish. She is a model mother as far as I can see, and is kindness itself to her servants. In fact, to me she seems to lack nothing but to know how to love the one true God and his Son, our Saviour and her Saviour. Will you sometimes pray for her and for me, that may be wise in my dealings with her. 1 am the only foreign lady she knows. Mr. Davis' people are all well, and Dr.

"Remember the Sabbath-day, to fix days shalt thou labor, and do all the seventh day is the Sabbath of the THE PARLIAMENTARY SAH The following, from Rev. W. D., shows very conclusively the Britain the term Sabbath do Sunday, and that the Sunday kingdom have no reference to The people there show their wi calling, as the Bible does, the s the week the Sabbath. While nearly all other countries call th of the week by this name, why do

Sabbath Befo

56 MILDMAY PARK, L

C. D. POTTER, M. D., Adams Centr

Dear Brother, -A recent ex

this country try to change time calling Sunday the Sabbath?

the Journals of the House of the House of Commons, reveal in the Journals of the House of to the close of Parliament in 18 dated the sittings with the La the days of the week. . The Ho times on Sabbath. As soon a Friday is reached, the entry is " Sabbati, 30° die Junii, 1865 date, or with the beginning of uses the ordinary English na etc. The Journals for the H still uses the Latin names thu batis 25° Septembris, 1886." Vol. 118.]

THE LOCAL-OPTION CALE

About the clearest statemen of the theory that the Sabbath day in seven, is from the pen dall Brooks, lately President College. It may be confiden that the doctor means what h ever the consequences of his be. Having before us neith Jack-o-lantern, but a regular sano corpore, let us approach what he will say. Dr. Brooks defines his pos

tially as follows: 1. The fourth commandme

upon all men.

2. Since, owing to differend it is impossible for all the wor the same day, the commandm quires one day in seven indef 3. The people of any comm right to decide what day of t will keep as the Sabbath. I am very glad the writer s ly on the third point, for it molishes the plea that he anyhow. Let us run off a f these stakes. 1. Sunday-observance, as tl of Christians to commemor rection of Christ, is nowhere the whole landscape. We which of our days he rose. - I on one of our days. What day of the week? Any day th to consider such. It is purel local option. This simplifie are done forever with the ings "on the first day of the with all that theorizing abou work of redemption," and the the "glorious resurrection de Thanks, Dr. Brooks, that re vast amount of worrying. W

Sunday; ergo, there is no Sc tion for us to do so. 2. Hence, if it should be longitude presents no real d general observance of the ought to observe the seventh the first. This pivot of l turning point upon which o verted from the seventh day. 3. But most of the breth we can observe a uniform Saturday is the seventh day According to the logic of I ought to observe Saturday without excuse for not doing

4. Much as he may obje trine of those who observe the his only objection to their p the community has chose another day. If the commu of the correctness of the rea who advocate the Sabbath observe Saturday, Dr. Brook with the crowd, and observe

I might extend this surve I like to see a man stand like to see him self-consi join me in sovereign conten which can trace Sunday world, and all through the after the lapse of a century thousand miles of space, ca Saturday from a peck of RENSSELAER, Ind., March 26, The double inconsisten present objection to the claims that we do not know is self-destructive. If the known in the order of the Sunday is equally so; for i by its relation to the Sabbi beth he lost by change of day is avallowed in the a efortunes? Answer. It may be you ever see that child out of special trouble. hat child of yours may yet hold to its happified heart a healthy, happy child own. God's word will not return anto oid. God blesses us that he allows us ld this truth for him, even should it the generations yet unborn to hand it to those who will accept it and honor abbath truth.

are not promised the rights and priv. of harvesters. We are the seed-sowers llers of the soil, the gardeners. God provide the harvest-men in the day of arvest, should it be us or others. The nand is go preach my gospel; the reward. he conversion of men, but the "lo! I ith you always."

ristian Seventh day Baptist women. bended knee ask God's direction. the persuasiveness of argument abiding lod-inspired conscience, put yourselves the work of the Woman's Christian perance Union where he shall direct you rk, as may seem best to him for you, in ggressive or the defensive, for the up. ing of the down-trodden law of God. for the fallen child of God. Do not romise God's holy Sabbath-day, but in onds of this mighty organized force for the oppressed, and by love and gens may the divine blessing rest upon us ke us in some way useful, in a spirit h is not bound by fear or trembling.

XTRACT FROM MRS. FRYER'S LETTRE."

SHANGHAI, China, March 16, 1888. ss Mary F. Bailey, Dear sister, -I was d happily surprised to receive your by last mail, and want to take this opnity of thanking you for it. Another rican mail left this morning, by which d to your address some small pamphlets, of which have grown out of our Shang-V. C. T. U.; others are more especially ected with our own work among the ese, as you know our first duty is to the le of this great nation whom we came to e leaflets in regard to "Prize Essays" Scientific Book Stores" are two of my and's pet schemes, in which he has been ing for years, providing all the means rry on the work out of his own private ne. Year after year he has worked ly on, but during the past year or two work has increased to such proportions, many have become interested, and he it last prevailed upon to write reports of chemes for the public. This especially ed to the book-stores. It has only been years since the Chinese generally were ng to read about foreign sciences and gs in general. But at last God's time s to be coming, when the minds of this le are to open to grasp this truth in of its forms. You would be surprised the letters that come from distant of this great Empire, asking my husall sorts of questions about the simplest tific things. All these things reveal and more clearly the spirit that is atiup minds and hearts to inquiry. erto the learned Chinese have thought what was not contained in their books e "Classics" could not be worth know-

Within the past year the subjects of ematics and astronomy have been iniced into Chinese examinations, of h you have doubtless read. This shows the government itself is feeling after ern light and knowledge, and makes interested feel the importance of the nt time to work. ant to send you by next mail one of old Chung-Lau's photos. Mr. Fryer have taken up photography lately as a ation. He was here sewing last week, o we took him. I presume you recol-im when he was in America (before I about the Sabbath). He is a dear ul old man. If all Christians, the over, were like him, the reign of peace soon be ushered in. I want to send lse a photo of Lady Nieh's. She is sis-Marquis Tsing, who was our former ter of Great Britain and France for rears. China has no higher people in and birth than the Tsing family. Lady with her family (a husband and five en) lives across the way from here. ne past two years she has been coming to visit me, and we have grown to be riends. She does not know a word of sh, and speaks only Mandarin; but I been learning that dialect so I can speak . She is a devout Buddhist and fasts but is very lovely and sweet in her ution. I think her almost purely un-She is a model mother as far as I e, and is kindness itself to her servants. t, to me she seems to lack nothing but w how to love the one true God and m, our Saviour and her Saviour. Will metimes pray for her and for me, that be wise in my dealings with her.

soaly foreign lady she knows. Davis people are all well, and Dr. Sabbath Beform.

"Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy.

Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God."

THE PARLIAMENTARY SABBATH.

The following, from Rev. W. M. Jones. D. D., shows very conclusively that in Great Britain the term Sabbath does not mean Sunday, and that the Sunday laws of that kingdom have no reference to the Sabbath. The people there show their wisdom in still calling, as the Bible does, the seventh day of the week the Sabbath. While the people of nearly all other countries call the seventh day of the week by this name, why do the people of this country try to change times and laws by calling Sunday the Sabbath?

56 MILDMAY PARK, London, N., March 20, 1888. C. D. POTTER, M. D., Adams Centre, N. Y.

Dear Brother,—A recent examination of the Journals of the House of Lords and of the House of Commons, reveals the fact that in the Journals of the House of Commons. up to the close of Parliament in 1865, the clerk dated the sittings with the Latin names of the days of the week. . The House sits some-Friday is reached, the entry is made thus: "Sabbati, 30° die Junii, 1865." Since that date, or with the beginning of 1866, the clerk uses the ordinary English names, Monday, etc. The Journals for the House of Lords still uses the Latin names thus: "Die Sabbatis 25° Septembris, 1886." [See page 382, Vol. 118.

THE LOCAL-OPTION CALENDAR.

About the clearest statement I have met of the theory that the Sabbath is simply one day in seven, is from the pen of Dr. Kendall Brooks, lately President of Kalamazoo College. It may be confidently presumed that the doctor means what he says, whatever the consequences of his position may be. Having before us neither fiend nor Jack-o lantern, but a regular sana mens in sano corpore, let us approach and inquire what he will sav.

Dr. Brooks defines his position substantially as follows:

upon all men.

it is impossible for all the world to observe the same day, the commandment simply requires one day in seven indefinitely.

3. The people of any community have the right to decide what day of the week they will keep as the Sabbath.

I am very glad the writer speaks so clearly on the third point, for it effectually demolishes the plea that he means Sunday, snyhow. Let us run off a few lines from

1. Sunday-observance, as the present duty of Christians to commemorate the resurrection of Christ, is nowhere to be found on the whole landscape. We cannot tell on which of our days he rose. He did not rise on one of our days. What day is the first day of the week? Any day the people choose to consider such. It is purely a question of local option. This simplifies things. We are done forever with the apostolic meetings "on the first day of the week," and with all that theorizing about the "greater work of redemption," and the rhetoric about the "glorious resurrection day," and so on. Thanks, Dr. Brooks, that relieves us of a vast amount of worrying. We can't all keep Sunday; ergo, there is no Scriptural obligation for us to do so.

2. Hence, if it should be discovered that longitude presents no real difficulty to the general observance of the same day, we ought to observe the seventh day rather than the first. This pivot of longitude is the turning point upon which obligation is diverted from the seventh day.

3. But most of the brethren think that we can observe a uniform day, and that Saturday is the seventh day of the week. According to the logic of Dr. Brooks, they ought to observe Saturday, and they are without excuse for not doing so.

4. Much as he may object to the doctrine of those who observe the seventh day, his only objection to their practice is, that the community has chosen to observe another day. If the community, convinced of the correctness of the reasoning of those who advocate the Sabbath should choose to Observe Saturday, Dr. Brooks is ready to go with the crowd, and observe Saturday too.

I might extend this survey, but I refrain. I like to see a man stand his ground. I like to see him self-consistent. All will join me in sovereign contempt for that logic which can trace Sunday all around the world, and all through the ages; but which, after the lapse of a century of time or two thousand miles of space, cannot distinguish "Saturday from a peck of onions."

U. M. McGuire.

Rensselaer, Ind., March 26, 1888.

The double inconsistency of that everpresent objection to the Sabbath, which claims that we do not know when it comes, is self-destructive. If the Sabbath is unknown in the order of the days of the week, Sunday is equally so; for it is known only by its relation to the Sabbath. If the Sabfusion. These puerile assumptions are edge." This, Dr. Philipson freely illustrated never heard except when men desire to evade or destroy the claims of the Sabbath; they are never heard of in business transactions, scientific investigations or the social experiences of men. In all these departments the truth is recognized that the apparent loss or gain of time in passing from point to point on the surface of the earth arises because the motions of the traveler and the motions of the earth are not uniform and synchronous. Hence science and business agree to "correct the reckoning," at a given and uninhabited point on the earth's surface. Thus doing, all trouble disappears. If the local option theory of Dr. Brooks be accepted, the case is made still worse for Sunday, since the option of Jehovah, as expressed in the Decalogue, compels the obedient heart to choose with him, and keep the Sabbath.

A. H. LEWIS.

SMALL CHANGE.

BY M. LOTH.

To many Israelites the reading of the Bible is not only insipid, but positively distasteful. times on Sabbath. As soon as midnight of Why? Because the Rabbis so seldom take their text from the Bible. They preach on Darwinism, Spencerism and other isms, and neglect the ten commandments, the observance of which concerns every man, woman and child throughout the length and breadth of the land; but not a word have the Rabbis to say on the ten commandments, and a great pity it is that these fundamental laws are getting so very much out of date, as the results are that all avenues leading to progress and real happiness are blasted with wrecks of im. morality and corruption, who are an appalling sight, and it is fortunate that the penalty of corruption is a speedy demise and earth covers them out of sight. Covetousness is the great sin of this age. It causes young and old to neglect their duties which they an honest man into a rogue, it corrupts the wrecks, our prisons and our insane asylums olis. brimfull, and opens the flood gates of anarchy, which means the sword, fire and pestilence. Yet not one minister has a word to 1. The fourth commandment is binding be covetous." What a pity that the modesmall pox? Science has taught how it can ern ministers do not understand their calling. be prevented. Is it not a crime to endanger 2. Since, owing to difference of longitude, Instead of being the great teachers and health by evil courses? Knowledge has who go to the house of the Lord, go there amused: for that purpose they patronize the by their descendants?

> Mournful and thoughtful walk the parents, who in their old days find themselves neglected by the love, veneration and dutiful attention of their children. Those parents resemble the trees who flourish and cover their leaves; it is their root that has produced all; but when the branches are loaded with flowers and with fruits, they yield nothing to the root. This is the image of those chil dren who prefer their own amusements, and to game away the fortunes, than to give to their old parents the cares which they want. The cemetery is an index to the life the community leads. If one observes many, many little mounds indicating the resting place of young children, if one reads on the tombstones that the majority averaged the life of twenty, one can place it as a safe basis that that community is not living as God has ordained that man should live, and an earnest examination into the causes of so many early deaths will reveal the fact that the non-observance of the Sabbath, the eager haste for the accumulation of wealth and honors undermines health and shortens life, through this crime. This is harsh, but the proper name for it; while families are swept out of existence, and that wealth which has been accumulated through such great sacrifices will go into the hands of strangers. Fathers and mothers, hold fast to the observance of the Sabbath, it is the anchor of your health, the anchor of your family existence, and that their inheritance shall not go into the hands of Delilahs, who will shear them of their strength and surrender them to the Philistines to grind in the prison-house. Make a halt in your rapid pursuits for great wealth. Pause and reason and resolve that you and your house shall keep the Sabbath

Education.

"Wisdom is the principal thing, therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understand-ing."

BDUCATION AND CRIME.

The Jewish Exponent, of Philadelphia, gives some extracts from a recent address by the Rev. Dr. Philipson of that city on the above subject, which are worth many times

He remarked: "It has been well said. The best medicine for suffering, crime and every department of human life and activity; hundred and eighty institutions of learning, wisdom has lessened political orime; like a under Baptist auspices, on this continent. bath be lost by change of longitude, Sun-day is swallowed in the same hopeless con-face before the light of advancing knowl- chartered institutions.

by examples drawn from history and from life. "Man has traveled a long road, indeed, under the guidance of education, as far as the sanctity of human life is concerned. At the start, disregard for the life of others; no least $23,000,000. crime to kill, to slay, until he has reached a point where he hears, as it were, a voice of thunder, 'Thou shalt not kill;' on, on even from that to the thought that in inaction also there is crime; that not alone the direct deed of putting an end to others' lives is criminal, but the leaving them uncared for, that they might by this be deprived of life. is well nigh as great a wrong. Think of all the difference there is between the savage who trails the footsteps of a fellow-man with the hot desire for blood, and the gentle woman who, with noiseless step and sympathetic glance and tender hand, alleviates the pain of the nameless stranger who has been brought in from exposure and death, and you will conceive of education's great work not only in diminishing crime, but in preventing much that has the semblance thereof.

"As crime or criminal we must consider everything which can lead to harm or to suffering, such as criminal neglect. Crime lies not only in the committal, but also in the omission. Here education and knowledge have done more than in any other instance. Science has in the last years spoken its mighty word, and performed its great work silently. It has prevented crime, and the suffering entailed thereon to an extent which is marvelous. Is it not a crime if a man leaves the filth and the dirt in the corners of his house and in his yard when he is told that by having it removed his children may be saved from the epidemic which is raging around? Two centuries ago, London was visited by one of the most terrible plagues that the world has ever known, because London was filthy. The plague had ample opportunity to do its destructive work. A few years ago, when the cholera raged in the filthy portions of Italian and Spanish cities, and in towns of Southern France, Paris, though so very large, was saved from the scourge, and why? Paris is the cleanest city in the world; its municipal authorities have listened to the lesson of owe to purity and noble manhood, it converts science, and the criminal neglect which, in southern cities produced death and suffering, legislators and judges, fills our hospitals with had been remedied in the French metrop-

"Is it not a crime to endanger the lives of men by the bad drainage of cities? Science has taught how it can be prevented. Is it say on the commandment: "Thou shalt not | not a crime to expose human beings to the preachers of sacred words, they degenerated taught how it can be prevented. Is it not a to mere flatterers and commedians. No won- crime to poison the blood by food or drink der that so many noble, stately-looking houses | which science has taught contains dangerous of worship are empty and deserted. Men ingredients? Is it not worse than a crime to posterity, since science has taught that to become spiritually elevated and not to be the physical evils of ancestors are inherited

"The most enlightened communities are those in which the fewest crimes are committed. In the backwoods each one takes the law into his own hands. Unprovoked murders are common, and crime is flagrant, because there is no protection against it. Safety for one lies in safety for all, and safety for all lies in the perfection of the workings of society. And is not society growing nearer perfection with the advance of culture and education? Where are the dens of vice and the hot beds of crime among men to-day? Are they not in the slums of the large cities? And do not the slums of the large cities contain the ignorance and the rabble of all classes and kinds? The greatest work of philanthropy to-day is to go into those very slums and force those lowest classes to become sharers in education of some sort. Educate a man, and you will make him self-respecting; educate his children, and they will remove farther and farther from the criminal classes."

FROM THE BAPTIST CONVENTION.

In education, above all things, God must be first and last. An education is not so much designed to teach a man something as to make him something. If organization is needed for other things, it is needed for improvement and advancement in edu cation. -T. T. Eaton.

In twenty-two states, including Ohio and Missouri, there are twenty-nine institutions of learning under Baptist control, with 2,450 students, male and female, with 377 students for the ministry. They have real estate and endowments valued at $3,000,000. These schools are doing good work notwith standing their high sounding names and their small measure of means. The Wes can do more than it is doing, and the Eas ought to help more than it is helping. - G. C.

Notice first the magnitude of the materia and financial interests of our educational enterprises. Here is an enormous educational "plant." We have seven institutions devoted chiefly or wholly to ministerial education, and thirteen others in which, to some extent, theological instruction is imparted. We have thirty-eight colleges and universities, not counting some so-called. We have eighty-six academies, seminaries and other institutions for secondary in struction. We have forty-one institutions, thirty six of which are in the South, for the all, the evils of mankind is wisdom.' The education of young women. Reckoning in spread of knowledge has diminished crime in Canada and Mexico we find more than one

The property valuation with endowments of our theological seminaries is over $3,000. 000; of our colleges and universities over $10,000,000; of other institutions over $10,000,000, making an aggregate of at

About 1,200 teachers are employed whose yearly salaries are estimated at not less than $700,000. Other expenses carry the annual cost of maintaining these institutions to $1,000,000.—Dr. Morehouse.

VICES OF OUR HOME AND SCHOOL EDUCATION

The Prussians have a saying that whatever you wish to have appear in the life of a nation you must put into its schools. Will the republic be ennobled, then, by the citizenship of a generation taught in childhood to believe that, as soon as children can be taught to go alone on their feet, they should be permitted to go alone in their judgment, their manners and their principles? A pleasant aphorism of a German poet, that a wise age reverences the dreams of its youth, appears to frighten parents from setting up a rule in their own houses. The children are consulted as to what they like, which is well enough; with the important limitation that a large part of the divinely appointed business of their fathers and mothers is to teach them what they ought to like. It is reckoned despotic to coerce nature, as if we did not bring into the world in our nature a great deal which, unless somebody does coerce it, ruins us. Earlier and earlier the reins are tossed on the neck of juvenile inclinations, till that whole period of beautiful and blessed subjection which Saxon homes once knew as boyhood and girlhood is eaten away by a premature and offensive self-assertion, and instead of boys and girls we have only little men and little women. Some futile attempts are made, too late, to hire or bribe the virtues which might have been healthily grown under a sturdier nature. Indulgence ends in misery. Sharper cruelty can hardly be done to a child than to eave him to himself in those things in which God ordains the parent to act over him and for him. Whenever we come to be a lawless land, as we certainly shall after four or five lawless generations have grown up in it, this "great country" will be great grave of true freedom, of manly virtue, and a pure peace. Where the young are brought up to obey, not coaxed or supplicated to obey, in explicit allegiance to a dominion in the family, the foundation is laid for a solid social fabric. From this home legislation the first transfer is to school. The same firm hand of law, strict and merciful, and merciful because it is strict, is meant to take him up there too, holding the day. him and guiding him. The whole apparatus of education, from top to bottom, fails unless it chastens and molds the mind to orderly methods. Not more self-reliance, but more intellectual humility, is now our national want. Orators forget that the reaction from mental tyranny finally achieves its object, and that it is small gain if we only to encounter the terrors of the mob. ment in character, opening the soul to all 32 years old used to taste every day thirty the light of truth. Of two graduates from or forty samples of wine. occasionally learned, the luggage of his mind. Another any part of them. After two years he becan doubt?—Forum.

Cemperance.

"Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth its color in the cup, when it moveth "At last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth

TOBACCO AND INTOXICATING LIQUOBS.

Tobacco and intoxicating liquors, except as a medicine and for mechanical purposes, are an unmitigated curse. Tobacco is such a deadly poison that it may well be dispensed with for any purpose. And all alcoholic liquors might be; but classed and used only as a drug, and for mechanical purposes, may be a convenience.

The use of tobacco generally precedes that of intoxicating drinks; the prostrating effects, calling for the stimulating drinks, and thus drunkards are made as a general thing; the tobacco leading to the use of the liquors of various kinds, fermented and distilled, and these to disease, indolence, poverty and crime. Up to this time (1888), all efforts to stop the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage have in a measure failed, and well they may, while the forerunner, and really worse evil, tobacco, is tolerated and used in creasingly. This is proved by the fact that of two persons, one using intoxicating drinks and the other tobacco for a given time, the one that has used the liquor can quite readily pers. "Now," said she, rising indignantly, abandon it and become a sober, decent. cleanly person, while the tobacco-user can bearly by the grace of God stop the use of do not possess any of them yourself. I can tobecoo. And why? It is only because the never be your wife; and she bowed him out to the physical, intellectual and moral if not a wiser man.—Health Journal.

powers, undoubtedly, destroying the willpower by its deadly poisonous effects. These being facts that cannot be gainsaid, it follows that any effort for the promotion of temperance must reach and include the root of the evil, tobacco. Anything short of this has been, and will doubtless continue to be, a

Nor is it probable that while tobacco is allowed to be grown, and alcoholic liquors manufactured or imported into the United States, that any system of local or general legislation by counties or states will do much to hinder the use of either, as appears to have been the case, up to the present time. Means can generally be found to evade laws made to regulate the sale, however well intended. The tobacco has been freely sold; and alcoholic liquors, though taxed, quite as generally sold and used, as appears, in spite of the restrictions.

The United States Government has, undoubtedly, as clear a right to prohibit the growth of tobacco as well as the manufacture of alcoholic liquors, and the importation of both on account of their pernicious effects, as it has to prohibit dens of filth and the importation of cholera from the East, smallpox from Canada, and yellow fever from South America, etc. And it is no less a national duty on the grounds of preserving the lives and property of the citizens of the United States.

Let public opinion be educated up to this true standard by every possible means, and tobacco and intoxicating liquors be thus banished by national law, as we now banish anarchists and pestilence, except in so far as alcohol may be made, under the seal of government, for medicinal and mechanical purposes, and we shall have protection from a worse evil than anarchists, dens of filth, small-pox, cholers and other pestilential diseases. For, in getting rid of the tobacco and intoxicating liquors, the United States will have removed the principal causes, not only of all these evils, but also of a very large proportion of the indolence, poverty and crime, which blight and ourse our national life, and seriously imperilfour national existence, entailing taxation that might be turned to missions and other benevolent purposes, in this and other lands. God speed DR. E. R. MAXSON. SYRACUSE, N. Y., May, 1888.

DISEASES OF WINE-TASTERS.

The diseases of wine-tasters were studied by Donnet, of Bordeaux, and Dr. C. Maescape from the terrors of the single tyrant randon, of Dijon. Wine tasters are frequently suffering with disturbances similar To create in the scholar a patient, modest to alcoholism, although the claret tasters do and obedient action of the whole intellectual not swallow the wine, but, on the contrary. nature is a benefit that lasts on in the per- reject it, and even rince their mouths aftersonal experience, and makes an abiding ele- | ward. In one case of Dr. Donnet's a man college, one carries out a store of things liquors and rum, without ever swallowing carries the secret how to learn, which is the came very excitable, lost his appetite, did better part of wisdom, and faculties set in not sleep well, and suffered with disturbthe order of the Maker's plan. Which will ances of sensibility, pains in the breast. a be the master of his place and the master of | feeling of weakness, and difficulty in breathother men in the fight of after years, who ing. He improved after abandoning his profession, although a nervous debility still remained, as noticeable by the facility with which he was set in tears. Another statement made by Dr. Donnet is the great number of apoplexies in Bordeaux, where many persons drink one and a half liters of wine with each meal. This number exceeds the number of apoplexies in any city of the world. Dr. Marandon did not notice any symptons of intoxication in Burgundy tasters, although some of them would swallow the samples. He remarks that teatasters always swallow some tea, and this fact, he says, explains the nervous symptoms they are affected with. - Deutsche Medizinal

WHAT SHE BAID.

A fast young man decided to make to a young lady a formal offer of his hand and heart—all he was worth—hoping for a cordial reception. He cautiously prefaced his declarations with a few questions, for he had no intentions of "throwing himself away." Did she love him well enough to live in a cottage with him? Was she a good cook? Did she think it a wife's duty to make home happy? Would she consult his tastes and wishes concerning her associates and pursuits in life? Was she economical? Could she make her own clothes? etc. The young lady said that before she answered his questions, she would assure him of some negative virtues she possessed. She never drank, smoked, or chewed; never owed a bill to her laundress or tailor; never stayed out all night playing billiards; never lounged on the street corners and ogled giddy girls; never stood in with the boys for cigar and wine sup-I am assured by those who know, that you do all these things, and it is rather absurd for you to expect all the virtues in me, while you

The Sabbath Recorder.

Alfred Centre, N. Y., Fifth-day, June 7, 1888.

REV. L. A. PLATTS, D. D., Editor. REV. E. P. SAUNDERS, Business Manager. REV. A. E. MAIN, D. D., Ashaway, R. I., Mission ary Editor.

Communications designed for the Missionary Department should be addressed to REV. A. E. MAIN, D. D., Ashaway, R. I.

All other communications, whether on business or for publication, should be addressed to the SABBATH RECORDER, Alfred Centre, Allegany county, N. Y.

TERMS: $2 per year in advance. Drafts, Checks and Money Orders should be made payable to E. P. SAUNDERS, AGENT.

"HE only does not live in vain Who makes all means within his reach, His wealth, his work, his thought, his Advance the good of other men."

OUR local readers will be interested in an announcement made by our Alfred Centre Correspondent, in another column.

THE editor acknowledges his indebtedness to Hon. A. B. Cottrell, for a copy of the Legislative Manual for the state of New York-1887-8.

THE Bank of England is said to be the most extensive banking institution in the world. It employs over 1,000 clerks, and its buildings cover eight acres of ground.

Although the Methodist Conference de cided not to admit women as delegates to its sessions, it did vote to constitute an order of deconesses to help on the work of the church.

THE local option law of Michigan has been declared unconstitutional. The ground for the decree is wholly technical; the title of the bill did not accurately describe its pur-

It is reported that the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions has received $73,000 more in the past seven months than in the corresponding period last year. A similar gain in the receipts of our societies | toward all the families of his neighborhood would be gratifying, and would help make up as for his own, and therefore, shows all about for this short year.

THE remarkable statement is made that the receipts of the American Tract Society have been equal to $900 for every business peculiar ties. Those who affect such great day since its organization; and that those of the American Bible Society have averaged over $1000 per day for all its history. What study to convince them that any one people a power for good in the world these great societies must be, with such sums of money consecrated to God's service by the prayers of many earnest Christian hearts.

ATTENTION has been recently directed, in magazine articles and otherwise, to the barbarism of the Russian system of exiling political prisoners and suspects to Siberia. Those who have been interested in these accounts, and, indeed, all lovers of ustice and humanity, will be interested to know that the system is, by imperial authority, practically abolished. We publish in another Let us instill into our people and into the column an extract from the New York Tribune on this subject.

THE decision of the Methodist Conference against receiving women as lay delegates to that body, appears to have been based on of the sentimentalism of the time. If this legal technicalities. The result of the dis- loyalty to truth, strong, stern and utter, cussion, however, is that at every place of public worship held by Methodists in the United States, a vote is to be taken during the year 1890, on the question, and every member of the church over twenty-one years of age is to have a vote. This will bring the matter before the state conferences of 1891. and these, in turn, will thus be able to place it in due form before the next General Conference, which is to be at Omaha, Neb., in

HUNTING for happiness has been, not inaptly, compared to the search for a lost sheep in a wilderness. The sheep may be found, but it is pretty likely to be found a carcass or a skeleton. Happiness, sought for itself, is a delusive dream. If one would find real happiness, let him cease to think about it, or search for it, and give himself to the pursuit of some worthy aim. If that aim shall lie along the line of personal improvement, let it be to the end that the world be made wiser and better for that personal improvement. The only easy and sure condition of personal happiness is personal worthiness, and this is generally attained through unselfish effort for the good of others. If you

THOSE who are interested in the coming Commencement exercises of Milton College will find an announcement of the order of those exercises in our Special Notice column this week. These exercises ought to have held in the new church, May 27th, and al an especial attraction for the Alumni and old students of the College, and the generous rates offered by the railroads ought to bring it within the reach of very many to attend. These annual gatherings grow in significance and importance as the institution grows in

DENOMINATIONAL LOYALTY.

Some have thought that, in one way and another, we lay too much stress upon the duty of being loyal to our own denomination and work. For ourselves, we do not think it is possible to overestimate the importance of that which is thus insisted upon, or to insist upon it too strongly. If we do not stand by our own doctrines, organizations, and plans of work, pray who will? Of course, this all implies that we hold truths which are worth defending and propagating, and that our organizations and plans of work are well suited to that end. If this is not so, then we need to go further back and examine our foundations—the foundations of our faith and practice. Let us frequently turn on the light of God's Word, and in its clear revelations read our duty. We can stand the light, but idle indifference, half-formed conceptions of our faith and duty, and halfhearted performance of the duties we owe to ourselves, to others and to the cause of truth, will bring slow but sure disintegration and death. It is our first duty to know our foundations and bring them into perfect harmony with the Word and will of God, and then it is our duty to build upon those foundations in the fear of God, and in the love of souls. This is what we mean by denominational loyalty.

Others than ourselves have occasion to urge this very point upon the attention of their people. The following, from the Messenger and Visitor, a Baptist paper, is worthy of careful study:

alike, and all as good as his own, is little bet- the number of inhabitants. ter than the man who has as warm a feeling equal attention. It is well for all to have a mean that he is not to reserve the holy of holies of his heart and the greatest share of his effort for those to whom he is bound by superiority, because they have no special denominational leadings, are usually of the have more of it than any other, or they have so little sense of the value and claims of the truth that it does not bind their consciences and lives. Men of this careless class with inert consciences, do not claim our highest respect, while we honor him who thinks the truth of such worth that he will bestir himself to find it. and when he has satisfied himself, will hold to it with an iron grasp.

Nevertheless, it is not mere denominational loyalty which is so much to be desired. This would only help to keep people in old beliefs, whether true or false. What is most imperatively demanded in this age is loyalty to the truth. Mere denominationalism is often a compound of ignorance and prejudice. children the principle that they are under the highest obligations to God, to men, to themselves, first to seek and find the truth, then to obey it and give it the support of their hearts, minds, hands and lives. This will give them that firm moral fiber which will raise them above the spineless flabbiness does not bring them into our churches and keep them there, then our denomination has not sufficient justification for its existence and deserves to be deserted. We pity a denomination which cannot say in all confidence to all, study the truth; where it takes you, go. Any hesitation or unwillingness to do this is so evident a proof of doubt about the soundness of its belief that it should lead all that tested which we are sure will bear the strain. Unwillingness to have the test applied is the surest evidence that the testing should take place.

DEDICATION AT LOST CREEK.

Our readers will be interested in the fol lowing announcement concerning the dedication of the Lost Creek church, which we clip from a local paper of that country. This service was held, we understand, in connection with the Association just held there. We presume official mention will be made of it in connection with the minutes of that meeting, but in the meantime give this excerpt:

Less than a year ago the Brick Church. near Lost Creek, of the Seventh-day Baptists was almost totally destroyed by fire

some edifice upon the ruins. This prompt | city with a rod of iron and even emulated action is thoroughly characteristic of the enterprise of the members of this large and growing church. In accordance with the announcement, the dedication exercises were though the seating capacity of this house is said to be about five hundred, there were nearly a thousand people turned from the door. The sermon was delivered by Elder Huffman, and is spoken of by all who heard it in the most complimentary manner.

It is the custom at services of this character to hear the announcement that a collection is essential to liquidate debts. Upon this occasion, however, no such announcement was made. Every dollar of debt incurred in the construction of the new and handsome building has been paid. In addition to the large number who took advantage of the cheap excursion rates offered by the C. W. & G. R. R., there were hundreds who went in carriages, wagons and on horseback. It was said to have been the largest congregation of people that ever as sembled on Lost Creek.

Communications.

GLIMPSES OF EUROPE.—No. 28.

BY PROF. H. M. MAXSON.

GENEVA.

Wednesday morning, August 13th, we left Interlaken for Geneva, stopping another hour at Berne to wait for our train. It is really quite a satisfaction to ride on these Swiss railroads. The cars are very pleasant and you can pass from one compartment to another, inside the cars, and often two compartments are in effect thrown into one, so that it is easier to find seats. There is also, wonder of wonders, a water-tank in the one, which we rode to day. Then, too, you are not locked in and can ride with the car door open if you wish and not have the has some one in it who can speak English; guard forever in terror lest you shall somehow break your neck. It was really surprising what crowds of people were coming and going on the boats to Interlaken; our boat was full each way. Indeed, it is said that the visitors who pass through the coun-The man who thinks all churches about try in summer will equal nearly a quarter of is the imperceptible barrier of a strange lan-of notice to the police of the name and busi- an afternoon in that way when he stepped large that they could be read from a long ness of each new guest which always had to kindly feeling toward all; but this does not be filled out immediately after our arrival at the hotels in the other countries. We arrived at the Hotel de Paix, Wednesday night, with the expectation of going to Paris by night train Thursday evening; but on our arrival we were so charmed with the declass that have never given the truth enough lightful situation that we decided to stay several days and rest before taking a plunge into the sights and pleasures of Paris. It is certainly very cool and pleasant here, but there is not much of interest except the stores. Of course there are some historical associations, but one day suffices for a pretty good general view of the sights.

> The city is built about the lower end of the lake, where its water pour out in aswift, cold, remorseless looking river that moves as if nothing could stop or hinder it. The water has a bluish tinge, and is exceeding clear, furnishing an excellent water service for the city and a limitless "water privilege" for the washing-women in boats along the shore. As you walk along a bridge, a strong odor of soap forces its presence upon you and you discover moored by the bank of the stream a long, narrow scow covered by shed. One side is open and has a row of wash-boards built out over the water. In the spaces between them the women wash the clothes in the clear water of the stream, presenting a very busy sight in the early

The river divides the city, the old part of which is clustered upon the hillsides, where the fortifications originally crowded the houses closely together, with narrow, steep true men and women to give special heed to and crooked streets between them. The all these points. We are not afraid to have fortifications are now gone and the tide of travel and the residence of so many foreign-lead in the matter of organization for ers has built spreading suburbs, with wide, | Sunday-school work. It has a state Sunday handsome streets, fine churches, museums, schools and public buildings. The lake front and the banks of the river have been | There are 102 counties in the state, and conbuilt up into fine quays, on which are broad drives lined on one side by imposing build- during the past year. Each township also ings and fine large hotels. The river is holds its annual conventions, and 1,007 crossed by substantial bridges, one of them township conventions are reported for the especially being a model of solidity and per- past year. manency. In the basin formed by a long breakwater which runs nearly across the lake a little above the city, lie numerous pleasure boats, and small vessels with their curi- Thursday evening. This was a remarkable ous lateen-sails, and several steamers which convention in several respects, and some ply about the lake: The Castle of Chillon, which Byron's poem has made so famous, is at the other end of the lake, and as it requires The a day to make the trip we did not go.

the strictness and severity of the religious government of Florence under Savonardla. Rather a dreary time it would be for the Genevese of to-day with no dancing, no singing and no playing, and I fear it would be rather crushing to its prosperity if no one could wear jewelry and the traveler could tral railroad, for the accommodation of delenot leave his inn after supper. Strolling gates from the southern part of the state, players are very frequent, and occasionally For this purpose they chartered an engine. quite an ochestra halts before the hotel and baggage-car, and five passenger coaches to gives some excellent music, while in the eve- run as a special train from Centralia through ning one cannot walk far without passing a to Rockford, via Freeport. They sold company playing before some saloon. In tickets some time in advance, through the these evening bands I notice women players agency of the County Secretaries, to deleare quite numerous.

of the Waters," where the Rhone is joined About one hundred and fifty delegates on by the Arve. The Rhone is swift, bright and different trains met at Centralia early Tues. clear, while the Arve is sluggish and, being day morning; among whom were Bro. B. F. fresh from a glacier, is full of mud, so that Titsworth and the writer. On the arrival of for some distance the waters of the two the train from Cario, the delegates were met streams are seen to flow on unmingled. It at the depot and escorted to the Opera must prove a very profitable thing for the House, where a bountiful breakfast was preowner of the neighboring bank, for a girl pared by the citizens, free of cost. When stands ready to receive the usual gratuity for walking down the path across his land to the | was spent in singing and listening to spirited river bank.

spent much time strolling along its bank and watching the swans, the boats and the fishermen. But, after all, the stores are the great attraction, and we spent a very pleasant half-day in going the rounds and seeing the beautiful things. The jewelry seems to be largely solid gold, set with stones. The display of carved wood, Switzerland's speciality, of which she annually exports a million dollars worth, was not so good here as at Interlaken. Watches could be bought of all grades and at all prices. Music-boxes also were a speciality. Almost every store "We sell so much to the English and Americans." This fact got a young man of our acquaintance into a curious blunder one day. A few hours strolling about the streets, looking into the windows and feeling that between you and every one about you there into a store to get a roll of chocolate, which up he saw that the price was double what he had paid elsewhere, so he dropped it and started for the door. Just then a lady stepped forward and asked in English what he wanted. Supposing that she was going to address him in French he had his lips already to say, "I cannot speak French." and had partly spoken it before he realized that she had addressed him in English, when in his confusion he left off the word "French" merely saying, "I cannot speak." "You can't speak?" replied the lady. "No," he said, and disappeared, leaving her to wonder at his inconsistency. The quay in front of our hotel is called the "Quay of Mt. Blanc" because from it one can get a fine view of that mountain; but all our attempts to find the mountain were fruitless until just at sunset when, as we stepped from our window onto the balcony, our eyes fell upon one of the most beautiful spectacles. Right there in the gap between two hills, where we had so often tried in vain to see a mountain, rose an immense peak whose snowy crown was bathed in rosy light from the setting sun, while on each side extended the range of peaks with their glaciers and masses of snow brought out by the soft light most beautifully.

To-night for the first time we are to take a night ride on the cars, and by one long flight in a sleeper find ourselves in Paris to-

ILLINOIS STATE BUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The state of Illinois seems to be in the school association, and auxiliary county and town associations throughout the state. ventions have been held in every county

The State Association held its 30th annual convention last week in the city of Rockford, beginning on Tuesday afternoon, and closing account of it may interest many readers of the SABBATH RECORDER. But I will first and life of Christ and his disciples show mention some of its accessories. Among that some work could be done lawfully on these was that of a full railroad train run- the Sabbath. But the thought is that work exclusively in the interest of the convention. As the meeting was to be held in the ex. treme northen part of the state, Mr. B. F. Jacobs, the Chairman of the Executive Committee, and W. B. Jacobs, the Statistical Secretary, conceived the project of running a Sunday-school train over the Illinois Cen. gates at the uniform price of $5 from Cario, One of the drives is out to the "Mingling and points north, to Rockford and return, breakfast was over, a half hour and more speeches of welcome, response, etc. Among The lake is very beautiful, and I have the speakers were two fine-looking men from Memphis, Tennessee-one a judge, the other a merchant, who had left the bench and the store to go to Rockford on this Sunday. school train, and to study the workings of the Illinois State Association with a view to the organization of a similar association in Tennessee. Both spoke in the convention at Rockford, and the judge offered a tender and touching prayer in the closing session, leaving the impression that he was a warm. hearted Christian as well as a judge. Another lawyer, who was also a delegate, spoke at the reception in Centralia. Mr. William Reynolds, of Peoria, in the employ of the International Sunday-school Convention as an organizer, and W. B. Jacobs, of Chicago. took charge of the train at Centralia, and through all the long day no railroad conductor was seen calling for tickets. Along the whole length of the five cars was stretched a placard bearing the words, "Illiguage puts one into a very queer state of nois State Sunday-school Convention, Rock-A notable omission in Switzerland is that mind. This young man had been spending ford, May 22d, 23d, 24th." in letters so distance. The train attracted much attenhe saw among the stock. As he picked it tion all along the road, by reason of this placard on each side, and the singing of the

On reaching Mendota, about five o'clock P. M., we found a table set on the depot platform, said to be 200 feet long, and spread with a free lunch for the delegates. A sixth car had been added to the train at some point on the road, and there were nearly 400 delegates now on board. We reached Rockford after 10 o'clock P. M., and here another notable accessory appeared. A committee had come on board at Freeport, and passed through the train, assigning and ticketing delegates to homes in the city, where they were to be freely entertained during the Convention. Street cars, omnibuses and private carriages, and a reception committee were in waiting at the depot, and each street car was attended by boys engaged to pilot the passengers to their places of lodging. Again, at the close of the session of Wednesday afternoon, we found about one hundred carriages in waiting to give delegates a ride through the city. "The drivers of these carriages represented the wealth, enterprise and culture of the city. Bankers, merchants, manufacturers and wealthy men of leisure sat on the boxes and handled the lines over the backs of their sleek spans or comfortable-looking single steeds." So said a Rockford paper the next morning. But so far as I observed, these drivers sat in social proximity to their passengers, so as to point out the places of interest and answer questions. The weather was fine and the drive was a delightful one, taking in the beautiful city on both sides of the river. Remarks on the Convention itself will be reserved until next week. C. A. B.

"SABBATH-DAY COLLECTIONS."

In a former article Matt. 12: 1-7 was quoted as showing that it was not so much the work the priests did as the object which made it objectionable or legitimate. So in the use of time or money, it may be a purely secular or a worshipful act. "Inquirer" asks for a command for collecting money on the Sabbath, to which we reply, Where is a command not to take a collection? Certainly not in the words "Thou shalt not do any work," for the whole teaching would be happy, give yourself useful employ- ashes were hardly cold before active meast where Calvin preached where hards as a more hand where Calvin preached where hards as a more hand where Calvin preached where hards as a more hand where Calvin preached where hards as a more hand where Calvin preached where hards as a more hand where Calvin preached where hards as a more hand.

prohibited. It is seen that mon or other things are of themselves on the Sabbath than on a week da uses are different. 1 Cor. 16: 1, 2 has no refe public collection on the day It refers to a secular act. The First-day were to look over the and as God had given them in were to set aside, at home, justly belonging to God, so that came there would be no "gather is, no going over the field collect funds, or accounting then, t portion they could spare. The no time for it then. It was to. ness; and who shall say that on if that were the day on which them, they could not hand it to Adam Clarke was quoted as practice or custom of the Jews ceived no rebuke from the S sin of the Jews, then, was not money in the contribution box bath, but in their over-strictness called thus, in refusing to do t and necessary on that day. Now we would not intention any man's conscience, and we a will take offense if they look at from a principle, and not from To the principle we turn: Payi religious work and making of acts of worship. God's people money to the temple. Their included the paying of tithes. principle. So then, setting portion on the first or any other we carry it to the temple, or G worship on the Sabbath, and it erent offering, or payment of God, we show our devotion to accepts it as an act of worship keeping with the sacredness of Such Sabbath-day offerings consecration, and bring us int pathy with the good work I intended to bring about. W is "Bible justification of the p

. MINISTERIAL CONFERN

The Ministerial Conference Meeting of Southern Wisconsi River. on May 25th to 27th. the Ministerial Conference an Quarterly Meeting were held, sermons, a session of the Sabb communion service, and a med ciety of Christian Endeavor.

The weather, which was som ent, interfered, in a measure tendance, but there was an ev upon the part of many to Lord in the interests of sou glory of his kingdom.

There has been a commenda the part of some of the mem Church and College students t courage the brethren and sister Church, with apparent good ciety of Christian Endeavor ized, help has been furnished school, and a part of the time been filled. Why cannot mo interest themselves in like weaker churches and smaller going where there are no chi erings for religious services, people together for the stud prayer and religious conver this way be a means of grace enlarge their own souls? Th so small nor the laborers so many might not find opportu

ness in the Lord's vineyard. Owing to the fact that th time of holding the Gen brings the sessions of that be week in August that our Qu has met, we have postponed the last week in Septembe agreement with the Milton whom, according to the re next Quarterly Meeting wor to meet at Walworth. Our ters not cognizant of the ch take notice. The following is the pro next Ministerial Conference The subjects assigned to S. L. and R. Trewartha, which were of the programme for the recent Does the Bible teach the "Por An Exposition of the Scriptur Dives and Lazarus What day and what time of th over killed? and did Christ and Persover before the regular time Church Music: Our authority of religious worship; and what conditions to devotion?

A ye as a denomination

vely in the interest of the convention. meeting was to be held in the exnorthen part of the state, Mr. B. F. the Chairman of the Executive Comand W. B. Jacobs, the Statistical ary, conceived the project of running ay-school train over the Illinois Cenlroad, for the accommodation of delerom the southern part of the state. is purpose they chartered an engine. e-car, and five passenger coaches to a special train from Centralia through ckford, via Freeport. They sold some time in advance, through the of the County Secretaries, to delet the uniform price of $5 from Cario. ints north, to Rockford and return. one hundred and fifty delegates on nt trains met at Centralia early Tues. orning; among whom were Bro. B. F. rth and the writer. On the arrival of in from Cario, the delegates were met depot and escorted to the Opera where a bountiful breakfast was preby the citizens, free of cost. When ast was over, a half hour and more ent in singing and listening to spirited es of welcome, response, etc. Among sakers were two fine-looking men from his, Tennessee—one a judge, the other hant, who had left the bench and the o go to Rockford on this Sundaytrain, and to study the workings of inois State Association with a view to ganization of a similar association in see. Both spoke in the convention at ord, and the judge offered a tender uching prayer in the closing session, g the impression that he was a warmd Christian as well as a judge. Anlawyer, who was also a delegate, spoke reception in Centralia. Mr. William lds, of Peoria, in the employ of the ational Sunday-school Convention as anizer, and W. B. Jacobs, of Chicago. harge of the train at Centralia, and gh all the long day no railroad conwas seen calling for tickets. Along hole length of the five cars was hed a placard bearing the words, "Illitate Sunday school Convention, Rock-May 22d, 23d, 24th," in letters so that they could be read from a long ce. The train attracted much attenll along the road, by reason of this d on each side, and the singing of the reaching Mendota, about five o'clock P. e found a table set on the depot platsaid to be 200 feet long, and spread free lunch for the delegates. A sixth d been added to the train at some point road, and there were nearly 400 delelow on board. We reached Rockford 0 o'clock P. M., and here another notcessory appeared. A committee had on board at Freeport, and passed h the train, assigning and ticketing tes to homes in the city, where they be freely entertained during the Cona. Street cars, omnibuses and private es, and a reception committee were in at the depot, and each street car was ed by boys engaged to pilot the passentheir places of lodging.

n, at the close of the session of day afternoon, we found about one d carriages in waiting to give deleride through the city. "The drivers e carriages represented the wealth, ise and culture of the city. Bankers, nts, manufacturers and wealthy men ire sat on the boxes and handled the er the backs of their sleek spans or able-looking single steeds." So said ord paper the next morning. But so observed, these drivers sat in social ty to their passengers, so as to point places of interest and answer ques-The weather was fine and the drive elightful one, taking in the beautiful both sides of the river. rks on the Convention itself will be until next week.

"SABBATH DAY COLLECTIONS."

ormer article Matt. 19: 1-7 was showing that it was not so much k the priests did as the object which objectionable or legitimate. So se of time or money, it may be a ecular or a worshipful act. "Insaks for a command for collecting n the Sabbath, to which we reply, a command not to take a collection? y not in the words "Thou shalt ny work," for the whole teaching of Christ and his disciples show e work could be done lawfully of eth. But the thought is that work was with species worship and a due prohibited. It is seen that money or time or other things are of themselves no different on the Sabbath than on a week day, but their uses are different. 1 Cor. 16: 1,2 has no reference to a public collection on the day mentioned. It refers to a secular act. The brethren on First-day were to look over their accounts, and as God had given them increase they were to set aside, at home, the portion justly belonging to God, so that when Paul came there would be no "gatherings;" that is, no going over the field collecting up the funds, or accounting then, to find what nortion they could spare. There would be no time for it then. It was to be in readiness; and who shall say that on the Sabbath, if that were the day on which Paul met them, they could not hand it to him? Dr. Adam Clarke was quoted as showing a practice or custom of the Jews which received no rebuke from the Saviour. The sin of the Jews, then, was not in putting money in the contribution box on the Sabbath, but in their over-strictness, if it may be called thus, in refusing to do things lawful and necessary on that day.

Now we would not intentionally offend any man's conscience, and we are sure none will take offense if they look at this matter from a principle, and not from a "feeling." To the principle we turn: Paying tithes for religious work and making offerings were acts of worship. God's people carried this money to the temple. Their worship there included the paying of tithes. Here is the principle. So then, setting aside God's portion on the first or any other week day, we carry it to the temple, or God's house of worship on the Sabbath, and it being a reverent offering, or payment of just dues to God, we show our devotion to him and he accepts it as an act of worship every way in keeping with the sacredness of the day.

Such Sabbath-day offerings are aids to consecration, and bring us into active sympathy with the good work the money is intended to bring about. We think this is "Bible justification of the practice."

H. D. CLARKE.

MINISTERIAL CONFERENCE.

The Ministerial Conference and Quarterly | tronize the pool rooms still. Meeting of Southern Wisconsin met at Rock communion service, and a meeting of the Society of Christian Endeavor.

The weather, which was somewhat inclement, interfered, in a measure, with the atglory of his kingdom.

There has been a commendable effort upon the part of some of the members of Milton Church and College students to assist and encourage the brethren and sisters of Rock River Church, with apparent good results. A society of Christian Endeavor has been organized, help has been furnished in the Sabbathschool, and a part of the time the pulpit has been filled. Why cannot more of our laity interest themselves in like manner in our weaker churches and smaller societies, or in going where there are no churches or gathpeople together for the study of the Bible, prayer and religious conversation; and in enlarge their own souls? The field is neither 80 small nor the laborers so abundant that many might not find opportunity for usefulness in the Lord's vineyard.

Owing to the fact that the change in the time of holding the General Conference brings the sessions of that body on the same week in August that our Quarterly Meeting has met, we have postponed the latter until the last week in September. Also, by an agreement with the Milton Church, with whom, according to the regular order, the next Quarterly Meeting would be held, it is to meet at Walworth. Our brethren and sisters not cognizant of the change will please

The following is the programme for the next Ministerial Conference:

The subjects assigned to S. L. Maxson, J. Clarke, and R. Trewarths, which were announced as a part of the programme for the recent session, are contin-Does the Bible teach the "Post Millenial" coming

J. W. Morton

An Exposition of the Scripture Lesson concerning Dives and Lazarus. T. A. Saunders. What day and what time of the day was the pass over killed? and did Christ and his disciples eat the passover before the regular time? N. Wardner. Church Music: Our authority for it as an element of religious worship; and what kind of music is most conducive to devotion?

M. G. Stillman

Are we, as a denomination, called upon to do evangelical or Bible school work outside of our own

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular correspondent).

WASHINGTON, June 1, 1888. The talk at the Capital on Monday was Judge Thurman, of Ohio, and the Vice-Presidency. Some few members thought that the sudden prominence given to Mr. Thurman's name meant a cut-and-dried convention. In other words, that the President has said he would like Mr. Thurman on the ticket and that the convention would act accordingly. "The office of Vice-President would not confer any additional honor on him," said Representative Campbell, of Ohio, and it does seem that Mr. Thurman's latest famous remark that "all he cared for now was a seat in heaven," would prove that he had gone entirely out of politics.

All is not well with the tariff bill. It will have a hard time if it gets through, and will come out, if it comes at all, in a battered condition. Doubtless the Democrats of the House, however, are tolerably well satisfied with their work as it is. In its main features the bill seems to be an acceptable measure. Naturally amendments are desired to suit particular localities, but even if these do cause delay and controversy, or even if the bill does not pass at the present session, it cannot be denied that the revenue reformers have done more in the direction suggested by the President's message, than has been done in many years.

The latest bill introduced by Senator Blair, regulates the observance of the Sabbath [Sunday]. It prohibits any corporation or person from performing any duty on that day except works of necessity. It shall not be lawful for any person to receive pay for services rendered on that day; no mails shall be collected or transported except such letters as concern the life, health or peace of some one, and the Postmaster-General shall supply special deliveries for the same. He also proposes to amend the pool-selling bill, to extend its provisions so as to prevent betting of every kind in the whole District of Columbia. The present bill prohibits betting only in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, and of course the people have only to go across the city boundaries to pa

The Pension business is a perplexing one. River, on May 25th to 27th. One session of Senators are puzzled over the widow busithe Ministerial Conference and seven of the ness. Senator Cockwell, of Missouri, has Quarterly Meeting were held, embracing six been developing his mathematical faculty sermons, a session of the Sabbath school, the in discovering the curious fact that, while there are only 895 widows of the Mexican war veterans, there are 11,831 widows of veterans of the war of 1812. He says the farther we get from the war the more nutendance, but there was an evident purpose merous the widows become. At the rate upon the part of many to work with the the 1812 widows are increasing there will be Lord in the interests of souls and for the at least 20,000 of them by the end of the Washington has always been the political center of the country, but within the last fortnight it became the center religiously. We had all the Baptists in the country here (extravagantly speaking) for about ten days; then Dr. Bullock was made Moderator of the Southern Presbyterian Assembly; Dr. Leonard, of Washington, was elected a Bishop in the Episcopal Church; Dr. Newman, General Grant's former pastor here was made a Bishop in the Methodist Church, and the interests of the entire Catholic erings for religious services, and gather the church of the world were centered in the laying of the corner stone of the Divinity school of their new university here, on last this way be a means of grace to others, and Thursday. If any other city can show such a record let it blow its trumpet.

Jome Bewg.

New York.

FIRST ALFRED.

Among the pleasant things of our busy little Centre during the past week, was the University Band Concert, Wednesday evening, under the leadership of Mr. Elisha D. Clarke. The Band played beautifully, and the soloists, invited to assist in the entertainment, performed their parts admirably. Altogether it was a great success.

On Thursday evening Prof. Williams gave the last of a series of piano recitals at his rooms in the Ladies' Hall, which was well attended and most successfully carried out. This series of recitals has run through two or three years and has embraced something like 150 different numbers, mostly instrumental, and all from the very best composers in the world. The object in giving them has been to give something of an idea of what such compositions are, and to elevate the musical taste of the school and the community. A great deal of work has been put upon them, and not without maniation, and on Sunday, if necessary?

S. H. Babcock.

Iest good results. The Professor may well The 19th of May was observed as Chil- guns have been ordered to be delivered.

S. H. Babcock.

On Thursday evening, June 7th, Miss Jessie L. Brown, who graduates from the Musical Department this year, will give her graduation recital, at the rooms of Prof. Williams, in the Hall.

The Rev. James Marvin, D. D., LL.D., graduate of Alfred Academy in 1847, and some years later a teacher in the same in stitution, but for years past Chancellor of the Kansas University at Lawrence, has been spending a few days in town. On Sabbath, June 2d, he preached a most excellent sermon for Pastor Williams, and on Sunday he preached in the chapel to the students. Dr. Marvin will always get a good hearing whenever he speaks in Alfred.

The B. Frank Maxson Post of the G. A. R. have made announcements of a concert to be given by the veritable, original "Fisk Jubilee Singers," on the evening of June 16th next. Those who have ever heard these people sing will not need a second notice of this their proposed appearance in our town, and those who have never yet heard them will certainly not want to let this opportunity slip. Anticipating a rush for tickets, the boys have already made arrangements by which tickets can be secured and seats located, at the Post-office, after Thursday noon (7th inst.), with no extra charge for reserved seats.

CUYLER HILL.

During the long, severe winter, no meetings were held in this church, but since spring has opened we are holding meetings once in two weeks. Last Sabbath, though a rainy day, an unusually large number were present, and arrangements were made to represent the church by letter and delegates at the coming Association. L. R. S.

DE RUYTER.

Decoration Day was more generally observed here than for many years. The address was delivered by Rev. Perie R. Burdick, and was an honor to the speaker and the occasion. In the evening the W. C. T. U. invited all to the new reading-rooms in the Jones' Block, where refreshments were served, with music by the orchestra and band, for itself already in its conservative, if not in | bureau has any record. its aggressive, influence.

In making up our church reports for the coming Association, one feature is very prominent, that death has invaded our ranks and taken away so many of the mothers. At least four homes have been thus saddened the past year, in our own church, and many more in the community. During twelve days we were called upon to preach six funeral sermons, and this, with no prevailing disease. May God bless these sad scenes to the good of the > Minnesota. DODGE CENTRE.

Nothing from this place has appeared in the Home News column for some time. We are still alive. The winter was unusually long, and some days were severe. The regular Sabbath services were well sustained. Occasionally the congregation was small by reason of the drifting snow. All kept comfortable, with no serious results to man or beast in these parts. A good share of social pleasure was enjoyed. "It is pleasant for a society to be at peace among themselves, and mingle together for the encouragement and good cheer of all. Birthday, Wedding, anniversary, and pastoral-donation surprises; Sabbath-school, temperance and missionary entertainments, supplemented by pleasant little socials to replenish treasuries in church departments, have all had their place.

The snow left us and we soon had good roads, but the frequent rains for the past five weeks have made the mud deep. This and the fear of diphtheria have made the congregations small on several Sabbaths.

Children's Day is to occur next Sabbath, June 2d, it having been adjourned because of the death of a member of the Sabbath

The rain still continues, keeping the ground wet and delaying the seeding, until the farmers are feeling serious about the results. Last year was dry, and the chinch bugs did much damage. There was a fear that this year they would ruin the crops. But that danger is past. The rains have settled the question against the bugs. We have great reason to rejoice that God, the Great Ruler, is our Father. " Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase: and God. even our own God, shall bless us." Pea. 67: 5. 6. MAY 80, 1888.

Idaho.

TANKY.

S. H. Barcock, Secretary. feel gratified at what has been accomplished. dren's Day by our little church. The school- fortily Cracow and Przemysl.

house, where we meet, was made beautiful by an abundance of wild flowers, evergreens. and cultivated flowers and plants. We met an hour earlier in the morning for Sabbathschool; after which, we went to the water, where five of our young people showed their loyalty to the Lord Jesus Christ, by taking upon themselves his name in the beautiful ordinance of baptism.

In the afternoon, at four o'clock, we met for a praise service, which was largely participated in by the young people of our ner. society. We could all enter into the spirit of thanksgiving because of what God has done for us in giving to us our young people to work with us for the advancement of his kingdom in the earth.

Our meeting-house stands as it has for some months, ready for the roof. We hope the busy season will soon be past, so that we can complete it.

We have received considerable, aid from the Missionary Society and from churches, which I think has never been publicly acknowledged. We received $40 from the Missionary Society, $13 50 from Milton and Milton Junction Churches in a joint collection, $10 from Dea. Philip Burdick, of Clifford, Penn., and $8 50 from individuals in First Alfred Church. For all these gifts we are grateful, and I think it will enable us, with what we can do for ourselves, to make a pleasant and comfortable hewed-log building, 20x30 feet, which is large enough for our present necessities.

Condensed Aews.

Domestic.

The average salary of the Methodist minsters in Vermont is about $600 a year.

Immigration so far this year is largely in excess of that of last year in the same time. Mr. Moody has held very successful meetings in Denver, Leadville and other places west of the Mississippi.

The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, is about to open a Seaside Home at Atlantic Highlands.

The month of May, just closed, has been Surely the temperance reading-room has paid | the rainiest May of which the government

It is semi-officially denied that Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, has referred the works of Henry George to the congregation of the holy office. The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly, at Baltimore, has adopted the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, in relation to organic union with the Northern Dr. A. L. Chapin, the venerable ex President of Beloit College. Wis., and one of the best known educators in the country. was stricken with paralysis May 31st, and lies in a critical condition. The farm-house in which General Grant was born, has been floated down the river from Point Pleasant, Ohio, on a raft, and has been hauled up to Race and Canal streets. Cincinnati, where it is to be placed on exhi bition under canvas. A water-spout, which struck Beaufort, N C. June 1st. capsized several small craft and fishing schooners. Fences and trees were torn down, the spire of the M. E. church was damaged and the end of a store torn off. No loss of life has been reported. At Chicago preparations have been completed for the "Carnival of Nations," which opens in the "Exposition building" June 4th. It promises to be one of the most elaborate affairs of the kind ever seen in the West. Booths presenting characteristic scenes from every country will fill the great

On May 26th a bar of silver bullion valued at $10,000 was stolen from a Wells Fargo truck at Daggets Depot, Cal., where it was carelessly left with several others for two hours. Tuesday night, May 29th, George W. Rice, a mining engineer, was arrested at Barstow, and the bullion, which weighed over 100 pounds, was found in his valise.

Foreign.

The county and city of Dublin have been proclaimed under the first section of the

of his recovery.

The steamer Isham left Sidney, N. S. W recently for Hong Kong, taking back 105 Chinamen who were not allowed to land.

The French syndicate, organized to take the new Russian loan, has abandoned the project on the news of Germany's tariff re-

A London telegram says that Lord James Douglas, a brother of the Marquis of Queensberry, has been sent to jail for annoying Miss Scott, an heiress, with his attentions.

All Jews excepting merchants of the first guild, have been ordered to quit Moscow within two weeks. Over 200 expelled Jews have passed through Cracow en route to

The Emperor of Germany and the Emperor of Brazil, two men whom the world respects, and in whose illness the world feels sympathetic interest, are both better. It is hoped, though without much basis in either case, that the improvement will be permanent.

A cablegram has been received by H. H. Warner, of Rochester, from H. Moster, Paris, saying that he has been awarded the grand medal of the Paris salon for his painting, "The White Captive," one of the three $25,000 paintings of American Indian life he was commissioned to paint by Mri War-

A special from Rome to the Daily News says. "The number of cardinals opposed to the papal rescript was larger than had been expected. The majority on the other side is doing its utmost to diminish the importance of the Irish demonstrations against the rescript.

The Rome correspondent of the News says: The Irish clergy will shortly receive orders from the episcopacy to make every effort to attenuate the bad impression produced by the rescript. Its purely religious character will be emphasized, and all political intention disclaimed.

June 1st, off Thunder Cape, Manitoba, Lake Superior, the schooner Maggie Mc-Crea was sunk by running into a heavy field of ice. She left Port Arthur on Wednesday night, May 27th, for Kingston, wheat laden. with the steam barge Bruno. The crew escaped to the Bruno. The vessel was valued at $10,000, cargo at $20,000.

Books and Magazines.

THE approaching "heated term" renders an ar ticle on "Summer Indigestion and Diarrheea," in the current number of Babyhood particularly season able. Of equal interest will be found an article on "Domestic Remedies." A novel feature is "The Father's Parliament," a department opened for the purpose of enabling the mothers' husbands to express their opinions and air their grievances on a great variety of subjects. Other interesting topics, discussed under "Nursery Problems," are, "Care of an Excitable and Nervous Child," "Help in Delayed Teething," "The Cause of Bow Legs," " Sea Bathing for Young Children," etc. 15 cents a num ber; $1 50 a year. Babyhood Publishing Co., 5 Beekman Street, New York.

THE fellowing is a list of the topics treated in the Forum for June." "The next American University," A. D. White; "What Negro Supremacy Means," Wade Hampton; "Poverty, Sympathy and Economics," W. H. Mallock; "Revolutionizing the Revenue System," Judge W. D. Kelley; "Changes of Level of the Great Lakes," G. K. Gilbert; edies for Railway Troubles," A. T. Hadley: "The Haste to be Rich." Howard Crosby; "A Universal Language," Prof. F. A. March; "What shall the Public Schoo's Teach?" Bishop R. Gilmouf; "Men, Women and Money," Julia Ward Howe; "Government Regulation of Railways," J. F. Wilson. The Forum Publishing Co., 253, Fifth Ave.,

THE leading article with frontispiece, in the Century for June, is "Plains and Prisons of Western Siberia." illustrated. The article gives some touching pictures of the sufferings of those who, for political opinioss, are forced into perpetual exile. The reader will be glad to know that the system is now virtually abolished. The number is unusually rich in story, poetry, history, science, etc. Topics of the Time, Open Letters, and Bric's brac combine to give a valuable and interesting number. The Century Co., 33 East 17th Street, New York.

Good Health is a monthly journal of hygiene, devoted to physical, mental and moral culture. Published by Good Health Publishing Company, Battle Creek, Mich. The June number, now before us. is an interesting and instructive number.

ROMAN CATHOLIC INTOLERANCE.

The relentless determination of the Romish Church to force her own people to support her parochial schools received illustration lately in the immediate vicinity of Philadelphia. In St. Agnes Roman Catholic Church, Westchester, the Rev. Father Spaulding announced from the altar that William S. Bowen and Philip Maguire would hereafter be forbidden a seat in the church and that they would be refused the sacraments, living or dead. This action on the part of the priest was caused by the two gentlemen named refusing to send their children to the parochial school. Mr. Maguire sends his son to the State, Normal School here, and Mr. Bowen's son attends the public High School. Father Spaulding some weeks ago told Mr. Maguire and Mr. Bowen that this action would be taken if they did A London dispatch says that Mr. Bright not take their children from the public is slightly better. His doctors are confident schools and send them to the parochial school. The parents refused and wrote to Archbishop Ryan, asking if Father Spaulding had this power. The archbishop wrote back that the head of the church there could do as he thought proper. Both the gentlemen stand well in the community. Mr. Bowen is assistant manager of the West Chester Gas Company, and Mr. Maguire is one of the editors of the Daily News. The programme of the Jesuits is very plain. They exclaim against a "godle" education; " to give more color to the charge they join hands with infidels in driving the Bible out of public schools; then they found parochial schools, and compel their people to support and attend them; then they demand a share of the public money for the support of these schools, which are not pub. lic schools at all but engines for advancing The Austrian Government has adopted the interests of the papacy. These are well the automatic Maxim gun, which is consid- planned successive steps towards the subjuered the finest in existence. Thirty of the gation of the United States under the Roman sist them in season. - Christian Statesman.

Miscellany.

THE LITTLE DAIRY MAID.

Bright little Betty, Blithesome and pretty, Lightly she trips thro' the sweet scented clover. Rosy cheeks, ruby lips -Dainty shaped finger tips.

Sweet little mouth as one e'er could discover.

Lithely she skips along, Trilling her carol song, Calling the kine from the mead o'er the water; Loving and dutiful. Modest and beautiful, She is a dairy-man's little daughter.

Trim little dairy-maid. Mother's own merry maid, Scarcely she knows she is winsome and pretty; Who would not be as she,

Willingly, cheerily, Loving and helping all—sweet little Betty? -Robert Ogden Fowler, in Our Little Once

HOW JOHNNIE BROWN PAID THE TAX.

The Browns were rather poor. They lived in their own small house, but you will guess that it was not much of a place when I tell you that the tax on it was just two dol- | ion.

Widow Brown lived by washing for her richer neighbors, and supported her two children, Johnnie and Daisy.

Last year Johnnie, being past ten years old, and a strong boy, undertook to pay the

about the middle of December.

on the high shelf of the cupboard.

He had, moreover, a job on hand that was a great pile of bricks to be moved over, and spinster sisters, in whose bosoms a mild mis-Johnnie was moving them in his own little sionary sentiment had replaced more youthwooden cart.

in the mornings before school hours, and and wagon for their Sabbath-day's journey, after school was out at night, his wooden and the district committee allowed the wheels creak, creaking under their load, the school to meet in the school-house, with the pile of bricks steadily growing smaller on frugal stipulation that the deacon should one side of the road and larger on the other, furnish firewood. The children did not reand the pile of nickels and pennies as stead- spond very readily to the advances of the ily increasing.

stay at home and take care of little Daisy. of doing a great many things else. So he had but four working days in each ways a hole in them, and Johnnie's ardor reference to that school at the corner. began to cool, and he cuddled down under | The deacon's enthusiasm and perseverance the blankets for "one more little snooze" so were rewarded, and the number of scholars about the tax-money being ready in time.

would allow him to stay out, and went in re- to buy more lesson papers; he had longings solving to be up and at it early next morning; after a supply of hymn-books; and deep in and the next morning his ardor was as cool his heart was an untold vision of a melodeon. as the weather, and he couldn't seem to get | His wants were greater than his meagre it rekindled till the sun was well up.

the minute I wake? Ma, I wish you would | Squire Silas. make me," he often said.

And the little wise mother as often replied, "You'll never be a man unless you make yourself do the right things, my himself with many a chuckle, moderating Johnnie! I'm not going to pull you out of any undue elation over his masterly manipbed mornings, and you past ten, and you the ulation of poor, gullible human nature by only man about the house!"

And then Johnnie would beat his knees with his fists, and say, "I will! I will get which he worked on Silas, the hours that but after that he fell back into the old way persistent invitation to visit it, the class again. And the days went by steadily, and which the Squire took for one Sabbath, and the money wasn't accumulating fast enough. then for another, until he was finally enlist- and seemed to grow plainer at every step. administrative council of the Penitentiary Johnnie," his mother said one evening. "I all these steps. Enough to say that the the face of the reclining figure grew more structions from the Czar's official advisers, shall have to save a quarter or so to make it descon was successful; Silas did grow gen-

man about the house."

tax day?" he asked.

six! I didn't think it was quite so near. Why won't you let me stay out longer nights, you must be in the house."

Johnnie went to bed that night in rather low spirits. He feared his best efforts would ing in his turn. He easily persuaded the prayer-meeting of the communicants. The ers are to be confined hereafter in fortresses that any improvement in a person's condinot now make up for those lost morning deacon that the school ought to have a rec- minister reads an appropriate selection of the store. He found cap and mittens, and talked about." crept softly out.

He was half-dressed before he discovered

little cart creaking behind him, and fell to followed out the suggestion, and requested church know that I called you a Judas. work so vigorously that he was soon warm the church to assume oversight of his school, Perhaps I had reason to say it, perhaps I enough.

tiers of bricks that night, his eyes twinkled Hardstone was the man appointed. The forgiveness for them. If you have wronged as he picked out the nickels from his purse, deacon's astonishment was unspeakable; but me, I ought not to pass judgment upon it; I and he said, "I guess you didn't lie abed this his wrath when Silas, after a humble ex- need mercy from the Great Judge too much morning, sonny?"

And Johnnie, laughing, answered, "No sir!" and ran home and dropped his money into the pewter pitcher with a triumphant

Six mornings saw Johnnie at work "terrible early" as he had said, and the evening troubled church officers tried to calm the I need not describe the scene that followed. before tax-day he poured out and counted his earnings, and they amounted to two dol- felt that he had been betrayed with a kiss, not resist such an appeal in such a place and

The next day he went and paid his taxes like a man. He brought the receipt and laid it in his mother's lap, and he knew, by the glow on her cheek and the light in her eye, that she was pleased and proud, though she only said, "You'll make a man, Johnnie!"-Joy Allison, in Youth's Compan-

THE FEET OF JUDAS.

BY WILLIAM BANCROFT.

There was serious trouble in the church at Sparta, and Dea. Sankey and Squire Silas The bill came in November, and was due | Hardstone were the cause of it. The deacon was poor, the squire was rich; the deacon Johnnie had been saving every penny he was zealous, the squire was conservative; could earn, and had already eighty-seven the deacon was hasty of speech, the squire cents put away in a tiny old pewter pitcher was quick to take offense and slow to forgive. So trouble might be expected.

It came in this way: Over in Heathen likely to last long enough to make up the Corner-for Sparta, like most country spirit of strife cropped out so plainly in rewhole sum. Deacon DeWitt's old storehouse | places, has its heathen corner—the deacon had been pulled down, and was to be rebuilt started a Sabbath-school. It seemed rather on the opposite side of the road, and there was a forlorn enterprise at first. Two or three ful emotions, volunteered as teachers; an Back and forth, back and forth, he went obliging neighbor gave the use of his horse deacon and his allies; but a few came from that he dwelt upon the scenes before the There were two mornings in each week curiosity, a few because they could do noththat Johnnie could not work; the days that | ing else, and a few, as the spinsters found his mother was away at her washing he must to their sorrow, because they were capable Among other things, he said, "Christ first exiles to Siberia were dissenters from many-sided science of theology which some

Rather a forlorn enterprise it seemed to every one but the deacon. His heart was in The mornings grew shorter and colder. it; and to him it ranked among the great mber came in, and the air was frosty to evangelical movements of the century. He Johnnie's nose when he put it out at the read his missionary journal with new relish, door before the sun was up, and the bricks because every allusion to the needs of our were frosty to his fingers, and they wore out country or to the dangers from ignorance his mittens so fast that there was nearly al- and godlessness seemed penned with special

many mornings that it began to be doubtful | increased. Then, naturally enough, for it is the experience of all mission workers, he Every night he worked as late as his mother | began to feel the need of funds. He wanted purse, so he looked about among his richer "What shall I do to make myself get up brethren for aid, and his gaze fell upon

Shrewd was too mild a term, so the deacon fancied, to express his advances upon the 'Squire. "Wise as a serpent," he quoted to however much he tried,—the picture of a of punishment, which has deservedly adding, apologetically, "and harmless as a I need not describe the way in dove." were spent in consulting him upon various And perhaps the next morning he would, matters pertaining to the school, the gently "I guess you won't manage to get it all, ed as a regular teacher. You understand And the most awful thing about it was that Department, acting in compliance with in-

Then arose the trouble. No man can serve "How many days are there left before two masters; no school can have two heads. And the question was whether Silas or the "Only six that you can work," replied his | deacon should be the controlling power. It certainly seemed as if the descon had all the "Only six!" repeated Johnnie. "Only rights of the case. The school was his by discovery, or invention, or first possession, or accretion, or any other legal title you may fancy. But, doubtless, Silas was honest in "You do stay out about as long as you his belief that the welfare of the school de can see. I don't think it is best for you to manded a change, and that he himself was be out after dark. You may get up in the the proper man to be its superintendent. It morning as early as you choose, but evenings is exceedingly easy to see the hand of duty tions for church. At Sparta they have an pointing straight to the path of inclination. Silas accordingly began to do some schemognized position in the church, and regular Scripture, but makes few or no remarks. He waked up very early next morning, and aid from the church funds. "The best and the time is taken up with prayer. jumped out of bed without a minute's delay. thing you can do, Dea. Sankey," said he, From this service one goes with peculiarly "is to ask the church to take charge of the tender feelings to the communion. that it was not daylight that shone in at his school, enroll the scholars among their own, little window up under the roof, but the and appoint a superintendent for it. Of than usual at this prayer-meeting; in fact, it has long been recognized by Russian officials from sin, and of the Holy Spirit as a sanctilight of the old moon just rising in the east. | course they will appoint you, and the work | seemed as if all the church was present. "I don't care! Ma says I may get up as will go on just as at present. But this will But when the pastor had ended his Scripture early as I choose, and if I get those two put things on a permanent basis, and give us lesson, there was utter silence. No one rose light," he muttered between his chattering very slight hint about a needed change in trembled a little, "I cannot go to the Lord's trary arrests and perpetual banishments, and teeth, but I guess I can see to move the school, or what he could do if he were table until I have said to you what is in my the Czar and his advisers probably appre. superintendent, would be seed in fertile heart. All the church know that we have ciate the advantages which they will derive He ran around the DeWitt corner with his soil. Certain it is, that when the deacon quarrelled, and why we did so. All the from stopping outcries against inhuman and to appoint a superintendent, his request hadn't; God knows. But I feel that I had When the deacon came and counted the was promptly complied with, but Squire no right to speak such words, and I ask your reaching this important decision. The final pression of unworthiness, accepted the office, myself. If you have not wronged me, I have was by no means unspoken. The outburst, wronged you by thinking and saying so. I so I have been told, was terrific. The want to bury all the past to-day, if you will deacon saw how he had been duped, and he help me. I have acted wrong, and I can't told Silas what he thought of it and of him ask God's forgiveness until I have asked in words which were like thunderbolts. The yours." storm, but it was impossible. The descon Silas might be slow to forgive, but he could Hardstone," he said, as they parted, "your was followed by the rest. A good Methodist name ought to be Judas Iscariot."

> gregation sided with Silas, some with the ly what it was." deacon. The old teachers left the mission school when the new superintendent began his work there, and Silas' friends retaliated by ignoring the contribution-box, in church, whenever the deacon passed it. It was said that some even refused the sacrament, because the deacon was allowed to distribute the bread and wine. I trust that is an exaggeration, but certainly the feeling of bitterness made many of them most unworthy communicants. The church prayer-meetings suffered most of all. Sparta had always found them delightful, with a large attendance, a ready participation, and a devotional spirit which impressed every one. But now many staid away entirely, and those who came went home unprofited. The marks and prayers and everywhere, that the Spirit of God was forgotten.

So matters stood all through the winter, and when the time for the May communion came around, it looked as if the church at Sparta was on the point of dissolution. The pastor had tried every means to bring about harmony between the rival factions, but it seemed as far away as at the beginning, and his heart was heavy. In his preparatory lecture before that communion service, it happened,—if happen is the right word to use in speaking of God's arrangements,-Last Supper, and especially upon the Saviour's rebuke of the disciples' strife. the wickedest and meanest criminals. The washed the feet of Judas! Did you ever the Orthodox Russian Church, who formed people wisely (?) affirm is no longer needed. think of that? He knew the dark purpose hidden in Judas' heart, he knew the bargain with the priests, he knew all the ingratitude the eighteenth centuries. They were not and treachery of the man who had followed deprived of liberty or political privileges, him in close companionship through Galilee | but were allowed to live where they pleased and Judea; yet, with all this knowledge, he and to choose their own callings. The sucstooped and silently washed the traitor's feet. Think of that, beloved, and see what it means for each one of you, if you are trying to imitate your Lord.

Late that night, as the deacon lay sleepless in bed, he turned to his wife and said. "Mary, what does it mean?"

"What does what mean?"

shortly, and turned away.

"That washing of Judas' feet." "I think it means," she answered quietly,

'that you should apologize to Silas Hard-"No it don't either," said the deacon, nor enjoy his work the next day. A picture Nothing in modern annals has been more haunted him, and he could not banish it, arbitrary and cruel than this hideous system person lying upon a couch beside a supper brought lasting reproach upon the Russian table, and another, girded with a towel, name. Alexander the Liberator, while he bending behind him washing his feet. The enfranchised the serfs and introduced a face of the first is visible, and the expression | great series of reforms, did nothing to preupon it is a horrible study of blended sur- vent the exportation of suspects to Siberia. prise, uneasiness and hate; the face of the Twenty-five years have passed and this abother is turned away, but a halo seems to horrent penal system is now virtually abansurround it, and you know instinctively its | doned. expression is of heaven and not of earth. The impulse required for accomplishing This picture followed the deacon everywhere, this reform has come from the throne. The and more like his own, while a voice kept has adopted a series of recommendations for sounding in his ears, "If I, then, your Lord the abolition of transportation to Siberia.

That night, long after his wife thought known that the movement in favor of abolihe was asleep, he broke the silence with the tion has received the hearty approval of the question, "Mary?" "Do you suppose it would do any good if went to Silas, and, you know, washed his

"It would do you good at any rate." That was all that was said.

Sabbath morning came, and the deacon was unusually silent all through his preparaold custom of meeting in the lecture-room an hour before the communion service for a

This morning there were more persons

"The old moon doesn't give a very big the church officials, I do not know; but a . "Silas Hardstone," said he, and his voice and abroad, is directed mainly against arbi wounded in the house of a friend. "Silas hour. And the example of the two leaders brother met me the next day, and said, "I So there was trouble in the church at hear you had a love-feast up to your church, Sparta, serious trouble. Some of the con- yesterday;" and I replied, "That was exact-

And the deacon, when he told me the whole story of his inward struggles, ended, "I set out that morning to wash the feet of Judas, but I'm sure they were the feet of Simon Peter, after all."—Golden Rule.

NOT MY WAY.

Thy way, not mine. O Lord. However dark it be; Lead me by thine own hand. Choose out the path for me.

Smooth let it be, or rough, It will be still the best: Winding or straight it matters not, It leads me to thy rest.

I dare not choose my lot; I would not if I might. Choose thou for me, my Lord, So shall I walk aright.

SIBERIAN EXILE ABOLISHED.

Reforms in Russia are accomplished with out agitation after long periods of inaction and torpor. The announcement of the speedy abolition of exile to Siberia has the effect of a startling surprise. For two hundred years political prisoners have been banished by the thousand to work in the mines of the Ural, Stanovoi and Altai mountains with populous and prosperous settlements there during the seventeenth and the early part of cess of these colonists in developing the mineral and agricultural resources of the country led to the importation of a great host of political dissenters who were either classed with criminals and condemned to labor in coal and salt pits or in gold, silver. copper and iron mines, or else were drafted as recruits for the Siberian army of convictguards. Three-fourths of the population to-day are Russian exiles and their desendants. Half a million of these political suspects have been banished beyond the Ural Mountains since the present century opened, the majority of them doomed to lives of pri-The deacon did not sleep well that night, vation and suffering and to premature death.

-Bonar.

And Johnnie felt rather than heard in the ly began to give his time liberally, and his and Master, have washed your feet, ye also While some objections have been raised by ought to wash one another's feet." The the Minister of Finance and the decrees ought to wash one another's feet." The the Minister of Finance and the decrees have not been officially proclaimed, it is Czar, and consequently that the delay in proclaiming the new policy will be only momentary. The Island of Saghalien is to be designated as a small penal settlement for criminals not political prisoners but with this exception there will be no further ing work of Russian reform are probably of these leave him without any knowledge of a mixed character. Siberian transportation God as his Father, of Christ as his Saviour to be a most improvident and unsatisfactory fying power, how much more is his life method of disposing of prisoners, and has really worth when weighed in the eternal been condemned on economic grounds. The dollars ready I've got to get up terrible early I all more confidence in the continuance of the I'm going to work if it only moonlight," school, if anything should happen to you, he said.

The clock struck five as he came down into the kitchen and felt for his boots behind the money for that melodeon we have the continuance of the tooffer prayer, for all felt that the church projected Siberian railway across Asia to the projected Siberian railway across Asia to the projected Siberian railway across Asia to the gospel should be philanthropic. By all some clock struck five as he came down in the continuance of the two offer prayer, for all felt that the church projected Siberian railway across Asia to the quarrel made the celebration of the Lord's Pacific Ocean promises to attract large gospel should be philanthropic. By all means let us have more homes for the sick, and lips were dosed. Suddenly the deacon against the country as the abode of the landary and derivative talked about."

Way across the room to where Squire Hard- guishing and despairing exile be overcome. Lord Jesus Christ as the chief corner-stone.

Whether Siles likewise said anything to stone was sitting.

Oriticism against the Autogracy, at home —Congregationalist.

methods of punishing political prisoners in the Siberian mines. These and many other considerations have influenced them in result is a great gain for civilization. Hor. rible as will be the fate of suspects and crim. inals condemned to long terms of confine. ment in the filthy, overcrowded and mismanaged prisons of Russia, the abolition of Siberia exile will be an earnest of a better day to come, when the whole penal system with its manifold abuses can be reformed from the bottom.—Tribune.

DOCTRINAL PREACHING.

It is often proclaimed in these days that doctrinal preaching is a thing of the past. Sometimes this is said in accents of congratulation, at other times with a sigh of condo. lence. The truth or falsity of this frequently repeated statement depends upon what is meant by doctrinal preaching. If by this phrase is meant such dreary disquisitions as the schoolmen frequently indulged in or the metaphysical discussions which were more in vogue a century ago than they are today, discussions in which the theoretical side of the question was wholly dwelt upon. and its bearings upon every-day life ignored if this was doctrinal preaching, let us thank God that doctrinal preaching has had its day and been discarded. But if by doctrinal preaching is meant the thorough discussion and practical enforcement of theology, the science of God, then we do not believe that doctrinal preaching is waning or ever will wane while there is a Christian pulpit or a Christian preacher in the land. There was never a sermon made worth listening to that was not in this sense a doctrinal sermon. When we consider the points of contact between the science of God and the every-day life of man, we see what a wonderfully many. sided science theology is. It shows the day laborer how to work in the fields. It shows the philosopher how to work in his study, It teaches the child how to obey its parents. It teaches the aged disciple how to fall asleep in the arms of Jesus. It tells a man how to conduct himself behind the counter of his store. It teaches him how to conduct himself before the judgment bar of God. Yet all these truths are the enforcement of some one of the doctrines of the No, there is no danger that doctrinal preaching will cease while men have hopes and aspirations and longings that are satisfied only by the science of God.—Golden Rule.

A PLEA FOR FATHER.

Let every wife and mother fully understand that the road along which the man of business travels is not a macadamized one, nor does it ordinarily lead through pleasant scenes and by well-springs of delight. On the contrary, it is a rough and rugged path, beset with "wait-a-bits" thorns, and full of pitfalls, which can only be avoided by the watchful care of circumspection. After every day's journey over this worse than rough turnpike road the wayfarer needs something more than rest; he requires solace and deserves it. He is weary of the dull prose of life and athirst for the poetry. Happy is the husband who can find that solace and that poetry at home. Warm greetings from loving hearts, fond glances from bright eyes, the welcome shouts of children, the many thousand little arrangements for our comfort and enjoyment, that silently tell of thoughtful and expectant love, the gentle ministrations that disencumber us into an old easy seat before we are aware of it: these and like tokens of affection and sympathy constitute the poetry which reconciles us to the prose of life. Think of this, ye wives and daughters of business-men! Think of the toils, the anxieties, the mortifications and wear that fathers undergo to secure for you comfort able homes, and then compensate them for their trials by making them happy by their own firesides.

IMPROVEMENT IN CHARACTER.

Probably there never was a time when more attention was paid to improving the physical condition and surroundings of men and women than the present. Healthful agitation of the subject has obtained for the banishments to Siberia. Communes are to working people and for the middle classes of be deprived of the privilege of issuing de-society, which, after all, constitute its very crees of perpetual exile, and the costly bone and sinew, better wages, more comsystem of transporting prisoners to the fortable houses, larger opportunities for mines and guarding them there is to be reading, amusement and self-culture. But abandoned. Oriminals and political prison. Christians should keep constantly in mind and penal institutions, and not to be tion which leaves his character untouched sentenced to Siberia to drag out there the amounts to very little. It is something for remnant of their degraded and baffled lives. | a man to be well clad, well fed and well paid The motives which have led to this crown- for the honest labor of hand or brain; but if balances? Philanthropy is not the gospel

Where love has been, but is not h There is no sadness in the world, No other like it here or there— The sadness of deserted homes In nests, or hearts, or anywhere. THOUGHTS FOR THE THOUGH

The good St. Francis of Assisi of

DESERTED HOMES.

dreary, weary bough that hung

As boughs will hang within whose

No mated bird has ever sung;

Where joy has been, but is not now

Far rather than to see and touch The sadness of an empty nest down into the cloisters of his mon laying his hand on the shoulder monk said, "Brother, let us go the town and preach." So they the venerable father and the v And they walked along upon their versing as they went. They w way down the principle streets, lowly alleys and lanes and even t skirts of the town, and to the vill till they found themselves back nastery again. Then said the ye "Father, when shall we begin to And the father looked kindly his son and said, "My child, we preaching; we were preaching wh walking. We have been seen our behavior has been remarked have delivered a morning sermon son, it is of no use that we walk preach unless we preach as we w ton Hood.

A QUILTY CONSCIBNO

Late one night Dr. Elliott, moned to visit a sick person in ing parish, went for his horse which was at some distance f sonage. Just as he was about heard some one coming out, a diately concealed himself be bush in the lane, hiding his la his cloak. Presently the wid swung open and a man appearunder an immense load of ha gether by scrope. Through rope he had thrust his arms, an the huge mass like a peddler's doctor suffered this theiring him. Taking the candle from he crept slowly forward and se hay, then again concealed h moment the moving haycock crackling blaze, and the thi cries, was frantically flinging head and back. He succeed ting himself without help, and though pursued by fiends, ov films. Some months after this __ doctor's study a pale, this looking man, who, after much tation, expressed a desire to m sion of sin. With a serious ar manner, yet with, I suspect, in his eye, the minister set his "I've had a dreadful load science, doctor, for a consider it does seem as if 'twould nearly dead now." "Ah! is it possible? What done? You are a respectab church member." replied t seeming eurprise. "Yes; I jined the church ago," said the old farmer, th voice to an awesome, confide continued. "But I'm a dread all that, doctor; and bein' a c my sin, you see, was of too m be winked at, and judgment after it. O. dear. 01?

"Pray, tell me your troubl "Well, doctor, it concerns "Indeed!"

"Yes. One time last wint short of fodder, and I though how you had more'n enough it and so one night the devil ter over to your barn, and to "And to help yourself to surplus hay, eh?" Yes, doctor, jes so! B home with that ere hay. The let me do it. I had a los and was carryin' it away, wh it burst into a blaze about m "Struck by lightning?"

"No, doctor, it was a cle just made up my mind the down from heaven and kindle Twas a judgment and a w afeared a sort of forerunner hell; I haint had no peace of felt like eatin' a good meal ast I thought I might feel a I'd jest own up to you, an' a an' your prayers." To the astonishment of th the minister laughed out Then he said, "Be comfo your little thieving operation such consequence to Heaven was I who caught you at it, the hay from my lantern, you yelled lustily and ran br of your years. Why didn't wanted hay? Now go hom well, and steal no more."

"You, doctor, be you say fire to that 'ere bundle of he Yes, quite sure; that wa bonfire. I hope it didn't so noticed when you came hext Sunday that your singed. As for the flames o that your own lookout broad, is directed mainly against arbiarrests and perpetual banishments, and sar and his advisers probably apprehe advantages which they will derive stopping outories against inhuman ds of punishing political prisoners in berian mines. These and many other erations have influenced them in ng this important decision. The final is a great gain for civilization. Hors will be the fate of suspects and crim. condemned to long terms of confine. in the filthy, overcrowded and misged prisons of Russia, the abolition of a exile will be an earnest of a better come, when the whole penal system ts manifold abuses can be reformed the bottom.—Tribune.

DOCTRINAL PREACHING.

s often proclaimed in these days that nal preaching is a thing of the past. times this is said in accents of congratuat other times with a sigh of condo-The truth or falsity of this frequently ed statement depends upon what is by doctrinal preaching. If by this s is meant such dreary disquisitions as hoolmen frequently indulged in or the hysical discussions which were more gue a century ago than they are toliscussions in which the theoretical side e question was wholly dwelt upon. s bearings upon every-day life ignored. was doctrinal preaching, let us thank hat doctrinal preaching has had its nd been discarded. But if by doctrinal ning is meant the thorough discussion ractical enforcement of theology, the e of God, then we do not believe that nal preaching is waning or ever will while there is a Christian pulpit or a tian preacher in the land. There was a sermon made worth listening to that ot in this sense a doctrinal sermon. we consider the points of contact bethe science of God and the every-day man, we see what a wonderfully manyscience theology is. It shows the day r how to work in the fields. It shows illosopher how to work in his study. ches the child how to obey its parents. aches the aged disciple how to fall in the arms of Jesus. It tells a man o conduct himself behind the counter store. It teaches him how to conhimself before the judgment bar of Yet all these truths are the enforceof some one of the doctrines of the sided science of theology which some wisely (?) affirm is no longer needed.

A PLBA FOR FATHER.

science of God.—Golden Rule.

here is no danger that doctrinal preach-ill cease while men have hopes and as-

ons and longings that are satisfied only every wife and mother fully underthat the road along which the man of ess travels is not a macadamized one. es it ordinarily lead through pleasant and by well-springs of delight. On ntrary, it is a rough and rugged path, with "wait-a bits" thorns, and full of which can only be avoided by the ful care of circumspection. After day's journey over this worse than turnpike road the wayfarer needs hing more than rest; he requires solace leserves it. He is weary of the dull of life and athirst for the poetry. y is the husband who can find that and that poetry at home. Warm ngs from loving hearts, fond glances bright eyes, the welcome shouts of en, the many thousand little arrangefor our comfort and enjoyment, that y tell of thoughtful and expectant the gentle ministrations that disenor us into an old easy seat before we are of it; these and like tokens of on and sympathy constitute the poetry reconciles us to the prose of life. of this, ye wives and daughters of ss-men! Think of the toils, the ies, the mortifications and wear that undergo to secure for von comfort omes, and then compensate them for rials by making them happy by their bably there never was a time when ttention was paid to improving the al condition and surroundings of men vomen than the present. Healthful on of the subject has obtained for the g people and for the middle classes of which, after all, constitute its very and sinew, better wages, more comhouses, larger opportunities for g, amusement and self-oulture But ians should keep constantly in mind ny improvement in a person's condihich leaves his character untquehed ts to very little. It is something for to be well clad, well fed and well paid s honest labor of hand or brain; but if cave him without any knowledge of his Father, of Christ as his Seviour in, and of the Holy Spirit as a senotipower, how much more is his life worth when weighed in the eternal es? Philanthropy is not the gospel, we believe most carnestly that the should be philanthropic. By all jet us have more homes for the not-edy, the unfortunate; but let us as DESERTED HOMES.

IMPROVEMENT IN CHARACTER.

I'd rather see an empty bough-A dreary, weary bough that hung As boughs will hang within whose arms No mated bird has ever sung: Far rather than to see and touch The sadness of an empty nest Where joy has been, but is not now: Where love has been, but is not blest. There is no cadness in the world. No other like it here or there The sadness of deserted homes In nests, or hearts, or anywhere. -Elizabeth Stuart Phelps.

THOUGHTS FOR THE THOUGHTFUL.

The good St. Francis of Assisi once sterped down into the cloisters of his monastery, and laying his hand on the shoulder of a young monk said, "Brother, let us go down into the venerable father and the young man. And they walked along upon their way conversing as they went. They wound their way down the principle streets, round the lowly alleys and lanes and even to the outskirts of the town, and to the village beyond, till they found themselves back at the monastery again. Then said the young monk. "Father, when shall we begin to preach?' And the father looked kindly down upon his son and said, "My child, we have been preaching; we were preaching while we were walking. We have been seen-looked at: our behavior has been remarked; and so we have delivered a morning sermon. Ah! my son, it is of no use that we walk anywhere to preach unless we preach as we walk."-Paxton Hood.

A GUILTY CONSCIENCE.

Late one night Dr. Elliott, being summoned to visit a sick person in a neighboring parish, went for his horse to his barn. which was at some distance from his parsonage. Just as he was about to enter he heard some one coming out, and he immediately concealed himself behind a large bush in the lane, hiding his lantern under his cloak. Presently the wide barn door swung open and a man appeared, bending under an immense load of hay, bound together by a rope. Through loops of this rope he had thrust his arms, and he carried the huge mass like a peddler's pack. The doctor suffered this theiring Atlas to pass him. Taking the candle from his lantern, he crept slowly forward and set fire to the hay, then again concealed himself. In a moment the moving haycock was one great crackling blaze, and the thief, with wild looking man, who, after much painful hesitation, expressed a desire to make a confession of sin. With a serious and sympathetic manner, yet with, I suspect, a sly twinkle; in his eye, the minister set himself to listen. "I've had a dreadful load on my conscience, doctor, for a considerable spell; and it does seem as if 'twould kill me. I'm nearly dead now."

"Ah! is it possible? What can you have seeming surprise.

"Yes; I jined the church thirty years ago," said the old farmer, then sinking his voice to an awesome, confidential tone, he continued, "But I'm a dreadful sinner for all that, doctor; and bein' a church member. my sin, you see, was of too much account to be winked at, and judgment followed close after it. O, dear. O!"

"Pray, tell me your trouble, brother." "Well, doctor, it concerns you."

over to your barn, and to-O, dear O!"

"Yes, doctor, jes sol But I never got home with that 'ere hay. The Lord wouldn't let me do it. I had a load on my back, and was carryin' it away, when all at once it burst into a blaze about my ears."

just made up my mind that fire dropped down from heaven and kindled that ere hay. Twas a judgment and a warnin, an I'm afeared a sort of forerunner of the flames of hell; I haint had no peace of mind since, nor felt like eatin' a good meal of vittals. At last I thought I might feel a little better if I'd jest own up to you, an' ask your pardon an' your prayers.' To the astonishment of the poor penitent, the minister laughed out right merrily. Then he said, "Be comforted, neighbor, your little thieving operation was hardly of such consequence to Heaven as all that; it was I who caught you at it, and set fire to the hay from my lantern, and I must say you yelled lustily and ran briskly for a man of your years. Why didn't you tell me you wanted hay? Now go home in peace, get well, and steal no more."

"You, doctor, be you sartin sure you sot fire to that 'ere bundle of hay?"

"Yes, quite sure; that was my own little bonfire. I hope it didn't scorch you much. 1 noticed when you came to the meeting next Sunday that your hair was a little singed. As for the flames of hell, neighbor, time to escape them yet!" "So, so, it was you did it all! The Lo that's your own lookout. I trust there is 665 berrels, of which 47,800 barrels went be praised!" exclaimed the old farmer fer- made 63,750 barrels that week. The market vently. "It raly is an amazin' relief; and if fairly firm, but rather dull. The two my old woman was right, for she save, go largest mills at Winons, Minn., are tempoto the minister and confess,' says she, 'and rarily isle, owing to high water in the Misthat'll lift the biggest heft of the sin off your sissippi. The Indiana State Convention was conscience, an' be better than doctor's stuff, held at Indianapolis, with a large attendance, says she. An' so you did it! Well, folks and decided to join the National Association. say you're a master man for a joke; but this The millers of the west central Illinois disere one was more solemn than a sermon to me, and more effectual, doctor, I do believe." So saying, the farmer departed in peace, and the parson kept the secret of his name, even in his own family.—Hamilton Advertiser.

HOW THE JEW'S HARP GREW.

A Jew's harp is not a harp at all. It bethe town and preach." So they went forth, which play by means of a reed; the simplest the value and efficiency of the phonograph. form a penny trumpet or a harmonicon, the grandest a church organ. Neither has the Jew's-harp referred to anything to do with Jews. Probably the correct name is jaw'sharp, since you hold it against the jaws or it was called in England Jew's trump, and in France jeu trompe, play trumpet. It is mistaken the French jeu for Jew, and so sort of handle for the left hand.

> It has come to be the opinion of educated people that things grow up very much as we do; and they speak of the infancy, youth, maturity, and decay of arts, machines, customs, fashions, or nations as though they were trees or men. They are right about this, and we shall never understand the Jew's-harp, for instance, until we are able to trace its "family tree." Probably the wind invented the Jew's-harp, blowing a blade of grass or some thin vegetable substance rapidly backward and forward through some crevice. The savage was not slow to hear and observe this, and making slit of his mouth was able to repeat the rude, nature-taught harp before musicians reached the lowest grade in our pictured stairway, on the lowest step of which stands a specimen from New Guinea, made of hard wood or bamboo. The negroes of our Jew's-harp of a strip of bamboo, cutting ting himself without help, and then ran as out the tongue in the shape of a cricket bat. perform operatic pieces with great effect.

Jew's-harp known. It is made of hard bamboo, and the odd thing about it is that the sides vibrate and the tongue stands still. done? You are a respectable man and a Suppose you were to make the sides of one phone is more pleasing than the metallic ring of the anvil.

the play-trump, but there have been distinguished musicians who played on this toy. he called the aura, and produced magical "Struck by lightning?" effects upon his audience, by playing upon "No, doctor, it was a clear night. I've the harps alternately.—May Wide Awake.

Moyular Science.

To secure the flap of an envelope so that it may not be readily opened without betraying the fact that it had been tampered with, has been the ambition of a good many inventors. An envelope constructed as follows is the subject of a recent English patent: The flap is so cut and shaped as to bring the point of it to the top right hand corner of the front side of the envelope, where the gummed surface of the flap secures it to the front of the en of the flap secures it to the front of the en of the flap secures at the fixed over velope. The postage stamp is then fixed over the flap so that the envelope cannot possibly be unfastened without destroying the stamp. -Scientific American.

THE FLOUR PRODUCT OF A WEEK .-- ACcording to the Northwestern Miller of May 11th, the Minneapolis mills made 168,600 barrels of flour that week, and shipped 163,abroad. The market is unsettled and dull, trict met at Springfield recently, and formed a strong district organization. Thirty leading firms were enrolled and signed an agreement to work in harmony.

THE PERFECTED PHONOGRAPH.—The improvements in the phonograph have now been carried to such a degree of perfection, that the instrument is practically ready for general introduction. Undoubtedly, means will longs to that class of musical instruments be hit upon from time to time to enhance but it stands to-day, in our opinion, far more practical and complete than was the typewriter when first brought out and placed on the market. Back of all the tall talk and teeth in playing. Many years ago, however, exaggeration on the subject, for which the daily press is chiefly responsible—certainly not those who are introducing it-is a manot improbable that the English may have chine of admirable performance, whose utility is so wide and various that it is hard to called it first Jew's trump and. afterwards determine just which work will give it the Jew's harp. The Hindoos play a very simi- largest fields of employment. And then, lar instrument called murchang, and you too, aside from the practical use, is the wonmay also see this style in Burma, Thibet, der-for wonder it is that not only can the and Southern China. The only difference human voice be registered, but it can be dubetween the Asiatic harp and the European, plicated in countless electrotypes. We may is that the former is longer and affords a be wrong, but not greatly, in believing that this century will be memorable above others because it is that which first preserved articulate speech for after time. All poetry, of every age, is full of the yearning, one of the deepest in human nature, for the voice whose gentle greeting could be heard no more, and yet this tender sentiment will be gratified. and each elusive tone and accent now has conferred on it a perpetuity that is not an attribute of even the graven stone or brass.-Electrical World.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR GUM ARABIC.—The high price of gum acacia has led Trojanowsky to seek for a substitute. This he believes may be found in the mucilage of flax-seed. Many improvements were made in this By boiling the seed with water and precipitating the strained decoction with twice its volume of alcohol, he obtained a substance which, after drying, consisted of opaque, yellowish brown, irregular fragments, some-Southern States make a similar one of corn- what brittle, but not easily reduced to powcries, was frantically flinging it from his stalk. The Ainos of Japan make their der, dissolving in water to a turbid mucilaginous solution. Of this five grains were sufthough pursued by fiends, over the snowy A small hole is bored near the base of the ficient to emulsionize an ounce of cod liver Some months after this there came to tongue, into which a slender thread of oil. The large quantity of alcohol required doctor's study a pale, thin, melancholy- sinew is knotted. To play this curious harp, for the precipitation, and the difficulty of you hold it against the lips and teeth, drying the adhesive product are, however, sebreathe through the slit and tighten or rious objections to this product. The author, loosen your sinew to produce different notes. I therefore, pursued his study of the subject The writer cannot play on one, although he further, and believes that he has satisfactohas often tried, but has heard a gentleman rily solved the problem. He still employs flax-seed as the source of the mucilage, but The Malays play the prettiest and softest by treatment with sulphuric acid he converts this into a gum more resembling acacia. He directs to boil one part of flax seed with eight of dilute sulphuric acid and eight parts of water until the mixture, which at first thickchurch member," replied the doctor, in of our harps very thin, and continue them ens, becomes quite fluid. The mixture is outward and join their ends, then should then strained through muslin," and to the cut off the bent-up part of the tongue; in strained fluid is added four times its volume this case you would have something like of strong alcohol. The precipitate is colthe Malay harp. The instrument of the lected on a filter, washed with alcohol, and third step very well represents the object. then dried. The alcohol, after neutralizing The sound is as much gentler than that of with chalk, may be recovered by distillation, an iron one, as the music of a wooden xylo- on it may be used for many purposes without distillation. The gum thus obtained is in the form of translucent, grayish-brown, brit-The French have named this instrument | the fragments, easily pulverized, and without odor or taste. Thirty grains of this gum will emulsionize an ounce of cod liver oil, and the "Yes. One time last winter I got a little. There was a soldier in Magdeburg, in 1785, product resembles exactly that made by the short of fodder, and I thought to myself as who had a national reputation for his feats use of acacia. Another substitute for acacia, how you had more'n enough for your critters, on the Jew's-harp. He would depict a made from starch, has been recently patented and so one night the devil tempted me to go funeral procession, with the tolling of bells, in Germany by Schumann. Two hundred introducing a popular dirge, at first heard parts of starch are boiled under a pressure of "And to help yourself to a little of my from a long distance, and then imitating a two to three atmospheres with 1,000 parts of singing choir as they approached and passed water and one part of sulphuric or nitric by. One Scheibler of Crefeld fixed twenty acid, until the mixture begins to be fluid.

Jew's harps of different pitch on a disc The acid is then neutralized, and the mixtwith the round ends toward the center so ure is again treated under a pressure of three that the tongues stuck out like rays. This to four atmospheres, until the starch is completely converted into gum-like substances. After filtering through animal charcoal, the solution is evaporated at a low temperature. The product is a transparent, colorless substance, which is non hydroscopic, and has essentially the same useful properties as gum arabic.—Pharm. Era. DATALOGUE OF

ALPRED CENTRE, N. Y.

AMERICAN BABBATH TRACT SOCIETY

THE SARRATE AND THE SURDAY. By Rev. A. H. Lewis, A. M., D. D. Part First, Argument. Part Second, History. 16mo. 268 pp. Fine Cloth, $1 25. This volume is an carnest and able presentation of the Sabbath question, argumentatively and historically. This edition of this work is aearly exhausted; but it has been revised by the author, and enlarged, and is published in

Vol. I.—Braidoal Tracerses Concentrate THE SARRATE AND THE SURDAY. Price, in fine muslin, 60 cents. Paper, 80 cents. 108 pages: First edition almost exhausted. Second edition is in three volumes, as follows:

process of publication.

VOLUME A CRISSOLL HUSSONS OF THE BANDAYS AND THE SUMMAY IN THE CRISSOLS CRUSSIC. Price, in music.

$1.25. Twenty-five per cent discount to clargemen. 185

Vol. III.—A CRITICAL HISTORY OF SUNDAY LEGISLATION; FROM A. D. 321 TO 1888. 12mo, cloth. Price, $1 35. Published by D. Apoleton & Co., New York.

THOUGHTS SUGGESTED BY THE PERUFAL OF GILFILLAR AND OTHER AUTHORS ON THE SARRATH. By the late Rev. Thou. B. Brown. Second Edition, 125 pp. Fine Cloth, 35 cents. Paper, 10 cents. This book is a careful review of the arguments in favor

f Sunday, and especially of the work of James Gilfillan, of Scotland, which has been widely circulated among the VINDICATION OF THE TRUE SABBATH, in 2 parts. Part First, Narrative of Recent Events. Part Second, Divine Appointment of the Seventh Day. By Rev. J. W. Morton formerly Missionary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. 66 pp. Paper, 5 cents.

The first edition is practically exhausted, but the second dition will be out soon.

THE ROYAL LAW CONTENDED FOR. By Edward Stennet. First printed in London, in 1658. 64 pp. Paper, 19 cents. of Bethany, Va. Repriated from the "Millennial Harbinger Extra." 50 pp. Price 5 cents.

Communication, on Lord's Supress. A Sermon delivered at Milton Junction, Wis., June 15, 1878. By Rev. N. Wardner, D. D. 20 pp. THE SARRATE QUESTION CONSIDERED. A review of a series of articles in the American Baptist Flag. By Rev. S. R. Wheeler, A. M. 33 pp. 7 cents

PASTOR'S LETTER TO AN ARSENT MEMBER, on the Abrogation of the Moral Law. By Rev. Nathan Wardner, D. 5 pp. 2 cents. SUNDAY: IS IT GOD'S SARBATH OR MAR'S! A letter addressed to Chicago Ministers. By Rev. E. Ronsyne. 13 pp.

THE BIBLE AND THE SABBATH, containing Scripture passages bearing on the Sabbath. Price, 2 cents; 50 or more copies at the rate of $1 50 per hundred. Religious Liberty Hadaugered by Legislative Enactments.

An Appeal for the Restoration of the Bible Sabbath

The Sabbath and its Lord. 28 pp.

The True Sabbath Embraced and Observed. 16 pp. The Bible Doctrine of the Weekly Sabbath. 20 np.

Torical Series.—By Rev. James Balley.—No. 1, My Holy Day, 25 pp.; No. 2, The Moral Law, 28 pp.; No. 3, The Sabbath under Christ, 16 pp.; No. 4, The Sabbath under the Apostles, 12 pp.; No. 5, Time of Commencing the Sabbath, 4 pp.; No. 6, The Sanctification of the Sabbath, 20 pp.; No. 7, The Day of the Sabbath, 24 pp.

Why Sunday is observed as the Sabbath. By C. D. Potter, M. D., 4 pp. Apostolio Example. By C. D. Potter, M. D., 4 pp,

The First vs. the Seventh Day. By Geo. W. McCready. 4 pp FOUR-PAGE SERIES.—By Rev. N. Wardner, D. D.—The Sabbath: A Seventh Day or The Seventh Day; Which?

The Lord's-day, or Christian Sabbath. Did Christ or his Apostles Change the Sabbath from the Seventh Day to the First Day of the Week?

Constantine and the Sunday. The New Testament Sabbath.

Did Christ Abolish the Sabbath of the Decalogue Are the Ten Commandments binding alike upon Jew and

Which Day of the Week did Christians Keep as the Sah bath during 300 years after Christ? GERMAN TRACTS,—The series by Dr. Wardner, as above also published in the German language.

SWEDISH TRACTS.—The True Sabbath Embraced and Observed. 16 pp. The Bible Doctrine of the Weekly Sabbath. 20 pp. A Biblical Mistory of the Sabbath, 24 pp.

The Reason why I do not keep Sunday; and, Why I keep the Seventh Day. 1 page each. Tracts are sent by mail postpaid at the rate of 800 pages for $1. Annual members of the Tract Society are criticled to tracts equal in value to one-half the amount of their antled to 1,000 pages annually. Sample packages will be sent, on application, to all who wish to investigate the subject. Address AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY, Alfred

OUR SABBATH VISITOR Is Published Weekly at ALFRED CERTRE, N. Y.

Ten Copies and upwards, per copy.......... 50 cents

All communications relating to business should be ad dressed to Our Sarrati Visitor.
All communications for the Editor should be addressed to MRS. L. T. STANTON, Aifred Centre N. Y.

TTELPING HAND

BIBLE SCHOOL WORK.

A 22-page quarterly, containing carefully prepared helps on the International Lessons. Conducted by L. A. Platts. Published at the Bucorden office. Price 25 cents a copy per year; 7 cents a quarter. Address all orders to the AMERICAL SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY, Alfred Centre, N. Y.

ערות לישראל.

("WITNESS TO ISRAEL.")

A SIXTEEN PAGE MONTHLY, In the Hebrew language, devoted to the Christianisation

Published by the AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SO-CIETY, Alfred Centre, N. Y. Cz. Tz. Lucky, Editor.

HE LIGHT OF HOME. AN EIGHT PAGE MONTHLY FOR THE FAMILY.

Published by the AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIE TY, Alfred Centre, N. Y.
A. H. LEWIS, D. D., Editor, Plainfield, N. J.
C. D. POTTER, M. D., Associate Editor, Adams Centre, N. Y.

CORRESPONDENCE. Business letters should be addressed to the publishers.
Communications regarding literary matter should be addressed to the Editor

UTLOOK AND SABBATH QUARTERLY.

A THIRTY-TWO PAGE RELIGIOUS QUARTERLY.

Published by the AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY, Alfred Centre, N. Y. A. H. LEWIS, D. D., Editor, Plainfield, N. J. C. D. Potter, M. D., Associate Editor, Adams Centre, N. Y.

Business letters should be addressed to the publishers. as above.

Communications regarding literary matter should be addressed to the Editor, as above.

> A NEW MAP OF THE

CITY OF ST. ANDREWS BAY.

First edition just published, showing about four miles of coastline from Dyer's Point, taking in the old town sits of St. Andrews, showing the location of every public buiness place, and private residences, docks, etc. Every lot in each block and the adjoining addition to the Company's lands, with a full description of the place. The size of the map is 30x50 inches. Limited number now for sale at $1.50 each.

ELIAS ATERS, Puzzassas. ST. ANDREWS BAY, Washington Co., Fla

BOODSOLAPPER, A SIXTEEN-PAGE RELIGIOUS MONTHLY

HOLLAND LANGUAGE.

HAARLEN, HOLLAND

G. VELTHUYSEN. DE BOODSCHAFFER (The Messenger) is an able exponent of the Bible Sabbath (the Seventh-day), Baptism, Temperance, etc., and is an excellent paper to place in the hands of Hol-landers in this country, to call their attention to these im-

TAVANGELII HAROLD A FOUR-PAGE RELIGIOUS MONTHLY

SWEDES OF AMERICA.

Fublished by the AMERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIB-

Subscriptions to the paper, and contributions to the fund for its publication, are solicited.

Persons having the names and addresses of Sweden who do not take this paper will please send them to this of fice, that sample copies may be furnished.

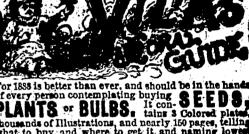

COLORADO SHORT LINE

Colorado and Utah. Very Low Round Trip Rates via. this "FAST MAIL ROUTE," thousands of Illustrations, and nearly 160 pages, telling what to buy, and where to get it, and naming lowest prices for honest goods. Price of GUIDE only 10 cents, including a Certificate good for 10 cents worth of Seeds.

JAMES VICK. SEEDSMAN,

Bechester, N. Y.

tended to for MODERATE FEES Our office in opposite the U.S. Patent Office, and we can ob 1810. tain Patents in less time than those remote from WASHINGTON. Send MODEL, DRAWING or ability free of charge and we make NO CHARGE UNLESS PATENT IS SECURED.
For circular, advice, terms and references to actual chebia in your own State. County, City or

Opposite Palent Office, Washington, D &

THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE

ITS SCOPE.—THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE gives preference to national topics and scenes, and its literature and art are of the highest standard. Famous American writers fill its pages with a wise variety of interesting sketches of travel and advent-ure, serial and short stories, descriptive accounts of our famous countrymen and women, brief essays on the feremost problems of the period, and, in short, this Magazine is Beautifully illustrated. 25 cts.,$3 a Year.

Distinctively Representative of American Thought and Progress-It is acknowledged by the press and public to be the most popular and entertaining of the high-class monthlies.

IMPORTANT. A Specime Illustrated Premium List, and Special In-ducements in Cash or Valuable Premiums to Club Raisers, will be sent on re 15c., if this paper is mentioned.

13 Responsible and energetic persons wanted to sollets subscriptions. Write at once for exclusive territory,

THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE CO. 749 Broadway, New Yorks

The advantages of such a notice every patentee understands.

This large and splendidly illustrated newspaper is published WEREKLY at $2.00 a year, and is admitted to be the best paper devoted to seisme, mechanics, inventions, engineering works, and ether departments of industrial progress, published in any country. It contains the names of all patentees and title of every invention patentee seem week. Try it four months for one delice. If you have an invention to patent write to Mann & Co., publishers of Scientific American. Handbook about patents maded from

"Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life; and they are they which testify of INTERNATIONAL LESSONS, 1888.

SECOND QUARTER.

March 31. The Marriage Feast. Matt. 22. 1-14. April 7. Christ's Last Warning. Matt. 23: 27-39. April 14. Christian Watchfulness. Matt. 24: 42-51. April 21. The Ten Virgins. Matt. 25: 1-13. April 28. The Talents. Matt. 25:14-80. May 5. The Judgment. Matt. 25: 31-46. May 12. The Lord's Supper. Matt. 26: 17-80. May 19. Jesus in Gethsemane. Matt. 26: 36-46. May 26. Peter's Denial. Matt. 26: 67-75. June 2. Jesus Crucified. Mait. 27: 88-50.

June 9. Jesus Ris n. Matt. 28: 1-15. June 16. The Great Commission. Matt. 28: 16-20. June 23. Review Service.

LESSON XII.--THE GREAT COMMISSION.

BY REV. THOMAS R. WILLIAMS, D. D.

For Sabbath day, June 16, 1888.

SCRIPTURE LESSON .-- MATTHEW 28: 16-20

16. Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

17. And when they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted.

18. And Jesus came, and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

30. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

GOLDEN TEXT .- The Lord gave the Word great was the company of those that published it. Psa. 68: 11.

PLACE.—On a mountain in Galilee. TIME.-A. D. 80, after April 16th, and before

PARALLEL ACCOUNTS .- Mark 16: 15-20, Luke 24: 36-53, John 21: 1-24, Acts. 1: 8-11, 1 Cor. 15: 6.

BIBLE READINGS.

Sunday.—Exercising sovereignity. Matt. 28: 16-20. Monday.—Sovereignity exercised. Mark 16: 14-20. Tuesday.—Sovereignity appointed. Psa. 2: 1-12. Wednesday.—Sovereignity recognized. Heb. 1: 1-14.

Thursday.—Sovereignity resisted. Matt. 21:88-46. Friday.—Sovereignity over all. Matt. 25: 31-46. Sabbath.—Sovereignity confessed. Phil. 2: 1-11.

OUTLINE.

I. The meeting with his disciples. v. 16. 17. . II. The power and authority of the risen Saviour. v. 18.

III. The great commission. v. 91, 20.

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

V. 16. Then the eleven disciples went away into lies into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. After the resurrection, our Lord, according worse records, appeared unto his disciples under varying circumstances several times during the space of forty days. He gave notice to his dis- active business life, through ill-health. The immeciples to meet him in Galilee. It would seem that this notice came to each of them, and that they all accepted the invitation and met Jesus at the place appointed. Some writers have supposed that this place was on the some mountain where he had before delivered the sermon recorded in Matt. 5-7.

V. 17. And when they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. This indicates that the disciples recognized the risen Lord, and clearly professed their recognition by this formal mode of worshiping him. The doubt spoken of in this verse probably refers to the question in some of their minds as to how they should worship him, whether as formally or in some more devotional way, on account of the fact of his now appearing to them in his resurrected body.

V. 18. And Jesus came, and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. This statement of the Lord had reference to the doubt, and was designed to dispell any question that might be in their minds relative to his present state as compared with his former condition; his present body as compared with his body before the crucifixion. He seems to affirm here that he is no longer in the condition of suffering and sacrifice, no longer in the power of his enemies, but his atoning work is now completed. He is now invested with all power and authority, both in heaven and ir

V. 19. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, beptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. In this expression, "go ye therefore," he basis his command for its authority on Bliss, aged 1 month and 16 days. One less on earth, the ground that all power is given unto him; there one more in heaven. is no authority above him; his power and authority is infinite. "Teach all nations." This is a positive theria, STELLA, oldest daughter of Elias A. and command; it is not limited, it is not conditioned, but it has the precedence of all other obligations that can possibly rest upon the discipleship of Christ. "Baptizing them," etc. This indicates that they are not only to teach, but they are to require a separation of the discipleship from the world who refused to be taught or to accept Christ. Bap appear in the Sabbath Visitor. tizing or being baptized is a marked expression of belief in the death and resurrection of Christ; an expression of personal identity of life and character with Christ, as far as that can be expressed by an

V. 20. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. The teaching which they are commanded to do is not to be discontinued after a single proclamation, but it is to be continuous a life work constantly bringing to mankind the exhaustless words and prrcepts of the Lord. They may not have their full effect at first, they must be repeated, illustrated, and repeated again and again, until the very spirit of his com mands shall take possession of the hearts of the children of men. The promise given here: ... "I am with you unto the end of the world," is a promise of great significance. It is the promise of one to whom the committee in their Association? all power is given in heaven and in earth; it is a promise given to the disciples who are to go forth on this great mission to the lost world; it is a promise of the personal presence of this infinite Son of God with his disciples in all the coming ages of their sion, to convene at Little Genesee, June 14: 1888. service, and in every condition of that service. Though they may be utter weakness, infinite power shall be with them in the personal presence of him to whom all power is given.

MARRIED.

In Cuyler, N. Y., May 24, 1888, by Rev. L. R. Swinney, Mr. FRANK W. GLENN, of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, and Miss MATIE A. Jones, of Cuyler.

DIED.

In Alfred Centre, N. Y., May 31, 1888, after a very brief illness, EDDIE E. SHERMAN, aged 23 years, 4 months and 18 days. He leaves his young wife, his father and mother, and two sisters to mourn their loss. His funeral was attended at the home of his father by a very large assembly of sympathizing friends. The services were conducted by the pastor of the church, assisted by the former pastor, W. C.

Mrs. Eunice Crandall Stillman, daughter of Saunders Crandall, was born in the town of Brook field, N. Y., Oct. 23, 1825, and died at her home near West Edmeston, May 17, 1888. In early years she found the Saviour, and was baptized by the Rev. Samuel B. Crandall, and united with the Seventh-day Baptist Church at West Edmeston, then known as the Third Brookfield Church. On her eighteenth birthday she was united in matrimony to Dea. Ransom T. Stillman, with whom she has lived happily for the past forty-four years. Two sons and two daughters have grown up to them during this time. For many years the subject of this sketch had been afflicted with that dread scourge, consumption. At times she was a great sufferer from it, but through it all she passed uncomplainingly. Friends and neighbors as well as relatives have viewed the beauty of her life and feel a loss in her death. Her funeral service was held Sunday, May 20th, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and

We mourn for the loss that now we shall feel, But we joy for her gain, we are glad for her weal. For we know by the proof that we have from God's Word. Our sister is blessed, for she died "in the Lord."

In Salem, N. J., at the home of a sister, Miss Lizzie L. Schaible, of Marlboro, May 18, 1888. in the 24th year of her age. The funeral took place on First day afternoon, May 20th, at Marlboro. The services were conducted by Rev. J. C. Bowen. Text, Cor. 15: 57. "But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." The funeral was probably the largest held in this section of country for a long time, showing the high esteem in which she was held. She professed Christ when quite young, and was ready for every good work. She was a teacher in the Sabbath school, and a faithful member of the choir, in which she took deep interest. Having received at Union Academy a good education, she chose teaching for her work, in which she was very successful. Amid many tears she was laid quietly to rest near the close of that beautiful afternoon. We trust that our loss is her eternal gain.

ALBERT F. RANDOLPH was born in Plainfield, N. .. August 1, 1828. He passed to the heavenly rest service, and also in active service in the infantry received baptism at the hands of Rev. D. E. Maxson, D. D., in 1872, and united with the Seventh day Baptist Church at Plainfield, of which he remained a member until called to the church above. Since the autumn of 1883, he had been withdrawn from diate cause of his death was accute heart disease. Brother Randolph was a man of great earnestness in everything he undertook. He was an enthusiastic patriot, a man of large charity in all respects, and one who was abundantly helpful, wherever and whenever it was possible for him to aid others. Added to the comfort which comes to those who mourn not as those without hope," there is cause for increased thankfulness that to a life burdened with disease, and broken by physical weakness, the Father granteth rest and "giveth his beloved sleep."

GILBERT STANTON, son of Des. Daniel and Sarah Franklin Stanton, was born in Charleston, R. I., Dec. 30, 1800, and died in Newport, May 8, 1888. He was the last one of a family of twelve children. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Charles Saunders and Mrs. Wm. M. Brownell, of New York City; also eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. He was very patient and appeared like one watching and waiting for his change to come. He never united with any church, but always held the Friends in high esteem. His funeral was attended by Eld. Jacob, pastor of the Friends Church in Newport, Text, Isaiah 5: 15. "But I am the Lord thy God. that divided the sea, whose waves roared. The Lord of hosts is his name."

In the town of Hopkinton, R. I., May 19, 1888, MABY E. LANGWORTHY, wife of J. Courtland Lang worthy, in the 47th year of her age. Mrs. Langworthy was a member of the Second Hopkinton Church, and had striven to keep her covenant rela tions by an exemplary life. She had a kind and tender heart, and was a good neighbor and faithful wite and mother. She died leaving behind her the clearest evidence that she desired the salvation of others, especially her family, and that she had an abiding trust in the promises of God. L. F. R.

At Milton, Wis., May 9, 1888, of pneumonia WHITFORD BLISS, infant son of E. D. and Maggie

At Dodge Centre, Minn., April 30, 1888. of diph-E. J. Sanford, aged 11 years, 10 months and 11 days. Stells was a good girl, a faithful member of the Sabbath school, a good scholar in the public school, and gave promise of usefulness in life. Her sickness was short and her death very unexpected. The parents and family are in deep sorrow because of this severe affliction. The Sabbath school passed resolutions and sympathy of respect which are to

In Newton, Kansas, May 18, of lung fever, Har-old Edward, only child of Albert C. and Louie H. Whitford, aged two years and two months. "Suf fer the little children to come unto me.'

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE WOMAN'S EXECUTIVE BOARD having decided to undertake the work of providing a missionary outfit for Bro. Randolph's family preparatory to their departure for China, have appointed the following committee to arrange for carrying out Eastern Association—Mrs. I. L. Cottrell. Central Association-Mrs. L. R. Swinney. South Eastern Association-Mrs. J. L. Huffman. North Western Association-Mrs. E. M. Dunn. Western Association-Mrs. C. M. Lewis.

Will all benevolent societies, and individuals desirous of helping in this good work, please report to

MRS. C. M. LEWIS, Chairman of Committee

AT a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Western Association, held May 9th, the following programme was arranged for the coming ses-

FIFTH-DAY. Morning Session,

10 o, clock, Introductory Sermon, H. D. Clarke; call to order by the Moderator; report of the Executive Committee, and notices. Afternoon Session.

2. Devotional exercises. 2.15. Communications from churches and corresponding bodies; annual reports; reports of delegates: miscellaneous business.

Evening Session.

7.45. Devotionals. 8. Sermon, by J. T. Davis, delegate from the North-Western Association.

SIXTH-DAY. Morning Session.

9.15. Devotionals. 9.80. Reports of committees; miscellaneous busi-

10.30. Essay, "The Relation of Original Sin to Personal Transgression," G. W. Burdick. Afternoon Session.

2. Devotionals. 2.15. Report of committees; unfinished business. 2.45. Essay, "The work of the Minister as preacher and pastor," D. E. Maxson; followed by the Ed ucation Society's Hour.

Knening Session. 7.45. Prayer and conference meeting, conducted by L. C. Rogers.

SABBATH-DAY.

Morning Session. 10.30. Sermon by the delegate from the Eastern Association, followed by joint collection for Missionary and Tract Societies.

Afternoon Session.

2.80. Sabbath-school, conducted by the Superin tendent of the Sabbath-school of the First Genesce Church.

Beening Seeson.

7.45. Woman's Work. 8.15. Sermon by the delegate from the South-Eastern Association.

Morning Bession.

9.15. Devotionals. 9.30. Roll call of delegates; miscellaneous busi-

10. American Sabbath Tract Society's Hour. 11. Sermon by the delegate from the Central Association, followed by a joint collection for Missionary and Tract Societies.

Afternoon Bession.

2. Miscellaneous business. 8. Seventh day Baptist Missionary Society's Hour. Evening Session.

7.45. Sermon, by G. H. F. Randelph, followed by closing conference. D. R. STILLMAN, Moderator.

G. W. LEWIS, Secretary.

PERSONS desiring conveyance from the railroad to the Central Association, to be held with the from Morris Plains, N. J., May 25, 1888. He traveled | First Verona Seventh-day Baptist Church, June, 7much during the earlier years of life, both by sea and 10, 1888, will find teams in readiness to convey them land. He was for a time in the United States naval from Green's Corners depot, on Fourth day, June 6, 1888, from the morning and afternoon trains, during the late civil war. At the close of the war he settled in Plainfield, the place of his birth. He which are due as follows: Going east; 8.48, A. M., 8.87 and 6.24 P. M.; going west, 8.18 and 11.87, A. M., and 3.07, and 7.02 P. M. All persons desiring conveyance at other times will be met by writing to H. W. Palmiter, E. S. Bennett, or J. F. Stilson. J. F. STILSON, Chairman Com.

> COMMENCEMENT WEEK.—The following is the order of exercises at Milton College, for Commencement Week, June 21-27, 1888:

GREENWAY, N. Y.

1. Thursday, June 21st, Field-day Exercises. 2. Friday evening, June 22d. 6 o'clock, Annual Sermon before the Christian Association.

8. Seventh-day and Monday evenings, June 23d and 25th. Public Sessions of the Literary Societies. 4. Sunday evening. June 24th, Baccalaureate Sermon, by Pres. Whitford.

5. Tuesday afternoon, June 26th, 2 o'clock, Midday Concert, under the direction of Dr. J. M. Still 6. Tuesday evening, Annual Address before the Literary Societies. 7. Wednesday morning. June 27th. at 10 o'clock. Commencement Exercises. 8. Wednesday afternoon, at 8 o'clock, Annual Meeting of the Alumni Association. Address by Prof. A. R. Crandall, of the Kentucky University, Lexington, Ky. 9. Wednesday evening, Senior Concert, by Hugo Tuerpe, the celebrated corneter, assisted by Emma Von Elson, of Chicago. Person attending the Commencement Exercises, in paying full fare in coming to Milton on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and the Chicago and North Western Railways, will return for one-third fare, provided they procure receipts from the agents of whom they purchased tickets when coming. Other roads will doubtles grant the same favor. MILTON, Wis., May 81, 1888. THE New York Seventh-day Baptist Church holds regular Sabbath services in Room No. 3, Y M. C. A. Building, corner 4th Avenue and 23d St.

entrance on 28d St. (Take elevator.) Meeting for Bible study at 10.30 A. M., followed by the regular preaching services. Strangers are cordially welcomed, and any friends in the city over the Sabbath are especially invited to attend the service. PLEDGE CARDS and printed envelopes for all who will use them in making systematic contributions to either the Tract Society or Missionary Society, or both, will be furnished, free of charge, or application to the SARBATH RECORDER, Alfred Centre, N. Y. THE Hornellsville Seventh day Baptist Church holds regular services in the Hall of the Royal Templars, over the Boston Store (Nast Brothers) entrance between the Boston Store and that of M. A. Tuttle, on Main Street, every Sabbath, at 10.30 o'clock A. M. The Sabbath school follows the preaching service. Sabbath-keepers spending the L. E. LIVERMORE, President, Alfred Centre, N. Y. Sabbath in Hornellsville are especially invited to attend. All strangers will be most cordially wel-

AGENTS WANTED in each Association to se Dr. A. H. Lewis's new book; "A Critical History of Sunday Legislation, from A. D. 831 to 1888." Saunders, Ag't, Alfred Centre, M. Y.

BEQUESTS TO TRACT SOCIETY.

The generous purpose of some persons to aid in the work of this Society, by gifts of money or other property, after their death, is sometimes defeated by some technical defect in the instrument by which the gift is intended to be made. It is necessary for this purpose that both the Society and the property, if other than cash, shall be accurately described. A will made in the state of New York less than sixty days before the death of the testator is void as to societies formed under New York laws For the convenience of any who may desire a form for this purpose, the following is suggested:

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give, devise and bequeath to the American Sabbath Tract Society, a body corporate and politic under the general laws of the state of New York, the sum of......dollars, (or the following described property to wit.... to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Society, and under its direction and control forever.

Invine Saunders expects to be at his Friendship studio from June 6th to 11th, inclusive.

SUMMER TOURS.

Round-trip excursion tickets at low rates are now on sale via the Burlington Route, C. B. & Q. R. R., from Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis to Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Salt Lake City, Ogden, St. Paul, Minneapolis, and resorts West and Northwest. The "Burlington" is the only line running sleeping cars from Chicago to Denver without change. It is the only line by which you can go from Chicago to Denver and be but one night on the road. It is the picturesque line to St. Paul and Minneapolis. It runs daily "fast trains" to Kansas City, St. Joseph, Atchison, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Cheyenne and Denver. Fine government lands are located on its new lines in Nebrasks. It is the best line by which to reach all principal land points in the West and Northwest. Tickets etc the Burlington route can be obtained of coupon ticket agens of connecting lines. Send in postage to Paul Morton, Gen'l Pass, and Ticket Agent C., B. & Q. R. R. Chicago, Ill., four cents for a copy of the Burlington Route Guide, or six cents for an illustrated book about Colorado and the Garden of the Gods.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity. strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St. New York.

Business Directory.

135 It is desired to make this as complete a directory as possible, so that it may become a DERONINATIONAL DIREC-TORY. Price of Cards (8 lines), per annum, $3.

Alfred Centre, N. Y.

LFRED UNIVERSITY, ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y. Equal privileges for Gentlemen and Ladies. COMMENCEMENT. Thursday, June 28, 1888. REV. J. ALLEN, D. D., LL.D., Ph. D., PRESIDENT.

TYNIVERSITY BANK, ALFRED CENTRE, N. Y.

E. S. Bliss, President, WILL. H. CRANDALL, Vice President, E. E. HAMILTON, Cashier.

This Institution offers to the public absolute security, is prepared to do a general banking business, and invites accounts from all desiring such accommo dations. New York correspondent, Importers and Traders National Bank.

W. COON, D. D. S., ALFRED CENTRE, DENTIST. OFFICE HOURS.-9 A. M. to 12 M.; 1 to 4 P. M. CILAS C. BURDICK, Books, Stationery, Drugs, Groceries, etc. Canned MAPLE SYRUP a Specialty. A. SHAW, JEWELER,

A. AND DRALER IN WATCHES, SILVER WARE, JEWELRY, &c. BURDICK AND GREEN, Manufacturers of Tinware, and Dealers in Stoves, Agricultural Implements, and Hardware. HERBERT ROGERS, PRACTICAL MACHINIST Models and Experimental Machinery.

Alfred Centre, N. Y.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT, ALFRED UNIVER-SITY. A thorough Business Course for Ladies and Gentlemen. For circular, address T. M. DAVIS

SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST EDUCATION SO WM. C. WHITFORD, Corresponding Secretary, Mil ton, Wis. W. C. TITSWORTH, Recording Secretary, Alfred

Centre, N. Y. W. C. BURDICK freasurer, Alfred Centre, N. Y. CABBATH-SCHOOL BOARD OF GENERAL

CONFERENCE. H. C. Coon, President, Alfred Centre, N. Y. Terms to agents will be given, on laquiry, by E. P. T. R. WILLIAMS, Cor. Sec., Alfred Centre, N. Y.

TTHE ALFRED SUN, Published at Alfred Cen. tre, Allegany County, N. Y. Devoted to Uni. versity and local news. Terms: $1 per year.

Alfred, N. Y.

C. BURDICK WATOHMAKER and ENGRAVER AUBORA WATCHES A SPECIALTY.

Andover, N. Y.

B. WOODARD, DENTIST, IS MAKING A. Rubber Plates by a new process. His own invention. The best thing out. Send for circular, Berlin, N. Y.

R. GREEN & SON. DEALERS IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE Drugs and Paints.

New York City.

THE BABCOCK & WILCOX CO. Patent Water-tube Steam Boilers. 80 Cortlandt 8 GRO. H. BABCOUK, Pres.

M. TITS WORTH, MANUFACTURER OF R. FINE CLOTHING. Ouston Work a Special, 300 Canal St. A. L. TITSWORTH. POTTER, JR. & CO.

PRINTING PRESSES. 12 & 14 Spruce St. C. POTTER, JR., H. W. FISH. JOS. M. TITSWORTS

Leonardsville, N. Y.

A RMSTRONG HEATER, LIME EXTRACTOR, AM CONDENSER for Steam Engines. ARMSTRONG HEATER Co., Leonardsville, N. Y.

Plainsield, N. J.

MERICAN SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY EXECUTIVE BOARD. C. POTTER, Pres., J. F. HUBBARD, Treas D. E. TITSWOTHH, Sec., G. H. BABOOCK, Cor. Sec. Plainfield, N. J. Plainfield, N. J. Regular meeting of the Board, at Plainfield N . the second First-day of each month, at $ P. K

FINHE SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST MEMORIAL BOARD. CHAS. POTTER. President, Plainfield, N. J., E. R. POPE, Treasurer, Plainfield, N. J. J. F. HUBBARD, Secretary, Plainfield, N. J. Gifts for all Denominational Interests solicited Prompt payment of all obligations requested.

DOTTER PRESS WORKS. Builders of Printing Presses. C. POTTER, JR., & Co., - - Proprietors M. STILLMAN.

ATTORNEY AT LAW. Supreme Court Commissioner, etc.

Westerly, R. I. L. BARBOUR & CO., DRUGGISTS AND PHARMACISTS. No. 1, Bridge Block.

N. DENISON & CO., JEWELERS. RELIABLE GOODS AT FAIR PRICES Finest Repairing Solicited. Please try w

F STILLMAN & SON. MANUFACTURERS OF STILLMAN'S AXLE OIL The only axis oil made which is ENTIRELY FREE from gumming substances.

THE SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST MISSION ARY SOCIETY GEORGE GREENMAN, President, Mystic Bridge, Ct. O. U. WHITFORD, Recording Secretary, Westerly A. E. MAIN, Corresponding Secretary, Ashaway, R.I.

ALBERT L. CHESTER, Treasurer, Westerly, R. 1. Chicago, Ill.

ORDWAY & CO.,
MERCHANT TAILORS 205 West Madison St.

C. B. COTTRELL & SONS, CYLINDER PRINTING
PRESSER for Hand and Stone D Factory at Westerly, R. I. 112 Monroe St

Milton, Wis.

M. GREEN, DEALER IN Lumber, Sash. Doors, Blinds, Salt, Cement, Coal and Building Material. MILTON COLLEGE, Milton, Wis.

The Spring Term opens March 14, 1888. REV. W. C. WHITFORD, D. D., President. P. CLARKE.

REGISTERED PHARMACIST,

Post-Office Building, WOMAN'S EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

President, Mrs. S. J. Clarke, Milton, Wis. Scoretary, Miss Mary F. Bailey, " Treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Ingham, " Sceretary, Eastern Association, Mrs. O. U. Whitford, Westerly, R. I. South-Eastern Association, Mrs. J. L. Huffman, Lost Creek, W. Va. Central Association, Mrs. P. R. Burdick, Lincklaen, N. Y.

Western Association. Mrs. E. T. Platts, Alfred Centre, N. Y. North Western Association, Mrs. Eliza Babcock, Albion, Wis.

Milton Innetion, Wis.

T. ROGERS, Notary Public, Conveyancer, and Town Clerk. Office at residence, Milton Junction, Wis. The Sabbath Recorder,

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

AMERICAN BABBATH TRACT SOCIETY.

ALFRED CENTRE, ALLEGANY CO., N. Y. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Papers to foreign countries will be charged 50 cents ad No paper discontinued until arrearages are paid, except ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT.

Transient advertisements will be inserted for 75 cents an inch for the first insertion; subsequent insertions in succession, 30 cents per inch. Special contracts made with parties advertising extensively, or for long terms.

Legal advertisements inserted at legal rates.

Yearly advertisements have their advertisements changed quarterly without extra charge.

No advertisements of objectionable character will be admitted.

JOB PRINTING. The office is furnished with a supply of jobbing material, and more will be added as the business may demand, so that all work in that line can be executed with neatness and dispatch.

All communications, whether on business or for publications, should be addressed to "THE SARBAYH RECORDED Alford Courte, Allegany Co., E. T."

PUBLISHED BY THE AMERICAN

VOL. XLIV.-NO. 24.

Entered as second-class mail ma

fice at Alfred Centre, N. Y.

CONTENTS.

MISSIONS.

Paragraphs...
News From the Upper Congo..... WOMAN'S WORK.

Paragraphs...
The Mite-Box.
Extracts from Dr. Swinney's Letter....
Friends' Missions... SARBATH REFORM.

Memorial..... EDUCATION.

Idea of Number in Animals..... Clippings....

TEMPERANCE. Dicks Signature EDITORIALS. Editorial Paragraphs.... South-Eastern Association—Continued...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Illinois State Sunday-School Convention. HOME NEWS. Independence, N. Y..... CONDENSED NEWS..... MISCELLANY.

Tell Me Less or More.—Poetry...... Among the Mountains.....
Let the Boys be Boys....

Christ in the Home..... POPULAR SCIENCE CATALOGUE OF PUBLICATIONS, ET THE SARBATH-SCHOOL.... SPECIAL NOTICES..... BUSINESS DIRECTORY.....

CHRIST OUR GUID!

BY REV. NORMAN PL "Lo. I am with you al Blest Saviour, near to T Who art so dear to me, Gladly I tread; I love to walk beside

So kind and true a Guid For ne'er can ill betide Those by Thee led. Lead me where Thou w Thy hungering flock to Gladly I'll haste;

I would not idle be While still, afar from T I can one wanderer see On earth's drear wast Send me where Thou v

To foe or loving friend Gladly I'll go; No harm have I to fear Since Thou art ever ner Thy smile my way shall Life's journey through

GLIMPSES OF EUROPE .-BY PROF. H. M. MA

Well, here we are in Par night ride in a sleeper. The ing-car is not palatial, the charged for berths seems to that basis. The cars are of ment plan, but like the Swis partments open into a passa length of one side of the but three compartments, an four fairly comfortable bert is exasperatingly deliberate ready for use, and in putti the morning, the passenger while to stand up in the porter began his preparation hour, but when half throu from the car entirely for ha ters of an hour. As our c in the end that he had not appearance had, in our wear of an anxiously awaited bles

We arrived here Sunday eight o'clock. The usua farce was enacted last eve place not far from Geneva, bags were brought out and day, at the depot in Paris, examined, but the officer ac ment that we had neither t and did not require ther Our ride to the Hotel St. us by the "July Column," Ville (city hall) and up the a fine new street, construct off the grand Opera House

They have a custom at 14 very convenient for the u er. As you leave the train you a slip with a number o bes, and as you pass out driver of that number t This, the officer inquires