

Miscellaneous.

From 'Sartin's Magazine.' The Rabbit on the Wall.

BY CATHERINE ALLAN.

The cottage work is over. The evening meal is done. Hark! through the stillness...

He smilingly assenting. They gather round his chair. "Now, grandma, you hold Johnny..."

The children about with laughter. The uproar louder grows. E'en grandma chuckles faintly...

Ah! who does not remember. When humble sports like these. Than many a costlier pastime...

John Charles Fremont.

BORN IN SOUTH CAROLINA, JAN. A. D. 1813.

The feet of three men have pressed the slopes of the Rocky Mountains, whose names are associated for ever with those vast ranges...

ed justice, not mercy, and he returned his commission. His defense was worthy of a man of honor, genius, and learning.

He was now a private citizen, and a poor man. Charleston offered him a lucrative office, which he refused.

The men of California reversed the judgment of the court-martial; and Fremont was made the first Senator of the Golden State.

His name is identified for ever with some of the proudest and most grateful passages in American history.

Our readers have already been apprised that the missing Sir John Franklin, has been fitted out by the munificence of Mr. Grinnell.

He was the first man to descend into the great crater of the Tael, lowered down two hundred feet over the brink by a bamboo rope tied round his middle.

Next, to Upper Egypt and Abyssinia, crossing the desert on his camel to the basis of Jupiter Ammon, climbing at break-neck risk to the topstone of sounding Colossus of Memnon.

trip to St. Peters River. The steamer Anthony Wayne returned night before last from another voyage to the wild waters of the Upper Mississippi.

Tunnelling the Alps. The Sardinian Government is devising means for introducing a railway communication with France and Northern Europe.

Remarkable Phenomenon. We are indebted to Mr. John Spalding for the following interesting particulars of a singular phenomenon that took place at Two Heart River.

On the Use of Mules. 1. Mules, on a general average, live more than twice as long as horses.

2. Mules are never exposed to diseases as horses are. Immense sums of money are annually lost in the premature death of high-spirited horses by accident as well as disease.

3. Mules have organs of vision and hearing far superior to the horse. Hence they seldom shear, and frighten, and run off.

4. The mule is much more hardy than the horse. A pair of these animals, owned by a neighbor of mine, although small in size, will plough more land in a week than four horses.

5. Another very important fact is, that in the matter of food, a mule will live and thrive on less than one half it takes to keep a horse.

averment. Here the crowd interfered, and a constable coming up, both parties, Hippolite and his would-be abductor, were lodged in prison.

CHARLATANISM.—Dr. F., as soon as he arrived in a city where he was not known, began loudly to lament the loss of his dog.

WATERING TREES.—In very dry seasons it is often important to water newly transplanted trees; but the common mode is very objectionable.

IMPORTANT INVENTION IN WEAVING.—The Norwich (Eng.) Mercury states that Mr. Richard Shaw, son of a prominent manufacturer in Norwich, has succeeded in accomplishing an invention.

SELF-GOVERNMENT.—In a discourse before the College of France, on the Constitution of the United States, Professor Laboulaye draws this contrast:—

IN THE UNITED STATES, self-government means the right of each man to govern himself; in France, the pretension of every man to govern others, or all the world.

RUSSIA AND ITS EMPEROR. This year, it is said, the Emperor Nicholas will either resign the crown or perish.

KIDNAPPING A WHITE MAN. Our usually quiet little ves a vis, Agiers, was quite stirred up by a curious affair which occurred on Saturday last.

THE MECHANICAL LABOR ON A NEWSPAPER. Few persons have any idea of the vast amount of mechanical labor, independent of the mental exertion, which is required in the production of a newspaper.
